

Blueberry

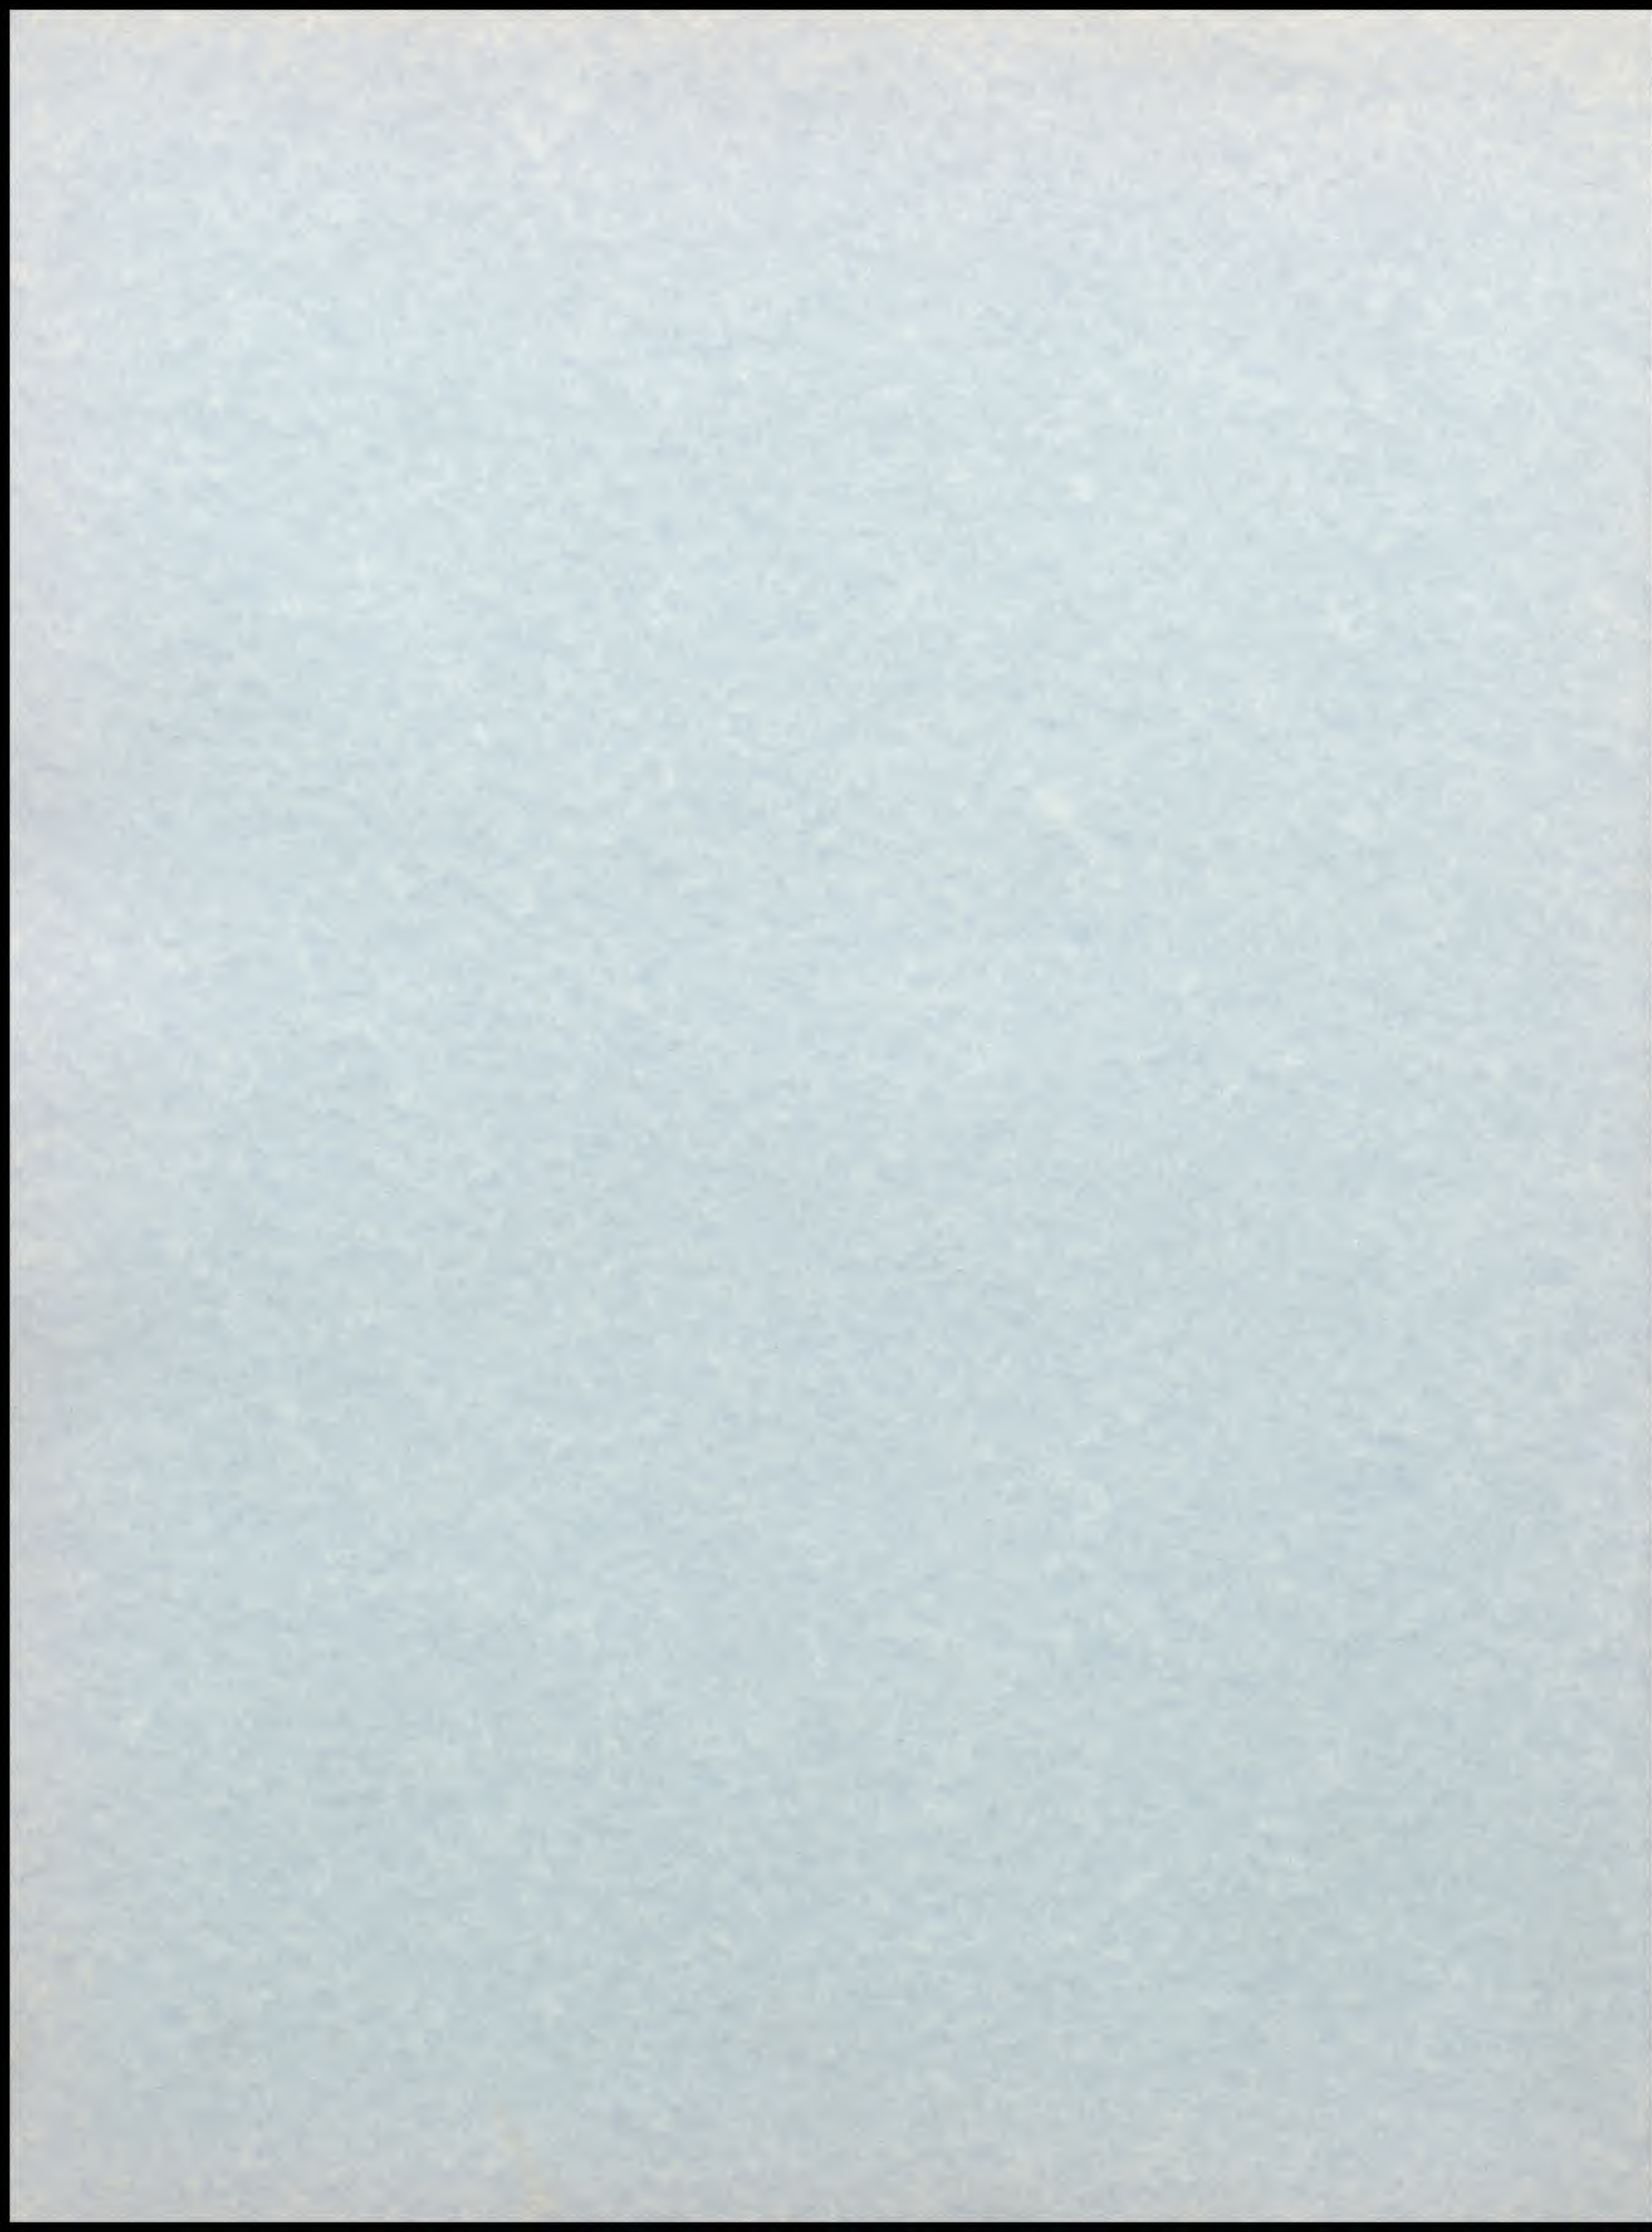

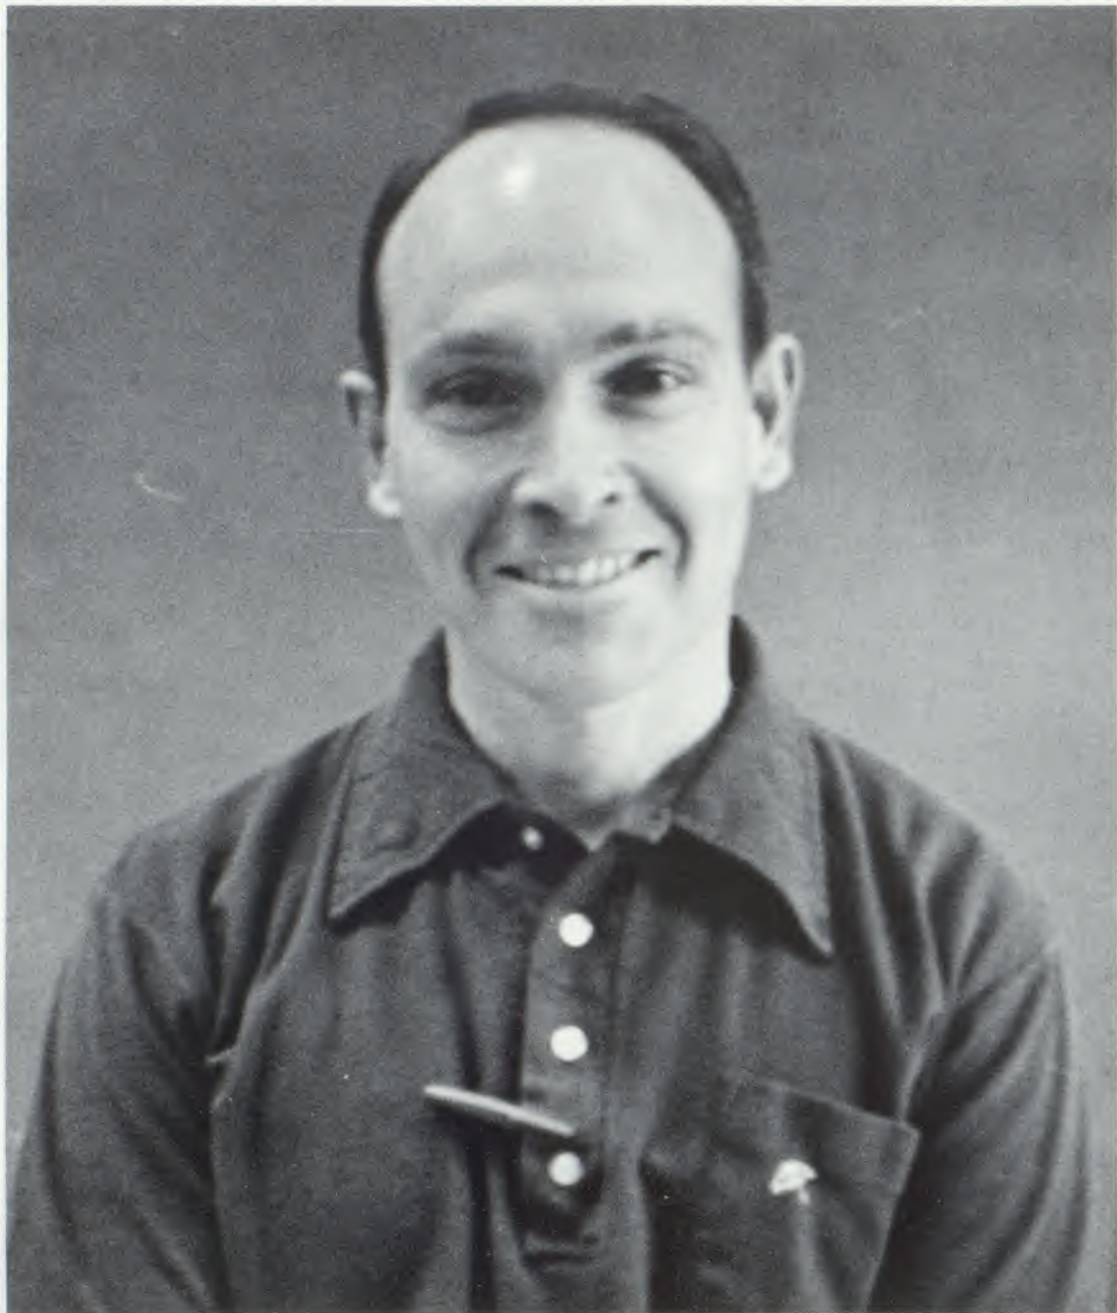

A handwritten ECG tracing on a grid background. The tracing shows a regular rhythm with distinct P waves, QRS complexes, and T waves. The P waves are small and upright, followed by a sharp QRS complex, and then a larger T wave. The baseline is relatively stable.

Letter

For the knowledge you share with your students;
For the wisdom you impart to your athletes;
For the warm sense of humor you display to those around you;
For the diligence you demonstrate in all you undertake;
And for the devotion you extend to us all;
We, the Class of 1985, proudly dedicate this Blue Letter to you,
Mr. Ennis,
teacher, coach, inspiration, and friend.

PREFACE..... 4

SENIORS..... 16

UNDERCLASSMEN.. 48

ACADEMICS ..... 62

ACTIVITIES..... 76

SPORTS..... 98

PATRONS ..... 129

*I get by
With a little help
From my friends.
.... The Beatles*

*Long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be.*

... Pink Floyd

Clockwise, from top left: Scott Bangert practices to be Mr. Universe of 1985. Peter Bauer and Jill Darcy carry on a friendly conversation before class. Don Vizthum looks on as Joe Accomando demonstrates his skill and expertise in auto repair. Mary Chen follows Mrs. Winnett's cue.

*These are the good ol' days . . . .
 . . . Carly Simon*

*Where and why I'm destined to go
Right here and now that's all I know.
On either side, future or past,
Neither is real, both fade so fast.*

*And in the sweetness of friendship
Let there be laughter
And sharing of pleasures.
For in the dew of little things
The heart finds its morning
And is refreshed.*

Top left: Varsity football players get soooo psyched up for the upcoming season that they display their "High Energy" by joining the cheerleaders in their dance. Bottom left: The Homecoming Queen Candidates wave to the enthusiastic cheering admirers on Main Street. Right: Joan Primich and Debbie Chodosh depart from MHS after a red-letter Valentine's Day!

Reach back to the joy and sorrow

Lock them away in your mind

For memories are times that you borrow

To spend when you get to tomorrow.

Left: Glenn Andrews scrambles past the Highland Park defender on his way to a touchdown. Right: Budding artists express themselves in Mr. Weissman's class.

You walk out on the highwire
You're a dancer on thin ice
You pay no heed to danger
And less to the advice
Your footsteps are forbidden
But with knowledge
of your sin
You throw your love to
All the strangers
And caution to the wind

Think in terms of bridges burned,
Think of seasons that must end.
See the rivers rise and fall,
They will rise and fall again.
Everything must have an end,
Like an ocean to a shore,
Like a river to a stream.
It's the famous final scene.

—Bob Seger
