UNFORTUNATELY, SIGNS OF DRUG USE AREN'T THIS OBVIOUS.

Fortunately, they're not invisible, either. That's why it's so important that parents know what these signs are.

The problem is that most parents don't know. And, as so often happens, their child's drug problem goes undetected.

It's senseless. Especially when the signs of drug use are right in front of the parent's eyes. Signs such as excessive secrecy, fewer visits home from college or a drop in school performance. Other signs are irritability, weight loss, pupil dilation, and heavy usage of eye drops or nasal sprays.

These are only a few. There are many others.

If you're a parent, you must get involved. You can learn more about the signs of drug use by contacting your local agency on drug abuse.

Knowing these signs isn't a cure. But at least it's a start.

CONSUMER TIPS

Dear Customer,

The Executive Consumer Advisory Panel, in conjunction with Bell Atlantic, would like to offer you some tips for shopping the Yellow Pages.

ASK QUESTIONS. As Yellow Pages users, you should request information that may not be included in an ad. Ask for the names of the persons to whom you speak and where they may be reached in person. Inquire about estimates and contracts, prices and credit details, service and repairs, guarantees, warranties, and licensing. It makes good sense to be an informed buyer.

READ THE AD CAREFULLY. Do not look at size alone; scrutinize the factual information contained in the ad.

INVESTIGATE. "Authorized," "certified," "licensed," and "guaranteed" are terms with specific meanings that must be understood by the buyer. Ask the advertiser to explain these terms to you. For example, what are the conditions of the guarantee? What is the advantage of dealing with an "authorized" dealer?

SHOP AROUND. Get several prices. Compare quality and terms. Consult other consumers, neighbors, and friends when possible. Ask the company for references from satisfied customers. Study any contract before you sign it.

COMPLAIN. The responsibility for truthfulness in directory advertising rests with the advertiser. But as publishers of the Yellow Pages, Bell Atlantic wants you to be satisfied with its product and to use it frequently. Bell Atlantic will not knowingly accept misleading or unethical advertising. If wording not meeting its standards is found, it will be investigated.

If you discover any misleading or unethical statements in Yellow Pages advertising, call Bell Atlantic's Consumer Hot Line toll-free at 1-800-624-0657. A brief form will be sent to you, requesting the facts surrounding your complaint. Bell Atlantic's office of Directory Standards and Ethics will follow up on all written complaints it receives.

If you have a complaint about the quality of an advertiser's service or product, register your complaint with either your local Better Business Bureau or local Consumer Affairs Office. The numbers for one or both of these offices are located on page two in the Customer Guide Section in front of your phone book.

SCD
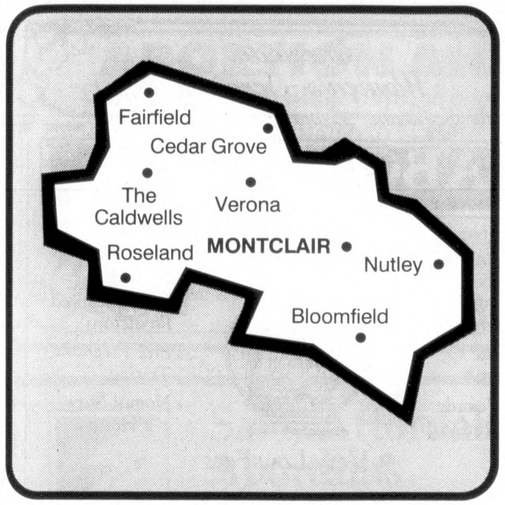
DISCOUNT

SENIOR CITIZENS



The Logo pictured above was designed as a certification mark of the Bell Atlantic Yellow Pages. It is designed to assist Senior Citizens in locating businesses that are willing to offer discounts to Senior Citizens. Businesses displaying this Logo in their advertising want to do business with Senior Citizens and offer them discounts. They may offer other special services as well.

Look for this Logo in all display advertisements in your Bell Atlantic Yellow Pages. When you see this Logo displayed by an Advertiser of your choice you should:

- Contact the Advertiser to determine what their Senior Citizen Discount Guidelines are.
- Ask the Advertiser at what age you qualify for the discount.
- Ask the Advertiser what level of discount is offered.
- Ask the Advertiser if there are other special services that they offer to Senior Citizens.
- Tell the Advertiser you noticed the Senior Citizen Discount Logo in their advertisement.

By following these steps you will be able to realize the maximum benefits of the Senior Citizen Discount Program. Lastly, please tell the Advertiser you found them in the BELL ATLANTIC YELLOW PAGES. Thank You!

"Advertisers displaying the Senior Citizen Discount Logo have indicated that they offer discounts to Senior Citizens. Discount levels and age requirements are established individually by each advertiser displaying the Senior Citizen Discount Logo. Bell Atlantic is not responsible for any loss arising from use of the SCD Logo."

Pregnant?
The choices are yours.

"I didn't plan to get pregnant, but it happened. I called Spence-Chapin and everything was taken care of right up front — information about adoption, medical expenses and a lot of support. I chose the adoptive parents and they are wonderful people. To me it was important that my baby have a good life and that I go on with my life."

3 CRITICAL QUALITIES YOU SHOULD DEMAND FROM YOUR DENTIST

1. HE SHOULD LISTEN TO YOU

Your needs and concerns are very important to me. I listen to what you have to say. Patient satisfaction is my "#1 Priority".

2. GENTLE PAIN FREE DENTAL CARE

In my dental office, I have dedicated myself to the art of painless dental care. With general anesthesia (sleeping during treatment), nitrous oxide (laughing gas), warmed anesthetic, tranquilizers, topical anesthesia and a committed staff, dental care can be completely comfortable.

3. REASONABLE AND FAIR COST

I know that your money and time are valuable to you, that's why my goal is "on-time" appointments and "no pressure" financing.

"When you need a dentist, you want a dentist that is truly concerned with your health & well-being. That's exactly the way I built my practice."
"In a calm, relaxed and incredibly comfortable environment, I serve my patients in a gentle and caring way."
Please give me a call at 890-0600. You will be pleasantly surprised & very happy.
