Introductory.

It is with pleasure we are at last enabled to present to the citizens of Plainfield and North Plainfield the result of our long and wearisome labor in the shape of our first General and Business Directory. To commit no error in spelling a name, to give with exactness every initial, to give with accuracy the name of every citizen, to locate each house upon its proper street, and to correctly locate every street, lane or alley, requires no small amount of care and no little expenditure of time and money. To do these things so as to merit the approbation of a generous public on one hand and to steer clear of the fault-finders (a difficult thing to do) upon the other, has been our constant aim and desire.

We will not, however, pretend that our book is free from errors, as the variety, extent and quality of the work necessary to be done render perfection impossible; yet we do claim that we have spared no effort to make it complete.

To the citizens who have so kindly aided us we extend our grateful thanks, and must say that the larger majority received us cordially and gave the information asked for cheerfully.

Our book is completed, and to the citizens of Plainfield and North Plainfield we confidently trust it, knowing when they will appreciate its merits and deal kindly with its faults.

Very respectfully,
TURNER & LOOSEK,
PUBLISHERS.
