TEN CENTS (10¢)

AT TESTIMONIAL DINNER

Marge Patterson Honored

How do you pay fitting tribute to a person who has given over 35 years service to the community; a person who has organized numerous successful youth groups, participated on many committees, panels and in local, state and international conferences? Just how would you honor such a person who has pounded the pavements in civil strife or conferred with leaders of boycotts and demonstrations?

This was the question faced by a group of Marjorie Patterson's friends when they began planning to give testimony of their appreciation for her work. They settled for a surprise testimonial dinner. Joining this organizing group led by James Varner, an assembly of over 175 of Marge's friends and associates came to the Arbor Inn on March 30, 1973, to bear witness to this Plainfield Area YMCA Youth Executive.

Some came from great distances and others from the Queen City, but all came to share an evening with their friend and to see this dynamic social worker delight in receiving a small token of their appreciation—a color television set.

As is traditional a program booklet and a list of friends

Summer Jobs

This summer the Mayor's Youth Employment Committee will attempt to register all students who wish to apply for summer jobs with one application form. The application that will be used is the New Jersey State Employment Services form. This application will be used because it will provide all necessary information needed to screen students into all summer programs.

Registration for the students at the high school has been scheduled for the week of April 9th. Registration will be held all that week during lunch periods (11:30 A.M. to 2:00 P.M.) in room 162.

Registration with the Mayor's Youth Committee does not guarantee students a summer job. It means that students will be registered with the Committee and will qualify for any available positions.

Drew Students To Mark Black Emphasis

(Special to The Voice)

MADISON - Black Emphasis Weekend at Drew University, set this year for April 13 through 15, will be of special significance as a fund-raising effort. This was revealed this week when plans for the three-day event were announced by Ms. Damali Niambi, social chairman of Hyera, black student union, and Ms. Lorna Hines, social committee member. The annual event is held to entertain prospective black and Puerto Rican freshmen students and to raise funds for the King-Kennedy Scholarship Fund.

An African market, poetry readings, musical programs, a basketball game, soul dinner, workshops and parties will cram the weekend with activity.

"We feel, on the whole," Ms. Niambi said this week, "that with the President's budget cuts we don't understand how students are going to work, so we will have to raise as much money for scholarships as possible."

The basketball game between black students and a faculty team will get the weekend rolling Friday, April 13, at 7 p.m. in Baldwin gymnasium. Charles Womack is coordinator. Al Brown is coach of the student team and Bob Deveer will coach the faculty cagers.

Felipe Luciano, talk show host and disc jockey of radio station WRVR in New York and one of the original members of the Last Poets, will give a poetry reading at the University Center at 8:30 p.m. Norman Oliver, who is among the announced candidates seeking nomination in New York City's mayoralty race, will discuss the Black Revolution and the Socialist Movement.

The day will end with a party at the Center scheduled to start about 10:30 p.m.

The African market will be held at the Center Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m., offering paintings by Franco, a New York artist, African sculpture, hand carved objects, clothing and other arts and crafts.

Ms. Beatryce Nivens of Hempstead, L.I., a pre-professional counsellor at Hofstra University, will read poetry at 2 p.m. The soul dinner will be held at 5 p.m. at the University Commons. A Hyera presentation of black music will begin at 8 p.m. in Bowne Lecture Hall under the direction of Pat Dixon. This will include some original student compositions and a jazz concert in an African setting. A private party will follow.

The African market will be resumed, from 1 to 5 Sunday afternoon and there will be workshops on the art of corn braiding and jewelry making.

Mazda Man Speaks To Kiwanians

Mr. Robert E. Hilliard, Mazda Motors Service Manager, announced to the Kiwanians that the Mazda rotary automobile was one of two automotive vehicles certified by the Environmental Protection Agency as meeting the 1975 Emission Standards. This announcement, according to Hilliard, prompted an accelerated rate of sales of Mazda in the United States.

According to Hilliard, Mazda now has 655 dealerships throughout the United States and, of this number, 160 are located within 13 Eastern States. The Spokesman painted a very bright future for the Mazda rotary automobile and he said he does not feel that the entrance of American Motors and the anticipated entry of General Motors into the rotary engine market will seriously affect Mazda's sales potential.

Mr. Hilliard described some of the significant features of the automobile to include the functioning of the highly revolutionary rotary engine. Hilliard, a converted Mercedes-Benz Manager, enthusiastically acclaimed that "tomorrow is already here today for Mazda."

Marge's Years Of City Service Honored

testified to many of the major and some minor activities Marge has engaged in during her long tenure of YMCA work. A special surprise for the audience was a film of Marge in action made by Ralph Davis.

Marge's friends told of their early encounters with the aggressive lady and recapped recent relationships and activities. They said Marge began her YMCA work at the Moorland Branch in September, 1947, with the responsibilities of a program aide and other office duties. When they found out how energetic she was, her responsibilities were increased and she began raising funds, organizing groups, and supervising other activities.

In 1968 Miss Patterson was promoted to the position of Youth Executive and directed the entire youth program. Now she is in charge of all teenage programming and in addition to her responsibilities at the "Y," works with disadvantaged youth who have had contact with probation departments.

An active executive, Miss Patterson is a member of the Plainfield Human Relations Commission, Camp Crusade (since its inception in 1968), the Community Welfare Council, N.A.A.C.P., and United Community Services.

Her professional affiliations are membership in the Association of Professional Directors (a national YMCA executive organization) and BAN-WYS (Black and Non-white YMCA professional and lay worker).

Miss Patterson is currently enrolled in the Community Development and Urban Studies program at Livingston College.

EDITORIAL

Thank You, Marge

The surprise testimonial dinner honoring Marjorie Patterson's 26 years service to the Plainfield Area YMCA and the city of Plainfield was a long overdue note of thanks for her efforts and we commend those who were thoughtful enough to sponsor the affair.

In her many years of providing counseling, leadership and direction for our youth, Marge Patterson has always upheld the finest principles of life. Her youth groups always involved youngsters from many levels of society, including black, white (and recently the Spanish speaking), and the rich and poor. Through the many meetings, conferences and work projects, youth under Miss Patterson's supervision worked and lived together gaining a better understanding of our society and performing acts of community service.

In addition to her work at the YMCA, Marge is always there in time of community need. Her frank opinion and willingness to help solve social problems are always sought and received in a crisis.

Her honest and direct approach instills the confidence of both youth and adults alike. This unique quality guards her from fear and allows her to actively participate in the most involved and potentially dangerous situations. When the streets of our city were racked with bullets and fire, Marge was there. When the schools were closed because of racial strife, Marge was there. Marge is always there to help bring people together for the good of our community.

Marjorie Patterson's dedication and willingness to aid our youth and community has earned her the reputation of being "Plainfield's Little Dynamo." We can only echo the sentiments of those who testified on her behalf by saying "Thank You Marge, We Love You."

Reinhardt Elected Fraternity President

Robin C. Reinhardt of 1031 Madison Avenue, Plainfield, a veteran of the United States Air Force and liberal arts major at Union College, has been elected vice president of Alpha Sigma Mu, veterans' fraternity with a chapter at Union College.

Mr. Reinhardt, a graduate of Arthur Johnson Regional High School, Springfield, is a freshman at Union College.

Alpha Sigma Mu has chapters at several colleges and universities throughout the United States. The fraternity is open to all honorably discharged servicemen and aims to promote friendship and service as well as academic assistance to all members making the transition from military to civilian life.

The Union College chapter of Alpha Sigma Mu is active in scholarship and food drives, veterans' recruitment efforts, and peer counseling as well as social activities.

Newcomers To Elect

Election of Officers for the 1973-1974 season and a sampling of International Finger Foods to be prepared by Club members will be the focus of the April 10 meeting of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club of the Plainfields.

The group will meet at 7:45 pm in the United National Bank Building, Plainfield and is open to all women new to the area. If you are interested and have not been contacted, please call Mrs. Charles Bliss, Plainfield.

"Y" Testimony: Fair Pay

It is ironic that in our society when persons give so much of themselves for others and the principles of fairness, that sometimes these people are the ones who are subjected to the worst treatment by those who claim to live under the highest Christian ethics.

There is no doubt that Miss Patterson has made significant contributions to our community. Yet, after 26 years service, her salary is still less than what the city pays a starting policeman. She also receives less than the other Plainfield YMCA executives by $2,500 to $3,500 a year. Another interesting fact is that Miss Patterson's immediate superior makes $9,000 a year more than she does.

If the Plainfield Area YMCA wishes to continue offering moral leadership in our community, this type of economic injustice cannot be continued.

The YMCA can give its testimonial to this dedicated worker by giving her fair and just compensation for her efforts.

Mr. Edward J. Dailey, Jr., Director of Muhlenberg Hospital, has announced the opening of a new Ambulatory Health Care Center. The new facility will be on the first floor of the new tower building which is scheduled for completion in late 1973.

The first step, Mr. Dailey said, will be to enlarge the Emergency Room service, expanding it to better than double its present size. Within the next few months, a conference nursing program will be added to the Emergency Room service. Directly adjacent to the E.R. will be a modern out-patient department where non-emergency patients will be screened and referred for treatment.

The new out-patient department will provide the patient with the same kind of care that patients get from their private doctor. Continuity of care will be stressed, where the poor poor patient will receive exactly the same kind of care as the private patient.

LETTERS

Supports Hospital

Dear Sir:

Recent commentary on our community hospital and its affiliated nursing school by Reverend Allen, President of the local NAACP, has received wide and prominent public attention to the effect that we feel compelled to join the hospital and its representatives in reply. This is done in the hope that a clearer understanding of the true facts may be promoted, and a more valid conclusion may be drawn than that drawn by Reverend Allen.

In regard to the Reverend's statement that he has seen no black intern in 25 years of visiting Muhlenberg Hospital, we wish to state that blacks and whites of American birth are relatively unavailable to us because they prefer to remain in centers comparable to the institutions of their original training; rather than spend extensive training time in a community hospital, such as Muhlenberg.

It is a fact, however, that African blacks of American birth and of foreign birth have been interns in Muhlenberg Hospital one of whom remains in private practice in the area. This statement is not made to refute the fact that Reverend Allen never saw a black intern at Muhlenberg Hospital, but to refute the impression that his statement leaves in the minds of his readers.

The physicians and others who are intimately involved with the training of interns, residents, technicians and nursing personnel do not make decisions based on race, creed, color, or sex. An atmosphere of welcome prevails for all qualified persons in all professional programs and organizations.

Pet Peeves and Hang-ups

PET PEEVES AND HANGUPS
Pearl A. Lowe

Are you thinking about giving your child a bike? If you are, please give him a safety book along with it. Now that bicycle riding is coming back in style, I see more chances of accidents on the road.

First of all, as I drive through the streets, I see many people riding bicycles on the wrong side of the street. Instead of facing traffic as they should, they have their backs to it. Which is safer? Personally, I would rather see the car coming at me than be surprised from behind when one goes whizzing by.

Another thing is riding at night. There was a law, or at least I thought there was a law where you had to have a light on the front and back of the bike to let motorists know where you are. It was also a practice to wear something white or very light at night so the person riding the bike could be seen. Now at night I see riders with no lights at all wearing black on black, on top of black and they swerve through traffic as if it was the right thing to do. Eventually some of these bicyclists will be hit, and when that happens all the sympathy goes to them and the motorist is blamed for everything.

There are many things I could write about the careless habits of today's bicyclists, but there is one more habit that I feel is important to mention, and that is the amount of people on one bicycle. Would you believe that the other day I saw five children riding on one bike? (It must have been A Family Affair) A little boy was in a basket at the front of the bike, a little girl was sitting on the handle bars of the bike, a larger boy was sitting on the seat of the bike (doing all of the work), and two small boys were sitting on a rack in the back of the bike. Under all that weight the bike's front wheel was going every way but the right way. I'm quite sure the tire must have sighed a sigh of relief when those children finally got off.

With all kidding aside, think of the terrible accident that could have occurred if they had been hit by a car, or if some of those children had fallen off into the pathway of a passing car, or even a car swerving to miss them becoming involved in another accident.

Bicycle riding is a fun way to get in exercise and plenty of fresh air, but the things mentioned in this article make bicycle riding hazardous for the people who ride bikes and for the people who drive cars.

City GED Unit Goes To Jail

Union College's Walk-In General Education Development GED Test Center, headquartered at the Plainfield Campus, will travel to Somerset County Jail to administer high school equivalency exams to prisoners there, it was announced by Christian Hanns, GED Director.

The visit by the Union College GED staff will mark the first time in New Jersey that the GED will be given in a county prison, Mr. Hanns said. The six part GED exam will be administered in two sessions. The scheduled dates are Tuesday afternoons, April 10 and 17.

According to Mr. Hanns, Louis Ballant, warden at the Somerset County Jail, contacted the Union College GED Center and requested the GED exam for the prisoners who are regularly receiving instruction from Raymond Fella of the Somerset County Vocational School.

"The Union College GED Center anticipates this visit to Somerset County as it is compatible with our philosophy of bringing educational services to those who need them," Mr. Hanns stated.

Those who successfully pass the GED exams will be awarded a New Jersey high school equivalency certificate by the State Department of Education. Equivalency certificates are accepted in lieu of high school diplomas for admission to many colleges, job training programs, and institutions of higher learning.

NOW YOU CAN GET LOW-COST CRIME INSURANCE FOR YOUR HOME AND BUSINESS

If you live in New Jersey, or have a business here, you can qualify quickly and easily. Because as of February 15th, New Jersey has become eligible for the Federal Crime Insurance Program.

Serviced by Aetna Life & Casualty,* this much-needed program, which is now available in 11 states and the District of Columbia, can insure your home, money, possessions and business against burglary and robbery at surprisingly low premiums. Any New Jersey insurance agent or broker who handles home, car or other property and casualty business can help you get it.

Personal Coverage, that insures your possessions against burglary and robbery, costs only from $30 to $80 a year, depending on how much insurance you want, and where you live. (See the examples below.) Just as important, this Residential Policy will never be cancelled, no matter how many losses you have. No matter how big they are. The only requirements are that your home or apartment is in New Jersey, and that you have required locks on your doors and windows.

Commercial coverage is also available. If you own a store or business located in New Jersey—even if it's in a high crime area—you can have as much as $15,000 of U.S. Government administered Commercial Crime Insurance to protect you against burglary or robbery, or both. These commercial policies are also non-cancellable, with the low rates determined by the kind of business you have, your annual gross receipts, the amount and types of coverages you want, and what part of New Jersey your business is in.

Don't wait another day. Any insurance agent in the state will be happy to show you how simple and economical it is to protect your home or your business against one of today's biggest problems. Or contact the servicing carrier, Aetna Life & Casualty, 494 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102. Our telephone, 201-624-1900.

THE WAY I SEE IT
by Eleanor Jean Hendley

You have finally decided where you are going but not how to get there. Should you go by land, sea, or air? Let's examine each of these ways of transportation, for this is an important part of planning your trip.

If time is no object, go by boat. It's a marvelous way to travel and, upon reaching your destination, you already feel as though you have vacationed. The first time I went to Europe was aboard the Queen Elizabeth, a luxurious ocean liner almost a mile long. This ship had several dining rooms, swimming pools, boutiques, nightclubs, movie theatres, a tennis court, and a library. Each morning in the mail box outside each stateroom, would be a newspaper and program detailing the days activities. At mealtimes we were given a menu and served as in a restaurant, and after the dinner hours, the nightclubs opened, each featuring live entertainment.

The first night on board the captain gave a cocktail party for all passengers, and on another evening the engineers invited all single ladies to attend a soiree. By the time we docked in LeHavre, I had met people from many parts of the world and developed lasting friendships.

This journey to Europe took six days and five nights, which is why I say time must be considered, but traveling by boat is the most exciting way to go. Many companies have cruises to the islands, and these ships stop at different ports for several days, allowing you to come and go as you please while using the boat as your hotel.

If you are going to Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, there are luxury liners going your way. And if you really want to rough it, take a freighter, which the adventurous spirit would probably enjoy. There is no glamour involved here, but you'll be surrounded by veteran seamen with many fascinating stories to share.

Flying is the quickest way to get there and the way most people go. The majority of airlines now have lounges in all their planes which makes it possible to meet fellow travelers and relax in a social club atmosphere.

Once you have reached your destination and want to explore the country's interior, take a train or car. Europe has one of the world's best developed railroad systems so you are guaranteed to ride in comfort along very scenic routes.

If you are familiar with the country or with someone who is, it is better to drive, as this allows you opportunity to stop at leisure and really appreciate and admire the land and its people.

Think seriously about how you choose to go so that the traveling will be an enjoyable and memorable experience.

Hooker To Direct Palm Sunday Concert

Louis Hooker, of Plainfield, Director of the New Jersey Schola Cantorum, has been appointed Guest Conductor for the April 15 Palm Sunday concert of the Brahms REQUIEM to be held at Plainfield High School at 3:30 p.m.

In addition to the Brahms REQUIEM, which will feature the 75-member concert choir of the New Jersey Schola Cantorum, the Overture to Mozart's DON GIOVANNI will be presented.

Mr. Hooker, founder and Music Director of the Schola Cantorum, is an Associate Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Fairleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford and is currently an adjunct associate professor at Hunter College in New York City.

Mr. Hooker has earned a wide reputation in the metropolitan area as a conductor of both orchestral and choral works. Formerly

Director of Choral Activities at Plainfield High School for nine years, he founded the New Jersey Schola Cantorum eleven years ago, an organization which has grown into a 150-member chorus consisting of an adult concert choir, youth chorale, and children's choir.

In addition to the regular concert series presented to Plainfield audiences, Mr. Hooker has conducted his chorus and professional chamber orchestra in premiere performances at Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Center, in New York City. Last season he conducted the metropolitan New York area premiere of Brubeck's "Gates of Justice" with Dave Brubeck, his trio, and orchestra.

Tickets for the April 15 concert of the Brahms REQUIEM and Overture to DON GIOVANNI may be obtained at the box office or by calling 756-7311.

Record Reviews

by Fred Linc Guirty

Milt Jackson has combined, formed an association, created a group, organized a conglomerate, put together an "excitement", and in effect found some of the strongest horses around and put them in the same corral to emerge with a very enticing bit of musica purposefully set out to please.

Arranged and conducted by Don Sebesky, it features such fine folk as Herbie

Hancock/Piano, Ron Carter/Bass, Billy Cobham/Drums, Ralph McDonald/Percussion, Jay Berliner/Guitar, Freddie Hubbard/Trumpet & Flugelhorn, Phil Bodner/Flutes, Piccolo, and English Horn, George Marge/Clarinets, Alto Flute and English Horn plus Romeo Penque on Flute, English Horn & Oboe.

But it is Hancock and Hubbard who get to play a lot with Jackson, and Jackson does his thing throughout—so gracefully, so sweetly, and so artistically. This album is another departure from his renowned playing with the Modern Jazz Quartet and Milt seems much freer here. Here he gets a chance to "stretch out" a bit more.

There are violins, cellos and harp to whet your musical appetite a bit more.

The album is an easy-paced thing that you can do just about anything by. When really "listening" to it, one could easily conclude that it's over too soon. But the album is, to repeat, sure to please.

The Second Street Youth Center (SSYC) will hold their first annual bazaar on Saturday, May 5, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Center on 935 So. 2nd St. Games, contests, prizes and surprises will be in store for those in attendance. Also on sale will be jewelry, plants, paintings, drawings, wood craft, boutique items and baked goods.

Cagney Films at Modern Art

ON AND OFF BROADWAY
BY Dr. Faye L. Granberry

Now through June 14 will be showings of many James Cagney films at the New York Cultural Center (formerly The Gallery of Modern Art). Remember The Public Enemy 1931? Guess you don't. Maybe "White Heat" from 1949. I best remember the slang paperback, $1.95 this week. Beautiful... unforgettable... An ambitious, lovable seagull-sears to unbelievable heights and makes a permanent place in your heart. Some thing for you-jazz fans to look forward to is the World's Greatest Jazz Band of Yank Lawson and Bobby Haggart that will be coming to the Meadowbrook Theatre Restaurant in Cedar Grove, N.J. on May 21.

That superstar of stars, Shelly Winters, will open with her super performance at the Playhouse on the Mall in Bergen Mall, Paramus, on April 11 in "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds".

If you miss this at the Paper Mill don't miss it again. The show will run until April 15. Reservations call 854-3040.

The Playboy Club at McAfee will star Peter Nero April 27-28 then O.C. Smith, May 11-12. Reservations call 827-6000.

Most of Cagney's popularity developed in the midst of the depression (1930) and no doubt that aggressive stance of his must have been very attractive to the audiences of the Depression period... Tickets $2.00.

"Echoes" opened, and if you are really ready for two hours of a boy and girl that has lost touch with reality and deal only in monotonous day-dreams, then go. I wish I had stayed home. (A press release just came in: "Echoes" closed).

A movie being produced now is "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" which will star Peter Nero April 27-28 then O.C. Smith, May 11-12. Reservations call 827-6000.

It's all here—subdued lighting, featuring over 25 items, and all beaded curtains, private booths, you desire, but save some room for the delatent bread and main course.

Rod's menu has been cited by the National Restaurants Association "Distinguished Menu Award" and once there it becomes quite obvious as to why. Included is the Prime Filet Mignon, Filet of Prime Beef a la Stronoff, Veal Cordon Bleu, Caponette Kiev, Roast Aylesbury Duckling, Baked Mammouth Shrimp, Oversized Imported Brook Trout, Imported Genuine Dover Sole, and Alaska King Crab Claw.

Perhaps I saved the best for last, the Keller's Family's Special. Julius Fleischman named "Cyprus," built in 1906 and reputed to be used in bootlegging whiskey. The other was the touring car of President McKinley named "Adams," built in 1896. Make reservations by calling 731-2222 and prepare yourself for a true Adventure in Dining. Ask for a table or booth in either of the cars, a "Lovers Table" requires reservations up to six weeks in advance.

Should you have difficulty in making a reservation when parking—credit cards, childrens menu available—tickets necessary as are reservations for dining in the rail cars.

Luncheon menu from $1.75 to $3.75—Dinner $4.95 to $7.50, a la Carte—open every day except Christmas. For an evening out with the family, impressing clients, for something different, for excellent food and service, and for another Adventure in Dining, visit Rod's.

Five sons of Rod Keller, Peter, Gene, Bob, Rod Jr. and Richard now carry on in the tradition taught them by Mr. Keller, who took over an original speakeasy called Phil's, that went broke during the prohibition era.

Helping create this illusion is an announcement by Rod's, noted at the entrance, welcoming you to Rod's Roaring 20's Party, Friday night, singing and dancing, in authentic 20's atmosphere, and Rod's Roast Prime Ribs for only $4.95. Included free are straw hats, police whistles, and for your dancing and listening pleasure, a Dixieland jazz Band and dance contests.

Suppose we lose the Energy Race?

Our environment may become intolerable.

New Jersey is already the most densely populated state in the nation. It's getting more so. An expanding population means greater pollution problems. If we do not have clean nuclear energy to provide the massive amount of electric energy necessary to reverse the trend of environmental decay, we face many health hazards.

Take the air we breathe. Eighty-five percent of the air pollution in urban areas is caused by auto exhaust. What is it going to be like with millions of more cars on the road? (Electrified mass transit, possible with nuclear energy, could help solve the problem.)

Water is also a worry. We cannot hope to clean up our lakes and rivers without building hundreds of new sewage treatment plants. (We'll need nuclear energy to power those plants.)

How about drinking water? The Federal Water Resources Council recently reported that shortages existing today in the Southwest will spread to many other regions before 1990. (We'll eventually need nuclear energy to provide the power to desalt water and to move fresh water from lower levels to higher levels wherever needed.)

Recycling is still another major concern. It is estimated that between now and the end of the century, 19 billion tons of solid refuse will be discarded. That's enough to bury the state of New Jersey more than a foot deep. (To get rid of solid waste before it piles up we must have nuclear energy to power recycling facilities.)

How are we meeting the challenge to protect our environment? The electric utilities lead all other industries in spending on air and water pollution controls. But this is not nearly enough. To clean up our environment we must build nuclear energy generating plants for all the reasons set forth. And to build them we need your vocal support.

We urge you to learn all there is to know about nuclear energy plants. Answer the critics. With your help we can prevent further construction delays and win the energy race.

Ann Klein Opens Union County Office

[Special to The Voice]
Ann Klein, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, opened her Union County campaign headquarters in Westfield on Thursday, March 29.

Supporters jammed the small storefront headquarters at 431 West North Avenue in an enthusiastic rally. Mrs. Klein announced that David Hull would be Union County coordinator.

The first woman in New Jersey history to seek the democratic nomination for governor declared that she would be a candidate and a governor that would be "both accessible and responsive" to the people.

Saturday Mrs. Klein opened her Passaic County headquarters in Paterson.

"We have for too long been unable to reach the higher levels of our government," the candidate declared. "Our Governor has chosen to govern from a distance, apart from the people he serves. "I plan to run a highly visible, open campaign. I have my legislative office and I plan to run the same kind of administration."

"My campaign office here in Union will be more than just a place to do mailings and hand out pamphlets. We will spend the next 10 weeks getting my views before all the voters. We will answer all their questions, listen to all their requests and suggestions, make every effort to guarantee that every voter in Union County will enter the voting booth June 5 with as much information as possible on me and my candidacy."

The Morris County Assemblywoman's campaign is becoming more visible each day as she carries on a heavy schedule of rallies, interviews and discussions with party groups, organizing volunteers to campaign for her.

Following the meeting here she attended a meeting organized by democrats in Tenafly. Friday a meeting with students at the Drew University campus in Madison was one of five appointments on her busy schedule.

Hull gained campaign experience in the 1968 presidential campaigns of Senators Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy, in the 1970 congressional primary races in Chicago and in a voter registration project in Washington in 1971.

He helped organize McGovern's campaign in Colorado in 1971 and also helped in Wisconsin, New Hampshire and New York. He was coordinator of McGovern's campaign in Union County. His county organization elected its delegate slate by a two to one margin, carrying every municipality in the county.

He was raised in Millburn and now lives in Elizabeth.

Tennis and Golf Action at Union

The Union College varsity tennis and golf teams will each be in action once, weather permitting, over the course of this week. Both outings will be Garden State Athletic Conference clashes.

Coach Dennis Insley's net contingent will be the first to get the ball rolling. The Owl varsity, featuring two coeds in the lineup, will travel to Toms River on Saturday, April 14, to tangle with Ocean County College at noon. Taking part in both singles and doubles play will be Miss Ellen Magliaro and Miss Debbie Davidson, both of Westfield.

The golfers will be taking on two opponents at once on Tuesday, April 17. The Owls have a 2 p.m. tee-off time slated in Pemberton where Burlington County College will be playing host to Union and Gloucester County College in a GSAC triangular match.

Next week's pairings will get underway on Thursday, April 19, when the net squad will be in Edison to face Middlesex County College in a GSAC confrontation and Coach Gary Lee's linksmen will be in North Jersey to take on the County College of Morris at the Flanders Valley Country Club. The starting time for both contests is 2 p.m.

YMHA Defeats Royals

The Plainfield Jewish Community Center Royals season record fell to 5-4 Saturday when the Eastern Union County YMHA defeated the Royals 53-35.

The Royals, led by Bob Goldberg's 19 points, 9 of them in the closing minutes scored 14 straight points to close the margin to 4 points as the time ran out. Dave Ringel netted 13 points, Mike Maron 11, and Mike Berkowitz had 4 points to account for the Royals scoring.

INTERESTING FACTS

Here's quite an oddity that few people realize.
Three of the first five U.S. Presidents all died on July 4!
The second U.S. President, John Adams, died July 4, 1826 at Quincy, Mass.
The third U.S. President, Thomas Jefferson, not only died July 4 - but on July 4, 1826 - the same day in the same year as Adams. Jefferson died at Charlottesville, Va.
And the fifth U.S. President, James Monroe, died July 4, 1831 in New York - thus completing this amazing coincidence.

Coach's Corner

by Milt Theodosatos,
Head Coach,
Plainfield Football Cardinals
As of this writing there are 148 days until Sept. 1st and the arrival of King Football.

On Monday March 26th, I had the opportunity to attend the 26th Annual National Football Clinic that was held at the Convention Hall in Atlantic City,
New Jersey. The program lasted for 4 days and the list of speakers was very impressive.

Bob Devaney the retiring Head Coach of the Nebraska Cornhuskers was one of the speakers. His successor Tom Osborne and assistant coach Monte Kiffin also spoke. Bill Battle spoke about staff organization. Battle is the head coach at the University of Tennessee. Bill Dooley, the head man at the University of North Carolina spoke about the "T" formation.

The new head coach at the University of Pittsburgh, John Majors, spoke about their rebuilding program. Don Coryell the new head coach of the professional St. Louis Cardinals spoke about their offense.

Lee Corso the head coach at Indiana University spoke about team motivation. The new head coach at the University of Missouri, Al Onofrio, spoke about their defense. Tubby Raymond of the University of Delaware lectured about their defense. Jim Weaver, the new head Coach at the Iowa State University, spoke about the long snap for the center.

Steve Sloan, the head coach at Vanderbilt, lectured on training a QB and teaching him to read defenses. Bart Starr of Green Bay Packer fame, also lectured on the development of the QB. Dr. E.J.

Storey, ex kicking coach for several college and pro teams, lectured on the art of place kicking. Jerry Fri, the offensive Co-ordinator of the Denver Broncos spoke about their pre-game organization.

The clinic was very informative and I felt I picked up many pointers that should help us this coming fall.

On Wednesday night, they had the Annual Dinner at the Howard Johnson Hotel-Motel.
The Vince Lombardi Memorial Award was presented to George Allen of the Washington Redskins. Sam Huff, ex-great linebacker for the New York Giants was the main speaker and his humor and stories were the hit of the affair. They served file mignon for the dinner. Would you believe that at my table I was the only one who got his steak well done. As you might have guessed, I like my steak rare, but instead I got well done shoe leather. I didn't have the heart to complain to our waitress as she was really busy trying to get the food out to a hord of hungry coaches.

I am glad to announce that two of our graduating seniors have accepted full Grant In Aid Football Scholarships. Joe Myatt, the speedster has signed with Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan. Big John Alexander has signed with Rutgers University. Everyone here at PHS is glad for both young men and everyone wishes them the greatest success. You will remember that both young men were hampered this past season with injuries and I was very concerned that it might affect their scholarship possibilities. Instead, lady luck was on our side and both young men will be getting a four year free education worth a total of $32,000.

That's all for now.
