New Role for Chris Reeve

Chris Reeve, PDS '70, has had some tough assignments in his acting career. His roles have ranged from a legless Vietnam veteran to the invincible Superman and he has handled those demanding parts with success. However, he confessed to nervousness at the prospect of returning to Princeton to face a hometown audience that remembered him as a child and teenager. He needn't have worried.

The Alumni Council sponsored "An Afternoon with Christopher Reeve" on Sunday, February 10th. Chris starred at the reception as well as in the special benefit showing of "The Bostonians" which preceded it. The film, which closely follows the Henry James novel on which it is based, depicts the women's suffrage movement and the battle of wills between Chris, as a Southern gentleman, and co-star Vanessa Redgrave as they try to possess a young girl's affections and loyalty. The film and Chris' performance received rave reviews from the critics as well as from the Princeton audience of over 200 who saw it at Kresge Auditorium on the Princeton University campus. (Both the costumes and Miss Redgrave were nominated for Academy Awards.) The proceeds benefited the PDS Scholarship Fund.

PDS alumni: (standing) Roger Williams 73, Molly Sword 73, Chris, Kip Herrick 75, Janet Masterton Schrope 70, Meg Brinster Michael 70, Lesley Loser Johnston '66; (kneeling) George Treves 71, Yuki Moore Laurenti 75, Wendy Lawson-Johnston McNeil 70.

After the film, alumni, students, parents and friends were able to meet Chris at the reception at Morven. The afternoon was great fun for everyone and Chris was able to relax and renew old friendships with classmates and teachers.

Herbert McAneny was Chris' first director at PDS. Chris appeared in the 1969 PDS production of "Watch on the Rhine" and the musical, "Little Mary Sunshine." He also served as president of the drama club. He apprenticed at Williamstown Theatre Festival in Massachusetts where he still appears frequently in productions. After attending Cornell and the Juilliard School in New York, he toured with repertory theaters in England and joined the Old Vic in London. He has also been a member of the Comedie Francaise.

Vanessa Redgrave, Madeleine Potter and Christopher Reeve 70 in "The Bostonians."

Chris began his American acting career in the popular soap opera, "Love of Life." His big break came when he starred with Katharine Hepburn in "A Matter of Gravity" on Broadway. His other Broadway appearance was in "Fifth of July" as Ken Talley, Jr., the Vietnam veteran. He made his London stage debut recently in "The Aspern Papers," again starring with Vanessa Redgrave in a Henry James adaptation. His films include "Somewhere in Time," a haunting romance, "Deathtrap," an intricate mystery with Michael Caine, "The Aviator," and, of course, "Superman" and its two sequels. On March 25th, he made his television film debut in "Anna Karenina" with Jacqueline Bisset.

Although he's unable to get back to Princeton very often, Chris manages a transatlantic existence, traveling between homes in New York City and London. He and Gae Exton, a designer and model agency executive, have a young son and daughter.

On behalf of the Alumni Association, we thank Chris for a wonderful afternoon and for giving so graciously of his time.

Alumni Artists Display Work

A very exciting Alumni Art Exhibition opened on November 16th with over 75 entries from 48 alumni filling the newly renovated Anne Reid Art Gallery. Entries arrived from alumni from all over the US and abroad. They included a Vermont cabinetmaker, a painter in Italy, an industrial designer in Denmark, a film "special effects" expert in California, a fashion designer in New York, a collagist in Rhode Island, and a photographer and illustrator in Princeton.

It was especially rewarding to hear from a new segment of our alumni constituency. Katharin Huntington Anin from the Miss Fine's class of 1910 sent a copy of her book about Richmond, Massachusetts and several PCD graduates were represented in the mediums of oil, watercolor, bronze and wood.

Visitors were impressed by the professionalism of the show as well as its diversity. The exhibit helped to build a bond between alumni and present students at PDS and offered encouragement to those students interested in pursuing an artistic career.

Students Pursue Lively Arts

The Lively Arts Fund, established in memory of Moyne Smith, has swelled to over $9,000. The fund enables students to apply for grants to attend performances, workshops or other events in the field of the lively arts that they would not be able to afford otherwise. One of the best features of the fund is its flexibility.

Several PDS students have taken advantage of the fund and their projects prove the diversity of interests served by the fund. The application fee was paid for a student wishing to enter the 1984 Arts Recognition and Talent Search. Three members of the Drama Club attended McCarter Theatre workshops on make-up, costuming and lighting. A sophomore who does lighting for PDS productions asked for aid in attending "Showlight '85," an international symposium on theater, television and film lighting. Two students have applied to the National Youth Theatre of Great Britain for an intensive four week summer course in drama in London. The Lively Arts Fund will supply financial aid if they are accepted in the program. In all cases, the students will share their experiences with other students.

The vitality of this fund serves as a fitting memorial to Moyne Smith who was always available to help and counsel her friends and students. Contributions to the fund are welcome at any time. Checks may be made payable to PDS Lively Arts Fund.

You'll Be Hearing From Us....

May 5, 1985 is the date of the Alumni Phonathon. If you haven't yet made your donation to the Annual Fund, we may be calling you. We would like to see more participation from our alumni and encourage everyone to contribute, regardless of the amount. Although we love to chat with old friends, you can make the job of our volunteers much easier if you send in your check before the Phonathon.

Our thanks to the volunteers who made calls at our Phonathons on May 6, 1984 and December 13, 1984.

MADELINE WEIGEL RETIRING

For many of us, Madeline Weigel was our first teacher. She helped smooth the transition from home to school and became our "mother" for a large part of our day. "Miss Weigel" will retire in June after 43 years teaching kindergarten. She served as Head of the Lower School from 1951-1973.

A party in her honor will be held on the Colross lawn on Friday, June 7th at 5:00 p.m. Alumni are invited to come by and join us in extending our best wishes to this very special lady. If you are unable to come on the 7th, do try to write and let Madeline know what you've been up to since you were five years old! Pictures and notes may be sent to Madeline Weigel, PDS, P.O. Box 75, Princeton, NJ 08542. Let her know you remember those first schooldays.

MISS FINE'S SCHOOL

12-19 No Class Secretary

12 Charlie Smyth celebrated his 90th birthday on February 10th this year. On the 8th, he was honored by his former students and members of Princeton University's Chemistry Department where he was a professor for many years. He was praised as an eminent scientist and a "true gentleman." Charlie also served as a consultant to government and industry. He reminisced about his teaching days and his own student years as one of three boys who attended Miss Fine's halfway through secondary school. Happy birthday!

15 It is with great sorrow that we report the death of Charles Erdman on October 15, 1984. Among other accomplishments, he was the youngest mayor of Princeton at 29 and, as Commissioner of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development, he was instrumental in purchasing large areas of New Jersey beach front and converting them to state parks. He was captain of Princeton's track team in 1919 and 1920 and was intercollegiate hurdle champion. Our deepest sympathies to his wife, Lucy, and his sons: Charles PCD '38, Hal PCD '39, David PCD '48, Peter PCD '43 and Michael PCD '50.

17 We also extend our condolences to the Wheaton family on the death of their sister, Dorothea Wheaton Benham, in September. Dorothea was on the faculty at MFS for sixteen years and her sister, Margaret Wheaton Tuttle '27, reports that she was never late and never missed a day of teaching. Her brothers are also MFS alumni: Eliot '17 lives in Millbrook, NY and Homer '21 makes his home in Basel, Switzerland.

Mrs. T. Stockton Gaines '22
(Katherine Blackwell)
"Fairhaven" — Box C115
Sykesville, MD 21784

22 We were very sorry to learn of the death of June Scheffler Heard in November. She had many varied interests throughout her life. She was one of the first women executives in department store display and worked in Kaufmann's display department for 25 years, coordinating major promotions. She also ran her own business, "Parties Unlimited," creating special theme displays for weddings, receptions, fashion shows and dances. Her Christmas tree decorations for the Carnegie Institute Art Museum, the Oliver Building lobby and the Allegheny Country Club were widely noted. She was an avid gardener, bowler, tennis player and golfer. She achieved brief notoriety in 1923. After graduating from Miss Fine's, she attended Wellesley College and was chosen May Queen in her freshman year. However, she decided instead to marry Charles Arrott of Sewickley, an event which the Gazette Times Magazine said, "Set the pace for an epidemic of college marrying."

1925 Class Secretary
Mrs. Walter J. Smith
(Florence Clayton)
37 Dix Street
Winchester, MA 08190

It's always a pleasure to catch up with classmates from whom we have not heard recently. Janet Macinnes Arnott reports that she is living in Norristown, PA with her youngest daughter, Kathlene, and her son-in-law, Ed, who is president of the Montgomery County College in the Philadelphia area. They have three daughters ages 7, 9 and 11. Jean's middle daughter, Alice, and her husband, Conrad, with their sons, William and Evan, came on from Sydney, Australia for a month's visit at Easter time in '84. As for Janet's eldest daughter, Jean, she and her husband, Kevin, call North Carolina their home state. Janet enjoys traveling too — to Greece in '83 with Kathy and Alice and a forthcoming trip with Kathy and her family to visit Alice in the "land down under." Happy traveling, Janet! Joan Woolworth Smith has "nothing newsworthy" to report but sends best wishes. Thanks, Joan! Sue Blackwell Posey gives us an account of her winter trip to California, beginning with a day in Palo Alto visiting the beautiful Tiboli Garden, followed by two nights in San Francisco and thence to the Pacific Palisades and sightseeing in LaJolla. The highlight in San Diego's famous zoo was a pair of golden monkeys from China. However, a visit to Scripps Oceanographic Aquarium brought forth the greatest amount of enthusiasm — "fantastic Sea World where we fed whales by hand, one barking his thanks to me, a thrilling performance of trained dolphins ending with two men riding on those beautiful creatures and the last exhibit, a reconstruction of penguins in their habitat, must be seen to be believed. Now I feel satisfied!" No mid-winter doldrums for you, Sue!

Dorothy Auten Sutton says she still enjoys her church, hospital work, "Great Decisions" group, prayer group, plays and symphonies. Then, in response to Your Secretary's suggestion about comments on books and other topics, Dottie writes, "Any of Lewis Thomas', the latest for me, Late Night Thoughts on Listening to Mahler's Ninth Symphony. Also Paul Brand and Philip Yancy; In His Image and Fearfully and Wonderfully Made. All those show the relation of science and religion. Of modern novels, I often think detective tales are the only ones worth reading. I guess 'the good old days' were not so good after all or they wouldn't have led us into the global mess we are in now."

Dottie's comments are thought provoking. What would you other classmates of '25 like to offer in the line of suggested books or comments? With spring and summer ahead, have a happy time and tell us about it later!

In spite of not being a very good secretary-reporter, (Untrue! — Ed.) I read the Journal avidly and want to congratulate the editors on a very well done and entertaining magazine. I am going to give a run-down on our classmates the school has on file. Some we hear from, but some we don't, and it would be great if you would let us know how you are and if you know anything about others not listed.

Josephine Webb Alexander, 1909 20th Street, Parkersburg, WV 26101. Haven't heard from her in a long time. Joan Prentice Carlton and her husband live at 194 Medford Leas, Medford Leas, NJ 08055 and also spend time in the summer at their cottage at the New Jersey shore. Joan says she loves Medford Leas and it was a good move from taking care of a house in Princeton. Anne Long Day lives at 114 Cedar Street, Wallace, ID 83873. Haven't heard from her in ages. Nancy Goheen Finch and her husband, Jerry, live at 99 McCosh Circle, Princeton, NJ 08540. Didn't hear this time, but Nancy has been a good correspondent. Mary Love Glenn, Yacht Club Road, Centre Island, Oyster Bay, NY 11771, writes that last summer she spent three weeks in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, a fascinating national monument town. This winter she is at home on her windy bluff. All her children live nearby. Her daughter, Sarah, has three children and she is teaching remedial reading. Woody is running the big machine at Brookhaven Laboratory, Will, who has two children, handles a new securities division system at Chemical Bank and Larry, also two children, I believe, is head of credit policy at Citibank. They are all great sailors and "Lady" is a very popular painter of shadow box pictures of houses. Anna Hale moved August 1st to Apartment 3Q, 4545 Valley View Road, Edina, MN 55424. She writes, "Last winter ('83-'84) I spent nearly three months with friends in Tucson, AZ — glorious! On returning late in February, ran into a replay of winter! It was too much for me, being wholly responsible for a house and an acre of land, so I am moving to an apartment in Edina, (another Minneapolis suburb,) where I spent six years earlier. It will be a relief and also I'll be nearer my church, my sister, Mary, in a nursing home, and my nephew's family." Her Christmas card this year said she's going back to Tucson this winter.

Kingsley Kahler Hubby and her husband, Frank, moved several years ago from Princeton to 249 Old Black Paint Road, Niantic, CT 06357. They had lunch with us in Princeton about a month ago and are fine and love living at Black Point where it is delightfully quiet and scenic, overlooking Long Island Sound. Lawrence Norris Kerr and husband Arch live at 16 College Road West, Princeton and "would love to have any of you come and see us when you are in Princeton. I retired ten years ago from the real estate business. We spend the fall, winter and spring here and the summers on our little island in the Thousand Islands where we do all the work and have lovely sailing. Currently I'm very much involved with the 'Friends of Princeton Open Space' who are trying to protest Princeton from the evils of too much development." Margaret Manning, Manning Lane, P.O. Box 6027, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648, has had some interesting trips. Last March she and her sister, Helen, and Margaretta Cowenhoven '30 and another friend vacationed for a week at Dog Island, a dreamy spot in the Conservatory group off the west coast of Florida. Last fall she and Margaretta and others flew to Seattle up the Inland Passage to Kachemak, a beautifully scenic area. Christine Gibbons Mason is at 8 Edgehill Street, Princeton with her husband, Alpheus, who has been laid up with shingles for about three years. Before that, they had about ten fascinating years of living around the country at universities when Alpheus was giving lectures.

Margaret Osterbloom Pell, no current address, please let us know if you know about her. Eileen Lafferty Pickering, 4000 Cathedral Avenue, Washington, DC 20016. Haven't heard for a long time. Lois Davis Stevenson lives with her husband, Don PCD '21, at 23 Wagon Trail, Highland Farm, Black Mountain, NC 28711. Some time ago she sent us a picture of herself, just as lovely as when she was at MFS. Let's hear from all of you.

Margaret Wheaton Tuttle '27 enjoying her first grandchild, Katherine Marguerite, who was one year old in February.

1927 No Class Secretary

The class of '27, though still without a Class Secretary, remain good correspondents. Some very exciting news arrived from Betty Maddock Scheffer who reports, "Bill Scheffer and I were married in Makefield Friends Meeting, PA on December 29, 1984. It was a lovely warm day and we sat on the porch of our house in Titusville, NJ overlooking the Delaware River." Congratulations, Betty. Katherine

Mitchell Osborne writes, "My husband, Fred, and I are going, on February 20th, for ten days to Key West, Florida to visit my sister, Elizabeth (Bishy) Mitchell Beatty '28 in her new home. Our son, Frederick S. Osborne, Jr. PCD '55, has been named Director of the School of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. He will take up this work on April 1st of this year, leaving the directorship of Continuing Studies at the Philadelphia College of Art, a position he has held for over seven years. He will continue as one of the directors of the Vermont Studio School, a summer art school for professionals and advanced students, of which he was a co-founder. Our daughter, Lydia Osborne Sterra '65, who was in the Alumni Office of Princeton University before, and in the early years of her marriage, returned after ten years spent in having and getting started their two children. She has now been back one and a half years. She was recently appointed to an executive position and will start in her new work by the first of March." An earlier note from Kay in November told of a two week trip to Savannah, GA that was great fun for her. Jean March Westphal has also been traveling; "Al and I have returned from a visit to our family in the Netherlands. Eric, our oldest grandson, is a senior at the American School of the Hague and is busy looking at American colleges for next fall."

Elizabeth Blackwell Drake entered six color photographs of New York City in the PDS Alumni Art Exhibition this fall. She is still showing slides and lecturing on Quakers and slavery in America with her husband. They plan to stay at their home in Jamaica from February until April. Margaret Wheaton Tuttle was also a participant in the Alumni Art Exhibition. She submitted the bookjacket she designed for her book of short stories, Far Away, Long Ago. The book has been praised recently by the well-known writer, May Sarton. Margaret writes, "A year ago, I went abroad alone. Spent two weeks in London, then three in southern Spain visiting a friend. From June to October of '84, I was at my home on Martha's Vineyard. This winter I am here in Concord, MA and doing a bit of volunteer work in the Concord Library which, by the way, is one of the largest in the U.S. for a town of its size — population 16,295, books 200,000." She sent us a darling picture of her first grandchild. Our deepest sympathy to Margaret on the death of her sister, Dorothea Wheaton Benham '17, last September.

Marty Stockton Brush writes, "We are expecting our seventh grandchild in March. Our oldest granddaughter, Elizabeth Stockton Brush, is being married on March 30th. Bert is semi-retired and attended his 50th reunion in '83." (I wrote about that reunion at the time, when they lunched with three of our male classmates from Miss Fine's.) Marty's brother and sister both came from Florida for Christmas. They are Roberta Stockton Johnson '38 and Bayard Stockton PCD '29. Roberta has lived there since her husband died. My friend Margaret Lowry Butler wrote some very sad news. Her husband, Charles, died October 6, 1984. They had been married 45 years. They had not been in their new home very long. Fortunately their two children are staying so she will not be alone. Margaret Brooks Van Dusen '31, her cousin, and her 97 year old aunt are near her. The class extends its deepest to dear Margaret. Jean Bunn Skillman writes, "We have two grandsons, one almost 16 and one already 16. Had an invitation to Margaret Russell Edmondson '32 and Frank's 50th wedding anniversary in November. We continue to follow the seasons. Winter (now) in cold Florida. Spring and fall in Galena, MD. Summer in Maine. We arrange to pick up the mail in Oakland, Maine when there. Heard a scary talk on 'acid rain' at Audubon meeting this week. What it has done and what it is doing to life on the east coast, particularly Deland. Our address is: Mr. and Mrs. Federick W. Skillman, 4140 Holly Acres Court, Deland, FL 32724. Ginny Meyers Morgan has moved to Hilton Head and loves it, she wrote Marty. Some details, please, Ginny.

1930 No Class Secretary

1931 Class Secretary
Mrs. Robert N. Smyth
(Jean Osgood)
321 Nassau Street
Princeton, NJ 08540

Before I go into any class notes, I wish to thank everyone that contributed in any way to my retirement and gave me such a beautiful party and presents; particularly in any Joan Baker, Dan and Tassie way to (Turkevich) Skvir '62, Wes and Judy McCaughan, David Bogle and Bob Whitlock. Also a special thanks to Linda Maxwell Stefanelli '62 whose idea it was to ask Herbert McAneny to write an article about me for the Journal. Herbert has always been a good writer but he outdid himself this time. Thanks, Mr. Mac! I also appreciated all the notes and phone calls I got and thank you one and all.

Now to more important business! I got a nice card from Margaret Brooks Van Dusen (Brooksie). She married Frank Van Dusen in 1974. Her first husband, Dan Goodenough, died. Frank and Dan were classmates at Princeton. They live in Wynnewood, PA. Frank is a Federal Judge on the Court of Appeals for the third circuit. Her son and one daughter and seven grandchildren all live in the Philadelphia area which makes it very nice for Brooksie. Her other daughter is Senior Tutor at Currier House at Harvard and teaches English; she also has her Ph.D. Brooksie says that she sees the three Mitchell sisters: Kay Osborne '27, (Elizabeth) Bishy Beatty '28 and Anne Dielhenn '29 from time to time in Philadelphia. She also says that on one of her trips to Princeton she will call me and I am looking forward to that. Clare Raymond Durant and I have been corresponding recently I had hoped to go and see her this summer in Woodstock, NH where I spent many happy times with her and her family as a teenager, but instead I entertained a case of shingles. Hope for better luck next summer. Clare has the best of both worlds — winters in Florida and summers in New Hampshire. (A note from Clare arrived in the Alumni Office last October and reads, "I would so love to be near enough Princeton to see my dear friends of '31 again at any time. Alumni Day would be my best chance. Next year I'll send snapshots of my four "little" grandchildren (6-12 years old), but would be hard put to get my scattered four older grandchildren. I live in a cypress cabin in Florida most of the year (with my daughter, Cory, and her fiance) and in a pine summer camp in my parents' New Hampshire place with hosts of Raymond relatives dropping in. Love to '31.")

I see Cissy Cowenhoven Stuart '32 and Mary Cowenhoven Coyle '35 from time to time and we catch up on news. The rest of the class of '31 doesn't seem to want to communicate with me so that's all 'til next time.

1932 No Class Secretary

A letter from Willette Drummond Hack was routed to us via Sally Gardner Tiers '33 and Jean Osgood Smyth '31. It seems that Willie and her husband, who is a doctor, live in California, but every year they take a trip to Thailand; this was their fifth year. They have made many friends there, from a motorcycle repairman to Chinese merchants to University professors. They have traveled over much of the country and obviously love it. Willie enjoys buying Thai jewelry and bringing it back to the States. Our congratulations to Margaret Russell Edmondson and Frank on their 50th wedding anniversary!

Alice Sinclair Schwartz and Peter of John's Island, SC, had a great family reunion at Christmas in New Orleans with son Don and family and son Peter and his three children. During the past severe winter of '85 which hit the South as well as the North, (How redundant can I be?) the Schwartz's joined Alice's sister Lib and Bill Flemer for a warm vacation in Puerto Rico. Lily Lambert McCarthy and John continue to spend most of their time in East Sussex, England. John has been busy restoring gardens in the county. Lily certainly doesn't let grass grow under her feet as she always has interesting projects in the works no matter where she lives. The past winter they returned "home" (we like to hear that) to Palm Beach, FL earlier than usual as John had to have an operation which was successful. He's back on the tennis courts, the sport he loves. Betty Menzies writes that her silversmith business is going great guns in the "Full House" shop in Kingston, NJ and the shop is continually asking for more of her interesting style pieces. Her jewelry and ornaments are also displayed in Clinton and Barnegat, NJ and New Hope, PA. Your scribe has a lovely pendant of silver and turquoise of hers on which she has received many compliments. Busy Betty finds time to teach her dog tricks! Have you ever heard of a dog talking over the phone? Well, Betty's yellow Lab does! The voice on the phone says, "Down," and he does it and receives a reward. He barks back wanting the phone to say more all the time. Sounds like a familiar pastime with us ladies. The only reward we get is, "Must you always be on the phone?" Ho, hum! Betty's restaurant Baedecker continues for lunches: the Stockton Inn's menu has improved and The Book Peddler off Delaware Avenue in Pennington serves very nice light lunches.

Your Scribe and her husband spend more time in Vero Beach as it is now our residence. For sure, Vero Beach is not as cultural as Princeton but there is plenty to keep one busy in this salubrious climate; play golf, tennis, swim or contemplate the sea. Salubrious climate for the most part, yes, but the weather can play havoc too. Two incidences since October are worth mentioning. An unannounced near hurricane with devastating high tides, wind and rain descended on us Friday of Thanksgiving weekend. Less than one hour's notice was given to people occupying houses, condos or motels on the ocean to evacuate to the mainland. Bobby Terry PCD '34 and his wife, Brucie, who were at the Holiday Inn for a restful few days from the hustle and bustle of Palm Beach, came as refugees to our house which at that moment was a sieve due to nine inches of rain that fell in just a few hours. Fortunately, the big leaks chose good spots — down the chandelier where we had a bucket brigade and, if you please, rain water was received in the upstairs basin and toilet! High tide was at 8:00 p.m. We were okay as we live far enough back from the ocean. The rain and wind stopped. A good night's sleep was had by us four and the next day was a picture postcard day. Damage to us — a new roof needed, but on the beach — disaster. (At this writing the beach is great. Buildings that didn't slip into the sea are patched up.) Great weather over Christmas — swimming in 70° water. Come January, two nights of well below freezing so our garden is gone for the second year in a row and Florida is brown. But nature is strong and spring's a'comin'. Most plants will survive but don't have House and Garden take pictures now. Never a dull moment.

Do have a happy, healthy summer and news for us all to read next Journal. Cheers.

We wish to extend our deepest sympathies to Nini Duffield Dielhenn on the death of her sister, Florence Duffield MacLaren '28.

Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004

Several classmates have responded with news which makes the job of class correspondent fun. Let's hear from more of you! Martha Lutz Page said that she was sorry to miss the reunion but that everyone "looked great." Her children from Utah and New Hampshire were with her for Christmas plus one granddaughter. The latter is a junior at Northfield-Mt. Herman School, rows Varsity crew, plays Varsity ice hockey, has an A-average and is considering colleges. Cricket Myers McLean saw Maisie Bowman Gillespie in Aberdeen, Scotland in September. They had a great time reminiscing. The McLeans plan to go to London in March, taking their oldest grandson. Cricket is public relations chairman for the D.A.R. and the local Cancer Society, and is also much involved with church work, bridge clubs, book clubs, and the North Carolina Symphony. Mary Smith Auten was also sorry to miss reunion. She had planned to come but was needed to babysit for a grandson in Virginia. She spent much of the summer on Long Beach Island. She is active in her local garden Club. Her 14 year old twin granddaughters took part in a marching band parade at the Georgia Peach Bowl at Christmas. They live in Marion, Ohio.

Getty Righter Snow says that her son Tom's song, "Let's Hear It For The Boy," has been nominated for an Academy Award. It came from the movie Footloose and was a big hit last summer. Tom wrote the music and Dean Pitchford wrote the lyrics. Jane Lewis Dusenbury and her husband have just returned from a visit to their home in Hawaii. Charlie is enjoying his retirement, but Jane is just as busy as ever. They hope to drive east next summer, ending up in New England. Jane was sorry to miss reunion but thought the photos were very good. Bill and I have both kept extremely busy, he with practicing law and I with various children's social agencies of which I am a Board member. I have honestly hoped to organize a luncheon get-together but so far have not done so. I wish someone would do so. We have had two family reunions, one at Thanksgiving when Sue flew east and we all meet at my sister, Helen Highberger's MFS '25 home in Ramsey, NJ and another this past weekend at Skytop, when Kathie and her family joined us. We plan to go to England in May.

Unfortunately, I have not been able to gather any news from the class. I would like to be surprised and see some of you when it is time to gather for the BIG 50th reunion. It would be a most pleasant surprise. I leave for Florida in March and my daughter, Nancy, and her family take off for Vail and hope to enjoy the winter sports. I've sent a photograph that shows me with Nancy at Christmas.

Too late for the last '38 report came a welcome card from Doris Sinclair McAnerney. She retired in early 1982 from her position as head nurse at Concord (N.H.) Hospital. Husband George retired in February, and in August they traveled to Switzerland. ("Beautiful views and flowers everywhere.") Now they are into numerous retirement activities, such as tennis, gardening, bridge, crafts and parish secretary. Doris and George have a grandson, Ken, born in May 1983.

Kay Eisenhart Brown sent two collages to the PDS Alumni Show last October in the midst of the wine and walnut harvests and wonderful fall weather.

Sis (or Bobbie, as she is now known,) Harper Lawrence and her husband Merle were written up in the Vero Beach Press Journal as having won between them 31 gold and silver medals for senior swimming events — in the space of one month. That's retirement!

Joan Taylor Ashley went to China in October with a Vassar group led by a Chinese professor who had fled from a Shanghai island to Taiwan in 1949. They visited Beijing, Xian, the Luoyang tombs, Shanghai, Waxi, the Great Wall, Imperial Place and stayed at Y.M. Pei's Fragrant Hill Hotel. After more than a year of labor, Joan has about finished building a garage for her San Francisco house.

Your secretary went to the PDS benefit showing of "The Bostonians" in February and met "Superman" Christopher Reeve '70; I saw no classmates at the Moven reception, but it was crowded.

Our cooperative Alumni Secretary sent me a list of known members of the class of '38. Two of the 22 who graduated have died: J'Anne Ashley Smith in October '74 and Ann Pettit Bittel (ex '35) in October '83. Most of the rest of us seem to be settled in the Northeast Corridor, from New Hampshire to Virginia — except for Marjorie Munn Knapp, who lives in South Carolina, Jacqueline Rose Sidford in North Carolina, and Joan Taylor Ashley in California,

Jane Thomas Fenninger in Illinois and Sis Harper Lawrence, who commutes from Grand Cayman. When last heard from, Madelaine Tarr Sweeting was living in Rye, N.Y. and helping to edit Consumer Reports, but there has been no word for many moons. There are no addresses at all on file for Beatrice Snoko and Barbara Wallace Shields. Can anyone help?

A card from Roz Earle Matthews arrived too late for the last column but the news in it is still relevant. She reported putting in 40 hour weeks as a volunteer preparing a benefit for Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington. She says she plans to retire soon from all her volunteer work (mostly in the fundraising field for Smith and PPMW), but I wouldn't count on it. In September she took a trip with a Smith alumnae group to Northern England, the Borders and Edinburg and then joined her husband in Paris for two weeks there and in Provence. While in the U.K. she visited with Valerie Winant Goodhart who is still commuting between London and Oxford and keeping up her usual hectic pace in both places. Roz reports that Val gardens on hands and knees and is sure no one else can find the weeds as well as she does. The last two of Val's seven children are university-bound and all the children and grandchildren drop in frequently. Those who knew her will be sorry to hear that Val's mother died recently.

Jane Jolliffe Clemens '44 at daughter's house in Breckinridge, CO.

Jane Jolliffe Clemens writes: "I enjoy living in the mountains. In the winter, ski, in summer, wildflowers and birdwatching — in all seasons; watercolors and photography." I see her from time to time and recently we went cross-country skiing together to her daughter's home which is inaccessible by automobile for the winter months.

After spending close to 30 summers in the mountains of central Idaho where Ben has been doing field work for the U.S.G.S., we decided to buy a house in McCall, Idaho, the end of the paved (our daughter used to call it behaved) road where we have done our grocery shopping for items not available 60 miles further back. Last week we were shocked to receive a notification from the city that if we did not board up the house in 5 days and tear it down in 60 days we were in deep trouble. After 36 hours of stewing we found someone who could tell us that the city had the wrong address and the house next door had burned. I flew up there anyway and after doing the necessary business had time to cross country ski and also to spend a day downhill at the Brundage Ski Area nearby. I find I like the area just as much in the winter as I do in the summer. Our other excitement for the winter was the re-marriage of our daughter. Our eight year old grandson stayed with us while Ruh and Eric spent a week in Cozumel. He had fun skiing with me but thought it would have been even better to be lying on the beach.

Our deepest sympathies to Julia Lee whose father, Rensselaer Lee died in December.

The school told me that Consuelo Kuhn Wassink was lost, but she says not so. She knows exactly where she is, at 1340 W. 23rd Ave., Anchorage, AK 99501. With her job with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Planning Team she has recently been to Unimak Island (her first Aleutian). She bets that she has flown with more of the worlds best pilots (Reeve Alaskan Airways for one) than anyone else in the class — "and my luck with sunny weather in Cold Bay — That's another story!"

While our backs have been turned, it is suddenly our 40th reunion! Alumni Day will be on Saturday, May 18th at PDS and I wish some of you out there would plan to attend! It is very lonely being the ONLY '45er year after year! Please send me a card if you think you can make the day. Mary Jo Gardner Fenton now has six grandchildren: daughters Sarah and Sandy each have three. Johnny is living in Aspen with the Fentons and Hamilton, having finished Columbia, is living and working in Sun Valley. Mary Jo and Dick, with eight other couples, recently spent four days skiing in and around Salt Lake City...great fun. The Fentons are off to Britain and the continent after Easter and we hope to see them here in May. Where is all the other news? My post box is totally empty. Would someone else like this job?

Philena Locke Richards writes, "This is our third winter in Maine since Charley retired. Love it — especially the life style and wonderful people. Our second daughter, Karin, is engaged to an Australian and will be married here in Maine in June before returning to Australia. Our other daughters are closer. Lee is in New York City in sports medicine and Pam has just moved to Portland, ME and is establishing her certified massage business, mainly with athletes." Hedi Dresdner Roulette is very excited about the birth of her first grandchild, Charles Stuart Rauch, born September 9, 1984. Her mother died in November and we send Hedi our deepest sympathies. Jean Geisenberger Cranstoun reports, "I have published an article, '1 of 2 Jews in Albany, KY not NY' in The Kentucky Jewish Post and Opinion, 10/17/84. I am tutoring a woman in reading, using the LAUBACH method, for Concerned Citizens for Better Education in Clinton County. The county has 30.5% high school graduates, one of the very lowest in the Commonwealth." Jean is also involved as a free secretary to the Catholic church in Albany. Our condolences to Mary Lee Muromcew whose father died in December.

I was truly delighted to hear from Adelaide Comstock Roberts with her news for this issue. It's been a while since I've heard from her, and her news is very "upbeat" indeed. Fred and she have moved from Long Island to Woodbury, CT where they have become bonafide Christmas tree entrepreneurs. Fred keeps busy outside and Addy is completely happy with various hunt activities. They have a grandson, Adam Chambers Roberts, born a year ago. She also tells of her daughter, Emily, who is living in Boston now, teaching English at a high school in Brockton, MA and her youngest daughter, Alex, who is engaged and hopes to have her wedding up in Newport, RI at the Comstock home — just like Mother and Dad did. I remember so many happy times visiting Addy and her family in Newport and now I understand Mrs. Comstock has chosen it as her permanent home and it's where Addy keeps a good eye on her. Two horses and two dogs complete the Roberts family. Fred's brother, Owen, is now Ambassador to Togo, and Kit — Alice Roberts Pierson is now able to see Addy and Fred once a month instead of just infrequently, the way they did when Addy and Fred were out on Long Island.

As for my news, it's still a busy, busy world for me with all my various activities and growing children, to the point that I now want to cut back a bit and lead a more peaceful and normal life. That seems like a luxury beyond belief. I realized all this when Dave and I were down with twin Sam and his wife Sally at their lovely villa in Stuart, FL in October. I totally relaxed in the sun, played bridge, and did the crossword puzzles — it was heaven. I hope I may have the chance to sell my travel agency soon, remaining only to do outside sales. This would give me much more time to myself, so keep your fingers crossed. You'll be happy to hear that Mother and Dad are still alive and doing very well at the respective ages of 92 and 95. They celebrated their 71st wedding anniversary on February 14th — can you believe it? Addy, dear, it was more than marvelous to hear from you — I do honestly think of you so often — many thanks for your news. You sound so wonderfully happy, which is a great joy to me and, I'm sure, to all your classmates.

The rest of '47, do try to collect a bit of news for the next issue. The column needs a bit of "sparking," besides which, if I have to play Hedda Hopper, give me some news to spread around.

The photograph near this column shows some of the gals of 1948 at Millie Robertson Anderson's house in the spring of 1984 after a delightful luncheon. We missed the rest of '48 but we sent them up to date addresses and pictures of the class. I saw Jean Mountford Kelly at dinner recently with her mother and sister, Sally Mountford Maruca '50. The girls look great, just like they did in MFS. Some people never change!

Malcolm (Yale '81) is in the midst of Ph.D. research in molecular biology and biochemistry at Harvard; Laura graduates from Duke in June with no clear view, at the moment, of what comes next. Happy Birthday to us! This is the year that most of us turn 50 so in my opinion we all deserve a round of applause for having reached the half century mark.

Ann Stoddard Sielman writes that she has put two through college, one Swarthmore and one Dickinson. There are two more to go, one graduating this June from Swarthmore and a rising sophomore at Skidmore. When the last child finishes, she and Pete plan a celebration trip to New Zealand. Aside from shuffling the children in and out of college, Ann is the Alternate Representative at the United Nations for the league of Women Voters of the United States which sends her to NYC about twice a week. She is still surrounded by Bedlington Terriers although back problems have stopped her from showing them. She and Pete have been traveling of late to old haunts in Scotland, England, and Switzerland where they took their youngest graduate skiing in March. Ann did not ski but visited friends in Geneva. A postcard from Wendy Hall Alden informs us that she had a nice visit with her sister, Betsy Hall Hutz '56 back in October. They hope to tour Cape Breton Island together next year. My daughter, Katherine, and I were flying out to Ohio to look at Denison University last fall when who should be in the next seat but Hilary Thompson Demarest. The trip was not a silent one! After catching up on each other's news and receiving a postcard, I can report that Hilary spends as much time skiing as possible including an occasional weekend with her daughter, Lea, in Vermont and a college friend in Exeter, NH. She is still working on paintings from her African trip, has taken another insurance course, is playing tennis, and is skating once a week. Susan McAllen Turner says she has absolutely no news but is programmed to return the card. The Turners are no longer involved in bobsledding but keep busy in the slow off-season by caning and reeding chairs plus watching their supply of firewood dwindle rapidly and wondering if they'll make it to the end of yet another NO-FUEL-OIL winter!

(1984) to Peter Alcock. The reception was held at Morven. After two weddings in two years Louise is relieved that it will hopefully be awhile before they'll have to put on another one. (Hilary is now in ninth grade.) A long letter came from Anna Rosenblad at Christmas. She is still settled near Cannes, painting and playing the piano. Her two youngest children are with her, Niko, 18, and Josephine, 14. Anna says they are very tall. She sent some photos of her art work which is really charming. There are some nicer ones than the one printed here, but the colors are so pale I didn't think they would reproduce well. I am having a wonderful time this year taking art history courses at Sarah Lawrence College and piano lessons in NYC. Two children are in college, one to go.

Jean Crawford Brace wrote, "Now that our family is somewhat out of the nest Rusty has decided to run for public office. He's GOP candidate for our State (Maine) Senate and we're getting used to pancake breakfasts, parades and bumper stickers. Karen will be a senior at Dartmouth this fall, Jodie will be a freshman at Simmons and Heather will be a tenth grader at Andover. My big decision has been not to go full time as a junior high school guidance counselor, but to continue as half time." In a later note we learned that although Rusty lost his bid for the Senate, the family had a great year. Laura Travers Pardee wrote, "This has been a memorable year for the Pardee family. Our daughter, Martha, Northwestern '83, was married to Timothy Regan, Northwestern '83, in Wilmington on May 26th with a beautiful reception at home. Fred and I spent a week in Bermuda to celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary on June 13th. Our son, Michael, Princeton '82, was married to Jennifer Freund, Princeton '83, on July 7th in King's Point, NY, also with a lovely home reception. Martha and Tim are teaching at the Phillips Academy summer session in Andover, MA and Michael will return to Albuquerque Academy in New Mexico to begin his third year of teaching American History."

Nicky Knox Watts and her family have moved to the wild west! Her new address is: 2463 Scorpio Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80906. Nicky and David's daughter, Emily, will remain in the east for her second year at the Corcoran School of Art while the rest of the family moves to the Rockies. David will be running a big transportation test facility for the association of American R.R.S. Nicky saw Barbara Benson Crowther in May for a brief visit. Bos is practicing law at Palmyra and Barb is involved in all sorts of things. The Watts spent a long weekend with Mary Tyson Goodridge Tice and all of her children in Colorado Springs in early June. Nicky later wrote that "Princeton and Washington seem very far away as we settle into our new life in Colorado. We had a wonderful time in Santa Fe over the Christmas holidays with most of the Knox tribe. Mary Tyson visited us several times in November — her youngest, Meredith is living in Denver. It was such fun to see her. I am with a fairly large interior design firm here and doing volunteer jobs too — a nice way to make new friends! It is a treat to be so near good skiing — we all love it!"

Alice Marie Nelson writes, "It is hard to believe it's 30 years, seems like only yesterday (as the saying goes). I've been giving recitals in New York City and Connecticut and will be singing the alto solos in the St. Matthew Passion on April 6th in Charlottesville, VA with the orchestra conducted by Otto Werner Mueller of Yale — in German yet! Am thrilled at the prospect. Also a duet recital coming up June 11th at Christ and St. Stephens Church, West 69th Street with Margaret Willig, soprano." Ute Sauter Goeller sent a photo with this news: "I am just back from a skiing vacation with my two oldest sons. One is in medical school and the other is studying biology. My husband and I had our 25th wedding anniversary last summer. I'm keeping up on my English by reading English books (Alice Marie Nelson is one of the suppliers) and by traveling in England. The U.S. has become too expensive for us Europeans with the dollar soaring! I would love a visit from any old friend from school." Annie Belford Ulanov sent Christmas greetings and some news. Alexander began high school at Trinity in New York. Barry's collected Prayers of St. Augustine just came out and Annie is "joyously" on sabbatical! Lucky you, Annie! Enjoy every minute of it!

Ute Sauter Goeller '55 with her husband, Alfred.

A very special treat for the class of 1955 is news of Miss Catherine Campbell. While your Class Secretary was in Seattle last summer, Kit Green happened to mention that she had "Miss Campbell's" address and that Miss Campbell is now Mrs. Raymond Hanrahan. (See Photo.) I wrote "Miss Campbell" at Christmas time and received a wonderful letter from her. In 1982 she moved to Trumbull, CT in a new — just furnished residence — "independent living" — where she met her husband to be. They were married November 9, 1983. They enjoyed a trip to Hawaii in May 1984. "Miss Campbell" (how could we call her anything else?) continues to enjoy her music. She and her husband visited Princeton last April and stopped to see Miss Davis in Westwood on the trip down. "Miss Campbell" said, "Remember me to your '55 classmates. I remember them! I have fond memories of MFS and the very special girls I taught." (She must be referring to OUR class!) Her address is: Mrs. Raymond Hanrahan, Teresian Towers, Apt. 507, 6454 Main Street, Trumbull, CT 06611. I know she would love to hear from any of us!

Raymond and Catherine Campbell Hanrahan.

Chloe King spent the summer on a six week excursion to the west via Amtrak. Stops in Glacier National Park, Montana; Seattle, Washington (with Kit Green); Eugene, Oregon and Los Angeles, California — the Olympics were just great! Kit is an associate athletic director at the University of Washington which certainly agrees with her. She looks super! The Olympics were very special from start to finish. The school year has been wildly busy and the days just disappear! Another super field hockey season — both with my teams and umpiring college level matches. All of that (umpiring) is so challenging, I've taken up jogging on a regular basis to stay fit! Can you imagine? Can't call it "running" because my pace is too slow, but I do two miles every morning at 6:30 and love it! I slip off to the woods of NH at least once monthly for R and R. I started a squash team last year and the team is doing well. Skiing hasn't been too super in New England this winter, so am heading for Steamboat Springs, Colorado for a week in March! Hope to hear from more of our classmates for the next issue of the Journal.

Betsy Hall Hutz has become an "expert on giardiasis" after two years of trying to convince the medical profession that she was correct. "February will be spent in Maine working on photography and escaping from broken laundry tubs, vacuum cleaners, et cetera, in a 21-year-old house. Marina and I often catch up in Bookbinders before the Philadelphia Orchestra performances. I saw Betsy Thomas Hastings' mother in the Academy of Music in the fall." Anne Harrison-Clark has been made National Director of Public Affairs for the

March of Dimes. (Congratulations!) "New challenges for the remainder of the decade and on!"

Marina Turkevich Naumann (ever-faithful with her news as is Betsy H.) writes: "Andrew graduated from Lawrenceville and entered Princeton this fall. To counter-balance his rigorous Engineering School curriculum, he is the lone freshman on the university rugby team. Kris is a junior at Smith, where she continues her broadcasting, painting, and participation in a number of art shows. This summer she worked at the Melody Tent Theater." In June Marina and Bob traveled to the alpine village of Zinal, in the Rhone Valley near Zermatt. This past December they explored Hawaii during another CERN scientists' conference. Presently Bob is readying everyone for a sabbatical year ('85-'86), starting in Munich, hopefully, and perhaps moving on to Geneva. Lockie Stafford Proctor sent us a Christmas photograph of her handsome family. Perry is a junior at Stanford, spending this term in Oxford; Holly is a freshman at University of New Hampshire which she loves. Lucy (eighth grade) and Toby (fourth grade) are in Montgomery Township Schools where Lockie is on the Board of Education. "Lots of work for me but rewarding." Last summer, while Perry was at AFROTC camp in Delaware, Lockie went with the other three kids on a fantasy cruise to England, Norway, Scotland, and Ireland, then back home across the Atlantic on the Royal Viking. (Sounds marvelous!) The trouble with that is that now they want to go again, anywhere a ship is going!

Good news — there is news!
Alissa Kramer Sutphin and Bill enjoyed a marvelous trip to England last fall. They seem to have covered most of the points of interest in London and environs and then topped all this off with a delightful visit with Thayer Clark Paine and husband, Michael, in Fareham, a suburb of Portsmouth. Thayer, the perfect hostess, according to Alissa, showed them Winchester, where they toured the school and cathedral, naval yards, submarines, antique shops, pubs, etc. The Paines arranged for Bill to meet with three different towns' planning officials — a particular interest of his. "In the interim, Thayer did all the laundry, mowed the lawn and cooked beautiful dinners." Thayer and Michael are renovating a most attractive house.

In November, Susan Kohler Frost, wrote that "we finally decided that we wanted our second home in a perfect climate so, last January, we bought a condominium in the Ilikai in Honolulu. We are on the seventeenth floor with a spectacular view of the Pacific. We spent a delightful summer in Hawaii and will be returning there for Christmas."

Bonnie Campbell Perkins was here in town with her family for the Christmas holidays. One day we met with Helen Wilmerding Abeel and her lovely daughter, Jane PDS '89, for luncheon. Bonnie persuaded Abbie Rickert Hershey, who resides in Wilmington, Delaware, to join her in New York for a grand day of shopping and a long overdue rendezvous. Abbie has promised to return this spring when Bonnie expects to be back for another short stay. It is our hope that we can alert those of you within shouting distance for a mini reunion at that time.

Nancy Hagen Spaulding '57 with her husband, Vern, and sons, Peter and Lance.

Nancy Hagen Spaulding wrote that "because the real estate market has been on the slow side the past five months, I have been working for an advertising company out of Tacoma, Washington, selling advertising on starting tee signs and benches on golf courses, which California has many of! I am an independent contractor, which affords me a lot of flexibility." Nancy hopes to come East in June for her niece's, Katy Kerney, graduation from Stuart Country Day. We look forward to seeing you, Nancy. There's a handsome photograph of Nancy and Vern with their sons, Peter, 15, and Lance, 17, accompanying this column.

The November 23rd edition of the Princeton Packet tells us that Susie Smith Hillier has been appointed as borough representative on the Princeton Regional Planning Board. Susie "is a local developer and head of Susan Hillier Enterprises on 366 Nassau Street. She has helped develop properties including One Markham Condominiums and Baldwin Lane." All good wishes to you, Susie.

Many thanks to those of you who submitted news for this issue. Let's have an even bigger and better response next time.

Although we have not heard from Your Secretary directly, we spotted her name in the local papers. It seems Linda won a special merit award plus a cash prize in the Kodak International Newspaper Snapshot Awards. She took up photography as a hobby a year and a half ago and this was the first contest she'd entered. The prize winning photo was taken in a steady drizzle and is a lovely picture of a covered bridge in Sturbridge, MA. Linda took the picture for her home but parted with it for two weeks in January so it could be displayed in the Citicorp Center in New York. Congratulations!

Twenty-five years! Hardly seems real until receiving news like Nancy Davis Sachner's: "Daughter Heidi graduates from Princeton this June with major in English..." Nancy also writes that her son, Peter, is sophomore at Princeton and that they plan to move to Middlebury, Connecticut this year where they are building a house. Martha Thompson Eckfeldt and family are living overseas again — this time in "Fabulous Madrid", relishing the challenge of learning Spanish. Sally Hagen Schmid will spend the next few months at the lush Hotel Hana Maui while her husband makes sure the food service is up to the idyllic life of the resort. Pauline Mills Low had a baby girl in September '83, bringing the total to 6 girls and 4 boys! Louise, the oldest, studies ecology at the College of the Atlantic at Bar Harbor; Chris & Georgianne are at NYU and love living downtown. Seven still at home leaves life "bouncy" but Pauline must have learned to conserve a lot of energy as she takes 2 courses a semester at NYU, aiming for BA in 6 years. Theresa Casadesus Rawson passes on "a novel approach to mid-life crises" — take voice lessons & solo! She started 3 years ago (already having taught singers French diction) and now solos in church. Eileen Baker Strathnaver is presently cataloguing a library for a couple in London and has her two daughters in boarding school. Rachel, 14, is attending Wycombe Abbey and Rosie, 12, is at Beneden. These & Cathy Otis Farrell both exclaim: "WE MUST DO SOMETHING ABOUT OUR 25th REUNION! Agreed. Cathy has consented to help put "something" together for us in Princeton. You may have received details already. Call Cathy at 718-693-9307 or me at 301-366-0520 for comments or suggestions.

Our very deepest sympathy to Suzi Mathews Heard whose mother died in February. Gretchen Southard Sache reports that she is team-teaching with two others a class of 37 4th — 8th graders. She still teaches four classes of Latin, one class of history, and another of spelling. "I find the paperwork tends to overwhelm the teaching but still enjoy the work most days." In addition, she consults with the historical society and has produced two major exhibits on 19th century orthodox and alternative medicine; she has recently received funding for an exhibit on 19th century music. Gretchen would like a "longer day and more energy." I don't doubt it. Liza Maugham Cook sends news of her family: daughter Jennie is in the 11th grade at Exeter; son Steven is at St. Stephens in Alexandria, Virginia, in the 9th grade. Liza is the director of a Senior Citizen's Program in Washington. She completed her master's in social work in 1981, and she has been heavily involved in a church project with a partner parish in Haiti. Liza reports that she is in touch with Joan Knapp Crocker, Jane Aresty Silverman, Bobbi Scheide Breger, and she sees Linda Maxwell Stefanelli '62 when she visits Princeton. Her final bit of news was to report a talk with Bonnie Grad Levy this past fall.

Speaking of Linda Stefanelli, I called her a few weeks ago right before hearing from Gretchen and Liza. I was concerned that you might not have gotten the post cards because I had heard from nobody (doing well, divorced, two kids, in real estate). Linda did a bit of research and discovered the post cards had been sent out. Where are you?... I am happy to report that I finally finished my dissertation and defended it successfully in November. What a relief! Since then I have been busy at my job and at an interesting consultancy with the board of South Carolina Committee for the Humanities helping them develop a three-year plan. I also participated in a planning workshop for new college presidents and deans as a part of the Association of American College's Annual Meeting in February.

It is time for all of us to thank Gail for the job she has done as Class Secretary for the past decade or so. Thank you, Gail, for being our last link to the past and to each other.

The offspring of Linda Conroy Vaughn '64.

Not many of you responded to this last postcard inquiry. I hope you will be encouraged to do so next time. Twenty years is a long time. Surely you must have done something you can write about. For now I will try and fill in with what news I have. As you can see, I was fortunate enough to receive pictures of Judy Scasserra Cincirpinni's twin girls, Teresa and Rosa. Judy and her husband, Dominick, are living in Santa Fe, New Mexico and love the southwest. Do you think it possible not to know that these two were Judy's daughters? I also received a Christmas card from Linda Conroy Vaughn with a picture of her two children. Again, it would not be hard to know who they belonged to. Besides receiving a Christmas card, I had the chance in October to have lunch with Linda. She, Mea Johnston (Liz Aall), and I had a wonderful time catching up and swapping stories. Linda and her husband, Dave, work together in buying, selling, and managing properties outside San Francisco. Life there sounds good, and Linda looks wonderful. Mea bought herself a super old house on River Road in Griggstown with the Millstone River out her door and many acres of greenspace behind. Before her return to this area she lived most recently in New York where she worked for the Brooklyn Botanic Garden and freelanced for journals and magazines on the subject of plants and gardens. Even though she has just taken a job with a national education service here on Route 1, she has her own office in town where she will undoubtedly continue her writing.

Part of my Christmas eve was spent in the home of Wendy Fruland Hopper. Being there has been an annual event for years and Wendy's 18th century farm house in Pennington is the perfect setting for Christmas caroling. Wendy seems to be very busy with her farm, husband Art, who commutes to New York City and Solomon brothers, and her three girls. Allison,

14, attends Stuart Country Day as does Hilary, 5, while Emily, 11, goes to PDS. Like Wendy, the girls love to ride horses and have plenty of opportunity to do so. Joanna Hornig Fox writes that she and her husband bought a house a year and a half ago. "After getting used to it, and painting it here and there, I decided to forego pottery and get a job." After the shock of re-entry, Jo reports that she is happily employed as a researcher for a small research analysis firm. She and her family seem happily ensconced in Atlanta, Georgia. Jane Budny Conrad and I have had a few telephone conversations over the past year, but for some reason have not had the opportunity to get together. That could be because Janie is teaching and sometime last fall sold her house in Ewing and moved to where I am still not sure. I wish I could remember the names and ages of her children. I know she's got them...Janie you will just have to write in and give me your new address and tell us all about your kids. A little over a year ago, I was shocked and delighted to hear from Penny Pettit Kreinberg. It was almost as if she were calling for a history assignment; we fell right into the old swing of things. After talking on the phone for an hour we decided to meet the following day for lunch. Penny looked terrific and is terrific. She is currently living with her brood in the Netherlands where Bob is employed by Nike. Penny has three children, and, once again, I confess I do not know all their ages and names. At any rate, she is taking full advantage of living on the Continent and travels with Bob. Last June I answered my phone to find Susan Moulton Snyder on the other end of the wire! We had a grand time and Susie filled me in on the latest events of her life. Susie told me she not only married but was expecting a baby (Due last November.) Please tell us about your offspring and whether or not you have decided to continue with your business career or have you given it up for motherhood. As far as I know, Susie still lives in the Boston area.

Please write in, everyone. It is most demoralizing to flip expectantly to "MFS '64" in the Journal and find no news. I look forward to being your next Class Secretary, but please make me look good. And if any of you are passing through, please look me up. I continue a hectic pace trying to raise my three children and work as a real estate broker in Princeton, but I am always around. I'll look forward to seeing you. In the meantime I know we all send our deepest sympathies to those of us who during the past year or so have lost a parent. Our thoughts are with you Penny, Nancy (Davidson) Johnson, on the loss of your mothers.

Archibald Ian Bowman, among a multitude of retirement activities, composes tunes for and plays the pipes. A year ago when the "FERRY QUEEN," a canal cruise steamer he had helped refurbish, started her first trip, he played one of these that he had done for the occasion. The tune, called "The FERRY QUEEN Cruising Song", was adopted by the sponsoring society. Richard Graham Kirchner, after a summer of acting at the New Jersey Shakespeare Festival, has been visiting with his daughters. He is planning to fly over to Athens for the Easter Holidays to do "a little sight-seeing" with Martha. William Maxwell writes that he's still working at Prudential Bache in White Plains, NY. Ed Yard, your secretary, is still active consulting and writing. 37 The death of Bradford Chambers was noted in the obituary column in the last Journal and we send our sympathy to his family. An article in The New York Times obtained information that should interest his classmates and friends. At the time of his death, Bradford was director of the Council on Interracial Books for Children, an organization devoted to promoting unbiased textbooks and children's literature. Prior to his job with the Council, he was children's book editor at Parent's Magazine. In the 1940's he directed a survey of East Harlem gangs and worked with the New York County District Attorney's office in a delinquency prevention program.

John donated the flowering trees for the park and was active in the Stony Brook Millstone Watersheds Association as well as running his veterinary practice. George Gallup was featured in the papers as a man of many interests. He co-authored a book entitled Forecast 2000: George Gallup, Jr. Predicts the Future of America and recently transformed an unused Gallup Organization building into a Hopewell dinner theatre known as the Off-Broad-Street Theatre. His interest in theatre has involved him in many local productions including the popular "Cabaret" at Nassau Inn and led him to form the Gilbert & Sullivan Society in 1970 with Lee Bristol.

This past December the 37th Lawrenceville School Hockey Tournament produced a mini PDC/MFS reunion. Marty, my son, Jake Odden, son of Lance Odden PCD '54 and Patsy Kerney Odden MFS '59, and Colin Aymond, son of Dana Conroy Aymond MFS '59, played for The Taft School. All the parents watched the tournament as well as Jake's uncle, John Kerney. John is keeping busy with, among other things, his Employees Communications' Consulting business, having recently purchased the 50% he had sold previously. Grenny Cuyler was in Princeton during the Christmas holidays visiting family and friends. He had just returned from England after completing his thesis at the University of Birmingham where he is a candidate for a Ph.D. He was on his way to explore the various employment opportunities in television in Boston. Harry Cannon's Christmas note indicated he and his family are all very much involved in various school, sports, social and business activities. Between all of these, they have managed to travel to such diverse places as Cherry Valley, NY, Colorado Rockies, Montreal, Italy and Lincoln, Nebraska. Harry's firm, Revere Copper & Brass, has sold the Scottsboro, Ala. aluminum division to Noranda of Canada. Having been in Chapter 11 since October '82, he is pleased — it is time to move on.

He finds great satisfaction in his work and says he loves "the feeling of being able to help the people who do the most important work in our society — who empower the next generation." Lance and his wife, Patsy Kerney Odden MFS '59, stay in touch with PDS through the girls' ice hockey and Lacrosse games that are played annually between the two schools. Patsy still finds time to coach the Taft teams.

Recently married (last July) John Cook sent along a message about his busy life. "With three kids, Jack, Robin and Mike, playing for PDS and me still tottering around with the Princeton Hockey Club in addition to coaching pee-wee bantams, our entire life is spent in the rink. We watch and play, play and watch, etc. The only part I don't like is when Robin or Mike have early practice or games. Seems to me when we were at PCD in the early 50's, we were bussed to Baker Rink in the middle of the day for 'prime time' hockey." Sorry, I couldn't have gotten the news to you in advance, but maybe by chance you happened to catch Bob Dorf and his wife, Patty, on a segment of ABC television's 20/20 telecast on February 14th (Valentine's Day). Bob and Patty were one of four couples living in Vail, Colorado, chosen to discuss their relationship and the meaning of love. This reviewer thought they handled a rather difficult subject with grace and style before a national television audience.

Pony Fraker is the architect responsible for the exciting renovation of Princeton University's Baker Rink. He was thanked by President Bowen for "his innovative design" at the rededication ceremonies in February. Individual seats and better locker room facilities were added as well as two glass galleries that run the length of the rink along the outside walls and provide new access to the stands. Arched doorways have replaced the long windows and the seating is divided into sections. The players have been most impressed with the improved lighting and the newly painted white ceiling which improves visibility greatly. Both players and spectators applaud the four-sided scoreboard that hangs above center ice. It is hoped that the modernization of the rink will attract good hockey players to Princeton and help the program to grow.

Congratulations are also in order for Charlie Stuart and his wife, Sarah, who have two young sons. Hunter McGuire Stuart was born on November 18, 1983 and Charles Edward Stuart, known as Teddy, just arrived on January 25th. His name appears as "Art Diehlenn" in the credits at the beginning of the programs. He's also planning to move to a new house in Los Angeles. Rick Eckels wrote to say, "Life is fine in Memphis, but I miss Princeton. Currently, I am with Morgan, Keegan & Co. as a vice president. Happy to make the reunion next year!" John Baker was promoted to Commander, USNR in June and moved to Lawrenceville last fall. Lee Maxwell also moved — from Melbourne, Australia to Auckland, New Zealand where he has a new assignment with Travenol Laboratories. His third child, Elizabeth Lee Maxwell, was born in November, just before the move. Gail Hood Adams gave birth to a little girl, Anna, 9 lbs. 5 oz. on Aug. 17, 1984. Gail reports that Anna's big sister Kate, 2, is very proud of her little sister. Gail and her husband, Joe, continue practicing architecture and their firm is growing, but, "I don't think the chaos will become organized for another 18 years or so." Debbie Hobler Kahane is on the move again. Bill's been transferred to Los Angeles so they are in the process of moving from New York to the West Coast. Debbie had been working at the College Board for three years in NY, but will be doing some teaching and co-authoring a book after the move. Sally Behr Ogden sent a postcard catching us up on all her happenings. She married J. Herbert Ogden, Jr. in 1975. They moved from NYC to Greenwich. She started a small business in NYC manufacturing evening clothes (wholesale and retail) called Sander Brittin, Inc. (I hope the spelling is right!) 116 E. 57th St. She will be working with Nancy Carleton '65 showing some dresses at the Neuropsychiatric Institute Show on May 7th. In her "spare time" Sally had time to have two children, a little girl named Oakley in 1980 and a little boy, Nicholas in 1983. Isn't it amazing how much of your life you can fit on one of those postcards?

I am job-hunting at the moment so have plenty of time on my hands to spend with Becky, 9 and Kit, 7. "Hattie's Journal" is in the proofing stages as far as the actual journal goes. Now I begin to play Miss Marple and try to find out who Hattie was and trace her family from 1980 to today. That's going to mean a lot of letter writing and digging in old records in Philadelphia where I think Hattie lived. Soon it will be 20 years since our graduation, (can't be, I don't feel that old) and it would be nice if we could get as many people as possible together for a reunion. Anyone interested in helping to organize something, drop me a line, otherwise, everybody send news of what you've done in the last 20 years.

From the papers we learned that Robert Bayer was married to Deborah Elliott on September 23rd in Massachusetts. Robert is an electrical engineer and senior programmer at Strategic Software Co. in Cambridge, MA.

Laura Peterson continues to work at a leisurely pace (60-80 hour weeks) as an attorney in the litigation department of a large New York law firm. She makes the following allegations and admissions: She will miss her bi-monthly lunches with Susan. She did manage to get away for a couple weekends of R&R in the country (Long Island) with Bree (Rosi) and Ted Merrick and their delightful children, Quinn, Keegan, and Bianca. Julia Lockwood writes, "I have started working with another female pediatrician in Yarmouth two days a week so far. I am enjoying this practice which is largely well children. It orients me toward Maine Medical Center rather than Bath/Brunswick. My child development clinic is growing slowly, but we hope to be re-funded again this spring. The weather has been great for cross-country skiing out the back door. Marc is working in a brand new office building in Portland and enjoying it. Phoebe Knapp Warren reports: "I have a new addition to my family since Andrew, age 3; Nathalie, age 1. Two kids is serious parenting. I feel ancient and unqualified." Marta Nussbaum Steele writes that she has returned to live in Pennsylvania and is glad she did. She sold her first magazine article in Huntsville, Alabama before moving back to Pa. and is currently teaching in the English Department at Rider College. She says it's a great mind exercise. She's doing freelance writing and editing in her spare (?) time, and she's busy mothering her delightful four-year-old, Liza, who is into literature, dancing and people.

Betsy Gilliam informs us that she's writing her dissertation and hopes to get her Ph.D. from Yale next year. Lucy (Alix) Dilworth sends this news: "I transferred to Antioch University's San Francisco branch for my second year of graduate school. I'm working toward a Master's in Management with a focus on not-for-profit organizations. Spent 2 1/2 months bicycling in Scandinavia and France, part of the time with my brother Chip, during the summer of '84. I'm still very involved with American Youth Hostels (I hope to lead a bike trip for them this summer) and I'm a Hospice Volunteer. Elizabeth (Beth Ann) Levy sends the following news: "I am currently working as an apprentice to account executives in a public relations firm that promotes and represents all kinds of clients, ranging from top rock stars to doctors, restaurants, and a major airline. And, I am avidly continuing my astrology business. As an astrologer, I do private consultations and readings for groups and parties! I have been involved in astrology and doing horoscopes for about 15 years. I want to continue with that and branch out into public relations work as well. About two years ago, I went to Paris, France and got together with Stacy Valdez Lorenceau who lives there with her French husband Francois (whom I did not get to meet) and with her two little boys, Olivier and Antoine (whom I did get to meet!). I understand from her sister that Stacy now has a third little boy. She seemed well and happy and very busy with her kids. If I hear about anyone else from our class, I will try to let you know.

Lissy Stevenson writes that she is currently in charge of licensing, marketing, and travel at the National Audubon Society in New York and that she loves it. It's very interesting and diverse. Lissy goes on to say that she "saw Nancy Wise Carson in Utah in December — went to mooch and ski and had a wonderful time. She has two darling kids. The girl, Lindsey, is a little princess, loves to dress up and other girly things — even Nancy wonders where she came from!" Lissy also reports that Liz Thayer Verney had a baby girl, Elizabeth, in September.

I first of all would like to thank all those people who helped find some of our classmates. I had a wonderful letters from several parents who diminished our lost classmate list from 15 to 9. Thanks again.

News of one lost soul: Whit Raymond is living in Shrewsbury, Mass. with his wife of 3 years, Shelly, and their son, Collin, who is a year and a half. He is a business consultant in a partnership with another executive and travels widely across the country. Joan Wadelton wrote to me that although she travels a lot, she is not lost! "Spent a short time as a corporate attorney — got bored and took up diplomacy. I have been with the State Department since 1980 and love it. I have served in Africa and South America and will be in Washington, D.C. for the next three years. Ariane Yokana Peixoto's mother sent me the following news: Ariane is married, lives in San Francisco and works in a hospital. In fact, Linda Baker Bogue works in the same hospital. Ariane's husband, Ricardo, is a musician whom she met while they were both attending the Berkley School of Music in Boston." I had a card from Nanda D'Agostino's aunt who said Nanda is well and happy and living in Missoula, Montana. Another lost classmate was found when I received a letter from Pam Aall McPherson's mother. "Pam has a very interesting life with her husband, Charles, an oil-economist. They have two children, Ella (5) and Andrew (2), and live in London. Pam has gone back to school (The London School of Economics), working on her doctorate." My thanks go to John Sheehan PCD '61 on reporting the whereabouts of his sister, Terry Sheehan. She is now living in Salisbury, Maryland. John Taylor wrote (for the first time since graduation, I believe?): "I live in NYC where I have a commercial photography studio. I spend weekends in the country near Princeton. I travel as often as possible and spent a few weeks in Kenya in January. I saw Calvin Johnson '70 recently. He's in NYC, too, and doing very well, if his yellow Rolls Royce is any indication."

Another name from the past — Libet Johnson Teal. She writes: "It's been ages. I'm married now to John Teal and living in NYC. We have a four year old girl, Lily, and a one year old boy, John-Lansing. They are wonderful, happy and healthy. We spend weekends on our farm in Millbrook, NY where we ride and just get good and grubby. We travel a lot and just spent time in Kenya. I have a folk art gallery in Soho (Ricco-Johnson). We see Cindy Lund Giesling a lot. She's directing a play at Sarah Lawrence. Gillian Gordon stopped by with her adorable little girl, Mirren." Gillian Gordon is on the move again: "Can you believe I moved so fast from NYC? Our heads are still spinning. But the sun is shining in L.A. and we are living in Hollywood. I'm happy to be back with lots of friends and a better place career-wise for me...though I am still 100% Mama and loving it. (Mirren was born last summer.) My husband, Bob, works for Food and Wine Magazine. I saw Bob O'Conner '69 out here. He is very successful in TV biz and still wonderful.

Leigh Keyser Phillips sent a card from Charlotte, Vermont: "All is well, but cold up here. My law firm is expanding and keeping me very busy. Hally is now 6 and Bren is 3 and growing fast. I saw Lynn Behr Sanford at her wedding in Princeton last year and then in Bermuda on her honeymoon. We were there celebrating our 10th anniversary. Lynn tried to get a hold of Eileen Spencer Fox who lives in Bermuda but she was travelling. I'm afraid that I don't see anything of Susan Koch Slimmon, but I do hear wonderful things about her Movement/Dance program and school in Burlington." Nancy Flagg writes from L.A.: "I am planning to spend the month of June in Boston doing extra training in adolescent gynecology at the Children's Hospital. I can hardly wait to spend a more extensive time in the east." Punky Brewster Rutledge has recently moved to New Britain, Conn. and came to Cheshire for a visit early in the winter with her daughter Erin, born Dec. 1983. I had a wonderful letter from Rick Ross who hails from Glen Ridge, NJ. He had a wealth of information about himself, other classmates and other PDS graduates. He is a lawyer practicing in Bergen County specializing in banking, corporate, commercial, trust and estates and real estate. He is in court frequently which he finds very exciting and stimulating. Before settling in northern NJ, Rick lived in Convent Station, NJ, Trenton, Princeton, NYC and Portland, Oregon! "I see Sally Lane Graff '66, her husband, Sam, and Sally's entire family often. I worked with Peggy Wilbur MFS '61 in 1979-80. She's now head of Mercer County's legal services project. As dedicated and capable an attorney to be found anywhere, I have also seen Sarah Jaeger '66 and Hecky Jaeger PCD '65 during holidays past. Sarah is a master 'ceramicist' (is that the word?) working out of Denver. Hecky lives 'Down East' (Maine) and has a small order craft supply business. Finally, Rich Raines is a public defender for the State of NJ in Newark. Bob Ramsey is also an attorney in Mercer County. As you can see, most of my alliances are in the profession, which is an ever tightening circle." Thanks, Rick. Word from Ottawa, Kansas, Katie Ecroyd writes: "My family and career continue to keep me busy. Becky, 5, is busy with pre-school, ballet, and an active imagination. Joanna, 1, is just beginning to walk and her curiosity is wearing me out! I am teaching full-time at Ottawa H.S. — my 10th year in the district. I just finished my 6th time teaching The Diary of Anne Frank — the PDS fall play in 1966 — remember? I had a second trip into nostalgia this fall when our music students performed songs from the 60's including 'California Dreamin'! I'm sure all of you in the 'Roving Kind' (Gail Smith, Anne Fulper, Mary Hobler, Nancy Flagg, Punky Brewster and Katie Ecroyd) will understand just how old that made me feel! (See picture.) In addition to my teaching, I am busy with the church, bridge and AAUW. My husband, Lee, finishes his master's this spring, at which point we face the prospect of moving."

Our only report of a new addition comes from Gail Smith Cleare: "It's another boy! Justin Ross Clear was born on January 7, 1985 and it sure is a lot easier the second time around! He is doing great. A very mellow 'Zen' — sort of baby." Our Hyson crew continues to thrive — Christopher, 8, Katie, 4 1/2, and David, 2, enjoyed a week's winter vacation in Disney World. I finally won a squash tournament in February in Massachusetts. In March, Eric and I head to San Diego and L.A. I plan to look up Andy Fishman, Nancy Flagg, Gillian Gordon and Bob Spears. Sue Kleinberg MacConchie gave birth to a daughter, Cecily, on October 30, 1984.

In closing, I would again like to list our missing classmates. If you have any clues, please tell me or write to PDS Alumni Office. Thanks. They are: Cathy Barr, Peter Brinkerhoff, Fran Conover, Bob Golden, Kate Linker, Cindy Lund (Giesing?), Holly Sidford, Englund, Charlie Simmons, and Jon Vereen.

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!

Class Secretary
Mrs. Stan A. Harris
(Susan Denise)
25351 West Cuba
Barrington, IL 60010

Richard Judge says he's "back working in the States after 20 months sailing from Maine to Venezuela via elsewhere." Susan Schnur continues to write on religion and family topics. A piece she wrote for The Trenton Times explored the pros and cons of including children in their parents' second marriages. Lucia Ballantine has announced her engagement to Ron William Walden, an assistant professor of theology at Fordham University. They plan to be married on May 4th.

15th REUNION

Class Secretary
Miss Ann M. Wiser
259 West 85th Street, #4
New York, NY 10024

Those several of you who were there — and you know who you are — enjoyed our reunion or not, but I'm certainly not going to let the rest of you know what happened because the turnout was much less than impressive and, furthermore, not a single male from the class showed up. There were cookies made by Robin Murray and a few assorted offspring made by others and that's as much as you'll get from me. For details, send one dollar and a plain self-addressed envelope to me at the above address. The proceeds will go to the Alumni Fund.

Other news is of the reproductive kind mostly. David and Stephanie Mack had a son on April 4th, 1983. Margaret Meigs sent a bit more news as to whereabouts and whyabouts: she and her husband, Paul Laskow, have moved to Harrisburg where he will be Counsel to the Insurance Commission for two years and Margaret will "play Mom (to Sarah Lester Laskow 9/28/84) and go to school."

Meg Brinster Michael has moved to Pennington and set up shop as a freelance graphic designer. She organized an Alumni event and reports: "Last Sunday I saw our most illustrious (?) classmate Chris Reeve at a PDS benefit. He was kind enough to donate a few hours of his time to attend a reception at Morven following the showing of his movie, "The Bostonians." Nicki Sarrett Cramer, Janet Masterton Schroepe, and Wendy Lawson-Johnston McNeil were also there from our class. Chris said he will be doing a movie of "The Aspern Papers" with Venessa Redgrave and a film with Kathleen Turner but I don't recall the title."

News from other sources includes the marriage of Bob Sullivan and Anita Novoa in September. Anita's parents live in Bogota, Columbia and she works as the manager of a New York doctor's office. Bob is in the art department of an advertising agency in the city. Hilary Brown chose a September wedding also when she married Charles Read, an executive of Eyecue, a graphic design and consulting firm. They live in Somerset. Bumper White writes that he has been a teacher and an elementary school principal and is now finishing a doctorate in education. Mary Lapidus Hewett and her husband are teaching at the Medical University of South Carolina. She teaches preventive cardiology to medical students and they live in Charleston.

John and Rebecca Bushnell Toner became the parents of a daughter on March 24th. Her name is Ruth Bushness Toner and she weighed 7 lbs., 11 ozs. at birth and measured 21" long. Congratulations!

Class Secretary
Mrs. Thomas B. Yoder
(Jean O. Schluter)
170 Poe Road
Princeton, NJ 08540

To begin with, a special thank you to every one who sent in new/corrected addresses for members of this class. You all have made our jobs easier and more enjoyable — it is good to know that this publication will be reaching more of our classmates this time around. And, maybe next time around, we will receive news from more of you!

Lizette Mills Hardie sent the cutest card to me which read: "Lottie, Scamper, Tracy, Sally, Noodle, Gray, Stumpy, Stripey, Lizette and Rip announce an addition — Frances Lee Hardie. Born: December 19, 1984; Weight: 7 lb., 6½ oz. Finally, a two-legged addition!" Congrats to you all. And, to those of us who need a program for the Hardie family, I believe that it includes one horse, four dogs, three cats, and now three humans. Is that right, Lizette? And, who is the artist? Deborah Huntington answered my plea for news with this: "I continue as a writer-researcher with Report on the Americas, a bi-monthly publication on US-Latin American affairs. My work takes me to Central America frequently (in two years I've gone 6 times for a total of 6 months!) and I am, of course, quite concerned about the situation there. I'm living in Brooklyn, slowly fixing up an old house."

To Diane Jass Kettelhut — no, you haven't written in ages. You are flaky — almost as much so as I am. Diane and Bill's little girl, Kristin, was four this April and their son, William Heiman, was one this March. Apparently, "little Bill" is large enough at his tender age that his parents are already thinking of signing him up for the football AND basketball teams at UVA. Diane is also signing up at school, for a masters program in Science Education this coming fall. Good luck, Diane. She sends a special "Hello" to Robin, Candie and Betsy. Do call me when you get to this area, Diane; I would love to see you and your family.

Joan Lewis sent this news: "I graduated from the University of San Francisco Law School in May 1984 and, after 2 years in San Francisco, Ira and I moved back to New York City in May. Having survived the New York Bar Exam, I will be sworn in on February 4th. I am working for a law firm in Manhattan — Burns, Summit, Rovins and Feldesman; Ira is an investment banker with Banker's Trust. I saw Larry Levenson a couple of months ago and recently ran into Kristen Garver Goslin at the Metropolitan Opera. She was performing!" Now, please note the photograph next to this column sent in to us by Dede Pickering. She wrote: "I thought you'd be interested in the enclosed picture of myself, Susannah Waterman Becker, and Christine Smith. It was taken at an engagement party in my honor; I'm to be married February 23rd, to Bruce Haig Bossidey. Thought the PDS Alumni newsletter would enjoy this. Both Suzy and Chris are bridesmaids in the wedding." Thank you, Dede.

Does anyone make it all the way to Alaska? Mim Sawyer Robinson says that visitors are always welcome at her place, just call the town message phone to make sure that she is at home. She says that her family is "spending a long winter in Port Alexander. We have already had frozen water lines three times and a record rain fall in January. We're ready for a trip to the 'Outside' which may happen soon because we're in the process of buying a new fishing boat — a 42 foot steel troller and tuna (albacore) fisher. The boat is in Oregon so we'll be travelling by ferry to Seattle (3 nights and 4 days!) and bus to the Oregon coast and hope to make a side trip to California before returning north with the boat. We'll make a freight run from Seattle to home to cover expenses. It'll be an exciting adventure for all. The kids will bring school work with them. We're hoping for good weather! Life on the last frontier is sure a far cry from Princeton!" Sure sounds like it, Mim.

I got a phone call out of the blue a while ago from Robin Frey Steigman. She always was terrible at writing and excellent at supporting Ma Bell! All is fine with her and husband, Don. Mitch Sussman and his wife, Lynne, had a baby last September, bringing his family to four. Mitch said that the Starr buses are still rolling and the "Trenton Gang" is all well. Lisa Warren has written that "things finally changed! I bought a condo in Bedminster, NJ and am starting a new job in mid-February. I will be staff counsel to Johnson & Johnson, managing their product liability litigation nationally for a number of their operating divisions. Home base will be New Brunswick. And, tomorrow I'm off to the Caribbean."

Vicki Willock is still in San Francisco, and she continues to enjoy non-snowy winters on the west coast. "Got back on skis for the first time since ski trips with Sam Rodgers, Kristi Vaughan Cody, and Lisa Warren in Killington. This time I got to enjoy what I never thought I'd have the opportunity to try — powder at Vail. It's grand. Now, since Tahoe just received 50+ inches over the weekend, it's time to ski in California. Still am with Bank of America, and not the division that keeps ending up on the front page of the Journal! My parents came out for Christmas — it was great. Still looking for Luile Peters — she's not in the book under Peters." Say hello to your parents, Vicki. It has been ages since I have seen them. But, come to think of it, it's been that long since I have seen you and many others from our class.

Unlike some people, I have very little news. Thom and I went to Miami in February to the coldest weather they have had down there in ages. So we didn't even catch a bit of a tan. Since the trip was about 90% business, I wasn't too upset.

Now, to all people in the class of 1971, a questionnaire. Please answer the following questions honestly, to yourself. 1) Do you enjoy receiving the Alumni Journal/Newsletter? 2) Do you enjoy taking the time to send in news to your grateful Alumni Secretary? 3) Do you enjoy seeing your name in print? 4) Do you enjoy reading news about your classmates? 5) Do you enjoy reading your own news? 6) Would you enjoy reading the creative lies written about you in the PDS Alumni Journal/Newsletter when your Alumni Secretary becomes desperate because none of you send in news?

If you answered any of the above questions with a "yes", it is your duty to write to me before next fall with pages of news for the next column.

News from other sources includes the marriage of Tom O'Connor to Julie Young on September 8, 1984. Howard Vine has become associated with Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease in Washington, DC. He was formerly assistant vice president of the Government Regulation and Competition Department of the National Association of Manufacturers.

1972

Class Secretary
Mr. John L. Moore III
135 Beach Bluff Avenue
Swampscott, MA 01907

Sam Starkey works at Salomon Brothers, Inc. where he is a vice president in the Corporate Bond Department. Last September Sam was elected treasurer of the Fixed Income Analysts Society for 1984-1985. More recently, on November 26, 1984, he became a father to an 8 lb. girl, Emily Battle Starkey. Emily, as well as her parents, look forward to moving away from Manhattan this '84-'85 winter. Paul Giancola and Martha Tattersall '77 have announced their engagement. Jordan Young was married to Margaret Levine on October 29th and Robert Gips and Karen Harris tied the knot September 15th. Robert is an attorney with Tyreen and Margolin in Portland, OR. Fairfax Hutter is still running and set a new record for women in the Princeton Half-Marathon Race last fall, finishing first at 1:20:35.

1973

Class Secretary
Mrs. James O. Weeks
(A. Anne Macleod)
100 Seminary Avenue
Pensburg, PA 18073

I should begin with a late entry which arrived just beyond the due date for the last set of class notes; I hope the information is still valid. Beth Sanford is keeping busy working for Home Box Office which is part of Time, Inc. After some three years, Beth is Director of Market Analysis, a group which analyzes marketplace funds. She says she's still single. On the other side of the map, Liz Pratt Bliss is doing well in Colorado where she says changes will be coming this summer, but nothing is definite as yet. It was nice to hear from Glenna Weisberg again as she finishes her last year of OB/GYN residency, planning to move out of Buffalo in June. She's getting married on August 10 to Hans Andersen, from Falun, Sweden. Hans has a Swedish law degree and will be attending a Masters of Laws program in Washington or New York this fall. Best wishes from us all, Glenna! The nicest surprise for me was to hear from Liz Hutner Sheers. The last time I saw Liz, we were both about to embark on marital bliss. Well, the years have gone by, and we're both still married. Since leaving PDS and the teaching of English in the Upper School there, she's been living in Brooklyn, NY with her husband and dog. They've all become very "Citified" and Liz is dividing her time between work on her dissertation (for a Doctorate in Comparative Lit) and some fairly intensive dance training. (The intensiveness of the dance training depends on the dissertation work as well as the dissertation's progress depending on dance activity!) Liz attended Carol Liffand's wedding and had a lovely time, seeing GINNA VOGT there briefly. I had a card from Daryl Janick who is working for a citrus company and was last heard from when attending a conference in San Francisco. It has otherwise been a quiet return mailing. What are all of you doing out there?? I am in the middle of my seventh month of pregnancy and feeling great. I had to take time off from my Masters this Spring for the baby is due at exam time. My husband and I have been spending a quiet year, anticipating the new arrival and the juggling of jobs will be enough excitement for now. I am taking over the AP English program at Perkiomen next year and will be working on a three quarter time basis in order to take care of the new addition without having to resort to day care. We've spent most of our free time at our house in the Endless Mountains of PA enjoying no telephone, no TV-weekends and holidays in front of the fire. One last thing: a formal apology to both Robin Maltese and Robin Kraut Zell. I inadvertently gave credit to the wrong person in the last class notes. PLEASE!! always sign your full name to your card to avoid any mixups. Poor Robin Maltese didn't realize she had five children and an impending career in Dental School! What a shocker! Best wishes to all of you and write soon.

The local papers carried the news of Anne Gulick's marriage to Douglas MacCurdy on September 15, 1984. Her husband was director of instruction for the Lawrenceville Tennis Camp and is now director of development for the International Tennis Federation in London.

1974

Class Secretary
Ms. Diana Lewis Abbott
1836 Capistrano Avenue
Walnut Creek, CA 94596

Lisa Bennett Blue and her husband, Ritchie, spent two weeks this winter fishing and scuba diving in Belize AND trekking through Mayan ruins in Guatemala. Their daughter, Alexie, celebrated her first birthday, December 21st. Lisa saw Cindy Hill who is in the process of finishing up business school at Yale. Chris Fraker, wife Debbie, daughter Jennifer, 6, and son Peter, 3, are all, "alive, well and living on Nantucket. I am building houses while Deb is managing 'The Lion's Paw,' a store full of housewares. I talked with Owen Hart who is living in Philly." Nancy Kendall started a new job in October working as manager of TV development at Warner Brothers. "I can't imagine enjoying a job any more than I do now. Basically, I work on developing new scripts for pilot production and potential series sale. I'm putting in some endless days, but I'm thoroughly enjoying it. It's definitely a great feeling." Candy Kane Nichols wrote, "I opened a childrens clothing store in Rye, NY last year. The store's name is 'Candy Nichols' and I'd love to see some of the newest PDSers up in Rye." Mark and I most proudly announce the birth of our son, Alexander Lucius Abbott. Alexander was born February 7th, weighing a healthy 8 lbs., 14 oz.!!

Lisa Bacheider's marriage to George Alcock was reported in the papers. They were married on September 29th and are living in Watertown, MA. Keith Plapinger writes, "I have just finished business school and look forward to returning to working life — at Arthur Anderson. Being supported by my wife was okay, but not the way I want to spend the rest of my life."

10th REUNION

Class Secretary
Yuki Moore Laurenti
464 Hamilton Avenue
Trenton, New Jersey 08609

Since I keep bringing it up, I do hope you realize that this year is our Tenth! By this time, you should have received a letter from me soliciting your thoughts on the type of arrangements that should be made. Please respond, if you have not already — this reunion is your reunion and your opinions will help make it a successful one.

Just to jog your memory: Remember Kindergarten in the basement at Miss Fine's, Grayson's shorts, 4 by IV, "where on God's green earth did you get that answer," Mr. Fifer and his music tests, Mrs. Vogt who read us "Evangeline" and "Bernice Bobs Her Hair," IPS where Livy and Eric made bombs and fire extinguishers, Cloud nine, the bomb scare, Jeff drowning Mr. Cool, Mr. Jones' class with ten-pointers and "trixie," Spam and tuna helper, beach parties at Susi's and "I know it's going to rain on commencement night." Or do you really think that Caroline will probably end up a ski bum ... Molly a hostess with the mostess ... Marget a driver at ITT ... Charlie a cabdriver with a Ph.D. ... Mary another Billie Jean King ... Shelley at the Club ... Simon running the Statler Hilton ... Andy with a harem ... Lisa in the New York Rangers ... Brad a pool hustler ... Keith in the White House ... Jeff an unwed father ... Sandi winning the Betty Crocker Award ... or our Class as dead?!

Tying the knot: Peter "Fritz" McLoughlin to Eileen Kistner on February 14, 1984. Eileen, a St. Louis native, is a graduate of the University of Virginia. They are living in Brooklyn and Peter is in the sales department of NBC Sports. Tim Fabian has been married since August 1983 to a young woman named Karen. "No children," he writes. Tim is the customer service manager for a professional photo lab in Pittsburgh and on the Board of Directors of Pittsburgh's only exclusively photographic gallery, which he helped start 4 years ago. He reports that he saw a PHS friend who said Chris Miller is working his way up at one of the airlines and that Jeff Streed teaches and digs up "archaic stones" in the summer. A good source reported that Glen Russo is enjoying marital bliss. He is working in Woodbridge at the Pathmark corporate headquarters in labor relations.

And Baby Makes Four: February 20, 1984 was the joyous day that Tina Pritchard Phillips gave birth to Andrew Whitney Phillips. Her son and husband were present at the birth of the 10lb. 4oz. baby. "A gorgeous hunk!" The Phillips family spent a wonderful summer at Manasquan Beach. Sandi Davies Barada gave birth to a girl, Lindsay Hunt Barada, on November 18. "She is adorable and keeps me busy every minute of the day!" Sandi is still residing in Greenwich, CT. She reports that Mary Lane is living in the Big Apple and has a super job for Money Magazine. This writer learned that Mary arranges corporate receptions for advertisers and others and that in this capacity she travels all over the country making arrangements for everything from caterers to flowers to invitations. She apparently can give you the name of the best caterer, hotel, florist, etc. in all the major metropolitan areas in the US!

From the Fast Lane: Since this writer was delinquent, the old and new news will be included for this active class member. Kip Herrick was with Glamour Magazine last year and at that time she wrote: "for those who saw me, I was in the March '84 issue doing Jane Fonda workouts! ... keeping those old dance muscles in shape. I'm still in New York but doing a great deal of traveling for the magazine." She had attended a small dinner party/PDS reunion (see photo) and reports that "many laughs were had by all and it was terrific all being together again." The update is that Kip was at the reception held recently for Chris Reeve and gave the writer her new business card which reads Advertising Sales Representative, New Woman. She enjoys her new job and all the challenges of living in NYC.

On the Go: Eily Carothers is working for Squibb, Inc. — US in Lawrenceville. "Love it there." Sally Wright spent last summer traveling through England & Scotland before returning to her illustration studies at Parsons. On the side she is doing some freelance design work. Alison Hopfield is an Investment Counsel and Senior Research Analyst at Scudder, Stevens & Clark in Los Angeles. Davis Sherman continues to pursue his law degree at Columbia.

Jean Schreiber has had a busy year. She is still a broker for Smith Barney and was able to get away for several weeks last spring to Denmark, Sweden and Norway. Jean and her fiancé moved into the house they built. More info on this please! She writes "I got a chance to be in NJ last weekend and adore the weather that now graces the top of PDS!"

Gay Wilmerding was back in Princeton for her brother, Murray's '77, wedding last summer. During the Christmas holidays she took a trip to visit a friend in Germany; a much needed vacation for her. She is now busy with designing and drafting for various projects along with being a contractor for the renovation of a building she purchased in Corrales, New Mexico. Marcia Weiner writes: "New Year's Eve 1979, after 3 on and off years at Northwestern University in Evanston, IL, I packed everything I owned and hit it to Texas and a new unknown future. In the next 6 years, I got rich selling cars, then left to manage and run an exclusive women's clothing store, then left to open one, then another, of my own exclusive clothing stores ... got bored buying and selling other people's merchandise ... closed the stores and became a designer and wholesale manufacturer of lingerie and RTW. Somewhere in between I sold tile, sold stereos, was an antique dealer (Art Nouveau and Art Deco) and started an avant fashion magazine. Currently, I design, market and sell a line of costume jewelry that accounts tell me I should take national, I am proud to be unmarried and unencumbered with dependents. I am happy that I allow myself the space to move in whatever direction opportunity and my creative talents point towards. I am dating a home grown Texas boy and live in a 1920s house filled with atomic 1950s furniture with no kitchen. Who wants to cook? Now there is a 1980s woman with an entrepreneurial spirit! Sally Blodget is employed in a small division of Dun & Bradstreet. She hears often from Kathy Burks and Suzanne Bishop, both of whom are at D & B. During the holidays she crossed paths with fellow classmates Caroline Erdman, Molly Sword (whom this writer had a chance to visit with at the Chris Reeve reception), Peter Lawson-Johnston and Peter Chalverus. New Jersey has been deserted by one of its own, Paul Goldman. He has left both the state and the camping business and headed off to Denver, CO where he is working for Coldwell Banker Real Estate. "Skiing is great — it ain't the Poconos, but it will do!" Guess so?! Linda Farlow lives in Devon, PA and is working for The Vanguard Group, Inc., a mutual fund investment firm. Remember "Brigadoon" and Fiona MacLaren? Linda is quite active in local community theater groups and currently is playing "Peep Bo" in the Mikado. The Link said that Harvey Wiener would end up as a doctor, well at least it was right about someone! He began a Diagnostic Radiology Residency (which will last for 3 years) in July at Kennedy Hospital. His wife is beginning Family Medicine with a group in Cherry Hill, "so one of us is out and practicing." Harvey has a part time position ("moonlighting") at a local emergency clinic. Sandi Lamb Leong will be moving to Hanover, NH in June. "We're looking forward to living in New England again! Maine lobsters, Boston trips and snow, sunshiney days with white puffy clouds and Hanover Bookstore — here we come!" John and Lucy Englander Brinster were at the Chris Reeve reception. John continues to work in the boat business and live in Kingston. Grayson Ferrante and his wife are also living in Kingston. He is employed at Clancy Paul and has recently been bumped up from sales in the Princeton Shopping Center store to corporate sales out of the corporate office. This writer found him to be a patient and informed salesman when we bought our computer from him. Of course, Grayson has always been even tempered and patient, even with the most dense people (like me)!

Update: Alex Smith writes that she is no longer engaged. She has bought a house in Exeter, NH and does odds and ends for Phillips Exeter in the Admissions Dept. and the Alumni Office. She was named the 10th reunion chair for her class — you are probably better organized than this chair! She hears often from Hilary Winter, who is living in New Delhi, India with her husband John. "Hilary's busy being an unconventional woman in the Indian eyes when she's not busy cooking for John who's been ill. They are certainly a determined pair." Caron Cadle has led a busy life since receiving her MBA and it is hard to know where to begin. Suffice it to say that she travelled extensively and is now living in Lawrenceville. That is not doing justice but when you come to our reunion you can get the full and unedited version (this writer never seems to be able to edit and keep the essence!). She continues to work on her manuscript along with taking Spanish and Bible classes, participating actively in the life of her new church, Christ the King, and working out on Nautilus and taking aerobics besides cooking for herself and friends and playing Trivial Pursuit with former classmates Cindy Brooks and

Chris Cragg. Caron has more energy and enthusiasm than most people — how on earth do you do it?

Through the grapevine: Cathy Calcerano is married to Michael Lang, a young man she met in Colorado. They are living in Florida. Cathy is working and has gone back to school. Chris Cragg is living in Lawrenceville and working with a publisher. Marjie Williams is living in Washington, D.C. and occasionally commutes up to New York. Marget Jacobus bought a house in Westfield, MA and loves it there. Molly Moynahan was spotted at the opening for Marita Sturken's mother at a gallery in New York. Our condolences and prayers to Ruth Barach, whose father passed away this past summer. My life has slowed considerably since Jeffrey was unsuccessful in his bid for the Democratic nomination in the 4th Congressional district. My spring (1984) was spent working in New York (as the sole wage earner), doing community work in Trenton, attending numerous political events, knocking on doors in election districts in Trenton, making phone calls to prospective voters and stuffing envelopes on top of all the normal household chores that seem to crop up on a daily basis. I can honestly say that spending quiet evenings at home and sitting in the backyard on sunny weekends was a welcome change of pace. I then lived through a long distance marriage when Jeffrey went down to Washington to work as a senior issues adviser for the Mondale campaign during the fall. Life is essentially back to normal — meetings several nights a week, interviewing seniors applying to H/R, and commuting to New York. Now with this schedule you will understand when I appeal for volunteers with the reunion?? Some of our class has already pledged to help, how about you? Just to reiterate, please respond to my letter about our Tenth. And, as always, keep those cards and letters coming. Better yet, plan to come to the reunion and visit face-to-face with the old gang. It will be fun.

Shawn Ellsworth accepted the 1984 "Good Neighbor" award on behalf of the family business, Ellsworth's Wine and Liquors, in Princeton Junction. In an article in The Princeton Packet, the Ellsworth store was praised for its attractiveness and fine service as well as the support of local baseball teams and school functions.

Class Secretary

Jane Creigh Duncan
85 Parker Rd. South
Plainsboro, NJ 08536

Now here's a happy thought for all members of the Class of '76. Next year, we will be celebrating our tenth reunion ... By the way, if anyone would like to volunteer their services to put together an actual reunion, I'd be glad to help.

Billy Erdman really married Barbara Bassett last September. (See photo nearby.) Now that Billy's finished his Master's in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering at Princeton University, they are both in Mountainview, California. Billy's working for IBM and Barbara's teaching and coaching at a nearby school.

Theresa and Murray Wilmerding had, as Murray stated, a honeymoon more productive than anticipated and are expecting their first child. (The delay in reporting is obvious as the Wilmerdings celebrated the birth of a daughter in March.) As if that is not enough, they are moving to a farm they recently purchased in one of the city parks on the edge of Cincinnati. Lissa Thomas was married to John Decker Hastings last August in Tenants Harbor, Maine and is now in Portland working for ABC.

Well, I held on to Jim Daubert's news because he promised a "picture to follow." After a year and a half, I guess there really never was a picture and now the news is old and I can imagine you're all saying to yourselves, gee, why do we have to hear about Jim if there's no picture. In 1983, Jim married Amy Ferguson who graduated two years after he did from Williams and by this point, Jim will have graduated from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. But that's old news, so Jim, if you send me a picture (it doesn't make a difference what the picture is of ...) I'll give out some up-to-date news about you!

Susan Billington graduated from Yale and Oxford, where she was a Rhodes Scholar at Vallioli College. Susan has worked as a reporter for the London Bureau of the New York Times and for the Christian Church in south Indiana. Her husband was a classmate of mine at Princeton, as was Mark Blaxill. Mark graduated from Harvard Business School last year and was married to Elise Moore, an interior designer. Mark is currently working for The Boston Consulting Group.

Married in 1978 to Chuck St. John, Virgie Rodgers now has two children, Andrea and Hanna. She is a partner with her husband in their logging business "Clear Pond Forestry" and makes her home in the Adirondack Mountains in the town of Keene. Molly Murdoch Finnell is also a mother, having given birth to Margaret Robinson Finnell (Maggie) on June 2, 1984. Molly's living in Pittsburgh.

Tom Moore, still not really married, is back in the region after spending a couple of years in Michigan with Merrill Lynch as the Operations Manager of the Detroit branch office. Tom loved Northern Michigan, which reminded him of New England. He's still with Merrill Lynch, now working as a research analyst in the Public Finance Department. Also involved with investment banking is Peter Taggart, who's living in Princeton and working in New York for First Boston. In case you are wondering how I found this out, Peter, I heard it from your mother while at the wedding of Gwyneth Hamel's younger sister, Jennifer '79.

The ultimate family man, Billy Martin is now married and working at Trenton State Prison along with Alan Johnson '77 and Ron Webster '74. Michael Barren graduated from Ohio State Law School in 1983 and is now serving as a first lieutenant (repaying his ROTC scholarship) and is a lawyer with Judge Advocate General's Corps at Fort Ord in California. Caren Ludmer is living in Lawrenceville and busy doing an internship at Trenton Psychiatric Hospital as part of her Masters program in Clinical Psychology at Rutgers. Come this September, she plans a move to San Francisco. Casilda Huber now makes her home in The Hamptons selling real estate. Lisa Partridge Raymond is still living in Philadelphia working as the Director of Publications and Public Relations at Friends' Central School while her husband, Doug, finishes his final year of law school at the University of Pennsylvania. Also at Penn is Mark Greco, who received his D.D.S. from the school of Dental Medicine last year and is currently doing his General Residency (also at Penn), which he expects to finish this year.

Eleanor Barnes is working in the Product Development programming group of a company in Cambridge and is also busy trying to get her science fiction/fantasy writings published. Joe Feller was selected for AT&T's Management Development Program in September 1984 and has just finished his first special assignment, streamlining AT&T International's Proposal Development Process. His next assignment will be as Business Manager for Sales in the flagship office in Taiwan.

Ann Joyce Delano was married in 1981 and now lives in Massachusetts and I really wish I could tell you more about Ann and I remember her card came in the mail and I've searched everywhere for it and for the life of me I thought I was so organized about this newsletter — but, I can't find Ann's card. Back in January, Sheila Newsome, back East while on break from her final year at Berkeley Law School, tried to call me. Unfortunately, I happened to be out in San Francisco visiting friends. We did manage to finally connect by phone. Sheila, smitten by the California bug, plans to practice law out in California upon graduating in June.

The Class of '76 had what I'm positive is its first inter-class marriage when Leslie Ring became Mrs. Jebby Burns last fall. The Burns are now living in Atlanta. Finally, what do Patty Slee, Joanne Kind, Carl Erdman and Sarah Dutton have in common? They never send any cards to me . . . if anyone can bring me up-to-date on what these and other classmates are doing, please let me know. Until next time . . .

There was even more wedding news in the papers. Jennifer Walsh was married to George Perreten on October 20th. He is an architect with James Barclay & Associates in New York City. Barksdale Penick married Anne Hogg last August. Both Penicks graduated from the University of California - Hastings College of the Law in May, 1984. They have settled in San Francisco after a wedding trip to New Zealand and Fiji. Bebe Neuwirth and Paul Dorman were married on June 24, 1984. They are both pursuing acting careers in New York. She's keeping busy with quilt making and figure skating too. Rachel's husband David teaches high school chemistry and physics. Steve Farr is living in Bethesda, MD, and will be getting married in July. "Phil and Fuzz, where are you?" he asks. Congratulations to Lisa Yokana who has announced her engagement to Guy Alfred Longobardo. Lisa has a masters in art history from Columbia and is with the curatorial department at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum. Congratulations also to Libby Hicks Blount and Fifi Laughlin Keller who are both about to become mothers. Libby for the third time and Fifi for the first. Randy Melville was married in September, 1984. Other PDSers who attended were Frankie K. '76, Paul Goldman '75, Sandy Bing and Alan Taback. Randy is with Proctor and Gamble. Congratulations to Randy and his bride. Harold Tanner is at the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University, doing a one year MA course in Chinese Politics. Warburg, Pincus and Company. Christie is also attending NYU Business School and will receive her MBA at the end of 1985. (ED. NOTE: Christie was featured in The New York Times on February 22nd as one of many YUPPIES attending night school while holding challenging day jobs. Christie explained her busy schedule by saying, "I needed to give myself an edge." What energy!) It was great to hear from so many classmates and I encourage those of you who are living secret lives to let us hear from you. I am working in real estate management in State College, PA and love it. And, just a friendly reminder, photographs, both old and new, are always appreciated. Have a good spring and summer.

One more bit of news from the local papers: Martha Tattersall and Paul Giancola '72 have announced their engagement.

Although not an official '78 Alum, JOHN BONEPARTH made history at PDS with our sixth grade "Medieval Day" and since then has gone on to lead a varied and energetic career culminating recently in his appointment as director of marketing for Bear Sterns Asset Management in New York. The Princeton papers reported this promotion, (second only to being a terrific father with "co-director" Ellen Boneparth): "Mr. Boneparth was previously the senior consultant for funds evaluation at SEI Corp., formerly A.G. Becker . . . before joining Becker in 1981 he was the executive vice president and chief operating officer simultaneously for Saratoga Springs Co., and the Children's Design Center, New York. He has also been general manager of ARO Manufacturing and a teacher and administrator in Princeton." Three Cheers! John, your inspiring leadership has gone a long way since feudalism! Another of our dear teacher-friends, HERBERT McANENY, was seen recently, starring in a revival of "The Gin Game" — a graceful and moving performance from all accounts.

Several ex-PDS'ers are now NYC'ers. Siri Huntoon writes, "News of the lost Liza Constable in the '84 Journal restored my faith in Alumni News. After finally graduating from Brown in studio art (primarily photography) I am living in NYC, working at Cambridge University Press and also doing freelance proof-reading/copy-editing some writing for a design magazine as well. Between my many jobs the city doesn't give me much time for myself so I'm hoping to move North or West in a year or so. It turns out that my landlord's wife is an ex-PDS'er: DEBBY LAWRENCE '70. Small world!" Siri's address is 414 Clinton Street, Brooklyn 11231. Also in NYC are Ann Hunter and her sister Polly '74. Ann writes that she is having a great time living in the city and working at Seventeen Magazine in the art department. Ann and Polly are living at 205 East 78th Street, Apt. 14T (212) 861-1395. Melanie Thompson recently moved to NYC to attend Columbia School of Nursing for a specialized Bachelor of Nursing degree. Her address is 154 Haven Avenue, NYC 10032.

Chip Bristol is working in development for Northfield Mount Hermon after leaving NYC and his position at Channel 13. Chip is enjoying the civilities of life north of Springfield: "People say 'Hello' and 'Thank you!'" (Can't you just picture Chip as the country gentleman??) After one more year he will head to Divinity School where he hopes to start on a path towards a Headmastership of a boarding school.

Trekking through the Himalayas last summer were: L. to R. John Heath (PDS faculty), Betsy Murdock '78, Wade Speir '81 and Susie Pratt, '76.

Barbie Griffin, presently attending Princeton University's School of Architecture, will be married in July to Christopher Cole, a Harvard Business School student. Alice Lee, presently in the children's literature department of Putnam Publishing, designing jacket covers and other fanciful artistic treasures, is also preparing for her wedding to John Groton in May. That's all the news I have on the wedding circuit, so Tom Gates's fears may be put aside. Tom writes: "To all of you '78's who have already made the plunge . . . am I supposed to get married too?" Of course not, Tom. You're too busy keeping Martina Navratilova in line! Tom has returned to Princeton in preparation for the U.S. Women's Indoor Tennis Championships. Will Kain and Kathy surprised Tom with a four day visit when Will was on leave from Hawaii. Will will be discharged from the Navy in May, but not before a major deployment to the Sea of Japan. Tom sends news of Wally (Mike Walters) who is teaching soccer, Science, health and physical education at a private school in Delaware. Science and what, Wally?

Todd Miller writes that he and his wife Milene have returned from Texas and are now living in Pennsylvania. Todd is a research engineer. They are having their second house built in Westown, PA, are taking advantage of being "still happily childless," and when not skiing or golfing, can be found partying in/around Philadelphia! Todd's new address is 917 Thorne Drive, West Chester, PA 19382. Typing at 90 miles an hour in her search for a public relations job in NYC is Robyn Ultan who writes that she is taking a more leisurely attitude to life while singing in the chorus of this spring's PJB Musical, "Fiddler on the Roof." Inside sources report that in an obscure loft in SoHo, NYC, Fred Woodbridge was spotted, imbibing in various liquids and conversations with artsy/Wall Street/Princeton party-goers. You can catch a glimpse of Betsy Murdoch around Washington Square in the Village, NYC carrying portfolios and sketch books. Betsy has been taking art courses (and African Dance on the side,) this past year at New York University. This summer she plans to lead more trips to India, trekking and gathering research for a dissertation on masks and adolescence as reflected in Indian art.

That's it for news — Where are you Sue Fineman? Don't forget to contribute to the annual Alumni Drive — Have a great summer and send your postcards for the fall issue of the PDS Journal!!!

The local papers carried news of Allison Ijams' marriage to Thomas Sargent on September 8, 1984. Burr Stoner plans to be married in June to Amy Brewster of Solebury, PA and Hannah Felton is engaged to John Lyons of Andover, MA and plans to be married in August. There was also news of John Ager who is learning the art of bookbinding at Smith's Bookbinding in Princeton.

Mr. Evan Press

New York, NY 10012

Greetings to the PDS community. I hope all is well at my home of ten years. I will begin with the class members who actually sent in their post cards as a form of reward. Sorry, that's the best I can do.

David Liffand wrote, "After a year on the loose in Washington, DC, I am entering the Yale School of Organization and Management. It's a new school, it graduated its first class the year I graduated from PDS — and I'm really enjoying it."

Caroline Hartshorne tells us that she is a junior at Rutgers, majoring in American studies. She works weekends with the family business, i.e. Hartshorne Caterers. Caroline plans to attend the University of San Francisco this summer where she will further her studies and (I'm sure) take advantage of the weather. John Hollister typed me a rather laconic epistle Tennessee. Both will then graduate, and on October 5th, exchange marriage vows at Viv's hometown church in Trenton. Perhaps Vivienne should get in touch with Laurie Habgood for a few pointers. Mrs. Laurie Habgood Carpenter became just that on September 15th last year. William T. Carpenter (Terry) and Laurie were married at St. Andrews Church on Martha's Vineyard. Terry owns a renovation company called Timber Design and Laurie is still working as a foreign exchange corporate advisor at the Shawmut Bank in Boston. Laurie also claims she hasn't been near a horse in years . . . I don't buy it!

Miss Ann Warner graduated in May of '84 from Oberlin and then aided Bill Bradley's reelection committee by joining the staff. Anna resides in Hoboken and is taking graduate courses at N.Y.U. Mrs. Catherine White Mertz and hubby Oscar (an ex P.U. student) will be relocating to wherever Oscar gets into grad school. Jay Pyne is attending Duke Medical School for biochemistry. Insley (sorry, guy), is an honor student and still finds time to go hunting with Kelly, his black Labrador, and play varsity ice hockey for Duke. Jay's address at school is: 28 Lebanon Court, Durham, NC 27112. It should be noted that Jay left Dartmouth an honored and stalwart athlete. In his spare time, ha, he can be found at Sun Valley, Marita's, or with John Place. Karen Polcer is working towards her M.B.A. in business administration at N.Y.U. Karen is still affiliated with Clarin's Skincare and probably owns it by now. Kip also works for her father's nightclub in the city, called Eddie Condon's. Karen would love to hear from Vicki, Vivienne and Kassie. What about me? Miss Martha Hicks has been studying acting at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in NYC. Martha has challenged me to a race, first one to the Academy Awards or Broadway. I have graciously accepted. Jeff Horrigan is finishing his second year at Gordon College in Wenham, MA. Last year Jeff was involved in a short term missionary project to Costa Rica and was also awarded the most improved player trophy for the Gordon ice hockey team. Miss Gail Barsky informs us that Miss Fran Weisberg has been working towards her master's at Columbia University. Gail herself is attending Temple Law School and is serving as a Commonwealth Trustee on the Temple University Board until the fall of '86. Gail, along with many others, expressed great dismay at our 5th reunion turn-out. Qué pásá, Mr. Donath?

Richard E. Sacks-Wilner is still joyous over his graduation from Cornell. The University of Miami School of Medicine now claims Ricardo until 1987. U.M. Med. is near the site of the Miami riots but, protests Richard, it's warmer than Ithaca. Miss Harriette Brainard has a new address, a new job, and a new name. Her address is 616 Adams Street, New Orleans, LA 70118. Her new job is as an admissions counselor for Tulane-Newcomb admissions. And Harriette's new name is Hackney. Sheldon Fain Hackney '78 left PDS in eighth grade only to find Harriette at Middlebury College years later. Fain is attending Tulane Law School and the Hackneys welcome visitors. Chris Horan was in Ireland and England where he ran into ex AFS student Dawne Taylor who is working as a sales rep for a leading brewery, "Alvin" has been playing Lacrosse, football and hockey while coaching junior hockey. Rumor has it that he and Miss Katrina Jannen have moved to Massachusetts to ferret out chaos and confusion wherever it may exist. Kenneth Keuffel went to Kenyon Collge in Gambier, Ohio for two years, took a year off to study music in Vienna, Austria, then studied clarinet at the Vienna Conservatory for two years years while completing his B.A. studies at the Vienna branch of Webster University in St. Louis. Ken is now earning an M.A. in German at the Middelbury School for Languages which is connected to the program at the Johannes-Gutenberg University in Mainz, West Germany. When, Ken, did you have time to write?

The following PDSers are now living and working in Manhattan: Miss Diane Barry, Miss Lisa Borie, Miss Linda Eglin, Miss Katie Jeffers, Mr. Jake Nunes, Miss Ann Rosenberg, and the inimitable Geoffrey George. Mr. George and I were roommates in the Big Apple until I wised up. Geoff is now working in film and has joined the Harvard Club, the Cornell Club, the Yale Club, and the Williams Club in an effort to meet intelligent young ladies or, perhaps, John Riggins. Mr. Nicholas Donath has been wheeling and dealing as a croupier in Atlantic City. Nick has been saving his pennies to move to the NYC area and buy Donald Trump a birthday present.

The following list of PDSers are in the alive and well category although they are not stationed in my fair Manhattan: Miss Candy Beagles, Mr. Sam Bryan, Mr. David Edelman, Miss Erica Frank, Mr. Lou Guarino, Mr. John "Boston" Hall, Mr. Brian Lee, Mr. Sam Martinuzzi, of boob tube fame, Mr. Chris Woods Hole Price, Mr. Eric "Duh-Suh" Reichard, and Mr. Gordon "Over the Counter" Rubinfeld.

As for myself, (Evan Press) I am commonly referred to as Mr. Mini-Manhattan. Where congratulations and best wishes are due, I readily and sincerely dole them out. If any condolences are in order, I hope they are few. Go '79, go . . .

1980 5th REUNION

Class Secretaries
Miss Treby McLaughlin

and
Miss Liza Stewardson
635 Snowden Lane
Princeton, NJ 08540

From Treby: One of our classmates did not even have to send me a card to tell me about what she has been up to. Sylvia Heisel, according to recent issues of New York and The New York Times Magazine, has been singled out as one of the most talented young designers. Her clothing line can be found at such stores as Bergdorf Goodman. Tim Thomas is also making a name for himself. "Intellisoft" is the name of his software company which he feels should at least cover his beer bills for a while. Tim Murdoch works as a marketing representative for IBM in Boston and spends a lot of time "commuting" to Dallas. Liz Segal is in Boston and will be attending Harvard Divinity School in the fall to study world religions. She recently saw Jodi Kamer and Sara Cooper whom she reports are both doing well. Also on the academic track, Carl Reimers writes that he attends New Jersey Medical School and loves it! Sally Robinson has returned to New Jersey and works as a sales associate at a store in the Princeton area while she looks for a job in advertising. Sally wants to know what Sally Fineburg is doing. So Sally, or someone who can answer this question, please write us! Not too far from Princeton, Jimmy Burke is acting in New York City. Nick Osborne and Howie Powers are corporate men and, in fact, James Varney looked fairly professional when I bumped into him going into Brooks Brothers. Doug Atkin is also living in Manhattan and works at a brokerage house. But some of us have escaped the New York and Boston rat races. Winnie Stoltzfus has moved to Boulder, CO. Jamie Phares works as a media planner for an advertising agency in L.A. And Jono Rush teaches tennis at John Gardiner's Tennis Clinic in West Palm Beach.

From Liza: Claire A. Dinsmore spent last summer (84) as an "Artist in Residence" at American Crafts Museum in NYC for her senior year at Parson's School of Design. She has had work exhibited in several shows and has done some production jewelry that's been sold. This year's requirements include apprentice work as a metalsmith, a thesis (design through production of portfolio), etc. "Too much work, too little time," is how she feels about it all. She sends her best to all. Chris Wallace is finishing his senior year at Princeton... on the five year plan. Nick Decandia is also on the five year plan at Notre Dame — after having switched his major from business to engineering. He is currently going through the laborious process of looking for a job... we do sympathize!!! Jim Groome is working for the Department of Environmental Protection and loving it! He went to Hawaii and skiing in Colorado just recently. He is keeping in touch with most of the Bathroom Boys... rumor has it that these men are running an escort service for "au pair" girls in Princeton. Recently I heard from Sara Cooper, who is living in Boston. She seems to be tracking down lots of our classmates who are in the area... to name a few... Jodie Kamer, Liz Segal, Bo Scott, Jim Walcott, Bill Ross, John Banse, Susie Rabb, Larry Stabler, Lolli Dennison, Liza Stewardson... if you are in the area, speak up! (Susie did. She wrote the Alumni Office that she loves her job at a venture capital management firm in Boston and is looking forward to her 5th reunion.)

A few things I have heard about some classmates follow. (NOTE: The author cannot guarantee the authenticity of her information. On account of classmates' failure to correspond, she must rely on hearsay.)

Jamie Phares is in L.A. working on the Lucky Charms account for an advertising firm. Nick Osborne and Howie Powers are tellers at the Montgomery National Bank. John Banse is treating geriatric animals in Lawrenceville, NJ. Liza Stewardson is a house mother at Lawrenceville School. Word has it that Tim Murdoch is dating Drew Barrymore, the child star of E.T. Jon Peter is running the Trenton chapter of Smoke Enders and in his spare time he runs a career counseling service. Abby and Amy Stockpole are a full time employee... Abby works M,W,F and Amy works T,Th for an unwitting employer. The most recent word on Steve Pagano is that he was responsible for the computer programming for the West Star fiasco. Dave Whitlock's used car career has been hard hit by our new Lemon Law. Uncle Bill Ross plans to run the Boston Marathon this spring. Tom Von Oehsen has managed to combine two of his favorite pastimes. He is earning a living by juggling chain saws in Independence Square in Philadelphia. Doug Patterson is a stock broker to the Rock and Roll Stars... he just landed Jerry Garcia's account. Lee Barclay originally left PDS for Hotchkiss... this time she's betraying us by marrying a Peddie prof. Jono Rush is playing tennis in West Palm Beach for team Lauren. The soulful sounds of Jim Cox's saxophone can be heard every Thursday night at Lahiere's. David Harrower is chief taster at Glenberg Distillery in Scotland. News of our class thespian, Jim Burke, is that he has made his debut in New York show biz. He appeared at Gimbel's in the blockbuster, "Santas Wonderland." And, last but not least, Bo Scott is co-authoring with Bob Woodward... "A Memoir of My PDS Days."

Our congratulations to Billy Haynes and Lee Barclay on their wedding engagements! More news from the papers: Billy has joined the Division of Public Service at the American University in Cairo as an intern. He will be teaching English to Egyptians. Susan Goldman was married to Mark DeCaro in September. Her sister, Jill Goldman Richards '74, was matron of honor.

As graduation rolls around once again, '81 PDS'ers are pursuing a diverse array of interests. Mark Akselrad returned from a year in Japan and is now attending University of Pennsylvania. Peter Bordes is finishing his senior year at Fordham, Lincoln Center campus and has spent much of his time modeling in Paris, Bermuda, Barbados, and Antigua. He is sharing a condominium in the Village with his sister Stephanie, '82 who is at N.Y.U. Mark Goodman is in his junior year at Harvard, after having spent a year working in Miami and San Francisco and playing tennis in Europe. He is presently piecing together his rock 'n roll combo, the Vicarious Thrills. Andrew Charen is also in Boston, at Northeastern University, also having managed to delay his graduation to the spring of '86. He writes: "I'm out on the work part of my co-op program for three months. Then it's back to school in the spring for three more months and off to work again in the summer, fall for six months. I spent my last two work periods with the Foxboro Co. doing some accounting. Spent two-and-a-half weeks in Hawaii this past Christmas break and loved it!" (Andrew was named to the dean's list for the summer quarter.) As for me, Kristy Anastasio, I spent my intersession with Jayne Gerb at Duke. Jayne is exploring job opportunities in the engineering field. This fall I directed the musical "Chicago," in which Mark Goodman played a female gossip columnist. At the moment I am frantically chasing job opportunities in New York City and training for the Boston Marathon. I assume that the rest of you are as preoccupied with real world plans as I am and have no time to keep in touch; however, I'm certain that those of you who actually are graduating this spring and those who are already out of school will soon find yourselves with plenty of time to write, RIGHT? People are doing some wild things: let's hear about them. For instance, the papers tell us that Chana Hauben, in addition to carrying a double major in organizational studies and sociology at Pitzer, is working as a volunteer answering a 24-hour hotline at a shelter for battered women.

This is the first year that I have gotten more than five cards back. Thanks for writing. I've heard from Aaron Woolf who spent the past summer in the Upper Amazon jungle and then bummed around Bolivia and Colombia playing the guitar. He says he's happy and grown his hair long again. This summer he's off to Madrid. Mark Egner writes that he is still at Lake Forest and has chosen to major in chemistry. He said he has a fantastic girlfriend. He sees Erik Jensen a lot and says all is well for both of them. Tracy Magruder writes that she has moved back to Washington, D.C. and that Trinity is going well. Kang Na has been a classical D.J. on WPRB so listen for him. Lindsay Suter wrote that he is still in Copenhagen studying architecture. Kate Murdoch wrote that she returned from her semester in France and is spending this semester at Occidental College. Marc Roth writes that he is still around the area and has been doing some work with the Mercer Council on Alcoholism. I have kept in touch with Wendy Donath and she is doing well as the Managing Sports Editor of the Princetonian. I saw Debby Levy over Christmas and she has recently transferred to Oberlin College. Wendy said that she has talked to Henry Bowers who hopes to go on an archeological dig this summer. Hope all goes well. Henry, Alice Ganoe, Jennifer Powers, Kitty Ijams and Leslie Pell all spent this past semester in Europe and are planning to spend their spring break together. They say hello to all. Well, the biggest news thus far is that we congratulate Jennifer Paine and Mike Leahy PDS '81 on their engagement and upcoming marriage in August. We always knew you'd be the first Jennifer. Since I haven't heard from anyone else I can't tell you what's new. Please write. I would love to hear from you. — Lynne.

From other sources we learn that Anne Desmond helped Dartmouth win its first Ivy League game this season, scoring two goals against Harvard in the 6-3 contest. Erik Jensen is a member of the Lake Forest radio staff of WMXM. His daily broadcasts are devoted to music, sports, campus news and special programs. Kristin Naumann's paintings were on display at the Montgomery National Bank in Rocky Hill in September and October. Lindsay Suter writes, "Well, I got the Viele Scholarship! Architecture and Nordic mythology keep me as busy as ever; Denmark is the place for me! 'Ha' det godt! Jaako also sends his greetings." Susan Stoltzfus is a French major at Macalester and is spending the second semester of her junior year in a special program in Avignon, France.

The class of '83 must be lying low for some reason. We were able to glean only a few bits of information on them. The papers announced that Amy Sibeud had been named to the varsity hockey team at Middlebury. Andy Hawkes took advantage of his winter break to visit his brother Richard '81 in Germany. They had a great time sightseeing and skiing.

Bruce Miller is majoring in physics at Carnegie Mellon University. He is still very involved in computers. Lisa Richardson is attending Douglas College. She's living in the Afro-American House which is a cultural house catering to black college women. They put on programs to let the rest of the college know who they are and what they are about. She's enjoying school very much. Whitney Ross spent eight days in Ft. Lauderdale with five friends from Hamilton College. They had an apartment right on the beach and she reports that the weather was beautiful. She is playing ice hockey for Hamilton and with a 500 season so far, she hopes they will do very well. I am enjoying the University of Cincinnati very much. I am a newly initiated member of Theta Phi Alpha sorority which is one of thirty sororities and fraternities on campus. From other sources we learn that Brooks Trubee was a prize winner in the 1984 Scholastic/Kodak Photography contest. Brooks is a freshman at Rochester Institute of Technology. Kelly Lambert writes, "I'm enjoying my second year at Hamilton. I'm playing first doubles on the women's varsity tennis team. I took a very interesting trip to China this past summer."

"The Sound of Music" will be produced again this spring by the eighth grade. Part of the 1982 cast is shown here.

We're Having a Birthday & You're Invited to the Party

Incredible as it seems, PDS will be 20 years old this fall. This is an exciting anniversary but we all remember that PDS' roots go back much farther than 20 years. We'd like to show just how deep these roots reach by producing a gala fashion show tracing the changing dress styles from 1889, when MFS began, to the present.

That's where we need your help. If you have any clothes, from any era, that we could use in the show, please fill in the information below. We'd like to show school clothes as well as gym uniforms, coats, hats, shoes and bookbags. With your help, it should be a great party!

Grant to Lincoln Center Program

The New Year brought a bountiful gift to PDS in the form of a $30,000 grant for endowment to support the Upper School Lincoln Center Program from the Edward E. Ford Foundation of Princeton. This combined with a $50,000 endowment gift from the Samuel W. Lambert family in memory of Mary Hamill Lambert MFS '19, brings the total endowment for the Lincoln Center Program to $90,000, the income from which will be used annually to support the program.

Had it not been for the generosity of the Parents Association over the past five years and their unwavering belief in the validity of this unique program, it would not have survived and flourished as it has. The school is grateful to the Parents Association, the Lambert family, and the Edward E. Ford Foundation for ensuring the continuation and expansion of the Lincoln Center Program as an integral part of the PDS curriculum.

All alumni are welcome and encouraged to visit, observe and, perhaps, participate in Lincoln Center classroom presentations. Check with the main school office for a schedule of events.

FIND OLD FRIENDS — MAKE NEW ONES

If you have ever wondered what happened to your bio lab partner or what became of the class valedictorian, you can now be assured that the answers are at last in sight! A comprehensive alumni directory is now in the works and is scheduled for release in mid 1986. The publication has been planned as a reference volume for alumni who wish to know where their friends are and what they are doing now.

The directory will be divided into four sections. The first part will contain interesting pictures and information on the school, and will be followed by an alphabetical section with individual listings on each alum. Entries will include name, class year, and professional information such as job title firm name, address and telephone, as well as home address and phone. The third section will list alumni by class and the last index will list alumni geographically by city, state and foreign country.

All of the information in the directory will be researched and compiled by the Harris Publishing Company. The updated information will be obtained through questionnaires sent to alumni in Fall, 1985 and will be followed up by telephone verification in early 1986. Your cooperation in providing updated information will insure the success of this fascinating and comprehensive alumni directory. Each alum will be given an opportunity to order the directory when their information is verified by phone. Only our alumni will have an opportunity to purchase a copy.

The entire project will be undertaken at virtually no cost to Princeton Day School. The Harris Company will finance the operation through the sale of directories to alumni. The school will not benefit financially from the directory sales, but will derive a substantial benefit from the completely updated alumni records.

So, for those of you who have wondered, "where are they now?," you will soon find out! Further information on this project is forthcoming.

Alumni Icemen Triumph

by Harry Rulon-Miller '51

The annual challenge match between the PDS Varsity Ice Hockey team and the alumni took place on December 26th. The alumni proved a tough team in spite of their small numbers. The Varsity was losing 3-1 after the second period. The sharp young alumni squad pulled out all the stops in the third period, scoring eight more goals to win the contest 11-1. Jack Cook, son of John Cook PCD '56, was this year's co-captain of the PDS team.

Another Victory for Varsity Basketball

by Frank Konstantynowicz '76

Congratulations to the Basketball Team on their State Championship!

The 1984 Alumni Basketball game turned out to be a great success. Not only did fifteen alumni show up and play very well, but the best part was that the Varsity was able to hang on and take a 55-50 victory. (Coach Konstantynowicz may be a bit prejudiced.)

PAUL GOLDMAN '75, MIKE WALTERS '78, SAM MARTINUZZI '79 and JAMIE BONINI '81 were the veteran alumni joined by ANDREW BING, JAMIE ZAHNER, JASON SHAPLEN, DONALD COGSVILLE and FRANK LITTLE from the class of '84. The alumni were coached by Alan Taback who led PDS to six state championships between 1971—1980.

PDS again took the state championship in 1985 and, we hope, are on the way to many more.
