Miss Fine's Alumnae, Princeton Country Day Alumni and the PDS Alumni Association Welcome Judith Fox

Mickey Shriver MFS '46

Co-chair Founders Club

On behalf of the nearly 500 alumnae of Miss Fine's school, I welcome you to our community. During the school's centennial year, the Founders Club was formed to unite alumnae/i from the founding schools—Miss Fine's School and Princeton Country Day School. Today as I stand here, I am reminded of the strong traditions that connect our past with the PDS of today—academic challenge and a commitment to service. Please call upon us to help you in maintaining those traditions and to otherwise assist you in forging, what we are certain will be, an immensely successful future for our school.

Harold Erdman PCD '39

Co-chair Founders Club

On behalf of Princeton Country Day School, I, too, welcome you to our extended family. Princeton Country Day (PCD) was a wonderful school for me and many other young boys to spend our adolescent years, while getting the best possible education.

When my grandson, Spencer (Mooney) '13, describes his first grade class at PDS, I see the same excitement in his face as I had when meeting my classmates on the steps of the Broadmead building or competing with them on the ice at Baker Rink.

There have been over 20 Erdmans who have attended Miss Fine's School, PCD and PDS. In fact, this all began with my grandfather Rev. Charles Erdman who was the first chairman of the Miss Fine's School board when it was first incorporated in 1919 when the school purchased the old Princeton Inn. He continued as chairman until his death in 1960, at age 93.

My father, Carl Erdman Jr., was an early trustee of PCD in the 1930s and 1940s, as was I in the 1960s during the merging of the two schools. Thank you for taking on the leadership of this great school. We are here to support you in any way we can.

Right, Trustee Emerita Elizabeth C. Dilworth, who congratulated Dr. Fox after the installation ceremonies. She, as much as anyone, is the "founder" of our school, and was chair of the board during the merger of PCD and MFS in the mid 1960s.

We Will Remember...

The events of September 11, 2001, shocked the Princeton Day School community and left us with grief and uncertainty for the future. Each and every member of this community was touched by the tragedy in different ways, however the bonds of our school community tied us together and helped renew our commitment to move on with our lives. As we go forward, our goal at Princeton Day School is, as it was, to educate the next generation as best we can; to teach them tolerance and understanding; and to help develop the leaders that will guide our future.

A Conversation with Judy Fox

Head of School Judy Fox joined PDS in July 2001, after a year-long search by the Board of Trustees and a unanimous vote to name her as our new leader. On September 23, the PDS community welcomed Dr. Fox at installation ceremonies. Just prior to the scheduled welcoming, her leadership underwent an unforeseen test with the impact of the horrific events of September 11. Even in these times of uncertainty, previously unknown to a generation of students, Dr. Fox brings comfort and reassurance to the campus with her expertise and ease. Below is a closer look as Dr. Fox reflects on the PDS community and her career.

What are your goals as Head of PDS?

For the first year, my goals are to meet and listen to as many members of the PDS community as I can. My learning thus far has been quite humbling. There is true richness to this school. The assumptions that I brought with me about what quality education looks like need to be revised. This is an extraordinary educational environment in which teaching and learning are highly personalized for the individual.

Have you encountered any surprises at PDS?

There have been some absolutely delightful surprises. The connections and the relationships between adults and students are astounding. The closeness, shared values and mutual respect I have observed define PDS as a community of caring. I see this reflected in the classroom, on the fields, at the rink, or just walking on campus.

How do you address the tragedy experienced by our nation?

We can't get away from the events of September 11 and the impact that they have had. Our students are stunned; and so are the adults. What affects the adults has a trickle-down effect on our students, too. There are different answers for different students, and respecting and honoring all the suggestions that we have received, but implementing only some, has been a challenge. There are going to be diverse views about how a school should respond. Thus far, it appears that we are as successful as possible in meeting our students' needs.

What are some of the other issues facing PDS?

I think the immediate issue is the long-range planning process: working with the broader community to envision a future reality. The facilities master plan will be a challenge to move forward. It requires understanding the nature and quality of instruction offered at PDS, and current and future program needs.

How will changes be accomplished?

I am a member of the Planning Committee and have attended the community planning forums. I will be working closely with the Board of Trustees to frame the language of our goals, and similarly, I hope to be a resource for those program administrators who will be responsible for the development and implementation of the goals.

Did you have a teacher who was a mentor?

There is hardly a teacher I had whom I didn't admire and learn from. Each one gave me something precious that I cherish to this day: love of classical music; love of the written word; the joy of dance; the satisfaction of understanding grammar; the art of leadership; the value of building relationships; the importance of communication in one's own and another language. The list is endless.

Head of School Judy Fox

When you look at your education and life's work, what influence did your parents have?

Nothing was as important as education in my family. Because formal education wasn't accessible to my parents, they deemed it essential for their children to value it. Both my mother and father had to leave school to work during the Depression. My brothers and I all have college degrees, and I have advanced degrees as well. My father was a wine salesman and my mother stayed home to raise the three of us. In addition to school, our education consisted of many visits to places like museums, cultural events, theater and libraries.

I have never regretted my dedication to education as my life's work. I had always intended to become a research scientist, not a teacher. However, having married while in college, it was clear I had to find a career that would be remunerative as soon as I finished undergraduate school. So I went into science teaching. From the first day I stood before a class in chemistry, I knew it was what I was born to do.

Robert Mueller III PCD '59 Assumes the Helm of FBI

Robert Mueller III PCD '59 was appointed to head the FBI on September 4, 2001 by President George W. Bush who has described him as a man of "fidelity, bravery and integrity." At a difficult time in our nation's history, Bush said that Mueller's "experience and character convinced me that he's ready to shoulder these responsibilities." Mueller had been U.S. attorney in San Francisco. Prior to being appointed to that position, he worked in the U.S. attorney's office in the District of Columbia, prosecuting homicide cases. Previously he worked in private practice and as an assistant attorney general for the Criminal Division at the Justice Department. He served with the U.S. Marine Corps in Vietnam, and was awarded the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, two Navy commendation medals and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry. 🇺🇸

George Akerlof PCD '55 named co-winner of the 2001 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Science

The class poem in the PCD 1955 Junior Journal has a little commentary about each classmate's character, strengths, abilities or antics. The following is what classmates wrote about George Akerlof, who was one of three Americans awarded the 2001 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Science in October. It reads:

*How Akerlof's able to do it
No one'd know from a look,
But when it comes to homework
He's our answer book.*

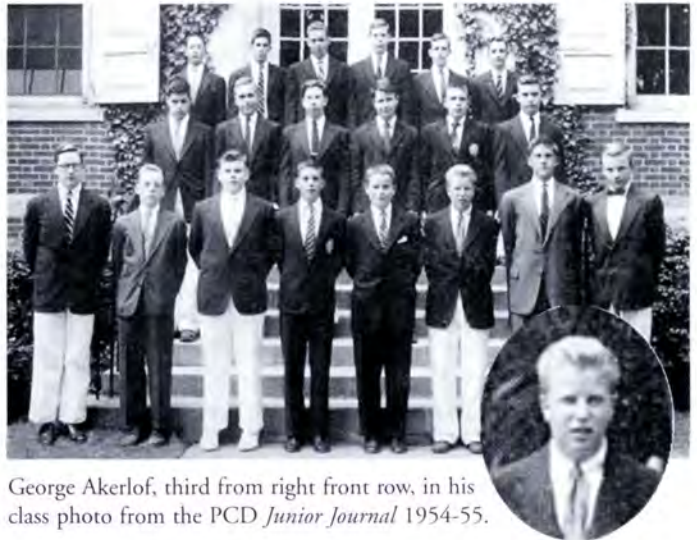

In the awarding of senior prizes that year, Akerlof received one in each subject: Mathematics, English, ancient history, French and Latin. He also received a "High Commendation for General Excellence" when he graduated with the class of 1955. He went on to the Lawrenceville School where he said his PCD classes enabled him to skip a grade in French and math. "PCD gave me a very good education. It was a fabulous school," he said.

On October 10, 2001, Akerlof, a professor of economics at the University of California, Berkeley, won a Nobel prize, officially known as the 2001 Bank of Sweden Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel.

Akerlof is the author of a landmark study on the role of asymmetric information in the market for "lemon" used cars. His research broke with established theory in illustrating how markets malfunction when buyers and sellers, as seen in used car markets, operate under different information. Akerlof shares the prize with Joseph Stiglitz of Columbia University and A. Michael Spence of Stanford University for their contributions to the analyses of markets with asymmetric information.

Akerlof is the first alumnus to receive a Nobel prize. Even at his alma matter, Lawrenceville, it is a first. At home in Berkeley's Department of Economics, he is the fourth recipient in eight years, and is the 18th Nobelist at Berkeley. Akerlof is also a Brookings Nonresident Senior Fellow. Of receiving word that he had been selected he said, "It was a tremendous surprise. It is just nice to have my work acknowledged."

As a child Akerlof moved to Princeton from Pittsburgh in the sixth grade, what was called third form at PCD. He and his brother, Carl Akerlof PCD '53, now a physics professor at the University of Michigan, began attending PCD at Broadmead. He recalls his PCD school days fondly. "It was an environment in which we had quite a bit of freedom, but within some constraints. The system was a little bit tough-minded. You knew that you had to follow the rules, and there were high standards of gentlemanly conduct. I think that was emphasized when we were kids," he said.

He also remembers the fun and freedom of a childhood in an earlier Princeton. "The wonderful thing about Princeton was that we had an immense amount of freedom because at the time it was quite a small town of just the right size that a kid, even at a young age, could visit any other kid freely. We used to ride our bikes to school," Akerlof said. He and his classmates often played touch football and rode their bicycles to the movies as well.

"There was tradition at PCD that on Wednesdays we got out of school at 12:30. The whole school was dismissed for the day. Robby Fernholz (PCD '55) and I would rent a canoe at the University and go out on Lake Carnegie," he said.

Akerlof graduated from PCD, then Lawrenceville, and went on to earn a B.A. from Yale and a Ph.D. from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. For Akerlof, Yale was a family tradition. His mother, a research scientist, chemist and later a homemaker, met his father, a scientist, at Yale graduate school. His brother, Carl, also graduated from Yale. And today, his son, Robert, is a junior studying math and economics at Yale.

His wife of 23 years, Janet Yellen, is a Berkeley professor in economics and business administration, and served as chair of the U.S. Council of Economic Advisers in the Clinton administration.

FORMER FACULTY & STAFF

NOTES

Since our last Journal, Associate Director of Development Ann Wiley '70 reached out to our former faculty and staff to see what paths their lives have taken since leaving PDS.

Many former faculty and staff sent word of their careers, relocations, retirements, marriages or additions to their families.

Duncan Alling wrote: "I took this interim head position at St. James School in Montgomery, Alabama for the coming school year. The school has 1,300 students in K-12. It is a great way to satisfy my idea of consulting by working with all aspects of a school. A specialist consulting position, such as head hunting or long-range planning, does not appeal to me. I also get to visit a different part of the country for an extended time period.

Cynthia is staying in Charlottesville, but we will commute on most weekends between the two cities. Modern living.

Since leaving Rocky Mt. Academy in North Carolina in 1999, I have enjoyed two years of semi-retirement. Helped Tandem School find a new head; worked part-time for the southern Teachers Agency; assisted Blair Academy with a golf exchange program that involves Great Britain; and was substitute head of an Egyptian school in Cairo for six weeks. Meanwhile, Cynthia is having a ball with singing and working at Ashlawn, former home of James Monroe.

Beth Andersen and husband, David, adopted a son on July 23, 2001, naming him Benjamin Pil Rip Levine. "We are all so happy and healthy!"

Jan Baker is working on her new venture, Athletic Consulting Services.

Christopher Butler wrote:

"I got married last summer to Jennifer Haines (now Butler) on Nantucket Island off Cape Cod. She is an English teacher at Shore Country Day School in Beverly, Massachusetts. In fact, we were introduced by a former PDS math teacher, Catherine McColl. After leaving PDS in 1997, I headed to Boston where I taught mathematics at Boston University Academy for two years. For the last two years, I have been the Director of Technology at Shore Country Day School. Check out our Web site www.shoreschool.org."

Gail Cadzow wrote: "After teaching English as a Second Language on the University of Oklahoma's campus for two years ('91-'93), I became an academic counselor in the College of Arts & Sciences ('93-'00). I left to have a baby. My husband, Hunter, and I had a little girl on October 2, 2000 named Catherine Elyse. Hunter has become a computer programmer for a company called RiskMetrics, and I am now a full-time mom. Becky Dengler '92 and Carin Moonin '92 stopped in Norman for a short visit a few years ago. It was great to see them.

Beth Carroll is breeding champion Portuguese Water Dogs, tutoring math students and has enjoyed cruising to Australia, the Greek Islands, Alaska, South America, Panama Canal and South East Asia.

Sandra Chu wrote: "I begin my third year as an assistant rowing coach at Kansas State University. The Wildcats will begin their sixth year as a Division I women's rowing program. Derek also works for K-State as a network administrator. Manhattan, KS is a small (60,000) town that has rush hour from 5:00 to 5:05 p.m.! Can you tell I miss east coast life? Please give everyone my greetings."

Elizabeth (Betty) Cobb wrote: "I enjoy reading about my former students and their families and activities. I had the opportunity of spending a short time with Chloe King MFS '55 at Camp Wyonogonic's 100th summer celebration. At our camp, Runoia, we had our 95th season."

Katherine Cohen wrote: "I married Jack Cohen in 1996 and with the marriage came two stepsons (now 10 and 12). I left teaching and am employed as Director of Business Development at KSS Architects in Princeton and Philadelphia. Our firm specializes in projects for higher education and private schools. (We did the PDS science renovation)."

Kay Haartz Cortelyou sent word that she is teaching math and statistics at the Maret School in Washington, D.C.

Patricia Cross wrote: "It's wonderful to have time for a myriad of pursuits—some relatively mundane such as reading the New York Times in a leisurely fashion after breakfast; going to exercise class twice a week; playing tennis; joining a book discussion group, or just hanging out with friends. It is true that there is life after PDS! Most of all I have enjoyed traveling—three times to England in 2000; the Greek Islands in summer 2000; and Italy this fall. Substituting at PDS and Stuart Country Day School has also kept me in touch."

Jeff and Becky Cutts wrote; "We moved this summer into one of the oldest homes in Andover after Becky 'retired' from the Pike School having taught there since we both left PDS in 1985. We are fortunate in that she is able to stay at home ... she may have missed her true calling as a general contractor! She also has asked to participate on the Deaconate at South Church and is a class parent at Pike where Sarah and Jeffrey Jr. are still students. Jeffrey is actually in the process of wrapping up his Pike career and is interviewing/applying to secondary day schools in the area. Jeff is with Fidelity Institutional Retirement Services Company.

Beth Anderson's son

Laurie Davis is teaching kindergarten and first grade.

Rhonda Davis sent this: "Check out my school at www.QuarryLaneSchool.org"

Joseph (Scoot) Dimon wrote: "I am assistant headmaster of Westminster Schools in Atlanta, Georgia. My wife, Maggie, is still a star runner and teaches EFM at Westminster. Philip, who was born in Princeton while we were teaching at PDS, is a junior at Williams College and plays tennis for the Ephs! Ricky is a senior at Westminster, and has helped lead the Wildcats team to two state championships in boys' tennis. Hello to all!"

Betsy Dykstra wrote: "I have been in Indiana for 12 years now (longest consecutive stay in my adult life!) I have been at Park Tudor School teaching English for 12 years, coupled with a six-year stint as Middle School Head. Time to get an outside life! I am beginning a new position job-sharing as the Middle School media specialist. More time to visit my sons Peter PDS '88 in Seattle, and Andy PDS '89 in Wisconsin along with his wife, daughter and new-born son."

Charles Elbot wrote: "In my fifth year as Principal of Slavers School (K-8), Denver Public School System. This year we have been recognized as one of the top ten schools nationally in educating for character."

David Frothingham said he enjoys reading about former students and colleagues in the Journal. He wrote: "I had a good visit over school lunch with some of the old guys last fall. Aside from beginning my sixth year as Headmaster of Peck, (pretty close to PDS) with Jenny Chandler Hauge '78 as an active parent, I have very much enjoyed running into those PDS students in the field of education."

Jim Gramentine wrote: "Staying busy since retirement with being senior warden at our church in downtown Milwaukee and writing a history of Western Reserve Academy (which is nearly finished). Traveling frequently and enjoying biking and golf."

Huson Gregory sent this: "John, wife Lynda, and grandchild Jack, live in Sydney Australia. John still plays ice hockey. Liza and her husband live in San Francisco. Mimi and I are fine. I begin my 25th year as Headmaster at Portledge School."

Catherine Campbell Hanrahan wrote: "After PDS I met and married retired WWII veteran Raymond Hanrahan in Trumbull, Connecticut. He died in 1993. I live among friends in a retirement community and continue to play piano at a nearby nursing home. In addition, I enjoy accompanying the McAuley chorus and I look forward to more news from PDS!"

Priscilla Grindle wrote: "Thank you so much for the letter from PDS. As always I am captivated by France and Italy and plan to spend some time there in the fall visiting chiefly Milan and Paris."

Molly Houston wrote: "I still keep up with PDS: I served on the Lower School curriculum committee for the first year of my retirement, and did a fair amount of substitute teaching in 1998-99. I was involved in a docent training course at the Princeton University Art Museum. Now I am a regular volunteer docent and enjoy taking groups of school children through the museum. Cheers!"

Kathy Jamieson has been the head of Purnell School in Pottersville, New Jersey since 1998.

Carroll Kane gave us some year 2001 personal highlights: "Establishment of an endowment by my children at PDS for faculty children's books and fees; the birth of my first grandchild Henry Gibbs Vanneck; and lots of travel. We traveled to Italy, Mexico, and three weeks in China. This fall we are going to Turkey and Greek Islands and in the spring we hope to go to Holland and Belgium. In addition I am a docent at the Princeton University Art Museum."

Regina Lemerich is delighted to share her good news. She wrote: "I was married to Robert Sherwood Botsford, Jr., on May 26, 2001. We reside in Jackson, Michigan. My son, Ryan, completed an internship with Freddie Mac last summer, and is a senior at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. My daughter, Katie, is a freshman at Michigan State University. Robert has two children, Ryan and Eileen, who live and work in London."

Virginia (Ginny) Lockwood wrote: "I don't have much to be worthy of news! At 91, I move slowly and with discretion! I seem to have a lot of desk work—I pay bills and write postcards to my friends (their numbers diminish daily) and I take great pleasure in my own attempts at poetry—in my love for my black cat and for my son, Bill Lockwood, who keeps a good eye on me by dropping in on me daily (we live only a block apart from each other). It is a good life—but a quiet one—I envy the initiative and vivacity of young people. They are lucky to be so lively. I am eager to slow down and I can tell you there is much still to be enjoyed while walking slowly."

I attended my 70th reunion at Wellesley College last June, accompanied by my daughter, Dr. Julia Lockwood '67. We were royally treated by the college. Over the summer I attended, for the fifth or sixth year, a 10-day writers conference, Former second-grade teacher Carroll O'Brien Kane, who taught at PDS for 26 years, pictured with her husband Theodore G. Kane. Her children Theodore Gibbs Kane '61, Richard Kane '70 and Katherine Kane Nicols '74, established a fund in her honor that helps fund ancillary education expenses incurred by the families of faculty and staff whose children attend PDS.

Karen Marquis wrote: "We are happily settled in Scottsdale, Arizona and working for Bank One as a teller (as is Liz PDS '94). Eleanor PDS '97, is waiting for admission to Arizona State University for a master's degree in public health."

Wes McCaughan wrote: "I am thoroughly enjoying my retirement since I left PDS in 1987. I decided long ago that Princeton is the ideal community in which to live during one's final years. I am, of course, somewhat prejudiced, as I have lived in Princeton all of my life, except for a 6-year span when I lived in Lawrenceville with my wife and children."

There are a number of people in town who were good friends of mine 70 years ago, and they remain so to this very day! I awaken each morning very glad to be alive and well. I wander down to my favorite stomping grounds for a long walk, and then settle into a wonderful little café where I meet with friends—called the 'Romeo Club (retired old men eating out)—Princeton Chapter,' as we refer to ourselves with tongue-in-cheek. I am guaranteed each morning of finding two hours of very stimulating conversation awaiting me. Books, computers, and photography are my main interests these days. Travel has its place also when my wife and I can break away. Occasionally, I find my way out to a golf course. I fear that I spend far too much time on my computer, but I am absolutely fascinated with it! I would be pleased to hear from any of my former students if they would be of mind to write. I can be reached at IamWes@aol.com."

Douglas McClure said he was head of Sewickley Academy from 1982-86; director of business and finance, assistant head at the Blake School from 1987-95; and happily retired since 1995.

Louise McClure wrote: "After leaving PDS in 1992, I studied and became certified in shiatsu and trager, two kinds of bodywork. In April of 1996, Ted and I traveled to Hangzhou, China, to adopt our daughter, Ami Lin. Two years later, my husband became seriously ill; luckily after three years, he is fine. I am currently teaching strings at home and in three schools, doing bodywork, and raising an energetic, bright, challenging 6-year-old!"

Pat McCord wrote: "Quinn and I moved to Savannah, Georgia in 1994 when I retired and I love it here—no snow to shovel! Lindsay '82 lives across the street with her two sons, Alex age 10, and Jesse age 8, and I am glad to be able to help her. I hope I help her as much as she helped me through Quinn's illness and death in 1999. Quinn '77, and David '79, are still in New Jersey with their families and I see them as often as possible. I keep busy with gardening (both mine and the Botanical Garden), church work, etc. I love hearing from Princeton folks and try to visit PDS whenever I am in town."

Anna Olecka wrote: "I changed jobs three times since leaving PDS and the newest one took me to Boston. I am doing well. Princeton is still my favorite area."

Alberto Petrella wrote: "Since retiring I have been busier than ever enjoying my hobbies. I continue to spend lots of time in my vegetable garden, and I also bowl regularly in three leagues and play bocce. I now have five beautiful granddaughters whom I take great pleasure in watching grow. During hockey season, you can occasionally spot me at a PDS game. I enjoy returning to watch athletic events."

Virginia Reynolds wrote: "Since retirement I have been busy storytelling and reading the love letters between Woodrow Wilson and his wife, Ellen. I also spend much time at the Princeton University Art Museum as a docent."

Barbara Roberts wrote: "Since 1985 I have been living in Islesboro, Maine, an island in Penobscot Bay. My daughter Diana PDS '74, and I run the used-book store in our barn that my husband, Donald, started in the late 70's. We're only open in the summer and try to get away in the winter."

Norman Sperling is always delighted to hear from former students and colleagues! His address is 413 Poinsettia Avenue, San Mateo, CA 94403 and his email is nsperling@california.com

Janet Stoltzfus wrote: "I read every word of every mailing I receive. I appreciate the great job all of you do in keeping the larger community informed about PDS."

Alan Taback wrote: "We are living and working in San Diego, on our business, 'Spirit Art and Basketball'—dealing with establishing small workshops in art and in basketball. It also includes the sale of art. We are presently operating from our home and are looking for exhibition and work space."

All is well. We love our home and neighborhood and San Diego County in general. Jennifer Taback Anderson '85 lives around the corner—it is so wonderful! But we surely do miss our friends from the Princeton and Trenton area—many of them being former PDSers!"

Kaye Vosburgh wrote: "We just moved to Boston and are living downtown. I am teaching Ikebana and am starting classes here. Kirby is at Mass General and Harvard Medical School."

Frank Walter wrote: "I have returned to teaching at Berkeley Heights school system as a mathematics teacher."

Violet Wetherell wrote: "I am teaching Spanish at the Noble and Greenough School in Dedham, only miles outside of Boston. Besides teaching, I am coaching an ice hockey team, which should be a lot of fun and challenging."

Nancy Young wrote: "Continuing to enjoy life in the Vail Valley, working as the Director of Development at Vail Mountain School, a 'mini' PDS with 260 students in grades K-12." 🐾

When the original "Griffie Room" was absorbed by the expansion of the new campus center, the school relocated the plaque and dedicated the "greenhouse" courtyard in Dale Griffie's memory. Mr. Griffie was a beloved Upper School English teacher at PDS from 1970-1985.

Fiona Morgan Fein sent some photographs and this update: "The last edition of the Journal had no news from us, mea culpa, so this column combines both old and new. By the time you read it, it will all be old, so I don't think it matters!

I'm saddened to report the death of two of our mothers: Mary Long, Sheila Long's mother, who died in March after a protracted illness, and Grace Ramus, Tucky's (Anne Tucker Ramus) mother, who died peacefully, at home, on August 8. Our condolences to you both and to your families and friends who share your loss and grief.

Cynthia Weinrich, Tibby Chase Dennis, Cherry Raymond, and I went to Cambridge for Mary Long's funeral in early April. It was a celebration of her life with measures of joy alongside of the sadness. We were happy to bring a mini-reunion to Sheila who has never been able to come to any of ours in Princeton. And when her official duties were done, she joined us at a table all to ourselves for a wonderful visit. Tibby who has spent the last year or so recovering from all those years (it was really over a decade, when I stop to think of it!) of intensive Massachusetts-New Jersey commuting and parent-care-giving, I seem to have the most extraordinary interest in just seeing all kinds of friends for all kinds of visits and group activities. Sometimes on the days I am not working at the library, I will meet with a group (for Bible study or for a prayer group) after breakfast, meet someone else for lunch at

during other periods of my life (writing books, etc.)."

Julia Cornforth Holofcener has "finally closed on the house in France. It is magnificent and horrific at the same time. The property is spectacular, but horribly overgrown and in need of a lot of loving care. (Instead of Chateau du Lorey, we call it Chateau de la Rot) Having said all that, we have never been so happy...We're surrounded by twittering birds of all sorts and the fish in our small lake cavort for our amusement. Of course, we're exhausted, but loving it. We eat very well and I have never drunk so much good wine in all my life....We won't be able to move in for a while because of all the work that needs to be done, but hopefully one of these days we will have moved in and be able to open our doors to visitors. We were one of Northampton's wonderful ethnic restaurants, go with another friend to walk our respective dogs in the early afternoon over by the river, meet someone else for coffee in the late afternoon, and then maybe do an emergency shelter shift after supper. That's more or less a typical 'non-work' day! The work days of course are frenetic dashing around trying to juggle five patrons at once here at the reference desk, while also fumbling to answer the phone as it rings off the hook. I seem to have virtually no interest right now in doing any of the 'achievement' type things I have put so much energy into had a broken wrist. She likes reading about class members' activities in this column.

Nancy Smoyer wrote that "the Smoyer family had two memorable occasions in May. The first was the dedication of an athletic field at PDS in Billy's memory (William S. Smoyer '60 Memorial Field). A group of about 50 people gathered at the field in the late afternoon. A nice mixture of Billy's friends, my friends, a Dartmouth Marine friend of his, family friends, several boys/men who had won a pee-wee hockey award given in Billy's name, and others were there. The family spoke briefly and then it was opened up for anyone to talk about him — my favorite part. PCD '60 classmates Pepper Pettit and Davey Davis spoke very movingly, both getting choked up, and several other people told stories about him — almost all funny. Then the next morning we had an equally memorable dedication of the Township recreation park in Mother's memory. The events included an opportunity for me to demonstrate my diminished MFS athletic abilities by throwing out the first baseball-high and wide! I was on an adrenalin high for days afterwards due to the flood of memories shared with friends. I thought how nice it would be if everyone who has lost someone could have an occasion like this which enables you to remember the person, not in the throes of the immediate pain, but later when emotions aren't so raw. And it's a time of sharing and acknowledgement that the loss and pain isn't over, not only for the family, but for the friends as well."

Elise Bruml finished an addition to their house this past winter and has a hypoallergenic dog (of the poodle persuasion according to Cynthia who had visited her recently).

Ann Davidson Zweede has a new address (or it was new last Christmas...): 6024 North Mount Vernon Drive, Seneca, South Carolina 29672.

Janey Smith is well and, when last heard from, working too hard in Dummerston, Vermont (in her used bookstore and for the town of Brattleboro).

Joan Yeaton Seamon sent news of the "wonderful wedding for daughter Julie, with Jeannie Shaw and Johnnie Byrne in attendance. A perfect Washington wedding beginning at Georgetown Presbyterian Church with reception at the Decatur House on Lafayette Square, across from the White House. Julie's husband is a Secret Service Agent and Julie is a corporate lawyer. We are still recovering! I hope I will have a photo to send on soon. Our big life change (other than marrying off our daughter) is Hal's retirement in December. But being the type-A's that we are, we bought a home in Williamsburg, VA in early June. So, our house here in northern Virginia has sold and we will move in early September to—as Hal calls it—an "aggressively colonial" home in Williamsburg. This is in the Kingsmill Community which offers — besides our lovely home — three marvelous golf courses, tons of tennis courts, a marina and a health center, etc.

photo of seven of us was taken at the Cornforths' house last fall. We made a reunion when Nancy was in town. Julia's parents are full of energy, the house was the same, and I think we all felt as if we might have slipped back into the late 50s! Harvey and I are well; SCUBA diving and house/apartment renovating in the hopes that this will really be the last time (we must have caught it from the Holofceners!!) Life is very full and satisfying. I echo Tibby's disinterest in achieving things. What a relief!

65TH REUNION

We learned of the death of John Fine Locke from his twin brother the Reverend Bradford B. Locke, Jr., who wrote from Guilford, Connecticut:

"Dear Friends: This gift is in loving memory of my dear twin brother John Fine Locke who was also in the PCD class of 1939. He died August 4, 2000, in St. Vincent's hospital in Bridgeport, Connecticut. He lived in Stratford. He never married. He was age 76. John often talked with affection of PCD. He particularly remembered Mr. Murch. He was a great twin brother." We offer our heartfelt condolences.

John Gulick visited PDS over the summer. He reported that he was recently inducted into the Pennington Hall of Fame. He said that the Pennington Hall of Fame display case has many medals, and on either side of the collection are two PCD gold medals. As he visited, he mentioned the names of classmates Spencer Welsh, Thomas Matthews (deceased) and Alfred Parson (deceased). His mother Katharine Methar Gulick, worked as the business manager for MFS for 17 years from 1941 to 1958.

Phil sent this column: "Your correspondent has only one bit of correspondence to report, a letter from Bobby Hillier. The busiest kid in our class of a half-century ago (given his job at The Flower Basket), he still is, as he writes: "Far from retired [and chairing the world's fourth largest architecture firm]... I am still having an absolute ball doing architecture with projects in the UK, Turkey, India and the Czech Republic. Our biggest project is the largest office complex now being built in the country; 4 million square feet for 14,000 Sprint employees in Kansas City. Our most interesting and intriguing project is the restoration and preservation of one of the great buildings in Washington, the Supreme Court." On the side he teaches a graduate seminar at the University and coaches his eight-year-old daughter Jordan's soccer team.

For myself, Posterity Press remains one of the smaller publishing houses to have reached the ripe age of six and stay in business. We've even grown — in staff, quarters and output (with bigger books if not too many more each year). On the home front, Mary and I just became empty-nesters, having installed Tim happily at the University of Miami.

All things considered, consider this: 'Older is better.'"

Ward Kuser wrote: "OK, OK, so I took a bit of a break. I mean, two issues and a year or so, I figured no one would know that I was even gone. With Madame Editor Linda Stefanelli MFS '62 retiring to Magazine Editor Valhalla, it seemed like a good time to quietly fade away after five years or so. No one was sending me anything, the phone bill was bad enough, there was nothing new with "Uncle Stooie" and the Old Guard, and, hey, I can't write. Bill Ackley was right and now must be spinning in his grave.... You know.... Right.

Right? Wrong!

I got away with it until after the Fall '00 issue came out, but then I got creamed from all sides. I couldn't even walk down Nassau Street without some one slamming me. Mrs. Smyth wondered if they finally had caught up with me! Someone in the Pennington Market asked if I had "Writer's Block" ... I clued her in that I basically can't write. Pepper Pettit PCD '60 razed me for taking the easy way out, instead of struggling like he was trying to write his column. Mea (Liz Aall) Kaemmerlen MFS '64, who writes for The Times of Trenton, wondered what rock I had been under. While loading his lunch pail with yellow fin and avocado at a local sushi bar, Regan Kerney trashed me for all the time dumping on him, rather than Peter Mills and John Becker. He definitely wanted back-to-the-future revenge. Bud Tibbals took me to the cleaners after asking if I had forgotten all his history lessons about famous quitters. Then the new Madame Editor, Anne Marie Russo Keith, questioned my respect for the teachers who made me what I am today! ... She obviously doesn't know who I am. But the one that got me the most was Hank Tomlinson, who really hit me hard. Hank's father, Henry Tomlinson PCD '34, unfortunately passed away this past summer. According to Hank, his father had found my word-mongering efforts a pleasing form of entertainment and took a dim view of my slinking off into the night! ... Enough said. If the new Madame Editor can deal with my ribald antics, then onward with new tales of the Boys from Broadmead!

Unfortunately, I am three weeks late on the deadline and, as usual, I have no material. Well, here goes. I'm sure somewhere else in this issue there must be a great write-up and photos of the Smoyer family and their generous athletic field gift in honor of Bill Smoyer PCD '60. On that May evening, there was a wonderful crowd of PCD, Miss Fine's, and PDS people, young and old, parents and schoolmates—all there to honor a wonderful person that we can now only remember. Stan Smoyer spoke first and then was followed by David Smoyer PCD '56 and Nancy Smoyer MFS '61. Pepper Petit and PCD '60 classmate Davy Davis said some fine words about their memories growing up with Bill. Among others at the gathering were Barbara Rose Callaway MFS '64, Debborah Hobler MFS '66, and Jack McCarthy PCD '62. It was really quite moving.

Just as this new school year was to start, I again spoke to Regan Kerney, but this time we weren't sliding up to the sushi bar. He continues teaching and coaching at Lawrenceville School where he's been for several years. According to him, it only gets better since the students never cease to amaze him. ... Good or bad?

According to several PCD '61 parents and family members when recently seen about Nassau Street, our classmates are all doing great. Unfortunately, they didn't elaborate much. Herb Hobler says that Randy Hobler is doing fine with his many activities. Mrs. Kane tells that Gibby Kane is still sailing like crazy. Peggy Longstreth Bayer MFS '41 said that Richard Longstreth continues his efforts in architectural history teaching. Mrs. Morse told that Peter Morse still teaches math in the Far East. Meanwhile, she again is making local news by donating an offspring of the famous, and now late, Mercer Oak Tree to the battlefield site.

There are the usual vicious rumors concerning Robert Ayers and his antics in D.C. He definitely has the life in the nation's capitol.

Talking about Washington, what about Bob Mueller PCD '59 taking over the F.B.I.? A good man for a hard job. I dug a bit for the photo of Bob showing his baseball skills a la 1956 Westward Ho II with Chris Shannon PCD '56 and Mike Morris PCD '60.

I actually was invited to a few family gatherings this past spring and saw Tim Kuser PCD '56 and "Q" Kuser PCD '60. Tim is still doing his thing trying to teach people how to drive fast and safely, while Brother Q keeps working the family nursery down in Bordentown.

And then there's Hank Tomlinson. I was out in the Land of Enchantment last week and had the opportunity to catch Hank and his family for breakfast. Albuquerque seems to do him well, even though he spoke of returning to Colorado in a few years. He keeps working as a sporting goods rep and travels to all the REI-type sports places in the Southwest. The picture shows how the family has grown since my last write-up of him in 1995. Those kids keep growing! And so does Hank's interest in sports – biking, camping, climbing, hiking ... you name it. He got his ten-year old son Petie playing ice hockey at one of the two rinks in town. I can just imagine Hank peacefully sitting in the stands. When I mentioned I loved to blade, he immediately suggested going on an eighteen mile jaunt about Albuquerque ... I reached for another piece of Indian fry bread, gulped and politely passed. Hank also mentioned about Peter Kirkpatrick still being on the road as a sports rep and wondered if he had again seen Dave Petito and Hy Young in Florida. So, all things look good at Casa Tomlinson.

And finally, the Three Sages, better known as Stu Robson, Bud Tibbals, and Wes McCaughan, continue to amaze all. Due to their ever-growing popularity in the community, their weekday gatherings have moved to larger surrounds at the shopping center. So I stopped in one day at the Java Hut to see them in action.

In this center of intelligentsia sat our hallowed masters surrounded by mere mortals seeking their insight and words of wisdom. It was awesome!

OK, that's it for this time. Yeah, yeah, yeah, I know this was thin and I didn't talk about the other twenty-nine of us still around, but I'll get more next time ... You know ... about The Boys From Broadmead.

On a sad note, we offer our condolences to John Sheehan, whose mother died in September.

2002 Athletic Hall of Fame Selection Criteria

Purpose

The purpose of the Athletic Hall of Fame is to recognize and honor those student athletes and other members of the community whose athletic accomplishments or other contributions to the athletic program have been of the highest caliber and exemplify the highest ideals of the school.

Structure of the Selection Committee

Permanent members of the committee are the Director of Athletics, the Associate Director of Athletics, the Director of Alumni Relations and at least one school administrator. Miss Fine's School, Princeton Country Day School and Princeton Day School are each represented by at least one alumna/us for a term of three years. Selection Committee members are not eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame while serving on the committee.

Calendar

A request for nominations is included in the Journal. All new nominees are notified and asked to complete an information sheet. Inductees will be notified of their selection by February 15. An awards ceremony is held during Alumni Weekend.

Criteria for Selection

ATHLETES

Player nominees must have attended Miss Fine's School, Princeton Country Day School, or Princeton Day School for a minimum of two years. Athletes become eligible for consideration five years after the graduation of their class. Inductees will have compiled an exceptional interscholastic athletic career or otherwise distinguished themselves through outstanding athletic achievements and exemplify the highest ideals of the school.

Selection is based primarily on athletic accomplishments while at Miss Fine's School, Princeton Country Day School or Princeton Day School. Subsequent achievements in athletics and other areas are also taken into consideration.

Mary Hobler Hyson sent photographs taken at the Athletic Hall of Fame presentations during Alumni Weekend in May.

The spotlight this issue is on Bill Rigot, who was inducted into the PDS Athletic Hall of Fame on May 18. A brief write-up on Bill's athletic accomplishments during his years at PDS appeared in the last issue of the Journal. So today, we are extending our hearty congratulations to Bill. He wrote me a note after the event: "The school and PDS community as a whole could not have done anything else for my family and myself. An unforgettable experience! It was wonderful to see old schoolmates like John Claghorn '68 and Debbie Holber '66 as well as Mrs. Joan Baker (mother of Linda Baker Bogue '68), Wes McCaughan and Sandy Bing."

Punky Brewster Rutledge e-mailed me this spring to let me know that she is finishing her second year teaching third grade in South Windsor, Connecticut. Her oldest child, Erin graduated from high school in June and will attend Wagner College in the fall. Her son, Luke, who is four, likes to spend his free time playing guitar. (I wonder if he has learned any of the "Roving Kind" songs?!!) Kerry, Punky's husband, continues his job as a senior systems consultant at The Hartford. When he is not at work, you can find him coordinating umpiring for the Little League in Manchester.

Andy Fishman had an update: "Since my trip to Nepal, my group with Operation Walk has been to Cebu (in the Philippines) for a similar orthopedic mission. Other than a few monsoon-like tropical storms, there were no surprises. My daughter, Megan, is heading east to Bard College in New York this summer, and my youngest,

Addie, survived the third grade."

I apologize for the lateness of the following item from Katie Ecroyd who wrote to me two years ago! She wrote: "In 1996 I was named one of the five Kansas Master Teachers. It was quite an honor! Since 1997 I've been serving on our teacher association's negotiation team. I've also served as a Kansas-NEA Human Rights Commissioner. I am still active in the American Association of University Women. My life continues to be full, with school and family. My oldest daughter, Rebecca, is attending the University of Iowa. My youngest, Joanna, is six-foot-one, and plays volleyball and basketball in high school." I am wondering if she'd be interested in heading east and playing on the University of Connecticut Husky team?

Leigh Keyser Phillips sent me an extensive Christmas letter. She wrote: "Peter, my husband, and I (now both eligible for AARP!) are still busy with insurance and pensions, and practicing law, respectively. I am still on the board of Westover School in Connecticut and the YWCA in Burlington, Vermont. In my free time I like to play golf, bike, and keep up with the kids and their activities. We were fortunate to do some traveling this year with the family to Tuscany and Rome. Hally is Leigh Keyser Phillips '68 and husband, Peter, with their son, Brent in Rome where they traveled earlier this year.

Joe Chandler and I had a wonderful mini-reunion in June in Portland. He came across a 1965 PCD Junior Journal and how we howled at the pictures of some goofy looking kids — oh to be 14 years old again!

2001 has been a landmark year for me — attended my 30th college reunion; attended my husband's 30th college reunion; celebrated our 30th wedding anniversary; watched my youngest son, David, graduate from high school; and witnessed the union of my son, Christopher and his bride, Sarah at the Mohonk Mountain House in New York State! So the nest is emptying: Christopher and Sarah will head to Tufts where Christopher will participate in a one year certificate program for museum work; Katie will return to Dartmouth to begin her junior year; and David will head to Colgate.

As you read this column, I do hope that it will encourage you to write to me with your news. Being class secretary is difficult if no one writes to me!

P.S.: Mary sent in a photograph of Ruth Dorf MFS '27, a 2001 Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, along with this special note. Mary wrote: "Mrs. Dorf has been a dear friend of our family and was our next door neighbor on Mercer Road for about 40 years. Prior to the write-up in the PDS Journal of her early years of athletics, I had not been aware of that aspect of her life. She has always been vivacious, spunky and most attentive — a treasured friend."

Another classmate Sue Kleinberg wrote to PDS: "Nothing much to report — still a deputy attorney general (Bob Ramsey's partner is an adversary in one of my cases.) Daughter Cecily MacCarchie is a junior in high school. Son Teddy MacCarchie is in seventh grade. It was great to go to the "Century" party last fall at Jasna Polana. I saw Franny Gorman '67."

Congratulations and thanks to Allison Gilbert Kozicharow, our outstanding class agent, for leading our class again with the highest percent participation in last year's Annual Fund. Allison wrote: "I'm off work 'til the fall and busy visiting colleges and grad schools for Nicky (17) and Maggie (21) respectively. As always, my family and Hilary Martin's get together a lot and I'm also enjoying seeing Meg Brinster Michael and her family this summer. Hilary and her clan are heading off to Australia and New Zealand and we are watching their two dogs. Their two, plus our two, plus a neighbor's dog makes, GASP, FIVE dogs for two weeks! Friends of the girls visiting or hanging around add to the usual household confusion. Maggie's boyfriend visited us and his appendix burst! He felt bad when he arrived, but was too polite to mention it!"

Cindy Shoemaker wrote: "I recently moved from Southern Maryland to the Eastern Shore of Maryland. I worked at the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory, on Solomons Island, for 10 years. Now, because of funding cuts, I'm working at CBL's sister lab in Cambridge, MD. My mother and one of my sisters also live on the Eastern Shore; it will be nice to be able to visit them more often."

Catherine Morgan Standard wrote: "I am still living on the big island of Hawaii, with my husband, John, and ten-year-old daughter, Eloise. Our older children are in college: Celiha is at Franklin College in Lugano Switzerland, and son, Silas, is at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. I work on my home, my family, my art, and having more fun! Best to all my classmates!"

I also got an e-mail from Bob Salup who said that he had been very ill with an intestinal parasite that he had contracted in Portugal, but that he was going to be reading some of his poetry on August 25th at the Princeton Arts Council.

On behalf of the class, we send our heartfelt sympathy to Hilary Martin whose mother passed away in March, to Pam Orr Marck whose father passed away in June, to Lucy Stover-Schorr whose father passed away in October, and mother who passed away in November, and to Laurie Linowitz whose sister was killed in an automobile accident in October.

I am afraid we are a little slim on news this time. Please send something for the next Journal.

Catherine Ferrante Tapsall received the following letter from Nora Cuesta Lazzaretto:

Dear Catherine:
Can it be true? Have all of these years REALLY flown by? Sometimes I feel as if I am 25 years old, then I remember that I am 40! Well, I have not written into our class notes for a while, so I think it is time. I have included two pictures of my husband and myself.

I am a Senior Risk Consultant for a company by the name of StaffLeasing. I have worked in the realm of "safety" for 18 years now. Chris, my husband, is a project supervisor for a large construction company, A-Z Builders. We have known each other for 16 years and just this month have been married for four years. He is my best friend.

We are presently living in Pembroke Pines, Florida. We have been working towards adopting overseas, specifically from the Ukraine. If all continues to proceed as scheduled, we will be traveling in September 2001. Please keep your fingers crossed for us! Our only child right now is a miniature schnauzer by the name of "Petey" (from the Little Rascals).

Although Chris and I have no children together, Chris has two wonderful children from a previous marriage, so we are grandparents! What a hoot! I am a step-mom, godmother and grandmother, but somehow passed "mother"! That will be next.

My dad (Marcelo Cuesta) — those of you who took Spanish classes should remember "Senor Cuesta" — just got married on May 5, 2001. After losing my mother in 1990 to cancer, he is a very fortunate man to have found a wonderful partner to continue his life. He sends his best to all of those students who pass through his doors (and traveled to Spain and other countries with us in the summertime.)

My best to all classmates. I would love to hear from you. I have kept in close touch with three PDS people, classmate Sue Freman Keitelman (Fineman); Sandford Bing, past principal; and Allison Shehadi, math teacher. They have been my inspiration in many facets of my life.

My best to all! I am including my address, phone and e-mail to see who will contact me first — Nora and Chris Lazzaretto, 1511 N. Hiatus Road, Pembroke Pines, Florida 33026-2625, or e-mail: cnlazz@quixnet.net."

Aaron Beim graduated from Amherst College and came home to Princeton in June long enough to run to victory in the 24th Annual Princeton Fete 10k race. At Amherst College he was a four-year member of the cross-country track and field teams. Beim tied for first place amongst 520 total finishers in the race which was sponsored by the New York Sports Club with all proceeds from the race going to the Hospital at Princeton's cancer research unit. The June 19, 2001 Princeton Packet reported Beim's running time as 34:57, for an average of 5 minutes, 35 seconds per mile, despite humidity reported in the 90s that day. The Packet wrote this about Beim: "Since graduating from the Amherst running program, the 22-year-old has experienced some ups and downs associated with the sport. He was 12th last October at the Hartford Marathon, but was injured and took off two months following that. In his third run back, he raced in the Boston Marathon to kick-start his distance training. Now he's ready to mix in some more speedwork in hopes of becoming a more consistent winner."

According to The Packet, Beim is off to Northwestern where he entered the Ph.D. program for sociology.

More mention of Aaron's running came with news of other classmates in this e-mail from Steve Bailey, PDS Technology Coordinator, US Computer Science. "I stopped in at Conte's to see the class of '96 at their 5th reunion. summer and CONGRATULATIONS to everyone who graduated! I had a blast my senior year, as I'm sure most of you did. After graduation, I spent a lot of time job hunting. Accepted a position with a marketing and consulting company in Princeton called Advantage Healthcare. If anyone is still around Princeton, I would love to hear from you.

The biggest news I have heard is from Cynthia Alvarez who is engaged to be married! Congratulations! I saw Hadley Hosea who is moving to New York City. She will be working for Price Waterhouse Cooper in their Human Resources department. Josh Goldston is moving to Hawaii for a year to work for the government on a telescope they have stationed there. After that he is off to California to attend graduate school at the University of California, Berkeley. I also ran into Whitney Robinson who is working for Princeton University and concentrating on ballet. (Whitney also returned to PDS this fall as the Middle School dance teacher.)

Whitney Robinson '97

Connie Hwong is also working for the University in Firestone Library. She will spend next semester working on her thesis and will return to Barnard for her final semester in January. I have heard rumors that Katie Griffith is moving to Colorado for a while, but is around Princeton until the end of the summer. I was told that after graduating, Christine Rossi decided to stay in Providence, RI to work. Lastly, I've talked with Seth Adler. He is spending the summer working for his father. After that, he plans to move to NYC and get a job.

Well, that is all the news I have for you. I hope everyone is doing well. Please e-mail me at err97@aol.com if you have any news and if you are around Princeton, give me a call!"

Danielle Stramandi, a senior at Princeton University, continues to lead Princeton's diving team as a 10-meter platform diver. She is currently training for the World Cup Trials in the spring. Over the summer she journeyed to Beijing, China to participate in the 2001 World University Games where she finished the competition as the highest-scoring U.S. diver and led the team to a fifth-place finish in the final rankings. The competition was tough, with seven Olympic platform divers competing. Congratulations to Danielle!

Andrew Dean was awarded an academic/aptitude commendation by the Department of the Navy, Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps in Boulder, Colorado. The award "publicly commends Andrew for his performance and distinguishes him as a top performer in the University of Colorado NROTC program." Andrew ranks second in his class. Jonathan Schor was accepted this semester into Emory's Gouisetta Business School."

In April 2001 Gabriel Kuris and fellow teammates received one of The Yale Entrepreneurial Society's Y50K awards for their business plan. Kuris and teammates had the only proposal submitted entirely all-undergraduate team. Their start-up, Elmseed, would use microcredit to provide loans for aspiring entrepreneurs among New Haven, Connecticut's poor. They received $10,000 in prize money and the same amount in business-sponsored service prizes. According to The Yale Daily News, 92 teams submitted plans, more than twice last year's figure.

We received word Maria Tardungo, now a student at Davidson College, was awarded a music scholarship. Maria wrote: "I am working on a history major as well as a concentration in Gender Studies. This past summer I studied abroad at Cambridge University in Cambridge, England where I took courses in British History and Literature, and had a wonderful experience. I have continued my studies in music while I have been at Davidson. I have been playing the flute and have participated in both the Symphony Orchestra and the Flute Choir. (I'm not in orchestra this semester, but expect to be participating in it again soon.) The scholarship that I competed for last spring was a music scholarship. I am the recipient of the J. Estes Millner Scholarship which is awarded based on musical talent and dedication."

Christopher Westcott, an environmental studies major at Bates College is participating in the college's Junior Year Abroad program and will spend the fall semester at Khon Kaen University in Thailand, and the spring at the University of Otago, New Zealand.

PRINCETON DAY SCHOOL

ANNUAL REPORT

2000-2001

In 2000-2001, Princeton Day School joined with a small number of independent JK-12 day schools in this country that have reached a $1,000,000 Annual Fund goal. This is a tribute to the many volunteers and contributors who gave so much of themselves over the year. It is also a remarkable testimony to the high regard that our alumni, parents and friends have for our school.

More important than reaching this remarkable goal, however, is the difference these funds make in our programs and in what our students experience at Princeton Day School. I like to think of a million-dollar Annual Fund as the income from $20 million of endowment that we don't yet have. The Princeton Day School Annual Fund is a critical component of the school's overall vitality, and all of us here on campus recognize that this broad support sets our school apart and allows us to provide the extras that can make all the difference in a child's experience.

Aside from the Annual Fund, the school benefited from the many major gifts that directly supported faculty salaries, financial aid, the athletic fields project and other programs. When all was said and done, over $3.3 million in gifts were received. Another $347,000 was pledged and will be paid in the coming months.

We like to think that we here in the development office have helped make some of this success possible, but the simple truth is that our faculty, students, parents, and alumni have helped make Princeton Day School a good place for donors to invest their philanthropic dollars. Good things happen here. Children at PDS grow into educated citizens and leaders, and it has been this way for over 100 years. In the final analysis, this is why PDS receives such broad support.

As we look forward, a wonderful new Head of School is in place, the trustees are hard at work – with the input of many – developing a new plan that will set the course of the school for the next five years. If the past provides any lessons, one must surely be that when we aim high in the service of our students, those in this community will help to make it happen. In that sense, the future looks very bright indeed.

Our sincere gratitude goes to all the contributors listed in the report, and to many the volunteers who provide generous gifts of wisdom, time and effort. Their leadership enhanced directly our work on campus, and supported our teachers and hundreds of deserving students.

Finally, I would like to thank the entire staff of the Alumni and Development Office who simply could not be more hardworking or more devoted to Princeton Day School.

Andrew C. Hamlin
Director of Advancement

THE MAY MARGARET FINE SOCIETY

Established in 1998, the May Margaret Fine Society recognizes those loyal alumnae, parents and friends who have informed the Development Office that they have made provisions for Princeton Day School in their estate plans. We recognize that this is a partial listing, and urge those who have taken this important step to inform the Development Office and have their name(s) added to this list.

Including the school in their will, establishing a charitable trust while maintaining life income, and naming the school as a life insurance beneficiary are some of the ways these individuals have helped secure the long-term strength of Princeton Day School.

Dear Princeton Day School Community,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and its Planning Committee, we are delighted to invite you to join us as we embark upon a long range planning process, the result of which will guide our focus and efforts over the next five years. That process includes articulating a vision of the future we wish to create for our students and for our school, expressing the mission or purpose of PDS for students and defining the core values that guide us, day-to-day, in fulfilling our purpose and moving toward our vision. We will then develop three to five goals that are consistent with our vision, mission and core values, and that will shape our actions going forward in a commitment to continuous improvement.

The first step is to invite ideas from the entire PDS community through an online survey and through open Planning Forums. To complete the survey, please go to www.pds.org and follow the prompts to "Long Range Planning Survey." The user name you will need to enter is PDS (in all capital letters) and the password is planningsurvey (all lower case with no space). If you do not have easy access to the Internet, you may return the survey form by mail.

On February 8th and 9th, 2002, the Board of Trustees of PDS will be joined at a retreat by members of the administrative team, student leaders, and faculty, parent and alumni representatives. Together, we will review the information derived from the surveys and Planning Forums and develop a list of categories of issues on which to focus for the next five years.

Subsequent to the retreat, and determinate of three to five goals, multi-constituency task forces will meet to research the costs, resources and time associated with each proposed goal. Out of those task forces will grow recommendations for an implementation plan that we anticipate distributing to the PDS community by the opening of school in 2002.

We hope for an enthusiastic response to our request for input and welcome the participation of the entire PDS community. Thank you in advance for helping us with this most important project.

Sincerely,

Judith R. Fox
Head of School

ALUMNI WEEKEND • MAY 2001

In 1996 the Alumni Association initiated a pen pal program between second graders and Miss Fine's school alumnae. Not only do the second graders always share the same class year as the reunion classes, but they also learn the Maypole dance each spring, a Miss Fine's School tradition. A.
