Spring '91

In Memory of
Jonathan H. Pope

April 15, 1973 — June 2, 1991

In dedicating this supplement to Jonathan Howard Pope we should remember what his life stood for and what his life was about. Jon possessed a tremendous sense of humor, love of country, code of honor, and fear of God. Bringing out the best in people was Jon's talent, his personality was his tool. When you look at this yearbook, ask yourself two questions: How did Jon bring out the best in me, and how can I bring out the best in others? Think about the first question and the answer to the second will be obvious. This is how Jonathan Howard Pope will live forever in the souls of all of us.
