LINK 1990

Princeton Day School
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Class of 1990,

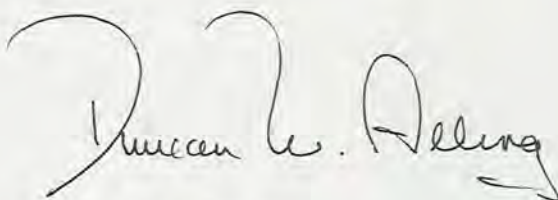

Many of you began your high school experience at the same time I began my tenure as headmaster of PDS. Others joined the class after your first year of high school. All of us have grown in many ways through our experiences at PDS.

As a class you have developed a wonderful sense of unity. For example, the senior lounge is truly for all seniors. You also support each other in so many marvelous ways. Faculty have noted how many of you help the classmate who is experiencing difficulty, how many of you draw joy from the success a classmate experiences. Your sense of humanity is exceptional.

You have taken an active interest in the school community and the community outside PDS. New clubs such as the Enact Club have been formed as a result of initiative by many in the class of 1990. Similarly, many of you have helped restore the spirit of community service by virtue of your volunteer work off campus. And, when it comes to cleaning you have worked hard at keeping the lounge neat and pleasant. A good example for all of us.

Your initiative and creativity also merit recognition. Who will forget your presentation of Cinderella to win the Halloween Challenge? To put some fun and spirit in our school you sponsored a winter dance. With only half the school year completed, who knows what you will do for us before you become the first graduating class of the next decade.

I hope other classes will continue your efforts. Bravo class of 1990.

Senior year was off to a roaring start as the Class of 1990 celebrated our inheritance of the long awaited Senior Lounge. We decorated our new home with a variety of posters, including the ever controversial Depeche Mode Poster that did make its way to the trash can more than once. However, as the year progressed the grade became slightly more accepting of individual differences, regarding the esoteric Fantasy Ship Poster as simply a display of one of our grade's quirky eccentricities.

Who is the more foolish — the fool or the fool who follows him?

Obi-One-Kenobi

Outside the cage I see my Brother John,
He turns his head so slowly round.
I cry out Help! before he can be gone,
And he looks at me without a sound.
And I shout out 'John please help me!'
But he does not even try to speak.
I'm helpless in my silent rage
And a silent tear of blood
    dribbles down his cheek,
And I watch him turn again and leave the cage.
My little runaway.

Genesis

If I leave here tomorrow,
Would you still remember me?
Well, I must be traveling on now
'Cause there's too many places

We've been

things together,
With trunks of memories still to come.
We found things
to do in stormy
weather,
Long may you
run,
Although these changes have come
With your chrome heart shinin' in sun
Long may you
run.

Neil Young

Christina Macaulay

We will fly
Way up high
Where the cold wind blows
Or in the sun,
Laughing, having fun,
With all the people that we know.
If the situation should keep us separated
You know the whole world won't fall apart
And you will free the beautiful bird caught inside your heart.

Never Say Goodbye

Life with its many twists
Bring few things of real importance
So when these come
Do the best to keep sacred
The moments which define
Their intensity and eliteness
Describe to the heart every reaction
To better help in the keeping
Place both hands around
For the struggle will be difficult
But remember the value of each
That is the reasoning behind the necessity
In this way parting will be numbed
Reunion heightened
And goodbyes obsolete

History with its flickering lamp stumbles along the trail of the past, trying to reconstruct its scenes, to revive its echoes, and kindle with pale gleams the passion of former days. What is the worth of all this? The only guide to a man is his conscience; the only shield to his memory is the rectitude and sincerity of his actions. It is very imprudent to walk through life without this shield, because we are so often mocked by the failure of our hopes and the upsetting of our calculations; but with this shield, however the fates may play, we march always in the ranks of honor.

My plan was simply to push on in a general southward direction by the wildest, leafiest and least trodden way I could find, promising the greatest extent of virgin forest. I believe that imagination is stronger than knowledge.
That myth is more potent than history.
That dreams are more powerful than facts.
That hope always triumphs over experience.
That laughter is the only cure for grief.

I'll take the dream I had last night
And put it in my freezer,
So someday long and far away
When I'm an old grey geezer,
I'll take it out and thaw it out,
This lovely dream I've frozen,
And boil it up and sit me down
And dip my old cold toes in.

Call me a joker, call me a fool
Right at this moment I'm totally cool

Man can shape circumstances, but circumstances should not be allowed to shape the man. We should seize upon circumstances as instruments by which to work. We are to master them, but should not permit them to master us.

I vow to never ever be like you.
I know I'll never do the things you do.
I vow to never ever have your view
on the value of life and your fear of the new.
I see the things you're taking and it's such a disgrace.
The bosses are just bullies kicking
you in the face.
You go with the flow and give in
with submission
And you've never done a thing
without their permission.
(Can't you see?)

Glenda Gracia

After a while, I learned the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul. I learned that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security. I learned that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises. I began to accept my defeats with my head up and my eyes open, with the grace of an adult, not the grief of a child. And I learned to build all of my roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans. After a while, I learned that even sunshine burns if you get too much. And I learned that I really can endure, that I really do have strength.

So they went off together. But wherever they go, and whatever happens to them on the way, in that enchanted place on the top of the Forest, a little boy and his Bear will always be playing.

Well, so here I am at the end of the rope.

Where do I go from here?

Still nothing seems to be quite clear.

All the words have been spoken,

All the prophecies fulfilled,

But I just can't decide where to go.

Yes, it's been quite a day

And I should go to sleep,

But tomorrow I will wake up and I'll know

That I've got to begin again,

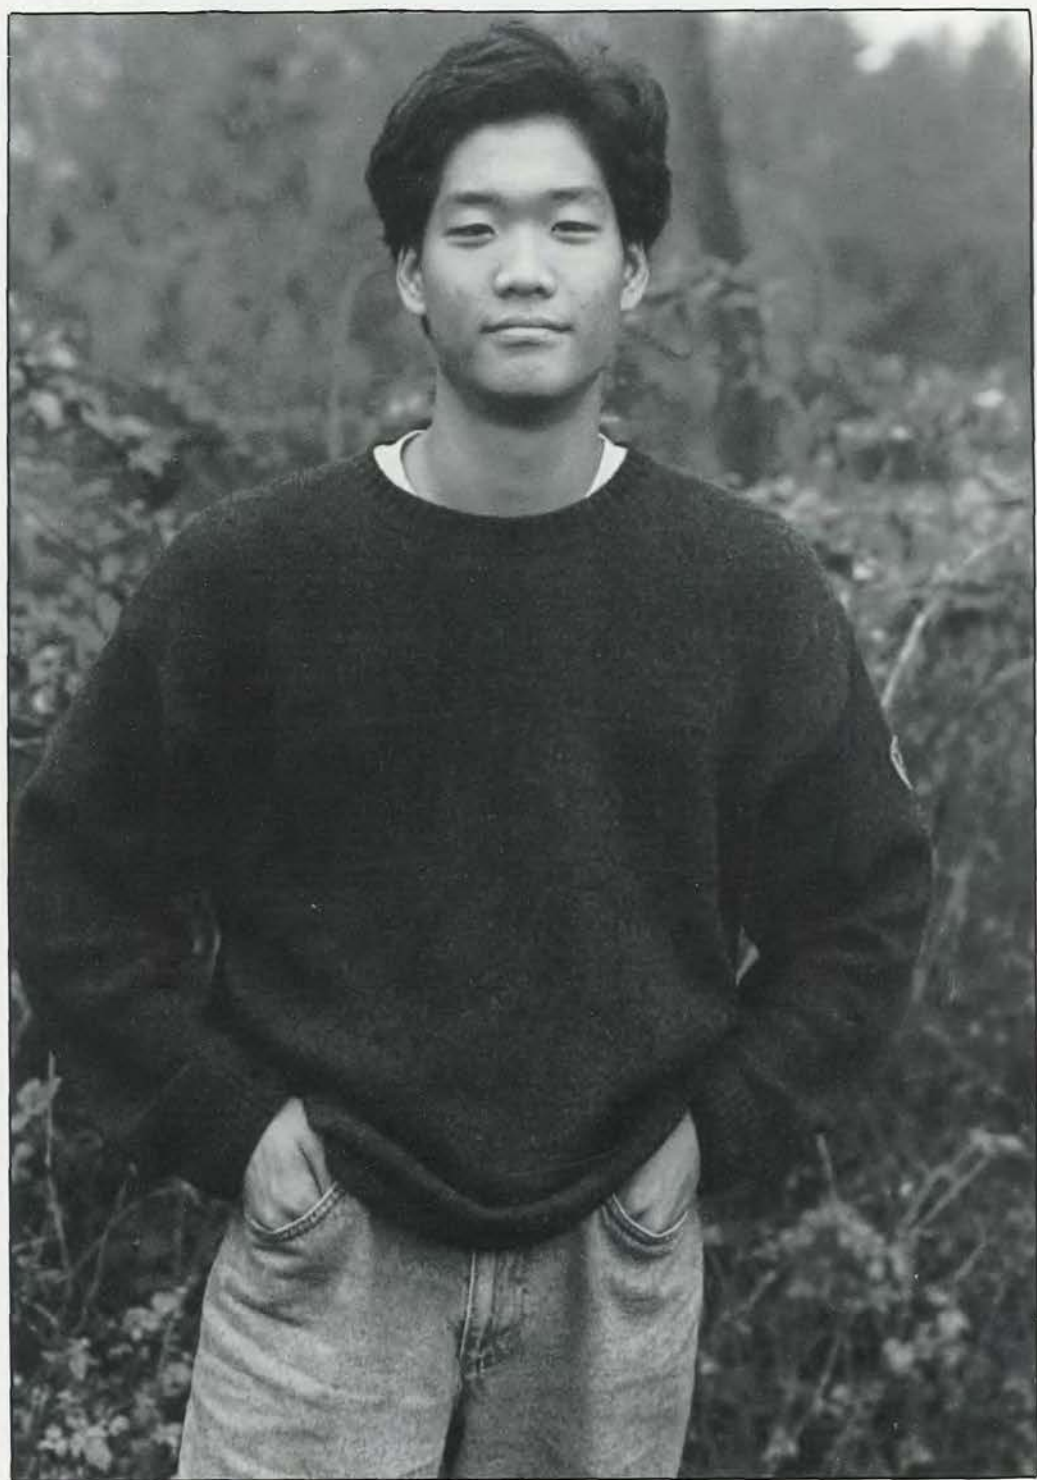

Though I don't know how to start.

Yes, I've got to begin again

And it's hard.

We finally did it! After three years of desperately attempting to claim victory in the Halloween Challenge, we the Seniors triumphed. Having worked our way up from humble freshman beginnings, this year we cleverly retold the traditional story of Cinderella. The Class of 1990's stellar performance was voted superior to the freshmen (Under the Sea), sophomores (Fairy Tales), and the junior class' portrayal of a Chinese New Year. Never fear, underclassmen. We too experienced the agony of defeat in years past. This year's Seniors proved that hours of preparation and dedication to a united grade can yield victory.

The Senior Halloween Challenge

THE SCHOOL

Fowler Merle-Smith

The winds of change are always swirling. Teachers come and go with the seasons, but contrary to all stereotypes, the students remember each teacher, no matter how long ago. This is especially evident as we, the last class ever to be taught by Mr. Fowler Merle-Smith, fondly recall his presence at Princeton Day School.

When we entered the Middle School in 5th grade some of our classmates were placed in the care of Mr. Merle-Smith, a homeroom teacher, History teacher and English teacher. At first glance, his stature and yard stick intimidated the impressionable batch of Lower School graduates, but these fears were soon dissipated by 3 o'clock of our first day. During "Hinglish" periods, named for the overlapping History and English classes, we would learn the required curriculum, running the gambit from Eskimos to the reading of Scott O'Dell's Island of the Blue Dolphins.

However, we not only learned from our textbooks, but we were graced with one of our greatest educational resources, Mr. Merle-Smith. He was an exceptional teacher. While precocious little 5th graders are easily bored, his homerooms and "Hinglish" classes kept us eternally enthralled.

Mr. Merle-Smith, the class of 1990 will always remember your yard stick, which you authoritatively carried around and slapped on desks to emphasize a point. Your life stories will always captivate us with their uniqueness and intrigue. Thank you for your dedication to the school and the love and care you displayed to each student and to each faculty member. And now as we depart from Princeton Day School, we remember the lasting impression you have made on our graduating class.

Tamara Turkevich Skvir

When our cars somehow wandered into the parking spots labeled "visitors only" it was Mrs. Skvir who issued warning after warning until we reformed. When senior lates piled-up beyond belief it was she who ruthlessly distributed pink slips. When lounge behavior got out of hand it was she who suspended several people's lounge privileges earning the name, "Tassie the Terrible", the czarina of the lounge. When senioritis posed possible problems it was she who did not preach to us, but spoke with the voice of reason saying, "Make the wise choice."

When tragedy hit our grade it was Mrs. Skvir who provided a shoulder to cry on and helped us all through a difficult time. Mrs. Skvir, you have played an integral role in our senior year. Your title can not be named. Be it PDS parent, alumna (MFS '62), teacher, Dean, or class advisor, you have gone beyond the call of duty.

Walking down the hall at PDS is often compared to touring the United Nations. The arrival of the Spanish exchange students only two days into the school year followed by the French students only weeks later, and then finally the long-awaited Soviets flooded the school with new faces. We've also enjoyed the year-long visits of Germany's Sae-Joon Kim and Yugoslavia's Kristina Buic. Emma Purchase joined us in January to spend the remainder of the year at PDS. Your presence was immeasurably felt and we will miss you all!

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SR. CLASS REP.

Mark Winstanley

Dec. 18, 1972 — Jan. 5, 1990

Love,

The Athletic Association: Jan Baker, David Ragsdale,
Sarajane Matelson, Debbie Klein, Velma Wong,
Rachel Bridgeman, Ara Baronian, Julie Roginsky, Sarah
Berkman, Jason Bilanin, Jesse Eaton, Dan Ragsdale

How to begin? Well, how about the beginning? First there is something I have to say Mark: I love you and I miss you more than I can possibly say. I wish you had been here to graduate with us and in a way you are. I have to believe that. I know you are here with me always Jay: What the hell??? We did a lot together. Okay, maybe not. Fencing, canoeing down the toxic canal and watching you scream and change colors as I "hell drove." I sometimes thought we were friends and other times that we were not I think we ended up as a couple of guys who will never split apart. Stay cool, let your hair grow out and don't change. Rags: There are a few things which come to mind when I think of our many years together, (1) Your "verbatim" memory — one of these days your head WILL explode. (2) Your eating habits — "Don't ever change" — I really mean this but thank God for napkins. (3) Being one of the greatest guys I will ever know. You were always there for me. I could always talk to you honestly and openly and in that tactful way of yours you would laugh in my face and criticize me until I cried. But seriously, you always listened, or at least did an excellent job of acting like you did. I Love ya Dave and I mean that with all of my heart. We will be together until the day I kill you (probably in a freak driving mishap.) Speaking of freak driving mishaps... Mike: We have been through it all... Let's see, I picture two geeks walking around the school. A tall white one and a short and rather handsome Indian one. It is obvious that they are inseparable. Then comes the quantum leap to the upper school and the ever present question, "Why aren't we cool?" then the question changes to "how could we be any cooler?" Modesty definitely was not our style. We had some good, well interesting, times. "Oh s—t, Bats!!! Row Mike! Row!", "Let's go out on the roof (armed with Bugles and Coke.) Shh! The birds will hear us!", strange things happen when we sit together, Don't they?" "You want women? (and upi did)." "Mike!" lookout it's a fence!!! Mike, no more bricks. Please, "Digging boats out of the woods." well, officer, I don't really have my license" Mike, when I think of all we have been through together and all that we have achieved, I know one thing. I couldn't have done it alone. "Quiescently Frozen Dairy Confections. Nights at Mike's house. "No butter, we can use the lard, can't we? (excellent cookies), rolling down the stairs, Superbowl Sunday, Velma's party. "we had better get out of here!" "My god. It's a cop!!! Put away the light." "I have never been searched before!" "It's Captain _____" I love you guys. Well, actually to be honest, I am scared of you guys. What am I going to do without you? We will never lose touch. I promise. Amy: Thanks for listening and I am not "such a flatterer." You are an awesome person and there is nothing that needs to be changed. Well, maybe a little more hairspray. 10:36 to 12:05 Feb. 2nd, 1990. A time and a talk which I will never forget. I love you for all you have gone through and you are incredible. Don't forget me. I certainly won't forget you. Keep in touch. Janice: I don't know if you know how much you mean to me. It's hard to say but easy to write. Keep in touch. I love you. Clancy: Who the hell would have thought we'd be friends? We are and I like it. Try to eat a bit more, smoke/drink coffee a lot less and get a haircut. I'll miss our "sessions." Try to call once in a while. Phan: "don't call me Steph!!" Then what the hell should I call you? Phan worked. It's been cool my little V.P. Thanks for listening, tolerating and putting up with all my crap. Shopping!!! "I love plaid" I'll be careful of rice paper walls and I will never EVER eat sushi again and I have you to thank for it. Learn how to Hula Hoop and maybe someday you can skate as well as I can. I'll miss you a lot. CALL from whatever the hell college you do end up going to. Bobby P: We had fun didn't we? "You Ain't No Man" and you ain't. "Robert did you ever rent a movie called Romeo and Juliet II?" You are a good guy. Try not to change. Learn to drive a Laser like it should be. I'll miss you. Mr. ES: thanks for all or your help and comedy. It was greatly appreciated. The Fencing Team: Thanks for making this year a lot of fun. Work hard even though I won't be there to beat you. You're a great bunch of people with a lot of talent. The Class of 1990: Best of Luck. I enjoyed being your Pres. I hoped you enjoyed it as much as I did. To everyone else whose name is not mentioned I have not forgotten you, well, maybe I have but my excuse is that I just ran out of space on this ridiculously over-priced link ad. Thanks to all. It's been cool. Some are like water, some are like the heat. Some are the melody and some are the beat. — Alphaville.

Dipps (aka — Dipak Panigrahi)

p.s. The business office — Try to check the front circle more often for illegal parking. It's just a personal suggestion. Ha! Ha!

"No one to notice one less face in the crowd ....

— Erasure

Well, it's over tellas. And it's been one helluva ride. Rags, Dips, Jay, Mark — You guys are unique. I know I'll never have friends that mean more or are closer to me than you guys. You were there when I needed you; you picked me up when I fell (most of the time because you tripped me to begin with) and you were there when I needed an ear to ramble on (thanks for being polite.) Rags: Tap por siempre. Never lose your verbatim memory... when your law firm goes bellie-up, you'll do great in a side show. Remember 2 things: use napkins, and never forget, the Captain (and his sidekick Vibro) is never far behind. Dips: The flyin' Dipper. There's just too much to say. When 2 people have done as much together as we have, you've gotta wonder, what brought us together? Fate? The Alignment of the Planets? Cosmic Harmony? Our mutual interest in money? S-Garry, isn't it? Jay: Joseph. Remember this, things don't just fall into place... well, not usually. I'm confident you'll go far... probably Cleveland where you'll end up being exploited for your juggling talents. Don't ever change... I really miss double dating. Mark: I only regret that we never said goodbye. I think of you every day... I'll never get over missing you. You weren't the mushy type... by now you'd be cutting on my overactive emotions/"lack of full understanding." I know I'll never forget you.

All of you guys were better than brothers to me... and for that I can truthfully say that you were the best freinds a guy could have. But why do I talk in the past tense... it isn't over. If you ever leave me, I'll talk to my divorce lawyer and demand at least half of everything, so don't even think about ditchin' me.

Mom & Dad: I really owe it all to you. Your advice, compassion, and yes, understanding have been what has brought me this far. I only hope that I'll do as well as you have...

Caiyene: Cai, you've brought love into my life. I have so much to thank you for your understanding and kindness will never be forgotten. I love you. Don't ever leave me.

Everyone else: it's hard to believe, but I'll miss all of you. Too bad time doesn't stand still for awhile. I just wish I could've known each of you better. Thanks, Michael Hercz

Dudes the longest four years of my life are finally over. I don't know how to say goodbye. To all who made this PDS-hell a little more bearable. Thanks guys... Alisha: you are so special! What am I going to do without you next year? You are my best friend. I love you. Val: bonding, Bif, Buf, Chip, tan man on beach, admin. friends(?), Nurse Char, Val Corner, our office, Camp Lou Henry Hoover, airplane, geeks. Your so Val. I love you. Dan: Workhorse, Johnson Biography, kick step, Have any gum? AP We're so bonded. I'll miss you. Ed: PB II Mr. Congeniality, Nutcracker Jeff Oram, Mark Molineaux, Greg's, my long problems, your good advice, I love you, Oh... just pretend I'm your Mom. D.C.: Linda Grove, Members Only, the Zoo, cruettes, gossiping, fashion advice, Morven. Kermit, Izzy, history blowouts, morning medleys, + Rob's hair (Agh!) Well, Brunswick Buddy, I'm going to miss you next year. Mich: sneaking out, Gabriel, our admirers, Fresh, yr, + P-con review! I love you! You're the best. Bob & Kysh: physics of sex, partying at P.U. Fraanch, Zela, ho-jays, u-turns in the middle of intersections, rapists, I ain't mini skirt, Mr. 'Stayin Alive' Ritter, b-ball Don't trip. Too bad... I'll miss committing crimes with you guys. Clancy: Datty o Krauzers, smooth legs. Straighten out UR awesome Janice: teacher from hell, take math our horny friend (Where was she the whole week?) I'm really going to miss you. M+D: Thanks, I love you! To anyone I forgot through a blatantly stupid oversight... Too Bad! I love ya. To those who made my life more hellish (you know who you are) I hope all the same for you. If you happen to be down the shore + see a tan blonde in a hot red sports car heading for the waves, smile + think good thoughts — it's probably me! Cheers!

Dearest Jay,

"4-3-2-1 Pathos!!!"

Only 18 years! Wait, we're not ready! It's not enough time to make sure that we've taught or given you all we can. To tell you how very much you are loved. To say goodbye to our little boy who's suddenly grown. Where did the years go? There aren't enough words to tell you what you mean to each of us.

You are the delight of our lives. You are the very best of brothers. Jill will miss your teasing and talks, Meagan your tickling, and Lauren your hugs. (S... touch. Your grandparent's pride in your accomplishments both personal and academic is repeated often in both the Swedish and Spanish communities. As your parents, we can only say thank you for being you. You have always been a constant source of joy, love, and pride in our lives. Your sensitivity and independence, warmth and laughter, sincerity and sense of justice have been a part of you since you were a child. Your future, wherever it takes you, we know will be filled with the goodness of life.

It's time now to say goodbye to Princeton Day School, where for the last six years, you have blossomed. They were warm, wonderful years full of wonder, learning, and growing. Most importantly, they were years of lasting friendships with teachers and students alike. Each with its own gift of truth and sharing. Very special friends, like Robert will continue beyond these years and the sorrow of Mark's death and the spirit of his friendship will always have a place in your heart.

College, like your high school years, will also pass very quickly. Take each day as a gift — use it to its fullest — learn as much as you can, laugh as much as you can, enjoy and grow in the lessons you learn. Share a lot, love a lot, listen a lot and remember your family. Please write, pick up your room, sort your laundry, eat well, study, drive carefully, respect yourself and others, don't spend all your money at once, call home, etc., etc., etc.

Cherish today, Jay, and share the bittersweet joys of graduation with your classmates with our sincere congratulations to each of them and you.

May God continually bless your life as He has ours, with you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Michy — Belgrade. Namm, Weisel, etc. (I could go on for years). Where to begin? We've grown so much from those ponytailed girls at Breezy Point. We kept our tenth grade promise of "shkking together" and look what it grew into. I can't imagine not having you around, everything changed so much since we met. There are too many memories. Musiker was the binding to it all though, our other life. I'll miss our endless mailbox notes, roof talks, and mallsprees. I could never doubt your sincerity, I know it is always there. You're the only one to trust with everything. What else can I say that you don't already know? I love you — s-sure. Becky — It all started at Sunday School, when we taught together. We became so close. Remember Seth & David, Conclaves, Great Balls of Fire, mold, Clothes trading, and all our men. You know how important you are to me and what you've done to help me when I needed you. I'll miss you next year, but I know we'll keep in touch. We have something too special — not to. I love you sweetie. Rel — Hi, is this Ip Buzzard? Your car or mine? So much — the spoon, Chicago, accidents with Jeff Z & DW, Hi — I've never heard anything about you (NOT). I have a feeling that our plethora of phone bills won't recede next year. We've been through so much. You're so different — thanx for showing me Arielle's way of life, I love you for it. Edith bean — my little c-rag — how sorry I am about the driving problems. We did enjoy the Electric Playground with our slur phases, oh and how good we are at finding houses. I'll miss your dirty mouth — I love you. Lesy — or Leslie? Your qualified for the fab 5, Nug and the prom. I'll find your jacket in Helsinki. You're too tense — listen to some showtunes. Jason — we're so bonded. I'm so glad we learned to trust each other. You know how important you are. Never lose that talent of shopping for birthday presents (leave ALL tags on!), I know we'll always be close. Dan — lets pick out each other's weeds. Sorry that I almost lost your car in a towaway zone. My mom --your mom. I'm going to miss you too much, we'll talk from 8-9. David — I'm so glad we worked things out junior year. I'll miss our SC free and our gossip conversations. Never stop petting things. We'll never forget the psychotic lady that rear-ended me. Love ya. Mike — Math, Econ, Photo. I know about the bark in my tire. I'm not mad. Keep persuading Mrs. Rothrock and keep the blue cruising vessel and yar passion for fruit Paul — I'm glad we're starting to become close. Cohen — I'm glad you're almost over him. Yar too good for that. Keep yar open mind. I love you for it, I'm glad we're such great friends. Jeni — Nick wants ta. I'm glad we became so close even though you're too cool to come to Yardley Buttercup. P is so sexy and the eyes. We must never let up our secret. I love you honey. Liz — Dork. I could say so many more but Alex brought us closer together even though we both wanted him, so don't hide it. Even though we don't talk too much I know you're always there. Lindsay — or should I say geekball, putz . . . Had PMS lately? I'll never forget your rabbit peeing on me. Friday lunches are the best, even though you're the worst luck for my car. I love you anyway. Julie T — Nice to leave math. Yes — you finally came to Yardley. Johnny will always keep us close. I love you honey. Keep holding hands. Christie — I would never ignore you. Teddy of Lily? You, me & Julie must do a movie soon. I'll miss you next year. Janice — I think we are finally becoming close and I'm psyched. You must learn to spell my name and never forget (the eyes). Stacey — my second little sister, I'll miss u next year. Julie — We have been through so much together. Yar a great friend — thanx for putting up with everything. Wanda — You've done so much for me. Thanx. M & D — Thanx for forcing me to come to PDS, I love you for it. The Class of '90 — So much has happened and I'm glad that we're all finally so close.

Love Always,
Elissa

Mr. Lee: Thanks for all of your help in math. I would never have gotten through it without you. Take care of Little Fatty. Do you think Frenchy and Pierre will get together? Paul: Thanks for the position in P.A.P. and a great recommendation. The hand cramps were a thrill (your long notes!!!) Alison, Sherri, Lem, Cindy: Lunch buddies! The banana joke was an everlasting source of amusement. Brendan: It was interesting and an experience that I wish upon no one. Keep making people laugh (at you)! The Billy Joel Concert. Becca & Jim: I hope you guys stay together. Keep up the great acting. Dan & Sarah: Occupants of Paul's office. I will miss your absurd jokes. C.D.B. & Liz: Have fun next year. Find all of your patience to put up with Paul. It's not that easy. Jean: Hey, little sis! It's been great as a "big sis". Don't go to Harvard. Kate: It was a blast back stage on performance nights. Could you have gotten any nastier? Keep up the great tech work. Sij: Keep those nails and don't bite them! It was fun having no clue what was going on in Chemistry and Pre-Calc. Lisa: Crafts was . . . watching the clock. Aerobics was really exhausting. Pre-Calc, yeah right. Good luck with the horseback riding. Randy: How did we put up with Paul? Remember the Billy Joel concert and the cement island that we almost got tangled up in? May you always be a brain in math. Ithica: Congrats! Tameka: Thanks for being a buddy. Math would not have been so interesting (ha!) if it hadn't been for your notes. It's been an amazing four years in the upperschool. Keep in touch. James: The Wendy episode was a soap opera especially when I got involved. Thanks for putting your trust in me. Good luck next year. To anyone that I missed: Take it easy and have fun. Don't overwork yourself. Mom & Dad: Thanks for your understanding and trust. I would not have gotten this far without your guidance. How can I ever thank you enough? Thanks for Sam. I'll miss chicken every night. I love you both very much. Emil: It's been over a year — it's gonna last!! Our future, we'll have to wear shades. Thanks for all of your patience and understanding. You've kept me going. Next year we'll be a few miles closer. Maybe the phone bills won't be as much ($400!!) I love you very much. True love forever.

Those talks on the bus were bugged out especially the Eddie Murphy jokes and talkin' Billenese. Julie H. — your house was bad luck for me, but I still loved all the sleepovers and pool parties. Sixth grade with you was the best. Steve P. — We can take this outside. Mom — You're my inspiration and I love you more than anything or anyone in this world. Will V. — We've shared so much in the past two years. Mom and Bob: I know I'm not the most verbal teenager, but I want to thank you for all you've taught and given me. Because of you, I'm independent, self-confident, and able to handle most anything. If you had pampered me, I wouldn't be how I am now. I love you guys and I can't thank you enough. Dad: Remember that bratty little kid who went home after only a week with you? Ha, now look at me, still the same. Thanks for being a best friend. I talk to you more easily than most people. Thanks for being a role model for me; someone I can look up to. Shel: I love you sis, Thanks. Sarah: I don't know where we'll be when you read this but you know where I hope we'll be. You have been my best friend, one I know I can always talk to. We've had a few skirmishes, but the good times we've had, have made up for a thousand of them. Thanks. Remember 2 or 4. Zach: The BVI, Russia, the beach, 4 yrs of Mrs. Skvir and maybe (hopefully not) the Soviet Union one more time. Our adventurous expeditions will continue. Jon: Remember the BVI, (ohh God) — Later. Mrs. Skvir: 5 yrs you've been my advisor and teacher. It'll be different not having you to guide me through the perils of this world. Thanks — Kostya. Everyone Else: If you ever need a diving instructor in 3 or 4 years, call me, I should be in BoraBora or the Carribean. Bye Doug + Nika

— Kirk

For all those moments that we said are for the yearbook, I can't remember them, so Here it is —

Cook: How can I put into words all the memories we've had together? From barbie mobile at your house to F-day night gigs at JJ's 8th grade — The Beach and MD — we're such dorks! I'm really going to miss you next year. Who is going to analyze all those cheezy men, gossip, drink loads of coffee (caffeinated of course), stuff their face with VF Cookies, take three hour study breaks to GW's, and stay up till 2 am studying with me? We've been friends since 4th grade, and time matters! I love you. Jeni: Here's to Marblehead 87 — the start of a new tradition — screwdrivers! Wanna Wook out the window? Beach Haven summers. And of course — munchies, complaints, and deep talks after a long night of partying. Well I've poured my heart out to you, and you still put up with me, just like a family member — Thanks for always listening. I love you "... it'll probably keep us both alive ..." Lizzie: After every year I always say we made it, well kiddo we've graduated. Here's to Doritos on your kitchen floor — the whole bag — Magic Laird never did show up! Breaking the window so I could have a party, ski trip 89, clueless math classes, (except Mr. Migs) — shoofly, studying with Mr. K, New Years Eve 90 at Bernies. Hey Liz I'll see you at reunions baby! I love you. Jules: we're so alike — airheads and fate with men, Remember: Penn parties — even if I ditched you — KB+JL We are the same! Pre-test + hangovers, parties at my house — you always hook up! 10 shots! What a night — I'll always be a hop, skip, and a jump away. Don't change! I love you. Janice: we've been through so much together, and it has only made our friendship stronger. From younger guys in Middle School, to older ones in Upper — You can't trust any of them! Washington, music in the car at WF's party, summer 89 my house — You, me and Absolut, driving to JL's at 3 am — How did we make it? You're a great gal and deserve only the best. I love you. Juliet: My second sister, what can I say? Here's to reunions 88, BB golf course, Beach Haven, Penn — DF+ER, The Pennington crowd, — talks, Nantucket — hungover at 4 pm, and of course that good looking family (SIL) We've shared so many crazy memories — You have been my inspiration and support through everything. I love you. Elissa: HJ concert, younger guys, sorry my rabbit ... lunch during free — You geek, my Jew friend. I love, Chris: You're wild! and I love you for that — your makeover freshman year, Beach Haven, Prom 89, stay out of trouble! Christie: Our friendship will always be there. You are really a true person. Remember: barbies, Killington 4th grade, Mr. Merle Smith, guitar lessons and sweatpants, the list goes on! Good Luck with everything! I love you. Jason + David: You guys are awesome, we'll have to do lunch sometime. Ben: You stud, You'll have to move in when the rents go away. Jenny: You'll always be my Tiger Buddy! Caw! Him! Stick her with a pin! Goodluck babe, practice safe — — —! HiTops knows! Love you. Kysh, Laura, + Timory: What a bunch of bozos, you guys make me weak! Stay out of trouble! Lylah, Dipak + Mike: I'm sorry we waited this long to get to know each other, you all are great — HiTops! Zack: Cortillon and HiTops, it was fun. Jeff: I'll never forget all those good times we had. Doug: You're a great kid, don't worry the rents are broken in. Amy + Micole: How can a person be your best friend and cousin? Life wouldn't be the same without you guys, I love you. Mom and Dad: I cannot love and value two people more. You have given me nothing but happiness. To all of you who have experienced them: (you know who you are) Pennington Guys! I'll see you all wonderful people at reunions!

Love always,

Lindsay

Greg: Trailblazing in the ravine with Arielle, short girls (both good & bad), failing Math, my 17th birthday, bi-coastal phone calls — I'm just a little bit surprised (R-wood sarcasm) at the way things turned out. After everything, Greg, I still couldn't ask for a better friend. Thanks for everything so far & everything else to come. Mike: Stuart Rd., the dream that never came true, Philly, the weird talk we had after the Sophomore cotillion and the even weirder events that followed. You're the most loyal, dependable person I know. Who would have thought that 2 guys with nothing in common would have shared as much as we have? Here's hoping for a more years. Dan: the 8th grade crew, Erik's house, illegal travel from school, "Don't sit so close to me", Mumble, Mumble, Happy New Year '89 — It seems like I've known you forever. There have been lots of changes for both of us but always know that I'm here for you if you need me. Ravage Trinity, Michele: The Rutgers sex talk, bad habits, Jewish Geography, support groups, fashion analysis — thanks for understanding, even through all the weirdness. Jason: Our 1st 10K, the Accelerator, jet-plane rumbles, SC, mono-orexia, the topping of your fence. We had fun even with all the embitterment we had to deal with. Liss: driving through detours, the LONG way to Fairless Hills, lunching (both legal & illegal), mowing down the Paton football team, dumb jr. year fights. You're the only person who can always make me laugh, I know we'll end up at the same school & have a blast. Becky: driving with the door open, my incredible bowling skill — You're probably the only one in the world who likes to talk as much as I do. Our conversations have been the best. Edith: my Century buddy, you're the greatest. I'll miss you. Tara (Val): There's so much: Tan-Man, Kermit, Mr. Morven, Stacey R., all the artillery, Linda Grove, Landis, Bruns, Buddies — No one knows how the last 4 years have been more than you. Enjoy life away from PDS. Velms: PB is the best! Catherine (ugh!), Deb & Diane. Who else would have torn apart co-workers with me? Your famous house. Maybe we can both go to Rutgers and work at PB forever! Debby: 5 months, Janice: Although we've only been friends for a short time, it didn't take very long to realize how special you are. Your friendship helped me get through this year. Thanks, Lindsay: I miss the lunches. Scott: Spanish talk fests, that girl from Iceland(?), my choice of clothing. Robert: Hotel Hell Sarah: I respect you immensely for all that you have done and all that you will do. Carolyn: The EB beach, Mr. Gameshow, Y&R, Chinese food, Buicks, Linda Grove, Judd memories — You've been the best passenger (friend) that a driver could ask for. I'll sell you for my car next year. Arielle: We're so weird! I'll try to start at the beginning — our 1st phone call, soph. year at PFV Terry S., Espirit, 2 hr lunches, bulky security men, Oct '89, Judas "Sail on Sail on . . .", Cujo night, New Year's Eve inquisition, velour, Mohawk, Biddle, driving in rapid circular motion. "Good evening, officer", Chuck's, Nurse Char, Cranbury (trees & a message from above), Not; A Macabre Tragedy, no one could or should ever understand our late-night conversations, the weirdness just never stops: strange or better. I can't even put my feelings for you into words, you probably can't either; we're so symbiotic I plan to make N-western (or wherever) my 2nd home. "This is the way we are & this is the way we always will be." Amy: Driving backwards, the beach, New Year's Eve, destroying Emily's backyard, breaking into the psychic's house, campus walks, Spain (Calypso, crawling backwards down 50 flights of stairs), telepathic 2:00 am phone calls, running through town (July 4th), perms, shop, retherball talks, albino cokes & $40 lunches, the train to P-ton, — Aims there's so much — How could I have gotten through all this without you? We've shared everything possible and that only makes me love you more. Please don't think of this as goodbye because it's not. Just think of our future together and smile. Mom: What is there to say? Your constant love and support have been the only things that I could always depend on. I know that next year will be hard for both of us but no matter where I end up, I'll be back in a flash if you need me. Mom, I love you a lot. Dad: It hasn't always been easy, but I'm glad things have gotten better between us in the last couple of years. In case you don't know or aren't sure, I do love you. Thanks for the ad. Alisa: Maybe we'll get along better with me away (maybe not). Remember that your big brother (I know how much you hate that) loves you. Grandma & Grandpa: I wouldn't even be writing this ad if not for your boundless love and generosity. I love you. The Sr. Class: Although we weren't always as together a class as we could have been, when it really counted, we were all there for each other. All 85 of you, have in one way or another made these years memorable. Thanks and Good Luck to everybody. — David.

Becky,

Congratulations!

Good Luck!

I'll Miss You a Lot. You Better Get Me a Nice Sweatshirt.

Love,
Matt

Dear Laura,

Congratulations on your accomplishment.
Good Luck in the Future and I guess I'll miss you. (a little bit)
Don't do anything I wouldn't do!

Love,
Susan

Mom & Dad: You had no idea what you were getting into, did you? You think my phone bills are bad now. Thanks for everything. I love you. Jule: Good luck w/the further training of M&D. Mellow out! You're irreplaceable — I'll miss you. Bud: BAAA! We're finally finished! Double suicide vow must extend for life, y'know . . . Yipping out . . . Caramel slime . . . M . . . Bippity Boppity Boo . . . Winsome . . . "I'll be at the A & B Later" . . . Lunch will never be the same. (202) 887-9278: Washington D.C. Marriott. Clay: "The Night of the Grin" . . . Jay's grandmother . . . "You never close your eyes anymore" . . . teaching you how to use a telephone . . . Snow on Friday nights. Jay: Ashford Farm . . . "Better in studio than live" . . . A ho on each coast? . . . Samurai Cat . . . RAWB. Dan: Ghost of X'mas in 6 days . . . Hangings & flying alligators, Satanic Cows . . . The Wizard of Oz . . . Evil "HEHEHE". Rob: Not to worry — no one can see your bald spots. Isheeta: You're quite excellent (so à la mode!) Won: You mouldy cheezeball. I cannot believe you skipped out on me to fence all winter. A hex for President's Day weekend! Laura, Paul, Robbie & Arielle: What were we thinking?! Ram-say: Someday, someday the Police will come . . . Chris B: The Head n' Shoulders incident — You're the best. Doug: my almost-cotildate: If you can't do anything about it, whine: it'll make you feel better. Amy: It's been 7 years, but some things never change: "Cute ass!" Anyone else: Good Luck, Sorry, I only have so much money . . .

"We are all in the gutter, but some of us are looking at the stars" — Oscar Wilde

Good Luck — Write long & silly letters

Love, Adrienne

Mom and Dad: Thanks for putting up with years of shut doors, late nite phone calls and incessant whining. I love you more than you'd think and I will miss you. (You can stop reading now because you won't understand the rest.) Edith: Blade bitch, I love you. Town always — see ya at Vic's for a slice (or three) and a small diet. We are the Mod UN convicts and I am the DOW at TPR. Faulty Towers, my dad's disposable slippers, Chucks 2 hour convo and more. At least your taste in guys lives. "Oh my Lordy!"... Your lengthy resume, my blank shooter and various JCs, now MascAra (what a catch!). Thank you for 13 years of incredible, hysterical, supportive and martyr-like friendship. Jase: From the Alison wars, to Winton's world, to Billy Joel twice, to many many snow nights, and to my week as your little sis, we'll always be the best of friends. We've undergone ignominious pomposity and intellectual superiority — our kids will be like Rod. The seven series is only for the best of us (such nirvana). Despite some shaky times (Mike H.'s and Amy's) our friendship has survived. Thank you for your constant drilling 'cause it will pay off and I love you for it. By the way, you might beat D.C. at Sprees. Just kidding. Dan: No can deal or no can care? Ivan and Gregor live! — what a class! A jigglin' and a joggin'... she's on your tip... Victor's in the AM... "Oh my lordy!"... Barry or AB? From BJ, freshman year, to you and Jason wearing helmets, to the under-the-blanket conference, we are the original intruders (be it at the Powells or any other residence). Thank you for teaching me to underachieve so I can relax. P.S. We can always find Kenneth and Kory no prob. Michele: No one can ever say that our friendship has not endured. Our Macy's convo goes down as bizarre along with the Mod UN experience (smoking cat, pillow, sweater... GOD!). My car will never be the same — let's try sand next time. It started with the Sloth but it'll never end 'cause we've been through too much. Two people have never shared more parallel yet polar opposite experiences — it made us all the stronger. I love you. "Liss: Cantina, Not!! Dave W's accident was us, babe. Gaaaaary... Chris N. under my bed... calls to Chicago at 2 a.m. from Tom (!)... Mot and Greg G. at the gazebo... Judy Blume lives on and so does Kram (in a way)... Paul Greenspan? I've never heard of you"... They used to call me Elissa... Winberry's with the Cleavers. I love you 'cause you make me laugh more than anyone and you know it. (Actually, I use you for your car!) Becky: From Mike H.'s roof to Mod UN ("If his hair were one inch longer...") to post-Velma's delirium, Harlequin, New Year's '89 and more, we've had fun and some amazing convos. Thank you for being there. Don't forget the "Carrot" or our spring break walk to school and try not to cut your finger. Pheas: Bob's magic notebook... TPR where I'm signed up for AA... Zach's jacket... wick... Take acid much???... Hello my name is Jason. I'm a little up tight"... Will our reform plans ever work? That Mauna Lai was an experience but pre AP B&J was better. NYC and the seedy infiltration — we are the original spazs. You've always kept my blood pressure at an unbelievable level — we've had alot of laughs along the way. Mike P.: Well maybe our hotel plans fell flat but Happy New Year's '89 was hysterical (for some). Will the Dickson's property ever be the same? Thanks for listening at Commuiversity. The theft of Elissa's car set the precedent for a great time — pillow fight and all. Keep in touch. Scott: Idempotent? Balon really blew. Your dad is still short and I don't know if your house still wrecks of Lysol but I tried to help. TJ's is mandatory (that means required) on Thurs. You insult me too much but I laugh anyway (thanks). Stephen: Hey Col!! What we've endured! But it was fun despite a raunchy skit and a small brawl. Thank for your never ending support and that aphrodisiac from Paraguay at Amy's. We've had some weird times (the photo lab latente) — thanks for understanding. Jay: Thanks for trusting me with the Bimmer. We shared so much and we lost so much at the same time. The three of us "in conference" at Debby's and then the catavan drive to Leslie's may have been the last time but I know you and I will not forget (ever). It's only too bad we never made it to the semi-formal. Paul: "Pablo... until we went splat upon the ttricks"... You and I have put up with J-zn for the longest by far! Queer Group was obese and Link was... Thanks for helping me tolerate Q, N, R, L and the rest. Mike H.: There are some things that I was shocked that you knew, but it provided some interesting discussion. Thanks. Ara: I know three's a crowd so thanks for putting up with me (though you got violent at times). You've helped me through so much by making me smile. I'll never find your humor (but you can help steer) even in my fine German machine. Amy: How much do you spend on emergency breakthroughs anyway? Never forget your first illegal driving experience and the side of your house. Darren at my house and the rest. Stay Sweet! Velma: Who would have thought that I'd write to you in my ad? I enjoyed laughing with you even if the circumstances were less than ideal. From the bus to this years events we've been through more than we'd bargained for. I don't know what I would have done without you. Peer Group #6: Have fun with the next 3 years — I know you will. PG Leaders: It's been amazing. Link Staff: Nothing personal (actually...), but thanks for putting up with me because it's been rough. Copy = Hell. Nurse Char: Thank you for everything you have done for me this year. David: Partner in weirdness, the antichrist (Judas) — who or what are we? Chuck's is out. From freshman year history to the present you are my chauffeur, confidante, best friend and sidekick. Never forget any of it or I'll kill you (necessary?). From the Red one, to the Golden Ones, (and the Pink One too) to the One who wore his annoyingness like he wore those pants, (one in particular...) and I love you always. This is only a thank you for everything wonderful (and weird) you've ever done for me, not a good-bye. Just wait until our Macabre Tragedy hits the stands! "Drastic action is required... dubious at best". Thanks for being and understanding anything and everything I ever wanted. What more can I say?... You know it all! Mark: So much was said but so much was not. The bus, our freshman run-in, painful kicks, junior year turmoil, and finally this year — what was and what could have been. I have too many memories to write down, but that would never have surprised you. High as a kite, low as a... a little man telling jokes in your head, the rink lot, corny erasure quotes, and a multitude of "I'm sorry"... 20 questions with a twist... Thanks for all the good and bad times. I am happy that I have you even though you're not here now. Love, Arielle (REL)

Julie — My humility partner: managing, Florida, Weebles, the bench, pickup at Market Fair, "Would you like some soup?", Santa Barbara. Thanks for dealing with me — I'll miss you. Lez — steub rules! Madrigals was all your fault, purple headed mountains, Canadian discos, Frank and Doug, Russian class races, nickels on my rowing machine, the prom '89. The Albanian at Intourist, drinking, I love you and will miss your advice on life. Liz — you wild woman. It's been a long time — Linguistic paper stuffing, declining with Harry, Math throughout the years, our Minority admirers, Wawa encounters, grey pick-ups window pounding Tone Lōc, French Riviera. Thanks for being a mom; you've helped me through all my male obsessions, (one in particular...) and I love you always. Zach — What can I say? Thank God we were in the same math class. You made my days (especially Tuesday...) happier. I love you, but I doubt we'll ever understand our relationship — maybe that good. Thanks for sticking by me and not always punching back and MOST IMPORTANTLY — never forget our secret knock, you never know when it will come in handy. Jay — Your classic quote from 9th grade says it all. I love you — please keep in touch. Stephen — you are a good guy and deserve the best. I'll miss you a lot. Good luck. Jenny-ifer — you are the greatest sex-therapist. What would I have done without you? Don't forget AA, PC, drugstore errands, Girl Scouts, Weebles, missing sponges, and running for Lax. I'll miss you. Matt — my co-ed — Pizza Hut, Deer Park, organizational skills: What a year! Keep in touch Won & Robbie — even though you two drive me crazy — I still love you. Don't ever forget those memorable meals in Moscow. Chris — Bingo Rules! We couldn't have had a better team. Don't forget La Mirage, Larry Schwarz. Christie — Thanks for being my Weeble partner. Remember the glow-in-the-dark? Keep in touch. Mike P. Mrs. Shepherd's English rules, yes? Good luck next year and keep in touch. Colleen — I'll come to see you skate next year. Good luck and don't stress out so much. Nav & Campbell — I'll pray for you. Keep up the fencing skills. Sing Proud! Ara — Thanks for the good times... Kyra — you dork. Be a rebel — do what you feel is right and you'll be happy. I'll miss you, but you can come visit me wherever I end up. No, you cannot have my room. Mom & Dad — Sorry I was such a pain, but it wouldn't have been any fun for us if I wasn't. Thanks for not throwing me back out my window. I love you. Ann — We've survived everything possible. Here's to romantic encounters, Precipice, museum days, TWS anti-Canadian syndrome, driving. The list is never ending. I love you.

Nika

Mindy: Summer in Israel brought us together to be more than just cousins, but close friends. I'll always be thinking of you in Roch. Who knows. Maybe you'll join me in 2 yrs. I love you so much. Lisa & Sij: "Day before New Year's" — awesome. Sijisiji PDS "snap-pers", LHS fences, chicken — yum. Don't forget the picture. Lisa: "Paper cuts", "fire hose", . . . Gross! L&S: P.S. a little college advice, stay away from peppers. Deb: How would I have ever gotten around without you? New York. "Anything Goes", at least you know what happened. Ish: Ralph Macchio. Claire: Loosen up, relax and spend some money, you deserve it. Laura W.: Bio. Review, rafting trip, New York. Aim: Greasers — Freshman Year — fights. I'm glad we became friends again. Velm: Math just wouldn't be the same! Your homework — Thank God! No, I will never turn out like my mother, whatever you say! Mike P.: 13 years together. Keep in touch and Good Luck next year! Helaine: I can see the smile on your face when you drop me off at Roch. Nothing will be the same w/out you to make fun of. I know I might be hard to get along with sometimes, but only because I love you. M+D: Thanks for all your support. Even though I may not show it sometimes, I appreciate whatever you do for me. I'll miss you both so much even if I have said otherwise . . . Mommala.

To the graduating class of 1990, Good Luck!

Lots of happiness and success in your future.

Rhoda, Eli, Mindy, Jenny, &

Dear Debbie,

Geese! Hun, what am I gonna do without you. — Remember Israel — the kibbutz and the gorgeous lifeguard, Alan. We've had some really awesome times. It's so depressing to even think you're going off to college next year. Who am I supposed to go to New York with? I love you so much and I'm so happy you got into Rochester. Don't ever forget our awesome friendship and the pact we made when you were in 7th grade — to make sure when we're married and have kids, to live no more than an hour away from each other. I love you and congrats!

Love,
Mindy

Love and luck, Mom

Robert: 6 years and counting! You are my closest and bestest friend and so much more. I can't find the words that properly express how I feel about you and how much you mean to me. I'll miss seeing you everyday, but you can bet that I'll be calling you even more often than I already do. Remember Avalon, 10th grade English, "Viskey in da Vater", you're "Waldo" drawings, my fro', your birthday parties, all of our many talks, "Godammit, Lylah!" Lectures (I'm sure I'll need a bunch of those next year!), Dirty Dancing in Toronto, Kathryn Lee 4 yrs. of Mads & plays & musicals. There's tons more to say but no space to say it in. I love you, unconditionally, always. Velma: Your parties! I have no respect for S.B. cops. This year has been tough but hey, we made it. Yknow' men are... don't forget the 4F guys or L-Ville guys or all that we have said & done and gone through. I never will. Mark: You and your promises! I miss you so much; your tiny handwriting, your hair, our conversations. I hope that you know how much I care about you. I can't think of much to say but you know I care about you a lot, right? Thanks for being there when I need you. Maybe we can adopt a few more alcoholic kids next year. Jay: 7th grade honorary brunches... Peter & you juggling... Fencing... Council... Math... You are a really great person y'know... I never meant to make you feel as if I was judging you or trying to be your mommy or your conscience. Sometimes when I care about people I worry a lot and it just comes out that way. I'll miss you. Won: Mads... Montreal... Quebec City... Sleeping in your room and talking in the hall w/George until 2 A.M... Toronto. Pet Sematary plot summaries. I love you. Johnny Pope: Fencing... Carrying my things... Protecting me in the halls. Thanks. I'll miss you. Alex, Pat: Get psyched for U.S. I'm sorry I won't be here to see you, though. Take care of Cy for me. Bry: Fencing'll be strange without you now. Take care of Benny. Jonathan B.: I'll miss you next year. Want to see something funny?... Mr. E-S: Thank You for being a wonderful coach as well as a funny and understanding person I'm glad I met you. Why is a pizza just like fencing?... Mr. Jacobson: Thank You for being a terrific advisor. I've enjoyed singing in Mads and G.C., and Musicals. Take care next year. The Mrs.: May I use the phone? You know I'll never be able to fix my bow hand. Thanks for trying anyway. Take care of yourself y'hear? Mamu, Kathleen, Cathy: No, my finger isn't broken. I love you for everything you've ever done for me and I will miss you terribly. Navroze: I never meant to hurt you or piss you off by putting your picture on my page. I only did it because you've been a major part of my life since I was 14 months old, and I love you dearly. Have a good last year at PDS — 13 years is a long time to be in one school. I'll miss you and I'll even miss fighting with you and your making me late. Take care, and have fun with the Honda. I love you so much — don't ever forget that. Tylou: I'll miss you so much! I'll miss tucking you in... Even though I won't be here, I'll be thinking of you at bedtime. Take care and do HOMEWORK (even though it's such a chore, it'll come in handy later.) Take care of Navroze and Mummy and Daddy. And have an amazing three years at PDS. I love you, sweetie Mummy & Daddy: Without the love, care & support you've given me, I doubt that I could be even a fraction of what I am now. A very big part of me wishes that I could stay home and be a little girl forever, with Sunday cuddles, Cream of Rice, star watching, and "Benson". But I've got to go out and try out the wings you've given me and trust me with. I love you so much, and I know that you understand that even though I'm becoming an adult, part of me will always remain your little girl. I'm sure that next year my phone bill will be sky-high with calls to the 466 exchange. Thank you for everything. I love you both with all my heart. Love & Kisses, Lylah.

13 years is a long time to stay in one place, and I've been lucky enough to become close to so many amazing people that I can't fit everyone on this page. But I'll write in everyone's books and you all know that even if you aren't on this page you are most definitely in my heart. Take care, all

Love,
Lylah

Debbie K.: K-12, where have all the years gone? Good Luck and keep in touch. Velma: The South Brunswick P.D., Amy, and lunch at Mrs. Chow's. Paul: Arch, and our James Bond car chase. Leslie: Prom Jr. year, your eternal love for Jason, and your stress — Take a chill. Stephanie: The dip club and the couch from hell. Scott: New Years '89 and '90 and A.P. Bio. You're one of a kind, from your obnoxious jokes to your ability to consume. Have a good time next year. Michele: A #8 from the Haven, Heathers, and your black and red suspenders. See you in Philly. Elissa: The tornado ride, Math, your photo ability, and the use of your Acura. Have fun next year. Sharon: You're a great friend. Enjoy the next two years. Mark: I won the bet about Arielle, our biking conversations, REL's party, and the tree bark in the Acura. Nika: It was a bumpy road but you survived — Congratulations. Arielle: Our Communiversity Day talk, landscaping, David's not-so surprise B-day at Greg's, the four of us left at your party, and your world. I love ya. "Am I inhaling?" Hey Dan: AP Bio — What were we thinking? Pitch and Putt, Villanova B-ball, rides to school, and your phone hour. We survived the last four years — we fooled them all. Enjoy Trinity. Becky: Cotillion '88, the lost bet, your lawn, rent-a-friend, and all the rides you owe me. It sure wasn't easy, but our friendship survived everything. I love you. Amy: Through all the sorrow and the happiness we were always there for each other and I'll never forget that. Whether at the doctor removing that nasty splinter or on the phone trying to figure out life. Thanks for the memories — I love you. Jason: What would I do without my scholastic conscience? We've been through so much, the PDS film society — sophomore branch, Less than Zero, Pong, the dip club, the back door, and roller skating. Oh yes — you can keep the livestock. Thanks for understanding and always being there. I don't know what I would have done without you. But now its time to sit back, relax, and enjoy. David: For two people with nothing in common here are but a few memories: The night after the cotillion, the last day of Sophomore yr., Izzy, Winwood, Philly, Lavallette, the middle man, and our never ending phone conversations. Whenever I needed someone to talk to you were always there — you understood me like no one else. DSP: Thanks for listening. Missy: Thanks for being the best sister and friend a brother could ask for. I love you. Nana: thank you for everything that you have done for me over the last 18 years. You were always there to listen and guide me and there will always be a special place for you in my heart. Words cannot describe my love. I love you, Mikey. Mom and Dad: I know that we've given each other a few headaches along the way, but I think we're all a little wiser. I can't begin to thank you both for all that you've done for me over the years. Thanks for being so supportive and understanding. I love you.

Take it easy,
Mike

Hey guys: This space is definitely too small to express what 4 yrs. of sheer comedy and ignorance have meant to me. I could not have made it through without you. Kysh: I think I should begin with your poetic rap, "The year is over and we accomplished nothing, but in a way we accomplished something. Friends forever are all of we, walking down the hall to cause mischief. In jail we will be before 21, because that's how we have fun." Dude: be excellent, go Bart, Joyce, "can you put this mane comb in my hair?", Fri. 13th shopping, "hey homeboy what you be drinkin' man, Beasties, Nan and Lynn, Merrick Kristin the deaf one, and all of the many other crimes. I've learned to laugh with you and at you, and you've taught me not to be afraid to laugh at myself. Thanks. I've known you too long Marge. No respect. Timbo: Yo yo Leroy Terms of Endermishment, military crawling, plasma, Knill, 3rd team, being Bob, random men at work, hostess needs new clothes, Ms. Monogamy etc. I could go on forever. We've been through a lot. You've kept me sane, I think. Good luck friend and take it easy. I know you will. Jenny: Scrub, it all started with your license. All nighters, flat tires, sack, Mike, field day, my birthday paper on the head, your house, Derek & Seth's, and just generally being stupid dumb it's just too bad that girl's a bumb — I got carried away. You've always been my source of energy you never seem to run out. You're very special, don't ever egnahc. Chris: Wow. Too much has happened. Vermont is what happened. Pretzelsticks, the tree collision, Tim, Mike, Rob, Dave, phone bills, Rob's house, sneaking out, fried macaroni, police, and to think it all started in Bio. I'm really going to miss you, you rebel. Now remember your priorities. Fun Fun, and Beastie Boys. Love ya always chiquita. To all my other friends: Ju-lie: you pedestrian you. Lindsay: Dukakis, Lobis, Berky. Jenny T.: remember you should have missed it! Janice: ain't it Jabud, eyeliner. Cookie: Good Luck. Ben: what else can I say but Woodfield. Boog: nothing to say but JV lacrosse. Won: I'm so glad I got to know you. You're a wonderful person and I won't forget bowling and "Criminal Law" Good Luck wherever you end up — you're gonna' go places. To all the P.G. leaders: What a great bunch of people. Nothing will beat the retreat. Crunch berries, liquified rolls, the obstacle course. Keep in touch guys. You're all very special. To Mom, Dad, and Amy: Well it's over. I made it in spite of P.D.S. (ha ha) Thanks for always being there for me. I love you guys very much. To everyone: Keep in touch. You're all very special and no one will ever take your place in my heart.

The class of 1993 salutes the class of 1990

But then, we're freshmen.

We'll salute anyone!

To Becky,

Since you started PDS
And you thus thought yourself blessed,
It's been four whole years
With lots of laughs, a few tears
AFS and its carnations
Model UN and its nations;
Raquets for tennis
French, a nemesis.
Elissa, Edith, Velma, Michele
Stephanie, Amy, Arielle
Jason, Jay, Mike, David, Dan
All good friends, to a man.

Now to different places
Different times and different faces,
You all go to college
To pursue greater knowledge.
But remember home is here
Where you'll find those dear,
Who'll miss you when you're gone
Who'll kiss you when you're home.
Success, happiness, love health,
Joy, fulfillment, fun and wealth
We wish you all our best
'Cause we know you'll do the rest.

With all our love always
Mom, Dad, Matt & Jake
(The Dicksons)

I thank you for your music, and your stories of the road
I thank you for the Freedom when it came my time to go
I thank you for your kindness, and the times when you got tough.
and Mom and Dad I don't think I said "I love
you" nearly enough.
Laurie, Alan and Tim — see? I did graduate!
Where's my money?

Love ya,
VELMA ...

Lissy: From Ring Nursery to playtex discussions with Cindy + Dana in a tent in Banff. I can't imagine life without a million phonecalls to or from my best friend, so I won't. You know my games, which few do. I love you. You won't be round the corner next year, but nothing can come between us, okay? Thanks for being you. Leslie: My partner in crime, we do the weirdest things: Sluts Dig, L'ville (uhh), infiltrating + TRABIE! I am never going to survive without my twin. We're all that's left from the original + I ain't letting you go! If you ever have an aching for Vodka — 941 Princess, Kiddo — ak for Knox! Arielle: There is no way to describe all we've shared these 4 yrs. For all the laughter (infiltrating Montgomery, lost in my car, stuck in yours) what I'll remember forever is our pain and how you were there for me. Thanks and I'm sorry, I love you. I'm gonna need you for life. Edith: Blade! Fourth grade, ski trips, white whale, Fila, peach schnapps, etc. It's been forever, and though so much

Adrianne — stuck after school, library hockey (OK, you were better), Dan, Market Fair mural. I love those red b-ball sneakers. Don't change. Andrea — Physics, amnesty, late-night visits, Don't ever clean your room. Becky — well, it's been an... interesting four years. Thanks for being a good friend. Clancy — Where would Krauzer's be without us? Stay mellow. Clay — just one word: scissors. Dan — "a horse is a horse", running through the Met, exotic junk food, English translations. Dipps, Jay, Mike, Rags — The Andretti Bros. Doug — let's go to a classy place. Thanks for being such a good friend. Eric — Gym hockey, lounge violence, I've had my eye on this little island... Jay — May road trips never cease to exist. Jenny S. — hey there. Missy C. — you can have your seat back now. Laura — I see you typed this. By the way, your car's pretty ugly. Enough with the insults. You've been a great friend over the years, even if you are too organized. Say 'Hi!' to the Navy for me. Lee (closer street artist) — thanks for the marker. Randy — the music, darkroom hell; it's been a pretty hellish four years, wouldn't you say? Thanks for being such a good friend and putting up with alot of crap. Stay in touch. Velma — What can I say? We've survived so many boring classes together. Remember walking miles just to find a Mickey D's? I'll never forget. Thanks, but i'll just sit in the patrol car. Mom and Dad — Thanks for putting up with so much. I think I turned out ok. Mark — You were one of the brightest spots in my life and kept me going when things seemed hopeless. I'll never forget your hair, your smile, your laugh, and your sense of humor. You showed me my individuality not through words, but just by the way you were. You were right; even though you were English and I was partly French, we got along pretty well together. Thank you.

— Chris

YARBUD: We made it! The hell is over, just sit back and bask. Can anyone tell us apart at this point? It all started with that freshman beach trip... The christening. The ill-fated B-Day party and the discovery of E.T. You and your caramel men. Stewardesses from Hell. Fashion mistakes, the orange stormtroopers, scary formal dances, "Close To Me" fest in my kitchen (yellow towel!), Swedish Tennis Players, staying up all night, 08554, Scammin', Pipe Monsters and posters from France. Too much time spent on Nassau St. — drool-fests in L.A., the ice cream dilemma — Quality or Quantity? Your Record E. babe. Robert Smith live (But would you sleep with him?). Short wet puppy dog baby on the bench (The Wetter The Better)... This could go on forever. Look for! = 20 pg. continuation. We have had many excellent adventures. And we always had someone to eat lunch with! You kept me sane and got me to the right classes. You're the best and I couldn't live without you, so start saving to pay those bills now! Remember, you're my fairy Godmother! Thanks for being Bud! SHEET: My A La Mode Biology Babe! Remember the chicken liver experience, The syringe war, Friday dates, crammin' for the midterm, "Knock It Off!", your deplorable taste in guys (except for Mr. A.L.M. of course!) I love you honey! And you know you're my idol. I'll miss you so much! You had better keep in touch, because I can't get through a crisis without you. DAN: Six years of french. How did we do it? Vocabulary football, of course. The Prom that started it all. Too many movies. Piano wire men in Penn. Station. Sometimes you've just got to forget your heart and grab your... Long conversations on friendly curbs. Peter Pan. Tennis matches with a Ho in tow. Penguin Palace and Lazy Leopard. You can't take it back, it's already out there! Remember that being you is always good enough. JAY: Someday I'll be flipping though Cable TV late at night and there you'll be. Despite the fact that I frequently want to slap you upside the head, you've made the senior experience... well, COOL BEANS: Let's keep our cars clean this summer. But tell me... Are you experienced? Call me from the heights of Harvard every one in a while and tell me some perverse jokes. See you at Ashford Farms. Stay Chen! Rob: You're always willing to listen to my plethora of problems. I'll never forget you showing up at my house when I needed you. Don't let your sneakers get too disgusting. CLAY: Never lose that peaceful easy feeling. Lazy minds think alike. You are one philosophical cheese-puff. RAMSAY: A true appreciation of Sting is a rare and valuable thing. We touched him! We've been to some great concerts and tons of terrible movies, but we know that Thrift Drug is the most amazing place on earth. Keep cutting your hair to avoid that Binkley look. We've known each other too long. SJ: We've been through so many hours of pam on the B.Ball court. "You love 'em Girls!" Kylie Skye will probably be my college roommate. MR. LAWRENCE, MR. BARANOFF, MR. FRANZ, DEBBIE, MRS. H, and especially MRS. ROTHROCK — Thanks For Everything!

CLASS OF 1990 — BE EXCELLENT TO EACH OTHER. Everybody! I love you too much to lose you — Good Luck and keep in touch!

Freshman ski trip with Mr. Fly, MATH!!, field-hockey, Peer Group, Jackson Hole, Better get a bucket... I think I'm going to throw up! Chris: I always have an adventure with you... watching the sign off on TV with your "special" laugh, and that so-comfortable night outside of Juliet's house! Elissa: Hey Geek! THE CLASS OF 1990!

TMB INDUSTRIES

There are some things I must say to some people who are very special to me.

MARK: Only you and I know what we had. I wish I could have told you how much our friendship meant to me, yet I believe you knew. There isn't much to say except I will never forget you because I love you with all my heart. ROBERT: Thank God I have the chance to tell you just how special you are to me. We have laughed, cried, talked, sang, acted, hell-drove, hung-out, scammed, biked, and been together. We have been friends for about 6 years, which have been up and down. During this past year we have gotten closer than ever. You have done so much for me and there is no way to repay you I know I've said it before and it won't hurt to say it again. I love you. MIKE: You and I have had Burt-_____ year. Just a couple of memories: Hole, rain — behind theater — fence — traction, macro-_____curb, attracting cops, being a great friend. DIPS: PIN-BALL! HELL-DRIVING — What else is there to say? You and I have had a strange but close relationship. ODIE! That was the best. Don't change. RAGGS: HEY "GIRLS SUCK!" You said it, but we have to find the ones that _____, — HA HA! Bimmers rule! FISH TAIL! Yo' memory! PAUL: You are amazing! Don't let anyone tell you differently. Gimme Two!!! WON: Remember our middle school days. CHAINSAW! CHRISTIE: I never could have made it through PG without you. We did awesome! STEPHANIE: DC! You have always been very special to me! NIKA: "I value my friends" — Hey, one word — Toronto — Oh Boy! JANICE: Remember what I told you during PG parent's night in the car — I meant it! You know how I feel about you! I'll never forget you ISHEETA: Thanks for being there. Sorry for being such a pain. REL: You are a really special person who has a lot to offer — Don't let people push you around. You mean a lot to me. MR. BALDWIN: I never told you this but your math class has been such a help to me this year. While learning a bit o' math we all laughed together during the whole class. It's been a great release for me. MR. EPPLY-SCHMIDT: You are so much more than a coach to me. Thanks for being there in and out of fencing. You are a very warm and sensitive person who I hold an immense amount of respect for and one who I will never forget. KATIE: Thanks again for all the help and support. I wish I had more time to get to know you. HARVEY: You really helped me out there for a while. You are an honest and caring individual. PG has been kinda cool — Thanks. LAUREN: You are growing into a very pretty and special girl. You are my baby sister. Swedish Tank, Lorri. I love you. MEGAN: Hey Muges! Bagels & cream cheese. You are a graceful young lady who I love very much. JILL: I don't tell you that often, but I really love you. You and I have become better friends and I have loved growing up with you. Do what you believe is true in your heart for you and having a loving heart. DAD: We have taken some very large steps in our relationship. Dad, I believe in you, respect you, and most of all love you. You have done more for me than you know. I want to make you very proud of me. I love you Big Guy. MOM: I love you. Although this phrase is very simple it's what I feel for you — love. You have been and will always be the light in my life. You are the strongest and most beautiful person I know. Thanks for being you. You are the best! I love you.

Love,

Jay, Jayfer, Joseph, José, Splat

Lisa: Making excuses to get out of Aerobics, getting our lunches, New York, Great Adventure, making just a bit too much popcorn, me aimlessly walking around the table at lunch. You better not forget your pills next year! You're such a sweet person. I'm going to miss you so much next year. Debbie K.: New York, Bio Review, Rafting Trip, getting your haircut. Jenny K.: I'm so glad we've become such close friends this year. You're so special. Never change. Velma: 1st seats on every ride at Great Adventure. English?, Religion?, Tennis?, your house. Sarajane: Maryjane, has it really been over 14 years? From Ring Nursery to PDS it's amazing we're still friends. Isheeta: Princeton Review, Joe Bloggs, AP Bio. Debbie B.: RAcing to get the train to NY, Babysitting New Year's Eve. Claire: I can't wait to see you win the USOpen in 5 years. I'm going to miss you all so much next year! Good Luck and you better keep in touch. Adrianne, Won, Robbie, Paul, Arielle: You've teased me more often than not. I'm sure I'll think this was rewarding in about 20 years, but for now all I can say is that it has been quite an interesting experience. Susan (Boozer): I know we've had quite a few fights, but hopefully that will change in the near future. Thanks for being there when I needed you. I couldn't have survived France without you. I really do love you. Karen (Mouth): Bouchette, I'm sure you'll be relieved next year when I'm not around to tickle or tease you. Don't worry, I'll make up for lost time during vacation. I love you. Mom & Dad: Thank you so much for everything you've ever given and done for me. I'm so lucky to have you for my parents. I know I'm not the easiest person to live with, but if it wasn't for me you wouldn't have had such entertaining dinners. I can't possibly tell you how much I love you.

Love always, Laura

Adrianne

The year isn't really over until I've said goodbye to all of you, but I'm not Daddy Warbucks, so don't think that I've forgotten you, it's the cruel capitalist system which has deprived me of the money in order to properly thank you.

Mommy, Apu, Nanana: It has been 17 years of sheer joy, et? Oh, well, I love you and could never have accomplished anything without you. Fletcher: Woof, woof, Woof! Peter: Well Schlo, your liddle(?), er smaller(?), I mean lighter(?) — no that's not it — ... your ... younger brother is finally graduating. Wasn't it only yesterday when you walked me to kindergarten at Ben Franklin? or was it really two decades ago? Hey, Next Year in Evanston! Go Wildcats!

Won: Could I have survived without you? I doubt it! We've been everywhere — The Soviet Union, Finland, Model UN in Washington, the weekend at Duke, sailing at the shore, and of course at club hypocrite — Senior Seminar. I'd have died of boredom without your cluelessness! By the way, Next Year in Helsinki! Eric: You saved my life at Killington (or so they tell me!) So, when's the next lesson? (Toyota! Who could ask for anything more?) Doug: Thank God you're only a local phone-call away or else I'd be broke! I don't even want to think how expensive it's going to be next year! Let's go best out of three — This time you pick the girl, just don't show her any of your movies. Pablo: "Get yor motor running ... Head out on the highway." You chauffeur driver from hell, some day you'll actually see an entire movie (You may not understand it, but ...), or maybe you won't. Take a step back, relax, and chew your GUM. If you ever need another anatomical explanation, give me a call. Muleman: "Looking for adventure, or whatever comes my way ..." Admit it, we had a good time without going to every party in the world! The Link Staff: My how time flies and things change! We used to be 20 pages behind and now we're only 75 pages — wait a second, something isn't right. Quinn must be counting the pages again! Adrianne: Thanks for teaching me Photo 1. Laura: When was the last time you ate a little Korean — I mean Chinese food.

I'm free! And I'm waiting for you to follow me.

The Who,
Love, Robbie

One last time . . .

Ah, well, it's February 19th & I'm sitting here all alone in C200 while the rest of my staff plays hide & go seek w/ me in various parts of the Northeast & the Carribean. But I'll forgive this long-weekend abberation because I understand just how sick of this you all are. So here's thanks to everyone who deserve them:

Mrs Rothrock: Without your soothing advice, support, and positive comments we never could have made it. Thanks for everything. Sincerest apologies about cutting that Econclass...

Mr McCord: Your diligence & commitment were truly appreciated, even if breathing down our necks did get rather nervewracking. We're done. Thanks.

Mig: "Don't touch anything!!!" Your constant riffling through our candids folder was incentive enough to work... At heart I know you still want a purple cover w/ Aurora lettering. Where do you go on Friday afternoons?

Mrs H & all photostudents: Without you, there would be no yearbook. Thanks.

Wonk: Hey, you! We went into this without a clue. Though you frustrate the living *@!$ out of me sometimes, it was kinda fun in the end. I can throw darts better than you.

Paul: "Oh well, it's 4:30 - gotta go!" Thanks for the layout & the rides from the front circle. You were always there to roll my eyes with...

Laura: Your unforgettable bagel-chip brown bag snacks & people-cropping abilities were greatly appreciated. Keep flirting...

Arielle: Copy = Hell. Thanks for your occasional presence.

Chris & Mike: You guys are great. Absitively truly wonderful. No kidding. Thanks!

Matt & Nika: How typical that you weren't in the staff picture...

Debbie & Ethan: "Sure I'll do it - no problem!"

Clay, Andrea, : Thanks for the last-minute help & company. You kept me sane... vaguely.

Sij & Dan

The Senior Class:

Deadlines were not meant to be laughed at!!!
You're welcome.

Thank-you, Mrs. H-L and the P-J classes, for your pictures and your patience with our eternal bk-rifling. From the very beginning to the senior picture to the day of Ethan's infamous disappearing film & our banishment from the darkroom, it's been quite an . . . unforgettable . . . experience. Thanks again — we all hope that the wrath of 'Muth will have abated before reunions!

Yeah, so we all look bad in this picture . . . Being trapped in the hellpit of the universe for the equivalent of thirteen straight days with a couple of incompatible personalities and a frightful number of deadlines'll stress out the best of us. But we're done. Finally. Unscathed by the ugly act of homicide. Thank God.

December 18, 1972 — January 5, 1990

If I'm not there in spirit I'll be there.

Depeche Mode

Mark,

From your adamant defense of the ever-controversial Depeche Mode poster ... to your hair ... to your British(?) accent ... to your unique sense of fashion ... to your twisted sense of humor ... to your incredible friendships and your willingness to accept people for who they are. There is no one like you. We will never forget you.
