Learn as if you were to live forever. Live as if you were to die tomorrow. (And you may as well have a good time doing both!)

Isodore, Archbishop of Seville
(c. 570-636)

Mrs. Jackson worked with us as our class advisor for four years, standing beside us from freshman orientation to prom to graduation. Her advice and assistance have been invaluable. If not for her intervention, the administration might have given up on our class a long time ago. Thank you, Mrs. Jackson for believing in us. Your enthusiasm and support have guided us to many successes in the upper school. We wish you all the best.

W. Scott Spence

Mr. Spence and the Class of 1992 entered the upper school together. As freshmen in his Ancient History course, we were some of his first students. Since then, he has taught us Russian, Russian and Soviet History, coached us in lacrosse and football, and been advisor to some of us for as long as four years. Mr. Spence sets an example for us with his enthusiasm and respect for others. Already a terrific role model, we are sure he will be a wonderful father for his daughter, Lydia. Thank you Mr. Spence, and good luck.

Dear Class of 1992:

Among the various decorative items, prints and books in my office, a picture frame rests on a book shelf. Perhaps some of you, when in my office, noticed it. Within it is a quote from the well known Chinese philosopher Lao Tzu. It reads:

... When a man is in turmoil how shall he find peace
Save by staying patient till the stream clears?
How can a man's life keep its course
If he will not let it flow?
Those who flow as life flows know
They need no other force:
They feel no wear, they feel no tear,
They need no mending, no repair.

As you seek your way after PDS — a life in college and an adulthood in the next century — please give this poem some thought. Why? Because you will have to cope with the evolving results of the significant international political, economic and social changes unleashed during your high school years at PDS.

We wish you well, and thank you for your elan and contributions while at PDS. Good luck.

'You gave me hyacinths first a year ago,'
'They called me the Hyacinth girl'
'— Yet when we came back, late, from the hyacinth garden,
Your arms full, and your hair wet, I could not Speak, and my eyes failed. I was neither Living nor dead, and I knew nothing, Looking into the heart of light, the silence.'

T.S. Eliot
The Waste Land

To be silent; to be alone. All the being, and the doing, expansive, glittering, vocal, evaporated; and one shrunk, with a sense of solemnity, to being oneself, a wedge-shaped core of darkness, something invisible to others.

Joe: Who am I? That's the real question, isn't it? Who am I? Who are you? What other questions are there? What other questions are there? Really, if you want to understand the universe, embrace the universe, the door to the universe is you.

Didi: Me?

Joe: You! Me!

Didi: You are really intense.

Joe: I guess I am . . . I mean, I was.

Didi: What do you mean?

Joe: I mean a long time ago. In the beginning, I was full of, you know, piss and vinegar — I mean, nothing got me down. I wanted to know!

Didi: Know what?

Joe: Everything! But then I had some . . . experiences. I was talking to this guy today, and he says that I got scared.

Didi: Scared of what?

Joe: Well . . . have you ever been scared?

Didi: I guess so, sure.

Joe: What scared you?

Didi: At the moment, you scare me a little bit.

Joe: Me? Why should I scare you?

Didi: There's something going on with you. This morning you were like a lump, and now you're . . . how do you feel?

Joe: Great.

Didi: See! You never feel great.

Joe: No, I never do!

Didi: What's funny?

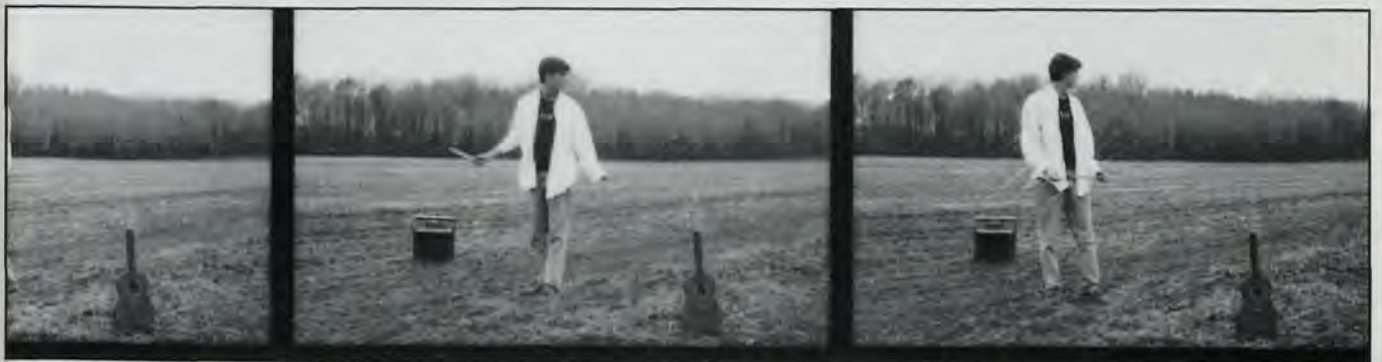

Joe: I feel great; that is very funny.

Didi: Where are you?

Joe: I'm right here.

Didi: I wish I was where you are, Joe.

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.

T.S. Eliot

If a person goes through his entire life without stopping to ponder the meaning of his existence, then what is his life worth?

If a person spends his entire life pondering the meaning of his existence while his life slips through his fingers, then what kind of life has he lived?

Something I thought while looking at the stars.

I do not know what I may appear to the world, but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the seashore, and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary, whilst the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me.

Benji Frost

For of those to whom much is given, much is required. And when at some future date the high court of history sits in judgement on each of us, recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities to the state, our success or failure, in whatever office we hold, will be measured by the answers to four questions: First were we truly men of courage . . . Second, were we truly men of judgement . . . Third, were we truly men of integrity . . . Finally, were we truly men of dedication?

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool,
To weep is to risk appearing sentimental,
To reach out for another is to risk involvement,
To expose feelings is to risk exposing the self,

To try at all is to risk failure,
But risk we must,
Because the greatest hazard of all
is to risk nothing,
For those who risk nothing

I was glad my father was an eye-smiler. It meant he never gave me a fake smile because it's impossible to make your eyes twinkle if you aren't feeling twinkly yourself. A mouth-smile is different. Billy Joel

Lisa Lake

You have to count on living every single day in a way you believe will make you feel good about your life — so that if it were over tomorrow, you'd be content with yourself.

Jane Seymour

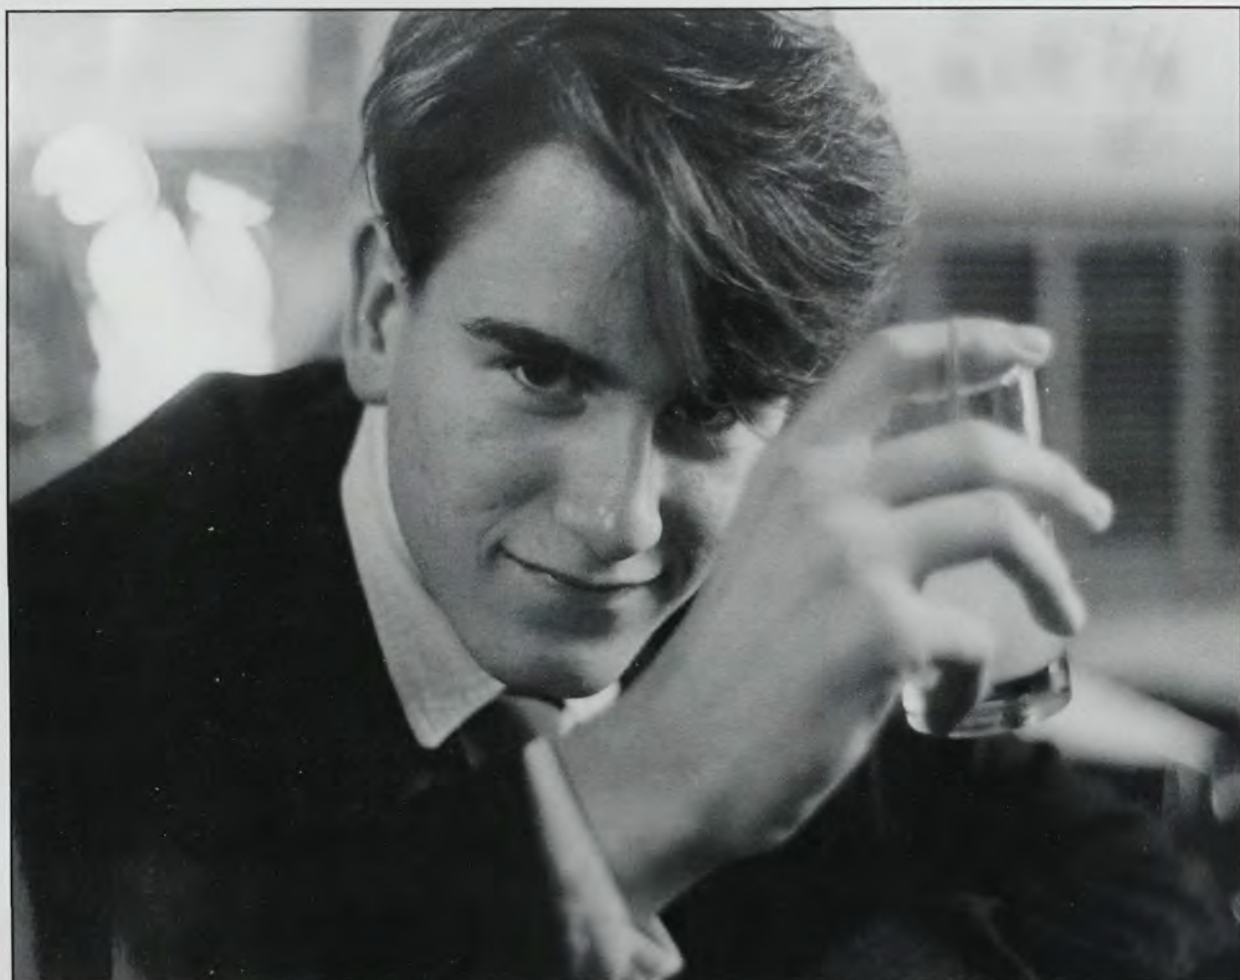

If you obey all the rules, you miss all the fun.

Katherine Hepburn

One can never speak enough of the virtues, the dangers, the power of shared laughter.

Francoise Sagan

Matt Young

When a man cannot choose,
he ceases to be a man.

A Clockwork Orange

And it did not cost a dime,
And it did not come for free,
It just would not let me be,
But it never conquered me.

Blues Traveler

Missy Parker

"There was a child went forth every day. And the first object he looked upon, that object he became . . . And that object became part of him for the day, a certain part of the day, or for many years, or a stretching cycle of years. The early lilacs became part of this child . . . And the apple trees covered with blossoms, and the fruit afterward, and wood-berries, and the commonest weeds by the road . . . These became part of the child who went forth every day, and who now goes, and will always go forth every day."

Walt Whitman

Matthew Kramer

I DON'T WANT TO DO THIS GARBAGE! I WANT TO GO PLAY OUTSIDE!

Julia Tatsch

I believe that imagination
Is stronger than knowledge
That myth is more potent
Than history,
I believe that dreams are
More powerful than facts
That hope always triumphs
Over experience
That laughter is the only
Cure for grief.

Robert Fulgrum

If, several years from now, you find me in an airport selling petunias and looking lobotomized, I'd appreciate your strangling me.

Ami Shah

Failing to fetch me, keep encouraged,
Missing me one place, search another,
I stop somewhere waiting for you.

Walt Whitman

It's the heart afraid of breaking
That never learns to dance;
It's the dream afraid of waking
That never takes the chance;
It's the one who won't be taken
Who cannot seem to give;
It's the soul afraid of dying
That never learns to live.

Bette Midler

Andy Goldenson

I walk over the hills . . . as through a gallery of pictures, ever and anon looking through a gap in the wood, as through the frame of a picture, to a more distant wood or hillside, painted with several more coats of air . . .

Henry David Thoreau
From the Journals

Pauline Roberts

My place is of the sun and this place is of the dark
I do not feel the romance I do not catch the spark.

Indigo Girls

Life used to be so hard
Now everything is easy
'Cause of you

Joshua M. I. Ticktin

Who is wise? He who learns from all men.
Who is strong? He who subdues his evil impulse.
Who is rich? He who is content with his lot.
Who is honored? He who honors his fellow men.

Rabbi Ben Zoma

Never give in, never, never, never, never — in nothing, great or small, large or petty — never give in except to convictions of honor and good sense.

Winston Churchill

He who exercises government by means of his virtue may be compared to the north polar star, which keeps its place and all the stars turn towards it.

Confucius

With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan — to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations.

Abraham Lincoln, March 4, 1865

Adam Bromwich

To accuse others for one's own misfortunes is a sign of want of education; to accuse oneself shows that one's education has begun; to accuse neither oneself nor others shows that one's education is complete.

Epictetus

... for it was just the building, and not what was finally built, that gave their life meaning.

Richard Taylor

My house is practical. I thank you, as I might thank Railway engineers or the Telephone service. You have not touched my heart.

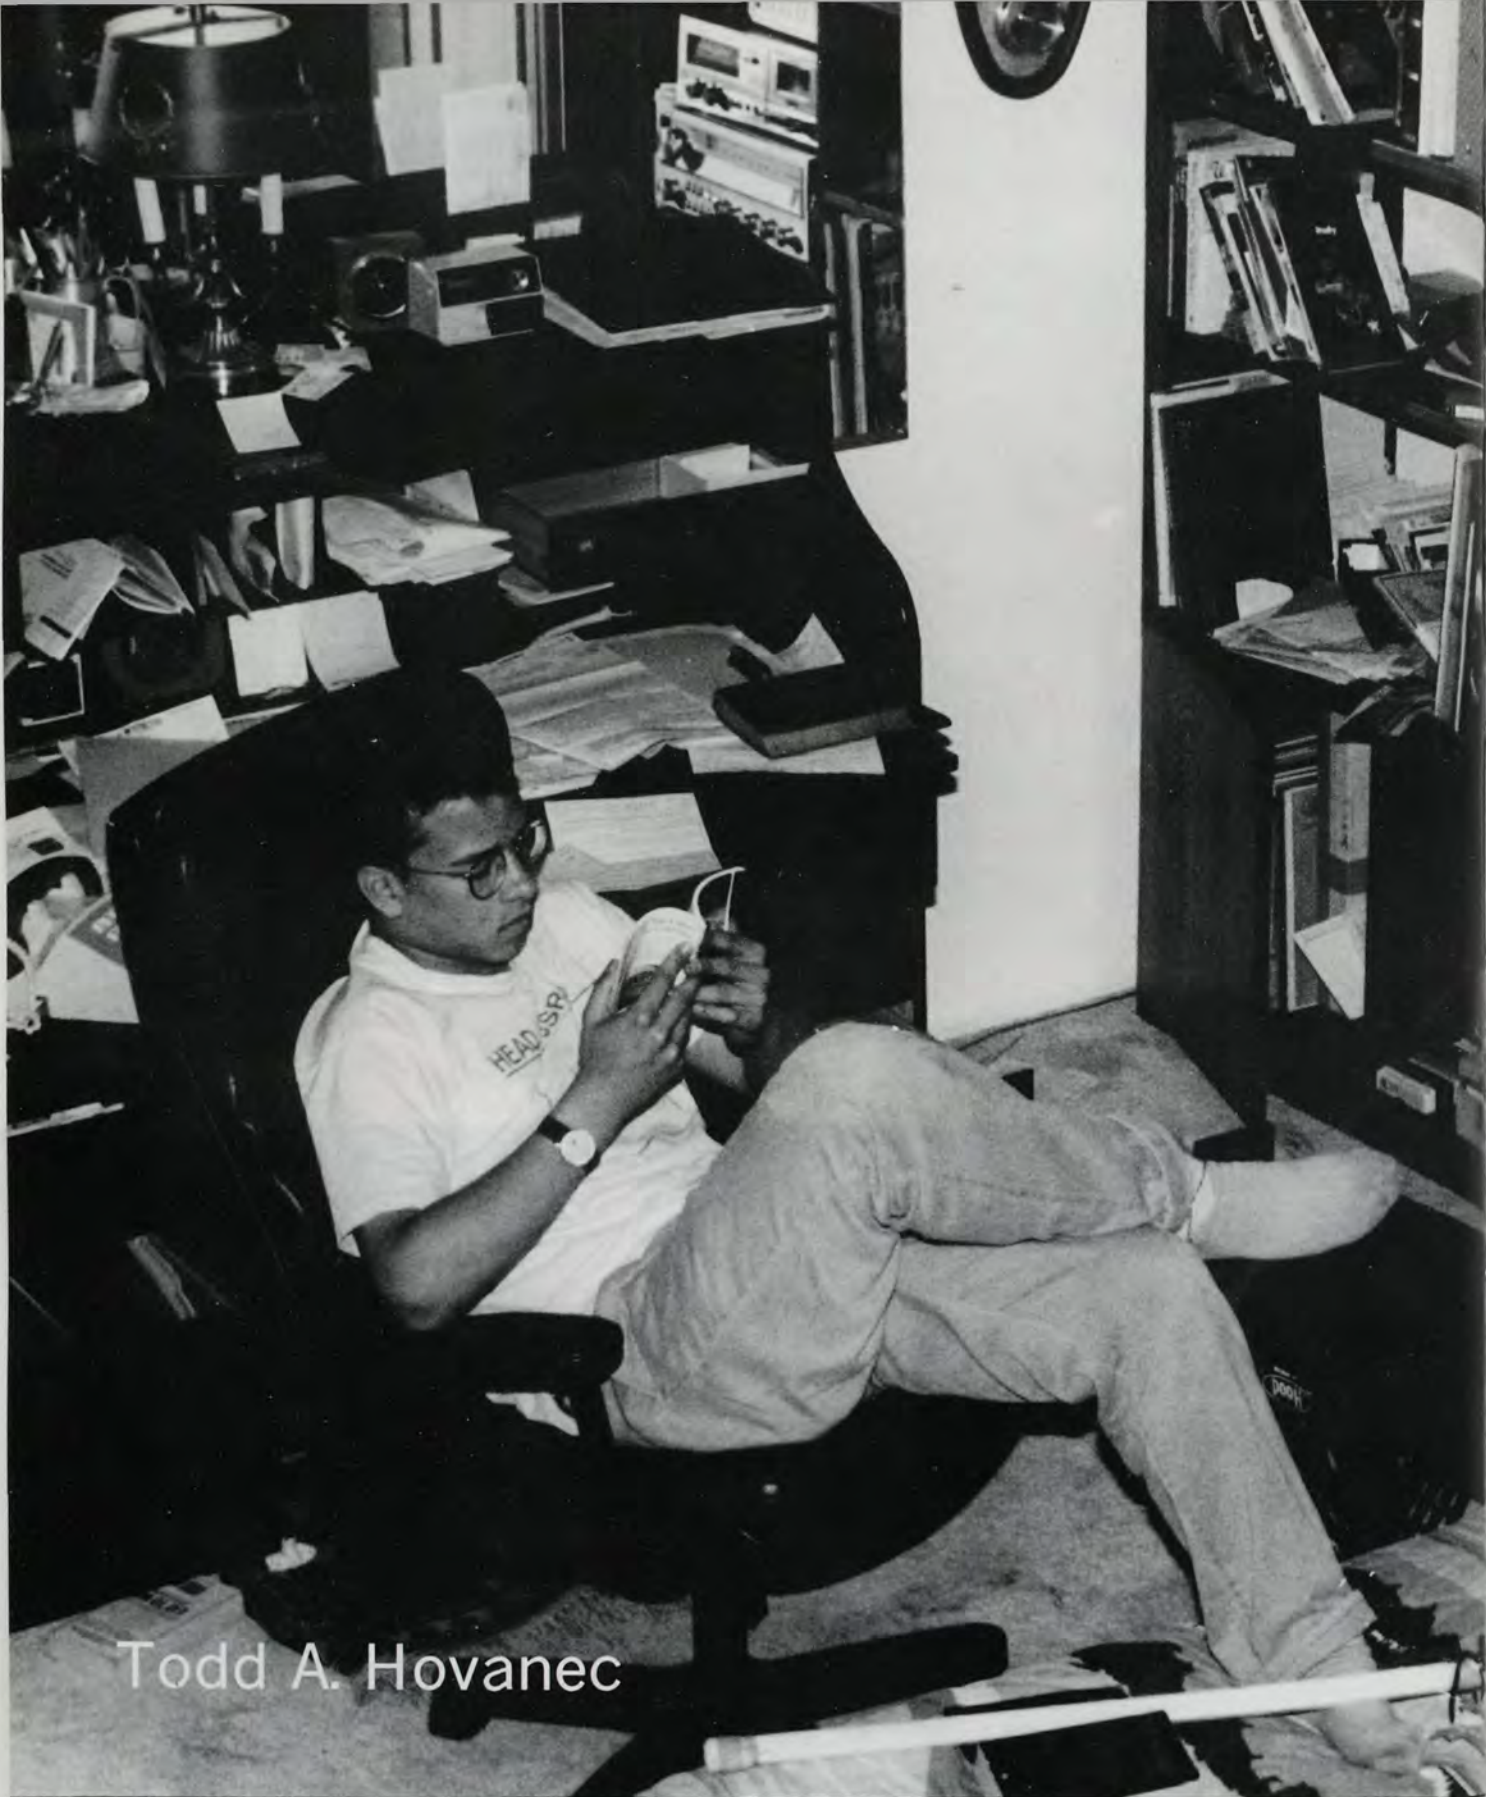

Le Corbusier

You purchase pain with all that joy can give,
And die of nothing but a rage to live.

Alexander Pope

Todd A. Hovanec

I'll never be completely part of the establishment, because the establishment will never be completely comfortable with me. The establishment is not comfortable with anyone whose dimensions have not been calibrated.

Norman Mailer

Justin Geisel

If it wasn't for the last minute, nothing would get done.

Man barricades against himself.

Tagore

We read the world wrong and say that it deceives us.

Tagore

You can break, you can shatter the vase,

SCOUT OATH OR PROMISE

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

Jean Shin

It was now too late and too far to go back, and I went on. And the mists had all solemnly risen now, and the world lay spread before me.

Charles Dickens

For every minute you are angry you lose sixty seconds of happiness.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Lauren Shuke

Life is the art of drawing without an eraser.

HOW MANY, HOW MUCH

How many slams in an old screen door?
Depends how loud you shut it.
How many slices in a bread?
Depends how thin you cut it.
How much good inside a day?
Depends how good you live 'em.
How much love inside a friend?
Depends how much you give 'em.

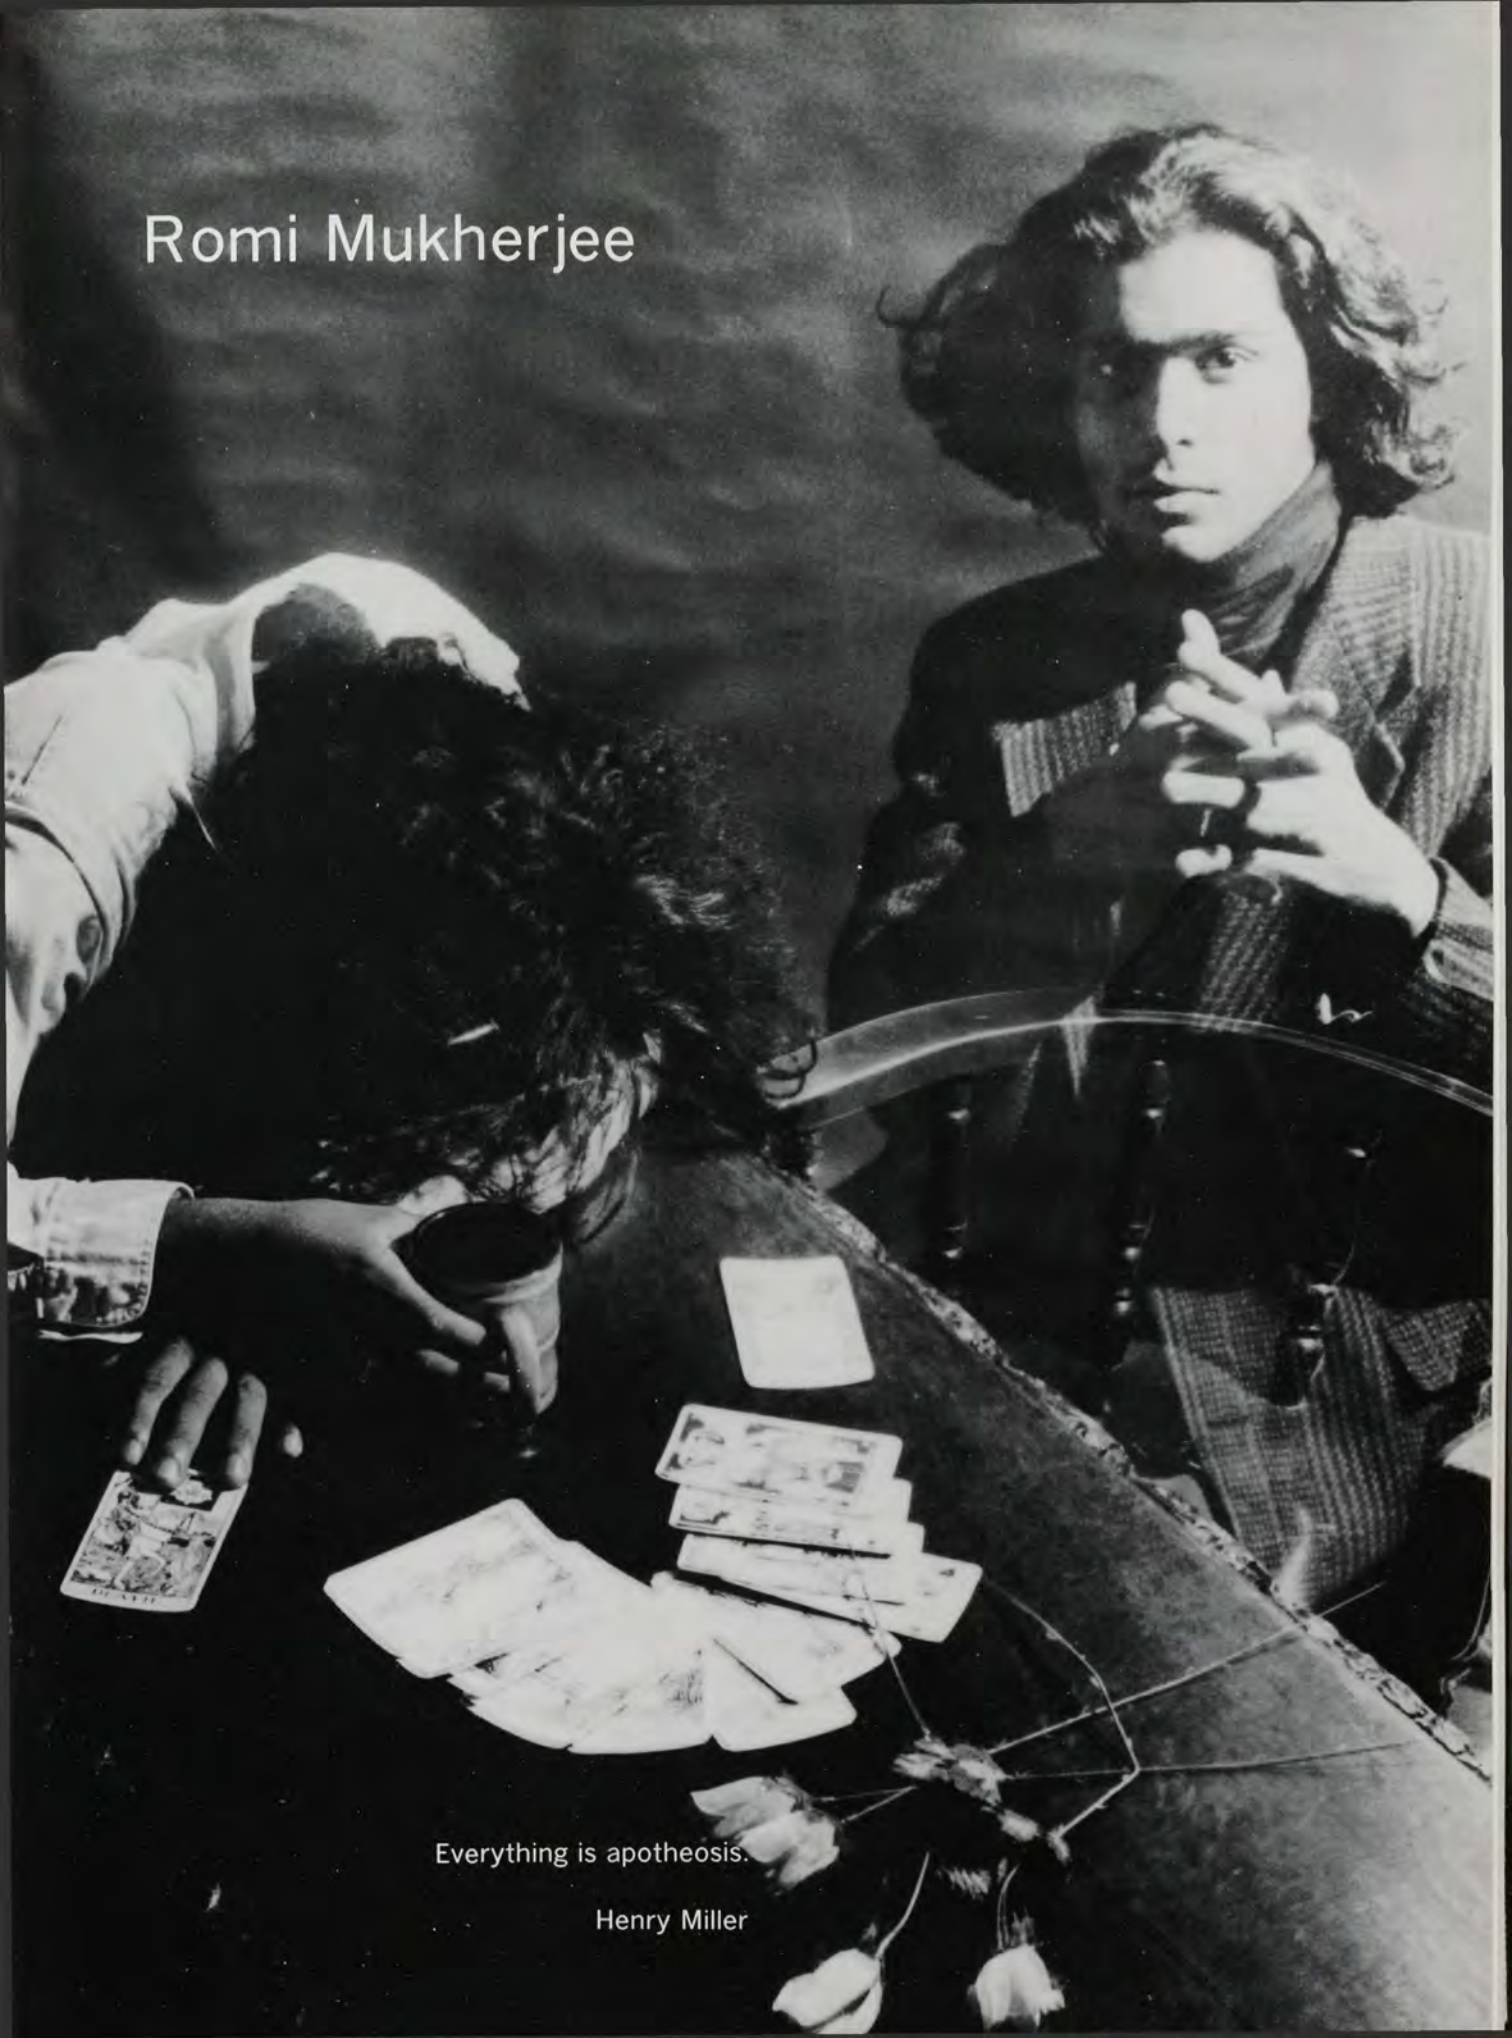

Shel Silverstein

For long you live and high you fly,
Smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry.
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be.

Pink Floyd

Romi Mukherjee

Everything is apotheosis.

Henry Miller

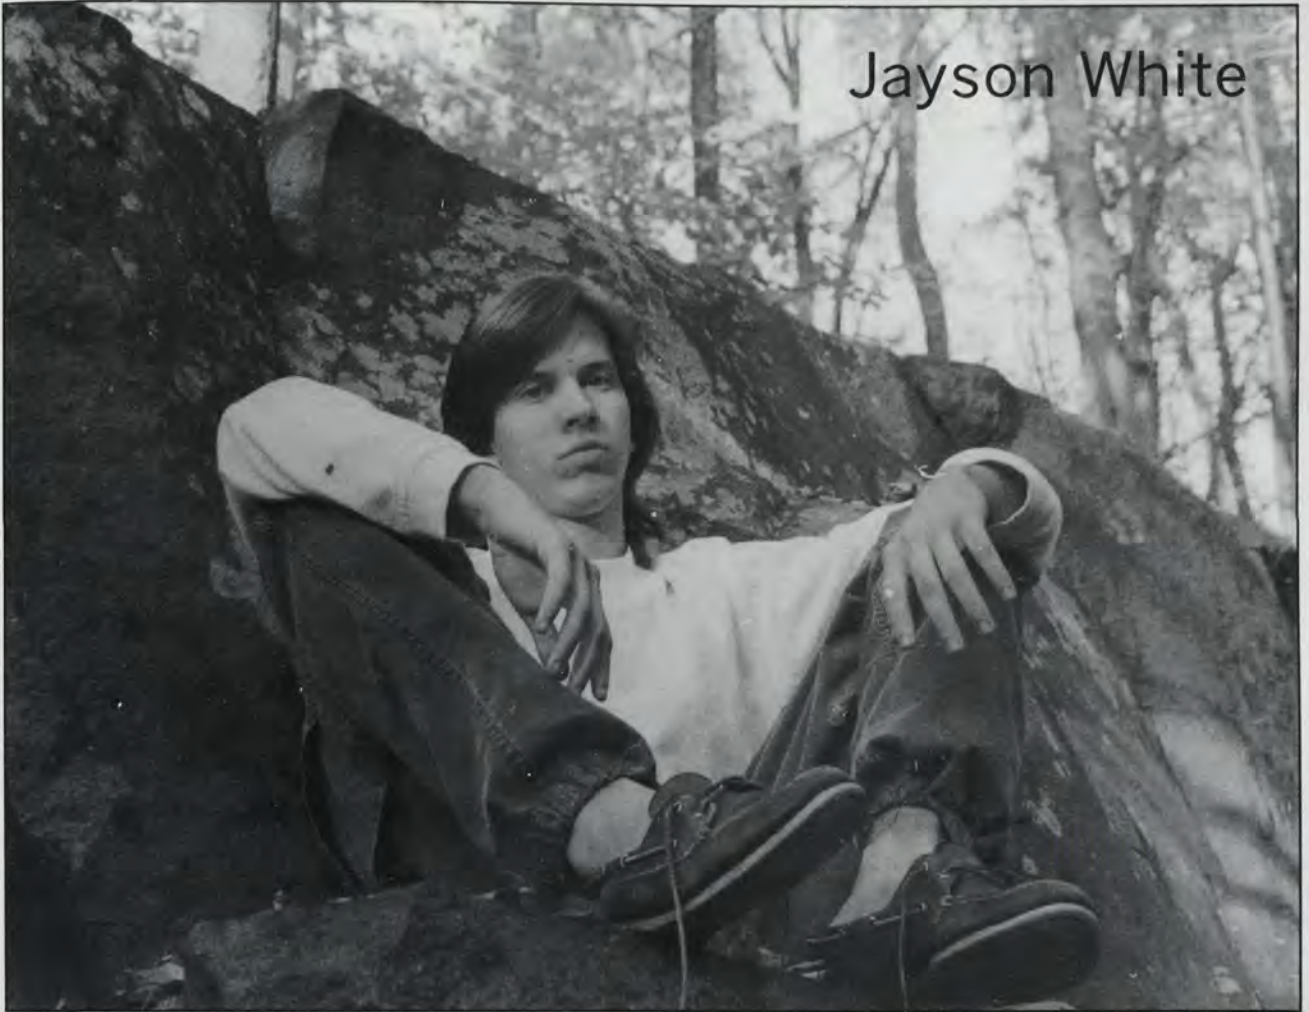

Oh how I wish I were a trinity, so if I lost a part of me
I'd still have two of the same to live
But nobody gets a lifetime rehearsal, as specks of dust we're universal
To let this love survive would be the greatest gift we could give Tell all the friends who think they're so together
That these are ghosts and mirages, these thoughts of fairer weather
Though it's storming out I feel safe within the arms of love's discovery.

Indigo Girls

Rebecca Grounds

Jayson White

Somebody once asked me:
what it was that I was doing,
that is, what with my life am I doing.
And had, and have not one answer, not one.
But I know what I have seen here, this is the asylum.

KDL

I know you all, and will a while uphold the unyoked

Mike Scarlata

I don't know where life will lead
me,
But I know where I've been.
I don't know what life will show
me,
But I know what I've seen.
Tried my hand at love and friendship
But all that is past and gone.
This little boy is moving on.

Jimmy Cliff

I go to parties sometimes until four.
It's hard to leave when you can't find the door.

Joe Walsh

We all come in from the cold
We all come down from the wire
and everybody warms themselves to a different fire.

W. Axl Rose

Kidana Kassahun

... if the students in this country forgot the analysis that has been presented to them, and they began to research this problem of racism for themselves, independent of politicians and did it themselves, then some of their findings would be shocking. But they would see that they would never be able to bring about a solution to racism in this country as long as they're relying on the government to do it.

Malcolm X

Laura Howard

The deepest rivers flow with the least sound.

Quintus Curtius

Kevin Capinpin

The photographer's eye is

Henri Cartier-Bresson

With engineering genius fired by passion, anything can be achieved.

Mercedes-Benz

All men by nature desire knowledge.

Aristotle

This thing called time, beautiful, automatic dimension that relentlessly measures our steps, neither hastening them nor retarding, however short or long they may be, time will resolve all our problems. It is useless to rack our brains for the solution, we must live as if there was no problem, and as if there were no solutions to be obtained. This is the final automatism, demanding no effort but that of living . . .

Man Ray

Kate Prescott

We do not believe in ourselves until someone reveals that deep inside us something is valuable, worth listening to, worthy of our trust, sacred to our touch. Once we believe in ourselves we can risk curiosity, wonder, spontaneous delight or any experience that reveals the human spirit.

e.e. cummings

Good friends we have,
Good friends we have lost,
Along the way,
In this great future,
You can't forget your past.
So dry your tears I say . . .

Bob Marley

"How does it feel to be free?" she asked.

"I like it," said Wilbur. "That is, I guess I like it." Actually, Wilbur felt queer to be outside his fence, with nothing between him and the big world.

"Where do you think I'd better go?"

"Anywhere you like, anywhere you like," said the goose. "Go down through the orchard, root up the sod! Go down through the garden, dig through the radishes! Root up everything! Eat grass! Look for corn! Look for oats! Run all over! Skip and dance, jump and prance! Go down through the orchard and stroll in the woods! The world is a wonderful place when you're young."

E. B. White

Dan Safer

The important thing
Is to pull yourself by your own hair
To turn yourself inside out
And see the whole world with fresh eyes.

Jean-Paul Morat

It was time for the surprise.
"Please sit down," announced the man in the red suit, "I will sing a song for you."

We all clapped and shouted bravo and Jerome fell off his chair.

Hey Willy See the Pyramids

Jasper Shahn

Nothing is true; everything is permitted.
Rashid al-Din Sinan

Any man who gives a good account of himself is probably lying.

George Orwell

Never put off 'till

Chuck Buttaci

"What I have to do, I have to catch everybody if they start to go over the cliff — I mean if they're running and they don't look where they're going I have to come out from somewhere and catch them. That's all I'd do all day. I'd just be the catcher in the rye and all. I know it's crazy, but that's the only thing I'd really like to be."

J.D. Salinger
The Catcher in the Rye

Remember when the days were long
And rolled beneath a deep blue sky
Didn't have a care in the world
With mommy and daddy standin' by
But "happily ever after" fails . . .
This is the end of the innocence.

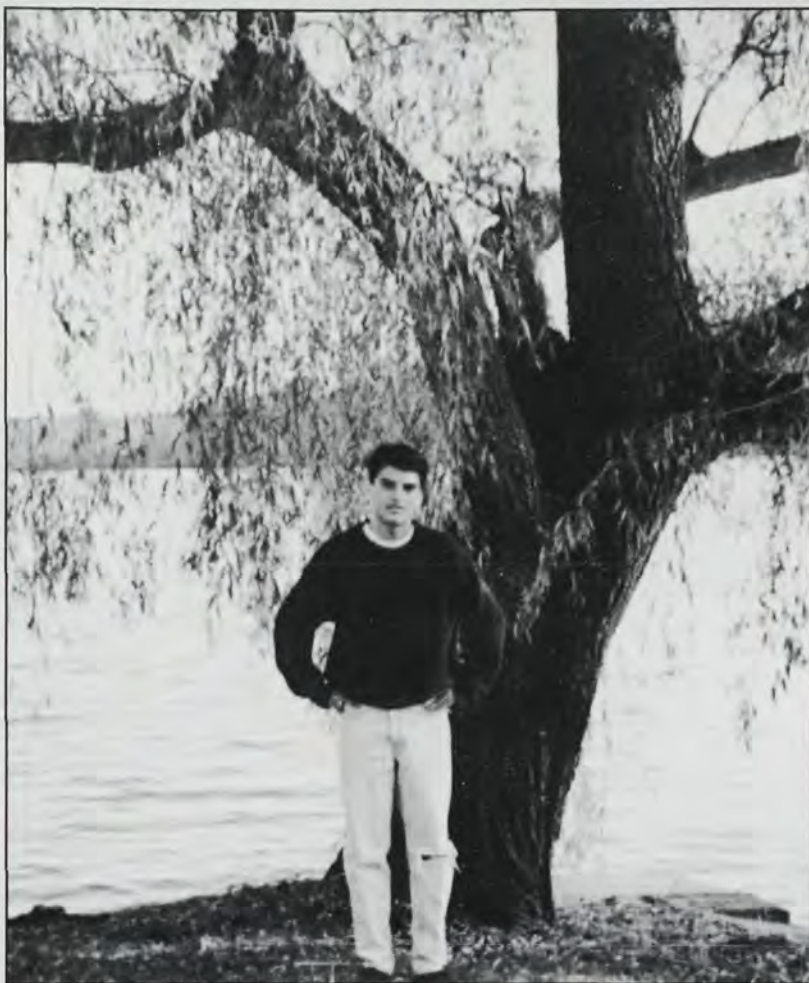

Don Henley

Read dozens of books about heroes and crooks
and I've learned much from both of their styles.

Jimmy Buffett

Chandra Bhatnagar

I'll take with me the memories, to be my sunshine after the rain. It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

Boyz II Men

I look forward for a future in which our country will match its military strength with our moral restraint, its wealth with our wisdom, its power with our purpose.

John F. Kennedy

Thomas Courtenay Batcha

Can't touch this.

Arthur Rotberg

If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything.

Mark Twain

"Does the road wind up-hill
all the way?"
"Yes, to the very end."
"Will the day's journey take the whole long day?"
"From morn to night, my friend."

Christina Rossetti

13 (and 14!) Years at PDS

Natasha Datta, Andy Goldenson, Jonathan Benedict, Sarah Berkman, James Francomano, Pauline Roberts and Rebecca Mounds.

For thirteen years you have added so much to the PDS community. Many changes were made to the school during your time here, and through it all you continued to support PDS. From athletics to architecture, your influence has bettered our school. Congratulations for sticking with it!

Tens of thousands of Iraqis were killed by the United States and its allies after Saddam Hussein invaded Kuwait in January 1990. Hussein's soldiers retreated from Kuwait, leaving the country in shambles, but the Iraqi leader remained in power.

During the war in Iraq, Saddam Hussein's forces ignited hundreds of oil wells in Kuwait. Smoke belched from the torched wells for many months afterwards. Satellite photos showed a black-grey plume swept south from Kuwait as far south as the Arabian Sea — equal to the distance from Manhattan to the tip of Florida. Meanwhile, the invasion of Iraq caused destruction estimated to be in the hundreds of millions of dollars. Months after the American military forces freed Kuwait City, the effects of war were still evident.

Rap star Vanilla Ice was discovered in a Dallas, Texas nightclub. It didn't take long for the 22-year-old rapper to hit the top of the charts. His debut album, "To the Extreme," hit the six million mark. "Extremely Live!" was another of his hits.

The Way It Was: Jan. 1991-Jan. 1992

Civil war broke out in Yugoslavia in the summer of 1991. Croatia and Slovenia declared independence from the federation in June, 1991. In the past, all six were held together under the leadership of President Tito, but Tito's death in 1980 and the crumbling of Communism's powerful cement throughout Eastern Europe allowed the forces clamoring for democracy and ethnic self-determination to break into uncontrolled violence.

Vice President Dan Quayle, the boyish looking second in command, was criticized as a liability to the presidency. But Quayle survived the criticism and worked well with President Bush. Quayle and his wife Marilyn have three children — Tucker, 17; Ben, 14; and Corinne, 12.

Paul Simon sings harmonically and rhythmically rich melodies. The 49-year-old Simon and a 17-piece band drawn from five nations stepped on stage in Central Park in New York City for a concert.

The coup in the Soviet Union began on August 19, 1991. An eight-man committee led by Vice President Gennady Yanayev took power from President Mikhail S. Gorbachev. Tanks and other military gear moved into Moscow as Russian President Boris Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the coup.

On Tuesday, August 20, President George Bush was joined by the European Community and demanded Gorbachev's return to power. Three of the leaders of the new eight-man ruling committee were said to step down.

On Wednesday, August 21, the leaders of the coup were reported to have fled Moscow. Tanks and armored personnel carriers moved away from Russian Parliament and leaders of the national legislature demanded that Gorbachev be returned to power. The Communist Party denounced the takeover.

On Thursday, August 22, Gorbachev returned to Moscow before dawn and reassumed his position as President of the Soviet Union. He was not able to regain his previous authority, however. Gorbachev disbanded the Communist Party and throughout the republics of the USSR, nationalist movements took advantage of their new freedom. One by one, the republics declared their independence from the Soviet Union.

In Moscow, Boris Yeltsin, President of the Russian republic, commanded vast popular support after his brave protests to the August coup. Riding a wave of popularity and nationalist fervor he continually challenged Gorbachev's authority as more and more of the republics abandoned the crumbling central government.

On December 6, President Yeltsin of Russia and the presidents of the Ukraine and Byelorussia announced their intention to create a new Commonwealth of Independent States. The Commonwealth would be open to all of the previous Soviet republics and possibly to other nations, as well. Gorbachev and his Soviet government were left out as negotiations began between the former republics. The main issue under consideration was the distribution of the USSR's nuclear missiles located within the boundaries of the new independent republics.

In the Russian republic, Yeltsin demanded that Gorbachev step down from his position as leader of the USSR and give the Kremlin to Russia's national government. As 1992 began on January 1, the hammer and sickle flag of the Soviet Union was lowered for the last time over the tsar's old fortress. In its place, the new Russian flag fluttered over the Kremlin in Moscow.

Secretary of State James A. Baker III was President Bush's representative on dozens of diplomatic trips around the world — but primarily to the Middle East. A peace conference in the Middle East was his primary mission. A lasting peace in the Middle East has been a goal of many presidents, but President Bush was hopeful that it would become a reality during his administration.

President Bush nominated Clarence Thomas, a 43-year-old conservative Republican, to the Supreme Court. Nearly three months later he was confirmed by the U.S. Senate by a vote of 52-48, after a series of tumultuous and fiery public hearings. Just days before the full Senate was to vote, some serious allegations of sexual harassment were raised. Professor Anita Hill, a 35-year-old law professor from the University of Oklahoma and former assistant for Thomas at the E.E.O.C., claimed she was the victim of sexual harassment while the two worked together about 10 years earlier. The Senate committee reconvened and heard about three days of riveting testimony from Thomas and Hill and a group of supporters from both sides.

Barbara Bush was constantly in the public eye as the wife of the President of the United States. But in quieter times, the 66-year-old grandmother says she yearns for the day when she and the president can spend more time doing "selfish things" with one another and their grandchildren. However, for now she is content to be the First Lady of the United States.

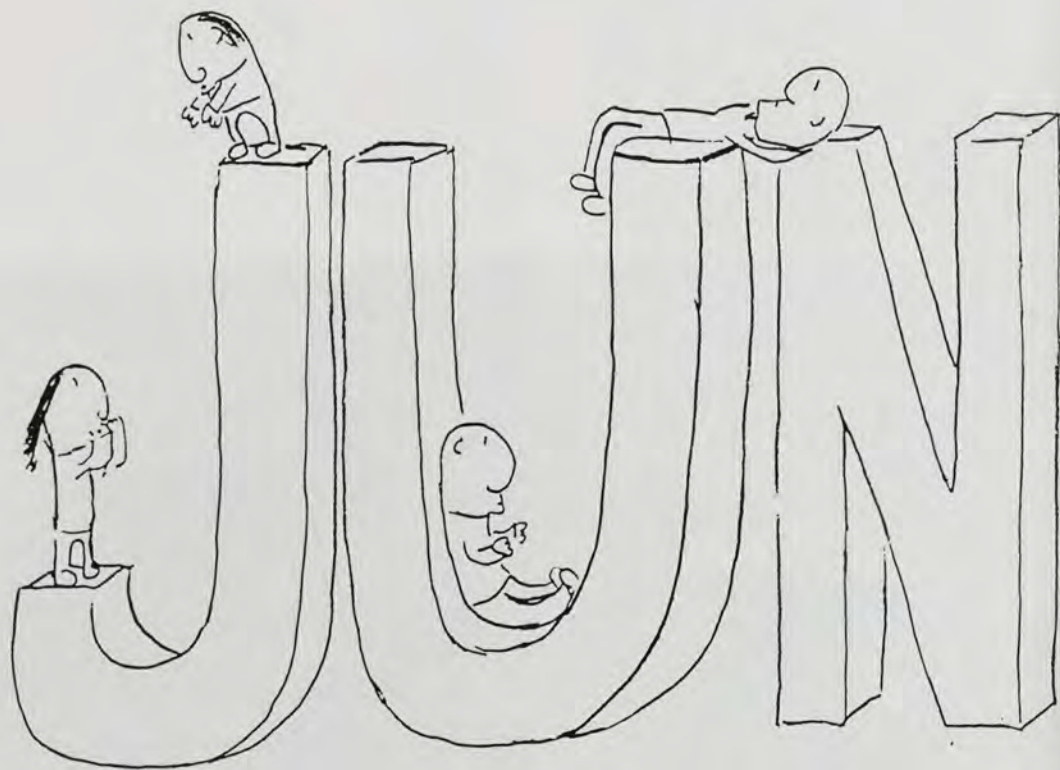

As the school year began in September, 1991, President George Bush was trying to get his nominees to the Supreme Court (Clarence Thomas) and the C.I.A. (Robert Gates) successfully through the confirmation process. But two of his major tasks were peace in the Middle East and a lingering recession at home in the United States. And with a presidential election around the corner, the president was putting together his re-election team.

One of the many rallying points for international environmentalists was the Brazilian rain forest. Thousands of square miles of forest were being cut down and environmentalists from around the world petitioned governments, held rallies and led marches to stop the devastation.

Arnold Schwarzenegger, the body-building, action-adventure actor, was a big hit in the highly successful movie Terminator 2: Judgment Day. At a cost of more than $90 million, it was the most expensive movie ever made. Schwarzenegger is shown in this photo in front of an image of his wife, Maria Shriver.

A large, stylized graphic of the word "FRESH" in 3D block letters. The letters are white with black outlines and are arranged in a slightly staggered, perspective view. The 'F' and 'R' are on the left, followed by 'E', 'S', and 'H' on the right. The letters have a thick, rectangular appearance, giving them a three-dimensional look.

Halloween

For the first time, the entire school celebrated Halloween together in one stupendous spectacle. Dressed as robots, vampires, dancers, explorers and a bunch of grapes, the lower and middle schoolers paraded into the gym. Behind them marched the faculty dressed as the Supreme Court (including newly confirmed Judge Thomas) and a complete baseball team.

Then came the main event: the upper school Halloween competition. Each grade performed as a group presenting a single theme. The Freshmen dramatized the epic poem "Casey at the Bat" in the best freshman presentation in recent PDS history. The Juniors created a Purgatory game show and a host of heavenly (or otherwise) beings.

Pageant 1992

The Sophomores, the second place winners, recreated the sounds of a rainstorm inside the gym, then revealed a stunning rainbow to win a very deserved second prize. The blue ribbon, however, went to the Class of '92 for the second year in a row. They are the first class ever to win back-to-back. The winning presentation was "Where's Waldo" brought to life. The amazing sets and inventive theme carried the Senior class to victory.

Students Among First to See New Soviet Union

by Daniel Weiner and staff

The PDS Russian Exchange trip will take place in spite of the world-shaking overthrow of power in the Soviet Union and the disintegration of communism. Mr. Skvir, an upper school Russian teacher and the director of all exchange programs, will take a group of ten PDS students to Moscow from November seventh to November thirtieth. This trip was originally scheduled for late August and early September.

Mr. Skvir went to Washington Friday, October 4, to confer with group leaders of other student visits to the former USSR and with State Department officials. We now have a staff of three American administrators in Moscow to supervise all student programs.

This will be the PDS's third exchange visit under the guidance of Mr. Skvir. In previous years he had conducted five tours of the Soviet Union, which often included faculty members.

The delegation of students will stay in the homes of various Moscow students and will be hosts to these young people next April. The PDSers will be attending classes in the same school (No. 84) as in previous years. A memorandum from the US-USSR High School Academic Partnership Program states that teachers and local schools are gaining increased control over the curricula and in setting educational goals.

The head of the English Department of school No. 84, Mrs. E.M. Burova, a woman of remarkable intellect, warmth and charm, who made many friends among our faculty on her first visit here, will be of great help to the students.

Mr. Skvir hopes that the PDS group will also be able to go to St. Petersburg (formerly Leningrad) for a few days.

In order to insure that things go smoothly during the exchange, Mr. Skvir has visited the state department in Washington D.C. to secure visas for the PDS students.

EnAct's Efforts Benefit School and Community

by Andy Goldenson

Participation, sponsorship, and education have been three major parts of the Environmental Action Club this year. While keeping in mind global environmental issues, the club has succeeded in solving several local environmental problems both here at PDS and in the Princeton community.

Recently the club organized a project to plant trees in the area. They were planted in places where previous trees had been cut down to build sewer lines. All of the trees which were planted were bought by the club. EnAct also held a tree raffle as a fund raiser at the PDS Panther Party. These trees were donated by nearby nurseries. The patrons included: Frank's Nursery which donated a Sweet Gum, Obal's Garden Market which donated a Carolina Silver Bell, Klockner's Nursery which donated a River Birch, Peterson's Nursery which donated two apple trees, Makrancy Garden Center which donated a Ficus, and A & C Nursery which donated a hemlock and a blue spruce.

In addition to planting trees, the club has also recently sponsored a recycled paper co-op. This enabled over 100 families to purchase recycled paper goods such as napkins, toilet paper, facial tissue, and paper towels. All of the products which were sold were made out of actual paper which had been recycled, and not bits of sawdust.

A third major project which the Environmental Club has initiated is a shift from paper plates and plastic utensils in the cafeteria to ceramic plates and metal flatware. The tentative switch from disposable plates and utensils was soon made permanent and the Environmental Club succeeded in finding a solution to one more environmental problem at PDS.

Another action which took place was the writing of approximately 120 letters to the Senate. These letters supported bills protecting old growth forests and protested those opening the Arctic refuges for oil development.

The goals of the Club this year have been primarily to educate the faculty and the student body at PDS, and to make actual environmental reforms in the school and the community. In the future, the club plans to have a low energy day when each student will try to find a way to get to school that saves energy. (i.e. car pool with a friend, walk to school, or ride a bike to school instead of taking a car.) Also, the club would like to expand the co-op to a monthly service.

By participating in these projects this past school year and making PDS students aware of environmental issues, the club hopes to establish, stated faculty Ms. Cutler, "PDS as a model for the community."

HiTOPS makes presentation on "Growing Up in the Age of Aids"

by Matthew Hurford

What were you watching last Sunday evening (February 2) from 6:30 to 8:00? Were you among the hapless victims of the Home Shopping Club's Groundhog's Day Bonanza Sale? That's unfortunate because ABC was airing a special ninety-minute live program entitled "Growing up in the Age of AIDS: a National Town Meeting." The audience, which played an active role in the program, reflected a broad spectrum of opinions and beliefs concerning the AIDS epidemic. Among the participants were several faces familiar to the greater Princeton community: namely, the HiTOPS Teen Council. HiTOPS, which stands for Health Interested Teens' Own Program on Sexuality, is a program "dedicated to promoting the sexual health of young people." The Princeton based organization is comprised of twelve area seniors: seven from Princeton High School and five from PDS. The Students were asked to be on the "Town Meeting" following their January 25 appearance on WABC's TV show "Making It." "It was an amazing experience," says HiTOPS member Rebecca Hart XII. "Teens are the ones who should be talking to teens about AIDS and the Town Meeting gave us a chance to do just that." Rebecca was joined by classmates Tricia Frank, Suzanne Dolan, Matt Hurford, and Dave Wise. At one point in the program Matt and Dave performed a skit in which a concerned father (Matt) demonstrates the proper way to use a condom to his teen-aged son (Dave). The skit, which marked a network first, was intended not only to teach people about condoms but also to stress the importance of communication. "People have to learn how to talk to each other," insists Dave. "How can we expect to combat this problem if we can't even discuss it?"

Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Hurford, mothers of Dave and Matt, also made important comments during the show.

On January 27, six HiTOPS members had lunch with the host of the Town Meeting, Peter Jennings. The purpose of the meeting was to plan the teen role in the prime time show. HiTOPS teamed up with another peer sexuality education group from Manhattan's Mt. Sinai Hospital, in an attempt to convince the ABC anchor that teenagers are ready, willing and able to educate their peers about subjects like AIDS. The end result was a redesigned program schedule with a stronger emphasis on peer education.

Although the bulk of the airtime was dedicated to other guests such as the Surgeon General of the United State, Dr. Novello, several HiTOPS members had a chance to express their opinions about various AIDS related issues. The audience, six million strong, was slightly larger than the thirty person workshops that HiTOPS members were accustomed to addressing. "We tried our best to ignore the fact that millions of people were watching us," said Dave.

Although grateful for their national exposure, the HiTOPS members shared the hope that more will be done. In my opinion, as a member of HiTOPS, it would be truly naive to think that a crisis of this magnitude could be solved by ninety minutes of television.

Sammy,

We will all miss you very much when you finally leave us to accomplish your goals. Always look up and never down, so you better use all those years of karate on obstacles along the line. Always remember that we truly indeed love you and will miss those brother and sister fights. Whenever you have a problem always remember to say this: "Dear Jesus, I have a problem" Jesus always answers, "Dear child, I have the answer, it's me." P.S. Then call home.

For what is your friend that you should seek her (him) always with hours to kill?

Seek her always with hours to live.

For it is hers to fill your need, but not emptiness.

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.

For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

Dear Nicole,

Do a little more of that work which you had sometime confessed to be good, which you feel that society and your justest judge rightly demands of you. Do what you reprove yourself for not doing. Know that you are neither satisfied nor dissatisfied with yourself without reason. Let me say to you and to myself in one breath, cultivate the tree which you have found to bear fruit in your soil.

FROM GLORIA MORRIS

Everyone deserves so much thanks — this year really was terrific. The Faculty: Thanks for your continual support and praise, no matter how many mistakes you didn't see. Development people: Mr. Bogle, Mrs. Noonan, Ms. Stefanelli, Ms. Wiley, you knew what we went through to put the Spokesman out and were always there to help. Thanks for taking us to NY, for telling us the office looked fine, for letting us on the Mac, for innocently murdering college admissions people. Andy: Despite your cynicism, the paper went out. Thanks for thinking up the worst possible things to put in. Ravi: Wow. Thanks for cautiously leaning over my shoulder, telling me (very politely) when I screwed up. For breaking out into spontaneous dance, and for being even more of a perfectionist than me. Jim: Thanks for everything — taking such good care of your page, always being concerned with our feelings, and pushing me to turn out twelve page issues. Josh: Sometimes they thought you take your power too seriously. You do, but I have more. You put up with a lot and always stood tall. Dead-line! Thanks. Stace: Thanks for really caring about what everyone's reading (something we kinda forget about from time to time). You and the others will certainly improve the paper even more next year. Think of the time you'll save not having to worry about my lip. Adrienne: Yes, you shared Andy's cynicism, but we never took you seriously. I'm sorry. Thanks for letting me run out of gas, and not complaining when I cut you off. And for keeping PAP from stealing our pizza. You're such a bozo. Sorry. Dave: Thanks for running one of the best sports pages in Spokesman history. Maybe next year they'll add that ninth page. Brian: Thanks for all the writing and your help with layout. I know deep down inside you love it. Dan: Thanks for always asking what to do, acting shocked when there was actually something, and then doing it. And for always showing us how much better we are than other school papers. Thanks. Kev: Our most crucial staff member and punching bag pal. Thanks for doing EVERYTHING. And for sharing my "who will notice?" policy. You'll always be photo god. Jame: One day we'll reach perfection. I promise. Thanks for taking a lot and telling me. Kate: Keep dreaming. Just you wait. Things one learns from being a part of Spokesman: never buy eggrolls (never leave them in closets), always more than two people on mailing, never move a page, don't worry about hierarchy, never let Josh write the Did You Know?, Brian — not Brain, always recycle, don't tell anyone anything, if you're an editor you can turn your article in late, look out for deer, read through the editor's notebooks to find out what he's really thinking, NEVER crumple a things to do list, never say "can't touch this" (sorry), never use #5, always buy Root Beer, don't lose the guidebook supplement, always get a receipt. Remember the little hockey cartoon, the BK crown, our Spokesjokes, the English/metric button, oscar, the Spokescopter, the Spokesrolls . . .

I know you'll do well next year — thanks to everyone who helped make the Spokesman — you know who you are. It's been terrific.

Your editor, Adam

Congratulations to the Class of 1992.
We wish you all Success and Happiness.

To our "Itzel" . . .

Always remember how proud we are of the person you've become. But most of all, how very much your family loves you.

Keep smiling,

Mom, Dad,
Kim and John

Carin,

Congratulations to a wonderful daughter. What can we say? Well, we all survived. Now you're a grown up young woman, creative, funny, smart and independent. Remember Dad and I will always be here for you. You're a fantastic daughter.

J. Wesley: Maybe if I could drag you away from that girl we could have some fun! In the future we will travel south to Tennessee so you can show me where you grew up. Thanks, my Rednecked friend.

Arthur: Well, my Party Animal counterpart, too many women, so little time. You can now admit we've had a great time. Good luck and don't sleep through the rest of your Life . . . Bring some Pepper Vodka when you come over.

Peer Group: It's been great. Thanks for all the laughs. Doug, First, Art and Erica — Remember, I don't like to be manipulated.

Mrs. Jackson: Four years? WOW! Words cannot express my gratitude. You have guided me and been a loving friend. For all you have done, I thank you. Good luck in years to come.

Class of '92: The Greatest People in the world! Thanks for putting up with me. "Hey, we're outta here!"

Mom and Dad: No mushy stuff. I'll tell you how I feel at home.

Rich and Andy: WHAT A TRAIL YOU HAVE BLAZED! I'm glad I had to follow it.

Congratulations Kevin!!

We are very proud of your accomplishments. Keep up the good work! We wish you the very best and continued success in the future.

Love Mom, Dad and Ama.

Our son Thorsten Kollmar has been a student at PDS for the year 1991/92, enrolled in the twelfth grade. He has been an exchange student from Hanover, Germany, with an Assit scholarship. We would like to thank PDS, Headmaster, Exchange Coordinator and teachers. They have all supported him in being integrated in the school community and in getting insights into the American school life. We know Thorsten is lucky to be selected as a student at PDS.

Especially, we would like to thank the families Thorsten has lived with: Mrs. and Mr. Stitzer, New Hope, PA, and Mrs. and Mr. Bilanin, Princeton, NJ. They have treated him as their son and they have given him the possibility of realizing what Thorsten wanted: to feel like an American for one year. Thank you all very much.

To Sharon:

When your mother first took you in her arms, with great emotion, you were just a little doll with very little of what would be your beautiful blonde hair and blue/violet eyes. Your beauty has flourished through the years and now you are a poised young lady, whose interior beauty has superceded the one that meets the eyes.

You have given your family great pleasure and only reasons to be proud of you.

You have been of great help and support in the difficult moments and wonderful company in the happy ones. We would like to thank you for being what you are and wish you the success and happiness that you certainly deserve for all your efforts, kindness and understanding of other people's needs.

We love you very much and will miss you a great deal when you leave for college.

You will leave an empty spot not only in our home, but in our hearts as well.

I would have written to everyone if possible, but I've learned something from all of you. Good luck, y'all! Becky: 3 years at PDS w/out you, loser (T.I.O.)! And I survived! Do you wanna be best friends? Equalizer, the Zow, "oooookeeeeeeey," spin cycle chick, "every 16 days . . .," music room lunches, bass, Chomp Moses, jellowrestling with Splattman (you wish), ITH (and father), cow jokes, BULLETIN! Step-On-Me (too bad you never saw the nose) + Damn-I-Smell (think they'll guess?) = wenchies, "One for the book!" pseudo-Jew, mucous charting, Dr. Ruth, green on Thursdays, the real and the inflatable S.P.N. Jr, Draggin' Dinos, B Syndrome, appliance noises, "I'm too sexy for my cat . . ." Cosmo love guides, CAP, "mumblety-peg," Joel and Kevin, Psycho Fred = Never Trust a Man with Better Legs Than You, our 2nd book — How Not to Scream With Your Parents Within Earshot, the music store man: "I love those Swedish women!" Don't we look Norwegian?! You're the sister I never had, so shut up and get callwaiting! — ME/Granny/April. Jen: Prom night chocolate cookies, Georgia O'Keefe, staking out the Marriott, Depeche Mode, Poetry, Jazzabell, care packages to Eastman. Lauren: "Loreeeeee?" "Keeeeeereen?" My bitching partner, Algebra with Señor Newell and the Mensa Society, dropping my calculator, "Oh, coffee." "That's not for you! Grr . . ." our lounge English crisis, or: How do Elm and Justin relate to Dickens' Great Expectations? the Locker Corner, Lem's fashion show with my oh-so-complimentary fellow models. Kate: Cymbals = superior publication, "do you think I'm shallow?" team sports, "I'm in good spirits tonight!" Tasha: Well, it's been a long time since second grade and that heinous Blairstown photo — Sophomore English, The B-Line, our Sweet Sixteens, "Heart Beat," Canada and me tripping over suitcases — maybe in college I'll get those towels. Send me an invitation to the wedding! Nicole: "Vote for Nick — she's real quick!" Chem Class from Hell, "Buffalo Stance," fellow tour guide and fashion model (I got my shoes back, by the way), Physiology and our pulses. Anne: Well, my life was blessed with the absence of Steph, how about yours? tribal "poims," our similar tastes in men — The Brothers Grow & M.K., nice pictures of us in Link freshman year — NOT! Jean: You're driving? Freshman bio and English, Woman Warrior, hearing your laugh at the other end of the school. Blue WHAT Policy? Marketa: Gnome '90! Bagels by the lockers, the (stalling) Great Little Car, Library monster noise. Heather: Sex life talk during Math, "housekeeping," neck wounds, rhyming names, the 500-question P. Test, "Surprise!" bathroom revelations, John's Miata. Dave: Aye, David, "pero una rata viva!" Bryan T.: Well, it may have been bizarre but I don't regret it — the cast party was . . . interesting, LA Story, Sleeping With the Enemy ("I can't! I can't . . . act!"), Carnegie Lake. Save the eight-page note — you can blackmail me with it some day. Snuff: Porter, my hot water bag! Great Cymbals announcements! Tom: Grampa's whittlin' wood! You made that hell bus bearable. Our mothers crack me up. Jeff: "I can sew!" Chris: Damn good B.P.! Jess V. H.A. says: the oral cavity can be your friend! Toronto Trip '91: That dress was red. Very very red. Glad you all liked it. Ha! Mom and Dad: Hey, dorks! We did it! You were always there for me, even when I said I didn't need you (lies). I know I wasn't easy. P.S. They're chipmunks! I love you. Justin: For months I thought you liked me only as a friend, Señor Grow. How bout the parking lot? Timing? Ha! Poetry tribes . . . "bells bells bells." I'm glad we lost our balance in New Hope and grabbed hands to cushion the fall. Then we didn't let go. Novocaine face, mini golf, Marc Cohn, the white silk scarf, "heh!" boxer shopping, your pool house, mosquito bites, moving my car, the windy beach, "you like that?" Bowman's tower when I was supposed to be rafting, handcuffs, getting lost at the Flemington Fair, French toast, "makin' copieeeeees!" pound cake, my kitchen, red evidence, New Year's lateness, Adams Family & Rocky Horror (ha), Drakkar vs. Grey Flannel, the weird Sunday you returned to Savannah, "Ah . . . Citrus Miracle . . ." You have made me so happy. I'll tell you the rest in person.

Love, Carin

P.S. Well, that's the ad, and I am outta here!

Stacey,

The baby has finally grown up! We are all so proud of everything you have accomplished, from a sweet, smiling little girl to an intelligent, mature and caring young woman. You will do wonderful in college; you're a NAMM! We love you very much. Good Luck.

For Rebecca

My God how strong your heart is.
May you always love from that heart.
May you share your gifts and teach from that heart with love and understanding.
May the 'mean eagle' protect you always and keep you safe.
May the songs you write and sing soothe and inspire.
And may the joy you have in sharing a sonnet touch the souls of others as deeply as you did mine.

How I wish I could write the song you are to
me.

How I wish I could sing full out.

To my friends,

I can't believe we're leaving each other. Thanks for everything — repeating things to me and making me laugh! Thanks for putting up with my stages (especially dealing with Hap and Nance and Ogre). You've all kept me happy and I'll miss High School because of you. Good luck, never stop smiling and I hope someday you all find true happiness. I love you!

Guys — you've made High School fun and Courtenay's right — we DON'T need a cottillion to have a party! I'll miss you! Good luck.

1992 Peer Group — Everyone, I really value the friendships I've made in all of you. Bye! Thanks. I'll miss you! Rob, I'm glad we were co-leaders and became such good friends. See you at NYU!

Mr. Spence: Thanks for supporting me and believing in me during the past four years. You're a great friend. Of course I'll miss you! Good luck with the future and your beautiful new daughter!

Mom, Dad, Deke and Meg — We've been through a lot, but I know that you'll ALWAYS be there for me; I will for you. I love you!

We do think alike. Marcy: You got me through everything, Tennis, Krausers, band b-que, harshing, our obsession, and hours of deep talks, Don't change (even if no one agrees with you). Liz: Always interesting, Math, history, grossing each other out, NYC, billiards, bagel runs and residential drives. Thanks for letting me bum, I'm moving this summer. And slow down! Steph: countless hours of driving to school, Edgewood, our name confusions, rag sessions (L.L.A.D.F.), dianu, weekends only rule, library, lunches, daily bets on Kings. See you in temple. Krista: I'm going to miss you, esp. softball and your Monday morning stories that always made me jealous. Joey: Yardley pal, it's been fun. Evian bottles, stealing, studying, library, scrabble, the park. Thanks for the laughs. Missy: Model UN. (Says it all). Art: My co, it's been fun. We've come a long way from the retreat. I hope we can keep in touch. Jew and Michelle: My big sisters, thanks for the love and advice. Your little juvie appreciates it. I love you. Mom and Dad: I love you more than I say. Thank you for everything. Leaving will be hard. Mom: You'll always be my favorite companion. Dad: I'll always be little Joel.

Stacey

Danielle: Walking the dog, stuff, Phil and Todd, wacky wild . . . Good Fun, Georgetown, Florida, J.M., Barfing, Mixes, Sweet Obsessions, Carvel Guy, Mark and Company, Don-party?, Lacrosse. Wait, what's the speed limit?, shore, Sting, wearing clothes to bed and getting up, Pink Gorilla, Getting into Bar, Chips, etc. You've been a great friend. Thanks for all the memories. Sarah: Friends forever. You've always been a good friend. I knew you would be there when I needed you. You've brought me many memories. Steph: Will's Movies, Secret Study code, free periods, Beach, Roller Blading, Hockey, Sports-Eagles! Yuck! Get a real team, New Year's, 3 hr. wait, Games Bar Guys Fun, treating ourselves like adults, X-mas gifts, Early, Don't let him sit in the front. Julia: Salads, escape from P., Jacuzzi from P., Jacuzzi, History, weather, Great Adventure, talking on the hammock, laughing at others, Oreos and Cream bread, 10 minute walk. NOT! DeeDee: You've always been a great support and friends. Thanks for always listening to my complaints. Missy: Notre Dame Party, History, Combat boots, Zoom-Zoom, Shrimp Scampi. Liz: Hockey, Ragging on you, concerts — buying tickets and then not going? We don't have to shower, It's summer. My brother, your sister — you're just as bad. Levin: You're a great friend, you've given me many happy memories. Mike: It's been a great year. Keith: You're the best brother in the world. I have always admired and respected you. You're always there when I need you. I love you. Mom: Thank you I know I can tell you anything. You're a great best friend. I love you. Dad: Thank you for your support, confidence, and help throughout my life. I never would have succeeded without you behind me. I love you. Everyone else: Congrats, Thanks, and Good Luck.

— Tammy

Danielle Lotoya Lisa — Hail Mary, Hail Mary (slap) — Eh Mah Gah! Can you throw up Yet? Me neither. Gotta pound some more. We are such bad asses — NOT! member . . . stuck in a ditch, the F.Mall, bar stool rides & our obsessions. Let's have a butt! (or maybe a tampon) Liz — HO! Chinese Fire Drill! You are the most amazing Joe Pro skier, snow boarder, back scratcher, cook I have ever met! But the ski God still wants me. But anyway — L. Placid w/ my dad, turtle cakes, Hunter Mtn. w/ Danny — I am still emotionally scarred, Grampy's runs, Panty Piaaz, Maple. 16 w/out you, my partial bad assness would have never happened. Michelle — We are Belle groupies sad but true! The Burton God, doing 95 and the Beamer nightmare at Camel-Back: The eagle has landed! Steph — ABC's, practicing for the pie eating contest, bar stool rides, our bench, pen fights, the chem. ghost, King Don's walking out of the movies, after all that I'm still turning around on the red dot! Tammy — I couldn't have survived soccer w/out you! You can borrow my blazer anytime! But it's time you had a neighbor party, don't you think? Carolyn — movie marathons over the summer, the LRHK, your last love, Arkanoïd, and long phone talks. We talk about almost everything! Thank God you're not a toll call. Kate — are you peever? Fake I.D.'s, ANNOYING cab rides, thanks so much for being my EM spy. — JULIA

Hi Tommy and Billy: Thank God! I made it through PDS. I know I couldn't have done it without help. Rap: You brought me up in this prep school — without you there was no "Ack-Love." G-Money: I envy your intellectuality, you know we the dressers boy. Can't come close! Wiseguy: you were always there for me and I hope you always will be. Nasty Jewing Boys! Feldstien: We're crazy, just remember the "List", sorry for booting on your couch! Joey: What's up, YO! remember when your Mom thought I was a burglar; without you, Senior Year would have been a bore, remember if it's ever 2 in 1 again, We'll kick their butts. Berk: I survived three years with you and I don't know how! You've made my time at PDS interesting, Baseball takes more skill than lacrosse. I would have talked to you if you'd have let me. A-Train: I never thought you had an attitude problem, JOKE! YOU're still one of my favorite people at PDS. By the way, do you have any gum? BPatrol: All I can do is shake my head and laugh! First: She never called your name out in bed. Sophomore chicks: now that the brotherhood is leaving, go sweat some guys in your own grade. Trow: Let's make some quick money! Blair: I'll never go canoeing with you ever again. Buck: A right hand, a right hand, it's Creed, now it's Balboa, get outta there! Get outta there! MLK: RIP you are the man. Culprits: they'll never know. Peace to all my boys, thanks for a good one and remember . . . EVERYTHING'S GONNA BE ALRIGHT!

Action

Ly: puking in my car, Jesse's barn, Nicky's party packs! Bill's friend. I love you. You've never let me down. Keep smiling — it's not so bad being too nice. JOE math with Mrs. Shehad, Doug's house, driving my car. I wish I could stick around to party with you. Matt: Aspen '92! We've had some great times. Thank you and good luck, my friend. "Becca: Thanks for listening to me, You are stronger than you know. Keep in touch next year. I love you. Missy: WOW, can you believe it's over? I know you can wait to head south, but don't forget all the good times. Find a nice Jewish boy. Bye, (what else can I say?) Sta: Tennis, getting the hoagie, Staying Alive, soccer games, peer group, retreat, conflicts with the Law. I can't believe how much we've grown. You are such a special friend, I love you. Remember Sta, always shoot for the moon: even if you miss, you'll still be among the stars. Jen: My hockey pal. Take care of Jesse. I'll miss you. Take care of yourself, everybody loves you. Jess: my sister, remember Captiva with Pete, cutting Mike, Nassua hockey, riding, our first drink together (you corrupted me), Bill, your barn, our car, "what's the A strand for?", "Is she really an Eskomo?" . . . You've made the last ten years worth living. Don't cry, we have some great times to come. I love you, see you in Margaritaville. Mom and Dad: I would be lost without you. I hope I made you proud. I'm so very lucky to have you both. Mom: I love you. You're the best Mom in the world. Thanks for helping me make it!

Class of 1992

Krista: There's so much to say — this has been quite a year. All of our loves — we've been quite fickle! Well, now the score is you: 6, me: 5 as of 2:1 — It'll stay that way for a while. I better be invited to your wedding, considering it was my idea (kind of). Road trips — Bald Head, the shore, house hunting, etc. Don't forget getting lost in the parking lot in Brwater + the reunion at Victoria's Secret — how fitting! We've been through a lot. Thanks for being such a good listener and keeping all my secrets (although I have a few on you, too!) I love you, retard. Never change!! Eph: You've made my time here very memorable but also smelly. Thanks for being you. You're so unique — never compromise that. You'll be the future Rush — hopefully not as fat. John: Well, what can I say except that I love you. Thanks for making this year so special, hopefully it will continue, why wouldn't it. I'll miss you next year, but actually I'll be about 30 mins. closer! Bald Head, renting movies, family parties, sleepovers. We've had a lot of fun. By the way, would you wash my car? Amanda: You're the best sister in the entire world. Remember, if Mommy and Daddy get on your nerves next year, just keep in mind they're retarded + can't help themselves! Mommy and Daddy: You are the two most important people in my life. I know it hasn't always been easy, but it has been an adventure. Thanks for always being there for me. My providers, role models, and two of my best friends. I love you! Shanny (your daughter). To everyone else: — Sorry there wasn't enough space for everyone, I love you all! Good luck — it's been fun!!

Love, Shannon

Stacey: Do you think I'm crazy? Leftovers, #2 talks, (you really do like me!) inhaling vegetables, Sleep-E-Hollow, J.T. and weak patellas. I love you; you're my one and only earth friend, even though you never look at me when I'm talking to you. Kate: What can I say? Pssting, the coffee song, library butts + sexy lips, our "juicy" dreams, shinehead + my ganja fixation, Big Red + reds, "I have to peel!", ticks, chips + salsa, the "green machine" from hell. The journey's not over yet; I'll meet you on Chance's Peak with a Ting in one hand and a blue bar in the other. Thanks for everything. I love you. Krista: $52.80 and moonlight harmonizing our (different?) tastes in music, my long stories and your crazy ones, the seadoo + dolphins, teaching me to shift, wrestling, southern twangs, Mr. Phipps. Krista, he was that bad — but I love you anyway! Michelle: You still owe me my nerd-filled sunglasses! Nerve pills, flying cockroaches, cheez rock, pearl cream + Suzi Wan, A+P "really fine" mayonnaise, our Mrs. Chow dance + crazy bread cravings. You're a great friend + ILY, but you need a fast walk and some tact. Sharon: My 4th grade friend; never forget cleaning the rug — "is that a taco?" no way, rose! "Let's not do this with her anymore; she's a real downer.", You'll always be Ronald McDonald to me + no, I don't want to play Karate Kid. Missy: My gossip buddy. Questions at Liz's, your demonstration, camp stories, phone calls from Earl, yo-yoing about you — knowwho. You're crazy; ILY! Dave: My arms + your tush, fajitas + stir-frys (you're a good liar), X-mas flexing. I love you. Chandra: Meaux (need I say more?), ping! ping! — DONG!, romance, douche. I'm the hippest chick you know + you're the cockiest person I know. Chris: I only hope that I've been as good a sister to you as you have been to me. I love you very much; you are a true kindred spirit. Mom + Dad: You have been my security + my support for 17 years. I love you both very much.

— Tricia

Berk, Blake, Lisa, Meg, Suzy, Blair, Joey: I wouldn't have made it through school without you guys to make me laugh. I can't tell you how much you mean to me and how much I love you!

Today is gone. Today was fun.
Tomorrow is another one.
From there to here
From here to there
Funny things are every where.
— Dr. Seuss

Courtenay, Jud, Dave, Action, Matt Y.: I've had a lot of fun with you guys and I'll miss you more than you can imagine!
Mr. Spence: Through all of my problems with teachers, parents, friends, etc. I can't thank you enough for being there for me. From gossiping to baby pictures to snappy dressing — you are irreplaceable! Mom, Dad, John: Thanks for everything. Don't be too lonely without me!

XOXO Alex

To my friends: It would be so hard to find what to say to each of you individually. So, I want to start by saying, thanks. — Thanks for always being there and for all the fun times. I'll never forget any of it. Let's not lose touch — I'm proud of you guys — Good Luck next year! Congratulations!

Kelly: It seems we're going our separate ways again. I don't know where we'll be next year — I'm glad that you've been around these past two years, probably for the last time. Maybe you can come and visit me next year. Thanks for all the advice — I hope there's more to come. I love you lots!

Mom: (or should I say Nole!) just kidding! Sorry for always annoying you — thanks for keeping a sense of humor. You've been a best friend and a mom. Thank you for everything you've given me and continue to give me. I'm proud of you — hope you're proud of me! I'll really miss you next year. I love you.

Meg

DANIELLE,

Of all your accomplishments, and they are so many, we are most proud of the terrific person you have become! Congratulations to our youngest, our last, our daughter . . . our love!

Dan-der-oo we love you!!!

To all my friends: I wish I could write something separate for each of you, but there is too much to say. Thank you for everything you have done for me. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. I love you all so much.

May the road rise to meet you,

May the wind be always at your back,

May the sun shine warm upon your fields,

And until we meet again,

May God hold you in the hollow of his hand.

— A Gaelic blessing

Jenni: It is impossible for me to express how much our relationship means to me. We are as different as two sisters can be, yet you are the closest person to me in the world. Thank you so much for all your sisterly words of wisdom. You will always be my very best friend.

Mom and Dad: I cannot begin to thank you enough for all the support, guidance, encouragement, and love that you have given to me. You are both my role models as parents and as individuals. I treasure our family more than anything in this world. Thank you for everything that you've given to me and for being two of my best friends. I love you so very much.

Suzy

SB, AW, LL, MB,
JS, SD, BY and LN;

Hold tight to your heart's desire

Never ever let it go.

Let nobody fool you into giving it up too soon.

Tend your own fire.

Lay low and be strong

Wait awhile

Wait it out

It'll come along.

James Taylor

Now the sun is singing

I'll meet you on the back plain.

Behind the gates of dreams

Laughing, dancing in the sand

Like dreamers do . . .

Good luck next year, you guys are the best — I love you!

Blake

BRENDA — I can't believe we actually made it without any major breakdowns, especially sophomore year. No matter where we are, things will never change. I love you tons — Sammy

WESLEY — What would I do without you, you've helped me through the worst. I wouldn't be sane without you to make me laugh. I couldn't have had a better sister, you made me believe in me. I love you — Ethyl

JOHN — You made me smile every day. It doesn't matter how far away you are, I can always feel you and hear you laugh. I love you always — Samantha

Kate: Where to begin? Avalon, Murphy Moose, Erasure, Bullwinkle, butterdesigns, our booklets, identical appliances, walks in Squibb and my pants falling down, roller blading, New Years Eve: Vodka shot and Depeche Mode dance in my apt. Spitting, project X, the list, Steve Winwood and our summer mix. There's just too much to remember. Thanx for everything. I love you, Bud! Liz: F.H. Pre-season 9th grade — our dream came true Feb. 22 and 23, 1991 — INXS! Then EMF, Steve Miller, Lollapalooza (mashing in Birks), Chili Peppers and Blues Traveler. Last summer — outside on the porch with Ali's friends, England — T's T+A — Natalie's imitations, Embassy's, Malibu and our English accents. Writing songs in religion and thinking of new ways to kill Getty in Physics. Remember: The offer always stands concerning my dog, and the couch is mine this summer! Tricia: My fellow Meauxron: Suzi Wan's pearl cream, Overboard — chaaach! I just . . . afea bug! F.H. camp — the mutant flying cockroach. Nerve pills, nerd-filled sunglasses, easy spirit, and gibberish. You always make me laugh. Thanx for being there and teaching me to stick up for myself. Your surprise is coming someday! Oh, and by the way — you really do like the Chili Peppers. Stacey: Mexico: "Dumb Thoughts", gameboy review, my blisters, Carlos n' Charles, Kelvin and Chris. Our talks of all kinds, tours of Yardley, falling off your roof while doing a certain something a teaching you stick. You're the only one who truly understands the stupid things that I think. Julia: My Belle buddy! We'll keep going back as long as the Burton god and others like him are there! Danielle: I've witnessed your super-human basketball skills and just want you to remember one thing: Don't go home and think only good things! (Sarah still has to get MVP you know!) Laura and Michael: I broke Mom and Dad in, you're on your own from here! Mom and Dad: We made it! Thanx for everything! I love you!

Love, Michelle

Shannon: Where can I start? Our reputations, absent parents, Bald Head, all our problems, John, John, John, Matt, the men in our lives. We're not bitches. I don't have anything to hide, do you? We hold the wall up. O.P.P., please do me a favor, no more fix ups. Your almost accidents. And how can we forget the drive to the shore? You making me sick about John me making you sick about Matt. Our Penn dads separated at birth, our dreams about married life and little rugrats. I'll miss you next year, but who are we kidding, we'll see each other all the time. And remember, don't spooze anywhere people will see you. I can cut glass with these babies. I lov you, stay you! Tricia: More Than Words, one more time, moonlit swings, golf carts, 52.80 we'll be right back, your music, my music. I don't listen to mall rat music! Ginger, your adorable Mom, They are so annoying, Mimi Rogers, Princess Bride, "How much fo' sum ribs?" Thanks for your alertness on the way to Bald Head. MTV male bodies on how I luv um! He wasn't that bad! Our diets and exercise books, you and your contacts, English, southern accents, Tricia, you're the greatest person, I love you forever! Stacey: You do have a life, The guy will come next year. We will always have a bond we have the same cars. Don't forget our catching up talks, and always remember to find a guy who can unhook that for you! Love always. Chandra: Y.A.A.M.S., oh, and you are a lot worse than me. Stay safe, wear your Lifestyles. Don't ever forget G.A. Kristi: We grew up on Ephross Circle together and then I moved away, but I know we are and always will be the Best of Friends! Besides, who can forget your fort, the Barn, B.H.I., Sal C., your guys, my guys, the weeds behind your house, all your dogs (Chance). I'll miss you next year, but know we'll never lose touch, we can't — you're one of my bridesmaids. Snoopy will always love you as much as I do! Love Kris. Matt: I can't tell you how happy I am with you. I loved you when I was a little girl and thought I had lost you forever, but nor that I have been given the chance to love you again I won't ever let you go! I love you. John: Hey Cool Guy, we've had our ups and downs, but we stayed close always. You're doing better with the talking. Don't break too many hearts next year because who ever ends up with you is one lucky lady. Have a great senior year and don't take any b.s. from any of the teachers. I love you John, John remember Buttercup. And you better visit a lot next year. I love you, Itzel. Kim: You're the greatest sister anyone could ask for!! I don't think I could have made it this far without you. All your advice really did help me even though I sometimes wasn't too grateful to you. We had some wild times at Bald Head that made us both realize something about ourselves. Don't you ever doubt yourself again. You'll be a great nurse. Don't forget when you and Chris move to Florida to build a room for me. I love you, Itzel. Mom and Dad: Guys where can I start? I'm so lucky to have you both. I know how difficult I have been at times, but you manage to see the best in me. You've taught me to be loving, open minded and responsible. Thank you. I love you both with all of my heart and will miss you very much next year. Here I go guys! Thank you, love always, Itzel.

Bye everyone! Love always,
Krista

Meg — sleeping through fire, skeletons, shot-gun in Lake mobile, Venezuelan, stashing, Allman Bros. Where have you been all my life? Weekend at the beach. You will always be my Daddio B.B. Don't ever change. Blair — Chip and Darlene, picking up bike, 1-2-3 war, Ogre, pledgepin, cab ride to Lake house, sneaking out, lifting car out of swamp, Rolling Stones concert. You are the funniest person I know. I'm going to miss you, Og. Joey — Gary, Ferris and com., NY, 20th b-day, Champagne, Jonny Castle, all-nighters, phys. project, procrastinating friend, Black Jack, My Girl, the stories we could tell. We don't even have to tell them, I'll laugh anyway. Alex — boat rescue, cheese and crackers, wolf, cheep, cheep, cheep, Big Al, stealing silverware, me walking Alfie, moped accident, sting ray, locked out of Lake house. I'll miss all the laughs. Berk — Lisa, Lisa, oh, there you are, most exciting car rides of your life, Ida, ancient, you are the only person with a louder laugh than mine. I definitely have to visit you in the future and meet your children. Good luck next year. Suzi — jumping fence at the beach, Mustache, dishwasher accident, Memorial Day weekend. Take care of yourself (no more knee injuries). Blake — Broad squad, beach, lax partner, bottle of red wine, wake up A.D.'s here, girl talk. The best of luck to you. Court — Julio Iglesias, Little Cindy Lou Who, straight from the horses mouth, car ride to Stone Harbor, night with ghosts at Bay Head, strongest friend argument. Have a great time next year. See you at the Beach T.C. Jud — Excuse me you're on fire, keg laps, Spring Break, Henderson Country Club, snapping turtles. Becca — Elvis, L.A., cruise, NYC, Pool toys ? ? ? ?, Bec, I am sure we will keep in touch. You are the greatest. Rob — Thanks for keeping me company in photo. I will still marry you. D.W., D.J., J.G., M.Y., H.B., D.S., M.K. — Good luck next year. I'll miss you all. Mr. Spence — Thanks for being a great advisor and an excellent friend. Good luck with your baby. Mr. Siems — Thanks for having faith in me. I'll keep in touch. Sean and Don — The two brothers I never had. Thanks for all the memories. Ben — You are by far the greatest guy in the world. I love you. Mom and Dad — Thanks for putting up with me. You guys definitely don't get enough credit. I don't know what I'm going to do without you next year. I love you both. Chris — Thanks for setting me straight sophomore year. You are the best big brother in the world.

It was fate that made us sisters but love that made us best friends. Kim — Thanks for always being there for me when I needed you. I love you lots. Lori — You are definitely my best friend. The thing that scares me the most about college is, it's going to be the first time in my life that I am separated from you. Take care of yourself next year. I'll miss you beaner.

Love,
Lisa

Congratulations Jonathan Benedict!

All of our care, our support and our best wishes for a happy future to our favorite composer.

Love, Mom and Dad

You Guys: I can't express in words how much you mean to me. You always kept a smile on my face. thank you. I wish you guys the best of luck in college, maybe (just maybe), you can match the fun we've had in High School. I'll miss you tons, you're the greatest! I love you

Mom, Lappy, Dad, Karen, Makenzie: Thank you guys SO much for always supporting me in everything I've done. I'll miss you guys a lot next year; it's going to be pretty scary without having close by to lean on. (Oh! Mom I was just kidding. Of course I'll be home; maybe for one weekend!).

I love you, JOEY

Mom and Dad: You guys have always been there for me throughout the years. Thanks for being so understanding. We've had our share of bad times, but twice as many good memories that I will never forget. I will always remember all of the sacrifices that you have made for me. I'll miss you both very much next year! Mom keep Dad away from the refrigerator! I love you both very much! Jiv: My big brother, you have always been overly protective of me, but I forgive you because you have also always been there for me when I needed to talk to someone. Remember ... "give me five" ... my champion ... boqounie ... "I want to eat your hand!" ... FIGHTS! ... stickers vs. baseball cards ... "greed is good" ... I'm sorry presents ... muchekey deeky ... remote control wars ... TENNIS! ... Most of all I'll always remember those 4 am talks when I soaked your t-shirts with tears. You were always patient enough to listen to all my problems and I know that we'll always be there for each other. I love you! Nick: My bestest friend you are an absolute treasure! Seventh grade H.R. with Mr. Franz ... "Good-bye" Charlie ... H.L.'s everywhere ... Genesis/parking lot/Barf ... Picture w/Santa ... late night phone calls ... parental problems ... "grounded again" ... DANCING! ... improv acapelo jazz tunes ... clinique ... hairspray ... Escape ... Tresor ... Davey & Andre ... N.Y.C. ... Au Cotton winter ... jockey bras ... "Bizarre love triangle" ... S.D. ... our sweet 16 ... restaurant laugh ... Toronto ... "Jiv loan me a 5 for another brown cow!" ... Madonna ... Harry ... Nicolé ... older men ... CHEESEBURGERS ... stupid dog ... stressful shopping ... sleepovers ... It was a blast! I love you lots Nick, life would have been dull without you. Thanks for all the late night panic calls (when you were up). You'll never know how much I'll miss you! Celeste: Poo-pie ... The Costa Rican housewife ...

28 year old guys ... too old NAW! ... life in the fast lane ... tennis camps ... Hilton & Milton ... Goran Ivanisevic ... guys, guys, guys ... I love men ... Victoria's Secret ... I like blonds! ... I hate this country ... Maybe one day I'll meet you in Paris ... Remember never give up your dreams ... Thanks for all the advice ... I'll miss you sweetie! LEEVEINNA ... the queen of gossip ... sexy volleyball shorts ... gold earrings ... Mr. Lott's history class ... "WHAT?" ... S.S.S ... "OH S—!" ... alligator skin ... "Yes Tuesdays are my bad days!" ... rainbow keds ... attitude ... "THIS SUCKS!" ... I'll miss you next year! Mernie: First grade ... my best buddie ... roller skating ... physics and math ... chinese dumplings ... the list goes on forever! Take care of yourself and stay out of trouble! Reg: You are the sweetest friend anyone could ever ask for! I will miss you very much next year, but I know we'll stay in touch. Never change Reg 'cause I love you just the way you are! Kate M.: Straight 1's you make me sick! CORNY! ... Arny humor ... Colross cookies ... I guess the hard work finally paid off! Have a GREAT time at Williams just don't over stress! Carin: Blairstown ... Glee Club ... Golden Griddle Pancake House ... Ms. B's aerobics class ... you are a great writer and I wish you the best next year! Jim: Mi amigo ... nosotros somos profesores fantasticos! ... Spanish wouldn't have been the same without you! I'll always remember huesos y beans. James: I'll always remember your Hammer dance! Thanks for all the laughs! Gary: It all started with "Sixteen Candles" and in such a short time we became so close. We've been through so much since sophomore year. You know me better than anyone else. I love you more than words could possibly express. Remember ... A.C. ... N.Y.C. ... Sunday trips ... relatives ... Arch Rival competitions with Jiv ... Claiborne ... "Forever Your Girl" ... NERD! ... 6 hr. phone conversations ... "It was too hyped!" ... cards, cards, cards ... one-ring call backs ... pictures ... Fridays ... Monday frees ... "Ta no like me!" ... There's so much to say, but that's between you and me. Gary you will always be a part of me. I'll love you forever!

Tasha

Mom & Bill: We've had some really trying times, but we made it through it all. Thank you for believing in me. You have given me so much. I will miss you both next year. It will be hard leaving home, but I will leave with a lot of memories. I love you both. Dad: We've been through a lot, and had some good talks together. We really are so alike. I know that you will find the true happiness that you deserve. I will miss you next year. Thank you for everything. I love you, Daddy. Tasha: My partner in crime. I don't know what I would have done without you. So many memories — your Joseph tape & my accident, our Canada trips & those incriminating video tapes (I'll get those one day!), "I need to borrow some money Jiv", brown cows, NYC, "Are we lost?", AC, travelling in style, lively arts, "Us, act?!", VS, F***in' A", "Hi, I'm taking a prom proll", fettucini & fried shrimp, stylin' & profilin', "Let's kick some a**!", taking over the dance floor, "Hot Feet", CD & yes it was really good!, "How big? Big!!", Vogue, Rusty nail, Boom-Boom, HiThighs, tanning your feet, Shotgun, hours on the phone (when I could use it), "This area is sooo boring!", aerobics, nails, your house (my home away from home), my second parents, "I'll try to stay up for your call". I could go on forever, we've had such great times. Thanks for always being there for me, through all the good and bad times. You are the coolest, and always look fab! I don't know what I'll do without you next year. I will miss you so much! You are my bestest friend in the world. I love you forever. Love, Nick. Levina: Econ., English, I couldn't have gotten through them without you. "Oh S**t!", shopping at Bridgewater, "Can I tell you?", that mysterious dinner at Casa Lupita, "I am not nosey!", gossip, gossip, & more gossip, coke-bottle glasses, our talks about trips to California, "How long did you wait to get your license?", obsession with the male anatomy. You are a great person, I'm going to miss you a lot next year. Celeste: tennis camp, first plane ride, "Those people look French", "Just let it out Nick, let it out!", reunions at Friday's, shopping, Costa Rica & your future hubby — invite me to the wedding, Paris, Italy (I'm jealous). Good luck next year, I'll miss you so much! I love you. Gary: What can I say? We've gone through a lot from sophomore year until now. I'll always remember the 45 min. phone call, pranks, the lunch table and your sense of humor. Good luck next year, I know that you will succeed. I'll miss you — Keep in touch. Kate: the turtle, name that tune, "beautiful, lovely", "I'll be back", Link was . . . interesting. Admit it — you're corny. Thanks for putting up with my laughing fits. Good luck next year! Carin: Phy. & Econ. — we survived aerobics, Glee Club, and the famous Toronto trip. Good luck next year. James: Its been an interesting last few years. Econ., the lunch table, thanks for keeping me laughing through it all! Good luck next year! Erik: We've had some fun times over the years. Now that we're all out of the house, you're going to be the first one to venture into the real world. I'll miss you. Take care of yourself & watch the driving! Love, Penny. Janina: SJ, "They're looking at me, not you!", your made-up songs, Texas (we'll meet there someday!), I had a blast with you during tennis, you kept me laughing. I'll miss you next year. Take care of yourself & don't drive the guys too crazy! Ellie: my older sis! California trip, summer jobs, Boston trip (need I say more?), Hilton Head, Bonnie & Boobless. I've missed you a lot this year. Thanks for your support and all your advice. Whichever direction we end up going, always remember I love you. Love, Penny. Class of '92: It's been fun, Good Luck!

Some parting words for my dearest: Mom, Dad, and Bro: Thanks for your support. Jay W.: Many memories, Vermont, whatever girls, driving and batting, you've really been there for me. Thanks. Eric: Lou Gerhig Guinta, don't forget the Sunday four o'clock, pounding the weird SoCo and endless talks. You're going to make it in L.A. man. Stitzer: Parties at your house, booting together at Nickle's, you really are down to earth. Jason B.: We'll be working together this summer. 9 years at P.D.S., too long. Kramer: Keep passing out, you'll get a tolerance someday. Young: Mi primero amigo, too many memories, sleeping at Rosedale, The Lawrence parties with bands and bats, P.J.'s after school, we've smoked too many butts. I Love you pal. Nicky: You're a great friend, be at your house this and every weekend. Jesse: The endless talks, it's been fun. Sarah and Amanda: My Princeton High friends, have fun next year. Joe, Dave, and Cy: When I come back, we'll get together and pound. Chrissy: We've had some great times and endless talks on the phone. I really love you, what more can I say. Well, that's about it. If you're not included I either forgot you, or don't care for you. But I wish you the best anyway.

That's the news and I am outa here, Lata

Mom & Dad: Thanks for always being supportive and understanding and sticking by me through thick and thin. I appreciate everything you've done for me. I love you both very much and I'll really miss you next year. (Dad, thanks for being patient during our driving practices.) Audric: Nightmares ("Mommy!!"), fights and bruises, control over the t.v., Anoric & Andric, teasing the dog and so much more. I'll miss you. Enjoy senior year! Tasha: Lott's history class, Chuck's curl, my sleeping "nose" position, rough James-like hands, white bloomers, moisturizing cream . . . snake skin, hanging bra strap, GOSSIP, disgusting meals at Casa Lupita, Link, study of the male anatomy, "his" butt-bulging eyeballs (I don't think so.). You're a great person and friend. I luv U lots! Nick: English classes, cokebottle glasses, Economics, the Rock, Link, the "stance", shopping, Victoria's Secret-bath beads, Brookstone, Benetton cream, my giddiness around him, snake skin, the concept of smooth, soft skin (Can't grasp that one.), rides home, the nurse's office, ice cubes, comebacks, gym tennis, Mr. Minter's beard (Is he an Arab?). I am glad we've become close friends. I'll miss you so much. Steph: Where to begin? For starters, Mr. M.'s (the stud?) French class. From then, we couldn't get enough of each other. B-52's dresses, writing letters on paper towels, yawns & tears, tennis-short court, Doug, YM, Most Modern Man, pens, writing left-handed, scribbles, Mock Trial, laminating books (you've finally mastered the art.), rides home, Destructive Passions, talking in the library, France, lists, "Look at our group!", and so many other laughs. You're truly special and so is our friendship. Tammy: 3rd tm. lax, managers/players, skirt stuck up my butt, working in the library, Peer Group, Mike, comm. service, meetings, Eng., "his" glasses and surprise parties. Deepa: Serious talks, bus rides, the "perfect" relationship, dot, "No kids!", long phone calls, threats, revenge, (908)534-6247, volleyball, P.G., hitting and pinching, shorts down to your ankles, "her" outfits, my mom yelling: "Deepa, spike!", your wonderful admirers, mental problems and the loose wiring in my bra. I am glad we've gotten closer and been able to talk about anything. I luv U lots! Danielle: Econ., Great Adventure, body odor, tutoring, the Rock, "Where is she?". Julia: Eng. with the ancient one, behind the racks, getting into an accident (almost!), pictures of "his" house and mailbox. Liz: Geography, volleyball, Mr. B.'s uneven haircut, Mock Trial, liking "him" for so long, gossip, bus rides, Mickey Mouse face and a lot more! Ami: History class, Mock Trial, rides home, 2 AM phone calls, team sports, tutoring. Jean: Volleyball (Living hell?), French class, Susan, 10th grade religion. Chuckle! James: "No, I don't have a game today!" Gary: Geography, "I'm not Freddy Kreuger!", "Girl's volleyball will win." Action: Peer Group! I am glad we've gotten to be better friends. You're a great person, don't ever change. I am also glad that we were able to "talk" to each other. I'll never forget you. I'll miss you a lot! Kate: Link, old Colross cookies, gossip, the slowest "turtle" alive, charts, typing problems, "Kate, can I ask you a question?", Mock Trial. Peer Group #4: I've had a great time this year. You guys are the best. I'll miss you. Have fun and good luck at PDS! P.G. leaders: I've had a great time in Peer Group and I'll never forget this experience. To the rest of the senior class: See ya! Good luck next year!

Luv,
Levina

The Wanna-be Link Staff: First Level: Mrinalini "Killer" Kamath ('91 Supplement Layout), Nosey Nathan Tain (Photo Editor and fencer), Gopher Greg Endries ('Staff Assistant' and Layout), Benji "Tightwad" Frost (Business Manager, kind of . . .), Mike "Honestly, we'll sell those ads by the deadline" Schragger (Another Business Manager), Second Level: Alex "NO way" Wei (Photo Editor and fencer), Levina "Did he really write that? Let me see." Kim (Copy Editor), Deepa "I did a lot of work this year — NOT!" Purushothaman (Supplement Co-Editor). On the highest level of yearbook excellence: Nicole "Those aren't Dr. Aaronson's, are they?" Cargulia (Co-Editor), Kate "What's the poop?" Marquis (Editor-inChief), Tasha "Too cool For Words" Datta (Co-Editor). Missing from photo: Jason Bilanin (Supplement Co-Editor), Jane "Have you got a rubber?" Grey (Last minute godsend), Liz "Laugh a lot" Marquis (Layout and general good egg). Contributing photographers: Stacey Namm, Lisa Lake and Julia Tatsch. Amazing Cartoonist: Abe Mezrich.

Thanks to everyone for all the work you did, (even if you only showed up once.). I think we've got a good book here, and we should all be proud. Good luck next year to all of you.

Special thanks to Mrs. Hohmuth-Lemonick for her advice and patience I hope you have a great year next year. Thank you's are also due to Cindy Shapiro. It's been great working with you this year. Mr. McCord — Thank you so much for your patience. I know we've been difficult at times, and I know I should have taken photos this year but we're done now and I think we should be pleased. Take care.

This is me with the Real Link Staff: Nicole Cargulia and Natasha Datta. Thanks you both from the bottom of my heart. We made a strange crew, I still can't believe we lived through those cloistered afternoons in C200. Your dedication to the book was incredible; you put huge amounts of time and effort into this publication. You should both be proud. Without you, we would never have finished the '92 Link. I wish you the very best in life.

I would also like to thank all the PDS faculty and students for being so friendly and supportive during my years here at PDS. Princeton Day School has meant a lot to me. I hope you enjoy the 1992 Link!

Yours always,
Kate Marquis
