LINK 1993
change. It's a word that has popped up throughout the decade. Global events have changed due to the collapse of the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War. The United States has demanded change with the election of Bill Clinton. Princeton Day School is changing with the addition of a new wing and many new programs. But more importantly, we must change. The senior class is preparing for high school with hopes and dreams for the future. As we mature and evolve, we wish you well in the future. We will have more social, economic, and political endeavors and have been determined during these difficult times. Whether we change for good or bad, we must remember that change itself is beneficial. It allows us to grow and learn.

“Nothing endures but change.”

Heraclitus
The senior class has decided to dedicate the 1993 LINK to Mr. Bailey. Mr. Bailey has been our grade’s advisor since ninth grade and is still alive to tell of our many adventures. Whether falling out of a canoe or endlessly dancing at the prom last year, Mr. Bailey has stood by our grade, helped us when we were desperate, made us laugh when we were down, and listened when we needed to talk.

We thank you Mr. Bailey for four years of undying devotion.

We will remember you always.

Love,

The Senior Class of 1993
Rev. Reimers

Rev has been walking the halls of PDS as long as any member of the class of 1993 can remember. When he first arrived at PDS in 1970, there was no significant religion department. He established and set the standard for the religion department. He has since taught countless classes and watched hundreds of students graduate from PDS. Rev has given us all a broad overview of the different aspects of religions. As a teacher and Dean of Students, he has not tried to preach his ideas to us, but has instead presented information to us honestly and objectively, allowing us to draw our own conclusions. From intellectual support in the classroom to emotional support and guidance through many trying situations, Rev has been a source of wisdom and support for us all.

After 23 years in the PDS community, Rev has decided to retire and hopes to spend his additional time working with the Princeton University Art Museum and helping AIDS victims. He leaves us with the invocation to “...Respect each other and those around you as human beings, and be compassionate to those who are less fortunate than you are.”

We wish Rev Reimers the best of luck in the future and thank him for the time he has devoted to us. He will always be remembered.

Dr. Art Aaronson

Dr. Aaronson has faithfully served our school for the last six years as Head of Upper School and Peer Group Advisor. Throughout his tenure at PDS, he has befriended many teachers and students, showing concern for everyone in the school. He has treated us all as individuals, and thinks our opinions are unique and worthwhile. He has been sensitive to the contributions every student has added and has been especially helpful to students not in the mainstream. Dr. Aaronson has especially enjoyed connecting students, teachers, and parents. The highlight of his time spent at PDS has been the valuable contributions he has been able to make in aiding both freshmen and seniors in Peer Group. He has also contributed to the school community by helping us through the tragedies that have occurred during our high school career. We will miss Dr. Aaronson’s assembly speeches and guidance. We wish him good luck in all his pursuits!

December, 1992
Dear Class of 1993:

As we approach 1993, your year for graduation, various thoughts which concern PDS and the Class of '93 cross my mind. The most obvious one is the construction of the new classroom wing. Yes, it is for lower school students, but in numerous ways it will have a more profound impact on the upper school.

Most of the current lower school space will be dedicated to the upper school. Therefore, during your senior year we will have planned for changes, whether it be the location of a student center or student traffic patterns in the new and old space. As returning alumni, you will definitely note “it isn’t the same.” On the other hand, many of you will have made constructive suggestions for change with an eye, I hope, to preserving the best of the past.

A second thought is our focus on reaffirming in a more public manner the values that we cherish at PDS. We want to see our community adhering to the guidelines, rules and procedures which must underpin these values. You will have been caught up in this process, this shift to make sure PDS is not viewed as simply a point along the path of accomplishments and successes. It must also be a setting where we provide good direction about the importance of integrity, kindness, honesty, decency, cooperation and responsibility in leading a fulfilling life.

My thoughts also include your endeavors during the fall of your senior year. You have already made valuable individual and collective contributions to school life. Unable to cite all of them here, I do, however, want to echo my words at the fall sports assemblies. Seniors involved in fall sports were exemplary in understanding and promoting the value of the team over the individual. Your actions endorsed the idea that ultimate success in any endeavor depends on all the individuals working together and sublimating a portion of one’s individuality to the good of the team or group.

Thank you for your contributions to date and those to come in 1993. We look forward to seeing you back at PDS as alumni.

Sincerely,

Duncan W. Alling

Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime.
We'll take the best, forget the rest,
And someday we'll find these are the best of times.

There's a land where the mountains are nameless,
And the rivers all run God knows where;
There are lives that are erring and aimless,
And deaths that hang by a hair;
There are hardships that nobody reckons;
There are valleys unpeopled and still;
There's a land - oh, it beckons and beckons,
And I want to go back - and I will.

THE HAPPIEST DAY

The happiest day — the happiest hour
My sear’d and blighted heart hath known,
the highest hope pride, and power,
I feel hath flown.

Of power! said I? Yes! such I ween
But they have vanish’d long alas!
the visions of my youth have been —
But let them pass.

And, pride, what have I now with thee?
Another brow may ev’n inherit
The venom thou hast pour’d on me—
Be still my spirit.

The smile of love — soft friendship’s charm —
Bright hope itself has fled at last,
’Twill ne’er again my bosom warm —
’Tis ever past.

Let a new earth rise. Let another world be born. Let a bloody peace be written in the sky. Let a second generation full of courage issue forth; let a people loving freedom come to growth. If you practice an art, be proud of it, and make it proud of you; if you now hesitate on the threshold of your maturity, wondering what rewards you should seek, wondering perhaps is there any rewards beyond the opportunity to feed and sleep and breed, turn to the art which has moved you most readily, take what part in it you can, as participant, spectator, secret practitioner, or hanger-on and waiter at the door. Make your living any way you can, but neglect no sacrifice at your chosen altar. If may break your heart, it may drive you half mad, it may betray you into unrealizable ambition or blind you to mercantile opportunities with its wandering fires. But it will fill your heart before it breaks it; it will open the temple doors to you and enable you to walk with those who have come nearest among men to what men may sometimes be.

Write about what burns in you, what you can't forget.
- Muriel Rukeyser

The evil that is in the world always comes of ignorance, and good intentions may do as much harm as malevolence, if they lack understanding. On the whole, men are more good than bad; that, however, isn't the real point, but they are more or less ignorant, and it is this that we call vice or virtue; the most incorrigible vice being that of an ignorance that fancies it knows everything and therefore claims for itself the right to kill. The soul of the murderer is blind; and there can be no true goodness nor true love without the utmost clear-sightedness.

The Little Boy And The Old Man

Said the little boy, “Sometimes I drop my spoon.”
Said the little old man, “I do that too.”
The little boy whispered, “I wet my pants.”
“I do that too,” laughed the little old man.
Said the little boy, “I often cry.”
The old man nodded. “So do I.”
“But worst of all,” said the boy, “it seems Grown-ups don’t pay attention to me.”
And he felt the warmth of a wrinkled old hand.
“I know what you mean,” said the little old man.

REMEMBER?
I'd like to be a child again, so many things I do
Playground noise and colored toys
Everything brand new.

I'd like to sail a pirate ship in search of hidden gold
On ocean waves that swim away
And sail around the world.

I could be most anything
There is so much to be
I'd live a different story
If you were next to me.

So who knows how long this will last
Now we've come so far, so fast.
Somewhere back there in the dust,
That same small town in each of us.
Let me take a long last look
Before we say goodbye.
This is the end of the innocence.

Should a smoking area be permitted on school grounds?
One good reason...

- to turn off the water as you brush your teeth.
- Throw away your air fresheners & open your windows.
- Absorb indoor pollution with a spider plant.
- Run your dishwasher only when it's filled.
- Turn off lights as you leave the room.
- Take a shower instead of a bath.
- Buy energy-smart appliances.
- Pass along your magazines.
- Cook with smaller pans & ventilate your kitchen.
- Use less detergent & fewer paper towels.

Rethink, recycle, rework, renew, reuse & above all remember...

it means the world to all of us!

The Midnight Golfers

Faculty Advisor: Harvey Lee. Comrade, Tex, Mr. President, Chappy, Jeeves, Captain Hook, El Capitano, Snowflake, Chef Boyardee.
The Halloween "Pageant" was gone this year and the Halloween Challenge came back with a vengeance. The performances showed great effort by all the grades.

The freshmen performed a choreographed song and dance number, by far one of the best and cutest performances by a freshman class in PDS history.

After experiencing technical difficulties, the sophomores acted out a parody of TV. After an eternity of skits, such as Studs, a televangelist, a jock itch commercial, a coffee commercial, and numerous conclusions to a Smurf's episode, the whole school cheered as they finally finished.

The juniors earned second place for the second year in a row with a creative time travel skit. They visited the 1920's as well as various stages in the life of Elvis.

Then, for the amazing climax of the spectacle, the seniors took the stage and performed Peter Pan. Their grand pirate ship, the S.S. '93, combined with duel and a beautiful rendition of "I Won't Grow Up," carried the senior class to victory: 1st place in The Halloween Challenge.
Thanksgiving Assembly
Football finished off their most successful season in recent years. Led by MVP quarterback John Teffeau, and strong running by John Marshall and Andy Overman, the Varsity team compiled a 4-3-1 record, finishing one game above .500, secured by a final game tie against Newark Academy. John Teffeau, John Marshall, Andrew Overman, Griff Braddock, and Ian Halpern were all named to the Prep “B” all-star team. This was the most successful record by a PDS football team in over a decade.

Led by senior captains Dennis DeCore and Dave Mason, Boys' Varsity Soccer played a disappointing season. An experienced team that included eleven seniors, the team finished with an 11-7 record, and managed to advance to the State Prep "B" Championship game, where they were defeated by Gill St. Bernards'. Senior MVP Dave Mason, Dennis DeCore, Scott Willard, Laate Olukoton, Brian Bilello, Alex Harris, and Dan Ragsdale were all named to various state All-Star Teams, while Jason Powell and Erik Treilman received Honorable Mention for their efforts.

"He who cometh without a wheelbarrow, cometh not at all."
JV: First Row (left to right): Peter Suomi, Parker Gibson, Weston Willard, Nathan Egan, Jason Kane, Jeff Goldenson. Second Row: Amir Emami, Ted Slaughter, Steve Amendo, Dave Culang, Jon Graziano, Justin (Kid Strut) Graham, Matt Zablocki. Third Row: Coach Schomburg, Alby Toto, Ian Wijaya, Mike DeSenna, Mike Wilde, Alexander Vincent, Matt Zarzecki, Derrick Shearer, Justin Doyle, Andrew Townsend, Coach Laughlin.
Field Hockey finished off an outstanding season, culminating in an exciting victory in the Prep "A" final to take the State Championship. Led by MVP seniors Anne Marie Bernhard, Emily Miller, Courtney Eckardt, Emily Hoover, Jesse Eaton, Britte Lynam, and Darcey Carlson, the Varsity team also compiled a strong regular season record. Anne Marie Bernhard led the team in points, but the team also benefited from a gutsy effort by Britte Lynam, playing the latter part of the season despite an injury.
HOCKEY

GIRLS

The Varsity Tennis team had a rough season, finishing the year with just three wins in twelve matches. This can be partially attributed to the tough schedule they played and the team's youth. They had only one senior and two juniors on the squad. The season was highlighted by Kathy Knapp and MVP Alison Lieberman, who reached the finals of the State Prep “B” tournament in second and third singles, respectively, and won silver medals.
Girls' Soccer had a good season, finishing off with a record of 12-4. Led by senior captains Jen Baronian and Jodi Zagorin, MVP Lindsey Sternberg, and Area scoring leader Dana DeCore, the soccer team advanced to the finals of the Prep "B" tournament, before falling to Morristown-Beard. Team members Sara Hart and Molly Dwyer (honorable mention) joined Dana DeCore and Lindsey Sternberg on the Prep "B" all-star team.
SOCCER
The move to a new course at Princeton Battlefield did not change Cross-Country's winning trend as they finished a very successful season. Led by MVP John Ackerman, whose season included winning individual medalist honors in the State Prep "B" Championships, and setting a course record at Princeton Battlefield, the team won both the State Prep "B" and Prep Conference championships. They also finished with a solid match record.
COUNTRY
Although the two seniors Joe Goldberg and MVP Tony Shafto led the team, the backbone of the squash team were juniors Ian Buck, Mike Brown, Jeff Wasserman, Tyler Shaw, and Matt Perkins. Elissa Doyle had the distinction of being the only female player on the team. The team faced extremely tough competition and thus finished with a less than exemplary record, but showed much improvement and hard work over the course of the season. Since they are graduating only two starters and have many up and coming players, the team looks to next year for a more successful season.
Girls Ice Hockey

The girls' hockey team finished off the season with a record of 8-8-1. The team was led by a strong core of juniors and seniors that made up the first two lines. Standouts included MVP co-captain Jen Baronian, who was a key to the offense, and whose season included an amazing four hat tricks, as well as Courtney Eckardt, who was another offensive key. The defense was anchored by co-captain Jesse Eaton, as well as Britte Lynam, and others. Michele Boyd also turned in an impressive performance in goal. The girls' season included a trip to the highly competitive St. Mark's tournament in Boston over Christmas, as well as hosting the second annual PDS girls Ice Hockey tournament. The season was highlighted by a heart-breaking 3-2 loss to archrival Stuart in which the winning goal was scored with moments remaining, as well as an equally close victory over Lawrenceville. While the team will sorely miss the presence of talented seniors, the girls Hockey program seems to improve every year, and with many youngsters — including seventeen freshmen — waiting to step in, they should continue to improve and enjoy even more success.
Both the boys’ and girls’ fencing teams enjoyed successful seasons. Although both of their records came out at around .500, their competition was tough, and this was their most successful season under the helmship of head coach Paul Epply-Schmidt. Both teams finished second in the Prep “B” Championships, and both had many standouts. The boys team, a young team which included a number of sophomores in the lineup, improved on last year to finish ninth in the highly competitive Centrulla State Tournament. Senior Captain and MVP Dave Weeks led the team with a 19-1 record in the event in foil, for which he received an award for outstanding individual performance. Over the course of the season, Weeks lost just two bouts in dual match competition. Benjy Kuris also showed a strong performance in foil, while sophomore James To had a strong record in sabre. Weeks and Senior Jeb Grey took home state tournament victories in foil, and epee, respectively. The girls enjoyed an even more impressive record over the course of the season, led by senior captains Stacy Ho, and Nina Wolarsky, who received the MVP award. Two freshmen, Emily DeVilla, and Sarah Weeks, made outstanding contributions, compiling brilliant dual match records, and finishing first and second, respectively in the Freshman-Sophomore tournament. Despite the loss of a few seniors, the strong core of underclassmen in both the Varsity and JV ranks should insure even more successful seasons for both teams next year.
Varsity basketball's season must be considered one of its most successful in recent memory despite a disappointing loss in the Prep "B" semifinals. Under the leadership of a strong junior-senior contingent, the team compiled an 18-9 record that included the first basketball victories over Hun and Lawrenceville in over a decade, as well as close losses to perennial Prep "A" powerhouses Blair and Hill. The team lost only one Prep "B" game during the regular season, that a shocking, questionable one-point loss to Saddle River, which was later avenged with a twenty-five point blowout. The boys received strong efforts in the backcourt from co-captain, leading-scorer, and MVP Dan Ragsdale, junior point guard Akey Brown, and MIP Scott Willard, whose late season heroics often propelled the team. Co-captain Walter Hosey and junior Alex Harris put in fine efforts to fill the front court void left by the graduation of James Reed, with strong scoring and rebounding efforts. Although the season ended with a heart-breaking loss to Wardlaw-Hartridge in the semis, this season will be remembered as a successful one by all, and the team’s feats will set an example for many years to come. With two returning starters and many up and coming underclassmen, the team will look to repeat this year's success in seasons to come.
Basketball
Girls' basketball had an extremely successful year, closing with a record of sixteen and six. The team was led by senior captains Akai Whitt and Anne Marie Bernhard. They also received strong performances from leading scorer Dana DeCore, power forward Lindsay Sternberg, and MVP point guard Jen Mitchell. The season included an especially exciting victory over Prep “B” foe Kent Place, when Akai Whitt scored a layup with just three seconds remaining in the game. The team finished the season with a super run at the Prep “B” state title, before a tightly fought defeat at the hands of Gill St. Bernard’s in the finals. Although the team will greatly miss the five graduating seniors, including two starters, the leadership and talent of the underclassmen should continue to propel PDS girls’ basketball to new heights next year and for many to come.
Basketball
Girls Volleyball

Girls' Varsity Volleyball enjoyed the most successful season in the history of PDS volleyball, finishing with a record of 12-7. The team was led by junior captain Janina Washington, who received all Prep "B" honors. The season concluded with a great run at the Prep title, but ended with a disappointing and controversial loss in the finals. The winning team was later questioned as to whether one of their players was eligible for play, and thus the champion was never really decided. At any rate, the season was quite successful on many levels, and with the loss of no players and much improvement, the team should be even stronger next year.

Boys Varsity Hockey finished off a somewhat disappointing season with a record of eight wins and sixteen losses. This season was a rebuilding year for the team, as they were led by new head coach John Riley, and had only two seniors on the team. The team's offense was often quite potent, led by assistant captain Danny Knipe, and Dave Levine, both of whom were among the county's leaders in scoring, and both will return to the team next year, as will team captain and top defenseman Andy Overman. The season was highlighted by the team's advancing to the state Prep "B" Finals with a victory over Pingry before falling to a very Strong Peddie team. Closing out the season was the annual PDS tournament, which was won by St. Mary's school of Long Island, while PDS finished fourth, and Tom Capatosta received the "Sportsmanship" award. With the loss of only two seniors, more experience for a young defensive unit including sophomore starting goalie Wes Stephens, and many freshmen and sophomores coming up through the ranks, the team looks toward increased success next year and for many years to come.

Mr. Jacobson, affectionately called “Mr. J.”, has faithfully served in the Music Department since the fall of 1967. So many memories stand out for him over twenty-six years of teaching. He has directed the Madrigals at the University Chapel for the past twenty Christmas Eves. He has directed Thanksgiving Assemblies, Candlelight, and Spring Concerts. The music festival trips, where PDS has won its fair share of gold medals due to Mr. Jacobson’s skill, patience, and love, are a special treat that he has given to the students. But perhaps the best memories he has are the moments in rehearsal “when we first get it right.”

We dedicate this page to Mr. Jacobson as a testimonial of his outstanding work at Princeton Day School.

A SPECIAL NOTE FROM MRS. G:

We’ve been so close
For the last four years,
Your departure will
Bring me to tears.

Cotillion, Prom
Whatever the day,
“Come over — please;
Sure, you can stay!”

On weekends now
What will I do?
All things around
Will remind of you!

Lock the dogs,
Hide the cat,
“Go to bed Liz...
You’re too young for that!”

The littered yard,
The broken deck —
Where some of you
Nearly broke your neck.

The smiles, the love,
The fights, the rage.
And now we have to Turn the page.

The red-room
Notorious; legends tall.
Pigs-in-a-blanket,
You ate them all.

I’ll miss you more than words can say.
You’re moving on
To a brand new day.

Cheese on pita
Waffles too,
Guns-N-Roses
And U-2.

If things get rough
And you need an ear,
Please never forget
That I’ll always be here!

Dear Scott,

It has just come to my attention that you have graduated from high school. It’s hard to believe that we have been living together for the past eight years and I never knew where you went everyday. I mean, c’mon, we slept together virtually every night for the past eight years and you never told me. I just figured you were gone so long each day because it took you longer than me to go to the bathroom. Also, I figured you had to hunt for your food because I never saw Dad feed you. And neither one of us ever read a book, so I never considered that you might be at school.

Now I find out that you’re going to college. What have you got that I haven’t got? Well, yeah...that, but the vet never got you on the table!

So maybe I never hit .300 or won a championship, but I certainly scratch as much as you do, shave about as often and basically answer to the same commands. So, c’mon Scotty, take me with you. We’ve always been a great team. Besides, I don’t want to stay here alone listening to Mom and Dad brag about you all the time.

Your bro,
Simon

P.S.: As far as I can make out this is what Simon wanted to say, but I must admit my doggie translation skills are a bit rusty. Since you were just a kid you’ve never ceased to impress me...good looks, a great smile, superior athletic ability and brains to boot. From an “eeking booglet” to a full fledged high school grad, you’ve always been a great brother and good friend. Be happy, keep in touch and have wicked time in college. See you in Beantown!

Love,
Sis

Mom — Thanks for all the great times together: going shopping on Sundays, summers at LBI, weekends at Avon, learning how to cook (!), watching T.V. in bed (your little snuggle bunny), shopping and more shopping! You’re my best friend and I will miss the lunches and not having to do my laundry. Dad — Thanks for putting up with the phone bill and charges on the Visa (you never yelled), and thanks for being my best fan on the side line. I’ll always be your little girl and you’ll always be my favorite guy. — Thanks for being the best parents I could ever ask for. You always stood by me and I expect to see you at every game! I love you both the best! Hobie — Never forget all the times together: St. John, weekends at the shore, fights about mom, borrowing the car, who hung up on who?, boom, boom, the photo closet, golfing, phone calls before school, miss you Mixes, facial masks, back scratches, who’s turn to buy?, kiss, kiss, the phone bill, the Farmington Inn, cross dressing, quick like a bunny, watching T.V. in bed — just to name a few — Thanks for standing by me and loving me unconditionally. I know it’s been rough, but we never gave up.
I love you. XOXOXOXO
— Courtney

Love — Mom and Dad

Dear Bosef,
I’m going to miss you next year.
I won’t have a slave anymore, Cosef.
You won’t be able to see my clown pajamas and cow slippers!
Love,
Olivia

The Alumni Association
Welcomes
The Class of ’93!

It has to come to an end sometime, but I’ll always have great memories to look back on. Mom: I promise I won’t do anything you wouldn’t do once I get to college. Thanks for caring even when I didn’t want you to. Dad: Both Seton Hall and St. John’s were always terrible teams and always coming to all my games. Helene: Keep throwing those beers down. Don’t get too smart and make sure you marry someone that can go to his left. Simon: I’ll miss your whining when I’m away. Try not to piss Dad off as much while I’m gone. Family: Thanks for being cool. I love you.

PDS: Thanks for what will probably be the wildest ride of my life. From Mrs. Weigel to Dr. Aaronson, I’ll remember everything.

Scott Joshua Feldman
Chris,

I can’t believe how fast the past four years have gone. We’ve both been through so much. Your laughter and compassion have given me so much strength and hope. You always listened to my complicated “blah-blah.” You know I’ll always be there for you. I love you...

Peacefully,
Jen

Chrissy-Miche,

Family made us close,
But somehow we grew apart.
I watched you grow as a distant observer.
Absence makes the heart grow fonder, and I grew by knowing you.
Regrets are many, but time is on our side.

— Michael

Cooney Galah,

Where did the time go? It seems as if it were yesterday that I was in the delivery room with you — and now you’re a beautiful young lady heading out to find your place in the world.

I’ll always cherish the moments we had...and always regret I didn’t make the time for more. I’m so lucky to have you for my daughter. I love you dearly.

— Dad

“SO BIG!” You are the sunshine of my life...

Tris,

It’s been VERY hard for me to adjust to my little “Moon Shadow” turning into an independent, responsible young lady. Thank you for all the smiles, the sympathy, the understanding, the hugs and the rubs. Thank you for the one short year of fear and frustration. Thank you for being you. I am so proud of who you are, what you’ve done and where you are going.

The Luckiest Mom
Caroline: To my bloodsister, twin sister, fellow savage beastie #1, and mom. I love you! Remember all the good and bad times and laugh! Julie M.: We’ve gone through a lot together. I really do cherish our friendship and will continue to forever. Love ya! Mike: I’m really glad our friendship has grown over the years. I’m here if you ever need me. I love you! Chris: Always remember me as “girl of an age.” You always knew me so well. I can talk to you about anything. Thanks! I love you! Adrienne: I’m really glad that in these four years we’ve become great friends. I’m really going to miss you. Let’s keep in touch. Love ya! Jessie: Thanks for all the good times and all of the laughs you’ve given me. Never forget our friendship. Love ya! Jeff: Though we weren’t as close as before I’m glad we remained friends. Thanks for sharing the good times with me! Love ya! Julie Simon: I really love our friendship. Thanks for the laughs and the memories. Love ya Jules! Tom Cromer: We’ve had our ups and downs, but I’m glad we’ve remained friends. You’ve always meant a lot to me and I don’t want you to forget that. Please don’t forget me! Greg E.: I don’t know what I would’ve done without you this year. You’re a really good friend. See ya in P.R.! Joel and Roopa: Thanks for your friendship. I’m going to miss you both so much. Love ya! Kevin: I will always treasure what we had. Though we’ll be apart we’ll be together in spirit. Who knows, we just might meet in ten years at some celebrity party! I’ll love you always! Zaneta, Wendy, Adaishala, Jenny Weston, Jon, Townsend, Selena and Janina: See Ya!

JOE: My true friend…journeying to PDS together, keeping me safe during intoxication, to much “V” at GM’s freshman year — my parents love that video recorder. My love goes out to you. We will be friends forever.

Hey beautiful, like porsches?...Grrr” JENNIE: Jennifer, O’ Jenie — crushes on the hockey team (AB, SE), prom night at your house, waterbed! Coffee and artichoke dip. We are the true chainers. You are a good driver, my Canadian sweetheart. You deserve the best! JESSE! I bet we’ll be the first ones married. Trips to Fridays w/NG, JB for all of our b-days, St. Martin, nude women on the beach trying to sell us jewelry, our mutual understanding of jealousy w/JB and MS. “I know what you mean.” Throughout the gaps, I’ve always considered you as one of my best friends. Be good. NICKY: I created the name “Nicolette”. Tucked-in-shirts, bright lipstick — Freshman. My hippy stage, your scrub stage sophomores.

Ribbed shirts, purple/cowboy boots — Juniors. Nirvana, RHCP’s and GNR, “Sweet Sex” and EG, Raw and Pornochio. I hope we have ended understanding of jealousy w/JB and MS. “I know what you mean.” Throughout the gaps, I’ve always considered you as one of my best friends.

To the Seniors

Congratulations

Thanks for putting up with us and good luck in the future.

Class of '95
Congratulations Begonia!

We are so proud of you. You survived PDS with your own personality and ideas intact, which is a major accomplishment. Now the whole world is out there waiting for you. Go to it!! Just remember that we will always be there for you.

Love,
Dad and Mom
Meems and the Family

Best of luck to the
Class of 1993!

Darcey, Jean, Julie, Carolyn, Lourdes, Jess, Chris, Jeff and Mike...

We will miss you all. The house will never be the same!!

Dr. & Mrs. Scholz

Darcey — to my one true blond friend. I love you and hope we never lose touch. What else can I say? I think you know it all.

Neej — What do you expect from me, some mushy message? Ha! Well, I love you/Good night, Nerd Heard — I love you all, and I'll never forget you. Blue Dolphin. Cara — "You made this all go away." I know you loved me for more than just my car right? See ya later, hon.

Jess — Thanks for helping me survive P.G. and Glee Club. Some day the pretty boys of the world will be ours. Stay bitter! Carolyn — Soap buddy and snuggle bunny. Never lose your sarcasm — T.T.

Lourdes — Ooh, Space Possiles. I don't think you're as innocent as some people think. But you are as sweet. Julie Ann — We would have been great step-sisters. You're definitely evil. Stay safe and happy. Don't do anything I wouldn't do!

Mike — I'm sorry for anything and everything. I really did have a great time at the prom. You're not trash or stupid and you mean so much to me. Hey! — Blue sinks and sugar shakers. Thanks for always being there, for French and as a loyal friend. I'm sorry for certain things (well, you know).

Jess — To my fast "lunch" buddy. Too many men, too little time. Maybe in college. Nerd Heard — Thanks for being such a loyal friend. Have fun in college.

Brian — Cotillion, Model UN, Peer Group, Banza. Love ya. Keep in touch. Phil — I can't believe I've known you for six years. That's a lot of time and memories. I love you and I'll miss you.

Jed — I think we survived the two years of French together. Maybe one day one of us will call and we'll see each other out of school.

Spokesman — Good luck next year! It's been fun?! I'm sorry.

Stacy — From Dangerousmoose to Henry Foster and Spokesman. I think we made it! Keep in touch.

Peer Group 66 — It's been great. I hope you have a great three years in high school.

Dave — Thanks for putting up with me. You were a great co-leader and friend.

Mom and Dad — I love you so much. Thank you for dealing with me for as long as you have.

I'll miss you and I know we'll always stay as close as now.

— Age

Congratulations!
May all your dreams come true and your life be filled with happiness, health and success. We are so very proud of you.

All Our Love,

Mom, Dad, Jeanette

Mom and Dad: I hope you know how much I love you and how much I'm going to miss you next year. You've given me laughter, a shoulder to cry on, and more love and encouragement than I could possibly ask for. No matter how far away I am, I will always be your little girl and I will always love you. Alison: Or should I say Alejandra? Wayne Newton, pencil sharpening, stirfrying, fax captains, Grandma? call me dubious, Shag, lifeguard, Sean, B.B.'s pet dinosaur, exit ramps, Nathan naked, gas station/PHS, "knock on my door," gloes, Jim and Josh nights, fist fights. I think all we've been doing is laughing for the past five years. I love ya and I'm really going to miss you next year. Amanda: My nine year buddy — Barry, Forrestal dance, V. Ice, Clue, Sandersons, Red Raven Inn, Tiffany/SAT's, Bonzai, B-Day parties, "just a little bit further." M. Beard/Bible stations, having to go to the bathroom, red nail polish, dancing school. We've certainly had fun. I love ya and you better keep in touch. Stephen: Bingo, Lobster Pond, "Is that your wife?", car talks, basketball games in A.C., Thanksgiving in N.Y., Closets, F. Hills movie theater, car rides and dinners w/Mom and Dad, submarine hands in history movies, CME's beach house, babysitting me. Princeton Review/Slider. You're one of the best friends I've ever had. I'll never forget you. Emily H: Fizz/Skirt Shopping, computer buddies, Bev and Amy, potato puff $3 birthday presents, St. Thomas, scuba diving and Josh and Jason and Bob, "Anyone have a plastic cup?", I'll miss you guys next year. Always remember your beautiful soccer manager. I'll miss you guys next year.

Love ya all!
Brian

Marina: swings, park, Russia, little kid class, pizza, flowers, Wonderful Tonight, good, Amish's, Jodi, OK, OK, Sammy, sophomore year, Depeche Mode, Lucky.
Dick: Drift Away, Fantasia, Misery, McDonald's, Adrienne: Collision, secrets, Model UN, getting to know you.

Love ya all!
Brian
Dear Amanda,

The past seventeen years have been a wonderful gift.

From the day you were born, you have brought music and joy into my life with your incredible energy and talent.

I am very proud to be your mother.

I love you,
Mom

Dear Carolyn (Squirty/Lindylewis),

As you end one era in your life and begin anew...DON'T FORGET TO EAT YOUR VEGETABLES OR YOU'LL GET SCURVY!!

CONGRATULATIONS!!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Amanda!

It's been a long struggle, but you did it. We are very proud of you.

Next year the South shall rise again!

All our love,
Dad and Katie

Congratulations to the Class of '93!

Senior Year, 1993
Dear Dr. Aronson:

Please excuse Scott for being late this morning ...

We request that you change your policy regarding those notes, so that they are required only on those rare occasions when a student is on time. It would cut down a whole bunch on the writing we parents have to do, and many of us are completely out of late excuses. We do, however, have some great ones lined up to explain promptness, should it ever occur!

Sincerely,
Judy & Jeff Feldman

To all our teachers and coaches we say thank you. To Mrs. Bedesem and Ms. Thomas — you are the best and we love you.

Dear Seniors,

Congratulations and Best Wishes for the Future!!

The Freshmen
Walter,
We are proud of you.
Love,
Uncle Alan & Aunt Janice

Walter,
May God continue to watch over you.
Love,
Pop-Pop

Dear Walter,
You have achieved many accomplishments, that in my life I must meet, I would never once think of stripping your accomplishments from you for my own benefit. You are a very amazing man with a mind of your own. You have made it through many hard times. So many things you did on your own shows me what a leader you are. I do not only love and admire you for your academic and leadership qualities, but for all the times you spent with me and always believed that I could do anything I put my mind to. You were always on my side and there for me when I needed help with homework or just simply to read one of my poems. No matter how I felt, you were the one I could always count on to understand and make me laugh. You are truly my hero as well as the man I look up to. I wish you the best of luck with your future and know I will be proud of you no matter where you go or what you do. I know that this is only the beginning of your success. Whenever you may have doubts, remember that I will always be in your corner cheering you on.
With lots of love,
Your only sister,
Devon LaShon Hosey

Walter,
We wish you success only grandson.
Love,
Grandmom and Pop-Pop

Walter,
Good luck and God Bless.
Love,
Uncle Mitchell

Dear Son,
We are so proud of you for being such an independent person. You are your own greatest asset. There is nothing you cannot do.
I hope you always make your decision on the basis of how you feel and on what you know is right regardless of what your peers or other people think. Your achievements are not determined by your ability alone, but by the desire you possess to reach them.

There are no worlds outside of those you create for yourself, and the only boundaries are those you establish and choose to live within.

I hope you always remember that you don’t need to join the crowd in order to be happy.
Never be afraid to defend your decisions regardless. No one can possibly know what is best for you other than yourself.

These qualities will lead you to happiness and success in whatever you do.

And if you ever feel as if you’re losing control, know that we are here to listen and that we believe in you son.

Love,
Mom and Dad
Congratulations to 1992 girls Field Hockey Prep A Champions. Good Luck senior captains: Jesse, Britte, Courtney, Darecy, AnneMarie, Emily H., Emily M.

Akai: Yo girlfriend! (or is it Rowa Parks?), England, Shanbilles, lemons, the Asylum, cider fights, Mandella's autograph (I saw him first I tell you), and how "bout this stress — "HATED IT." I won't audition for ILC without you checker head. Amanda: I'll miss the oodles of fun we've had. I have lots 2 thank U for: rides home, hand-me-downs, my hepatitis shots...J.K. Don't let the Mason Dixon come between us next year, and don't forget your necklace. See ya in St. John, Wayne. — Garth. Alison: Has a day gone by when we did not find something or someone to laugh at? Never change, my fine friend. If you find someone like me next year, I'm sure I'll hear you laughing all the way from college. Be sure to write. I wanna see if our humor has the same effect on paper. Ali: I know you don't like comments on your driving, so I'm apologizing in advance for the next time you drive me into cornfield or a telephone pole or whatever readblock pops up next. Trips R fun with U though. (U2, concert, beach Whistler). Will miss. Court: You are quite an artist; you'd make one hell of a nun. Great look @ B.C. Emily: SC & C chops, Krauser runs, Abel Bagel, Snapples, that love trilogy of yours. "pure survival." R U my chauffeur or what (thank)? No grad gifts, okay? Deal. Just think, this time next year I could B a certified fly girl — all because of your faith in my talent. Jen: Dazzling! Where ya been all my life? We'll do coffee in Canada...or Europe? Don't U dare forget 2 keep in touch (and visit U.S.); I'll miss U tons, you pretty thing, you. AMB: Good luck with physical therapy. I'm sure you'll go far. Emily M.: England; Xmas parties; sports injuries; take care of yourself finally! Rye life. John: I'll never understand how U always had such good luck: U sure don't need it with your talent. Gimme a call next year, if U can spare the time — like, say, 3 days? I'll miss the deep long talks. Steve: My math buddy! you've always been nice and understanding & funny with me, so that's how I'll always think of U. Take care. Stevie. Scott: My PG co, thanx 4 not letting me give up during this stressful school year from hell. I'll call U the next time I need a pep talk. Doug, Dave, Sunnie, Arti: This place should have more people like you in it. You're always good at "setting the tone." PG #10: Only good times; remember, ya all had lots to do with that. I learned a lot from U. Class of '95 — The most special people I know. I'm sure I'll never find as big a group of people of warm-hearted, open minded, pleasant individuals like yourselves, good luck and take care. I will miss you. — Julikins. Dad: You are truly the coolest dad in the world (your corny jokes nonwithstanding), splitting my time between you and mom has been hellish, but the times we've spent have been amazing, London, Captiva, LBI, etc. you have been there through everything and always had the courage in me that I couldn't (or wouldn't) find, thank you daddy for loving me and pushing me to do and be my best, I truly love you. — your little angel... Judy: My second mom (the real one?), you have put up with almost as much as mom, but you've remained sane, thank you for making me laugh until my eyeballs popped out and supported my every move. I love you Yudes!...Ernie G.: Who else could have put up with four years of my crap and loved it? You were always there and I don't know how to thank you enough. I love you Erni! Mrs. Varga: From tarot cards to deep talks you've been there and cheered me up, you've me every guy I like, you've given me life advice: I never could have made it without you...Harvey: my man, not recognizing my butt, you and your "muscles", math help in Wh grade, the Christmas we never had (1993 — your place, my tree), the year you almost left me...you are very strong for having put up with my "hellish" life and my myriad problems for four years. I love you so much Harv. THANK YOU...HITOPS: I am so glad I met you guys, thank you for all the crazy and amazing times, we will make a difference!...Link Staff: You guys are the best and the worst, why was I the only girl on the staff? Anyway, remember the late nights and early afternoons, who pays this time?, being in debt, layout hell, my enduring "Oops!"s; please remember the good times because I will, we really did it! I LOVE YOU ALL. (Even you Q) Amanda: Sweetie you are too much. Darcy's gymnastics party, Long Beach Island, Easter Sunday, D.D. G.B. S.S...Alison: You've dealt with all my men problems, thank you for being such a sweetheart...Lourdes: me and minorities, us and the younger guys, J.M. is so hot, I love being your friend, don't you ever change...Walt: You broke new ground and who better than you, you're stylin' baby, thanks for the cussing and the heated discussions, you and me will be famous someday...Steph: science classes and hangin' around, never leave me hangin', keep in touch you stylin' stud. Joe: HITOPS and jonesin' for a butt, you are truly a good guy (and pretty stylish also), I'm so glad we got to do our magazine, thank you for everything, don't lose touch...Kevin: Hey cutie! Thank you for helping me with all my stupid problems and listening, your hugs are great, hang in there with life and love, they will both hit you when you least expect it, see if you can manage the next two years without me...Carolyn: my soulmate, my smoking buddy, my bitching partner, my Maith, you all. — Love Julie

DEAR JENNIE,
YOU'VE BROUGHT US A LIFETIME OF JOY AND LAUGHTER.

CONGRATULATIONS,
YOUR LOVING FAMILY
Julie,

We love you for all that you are and all that you will become. You start and end each day with wonder. Whatever the future holds, we know that you will make it better by your presence. You are our “Keren”, our ray of light.

Mom and Dad

Congratulations on your achievements from the whole family:

Congratulations to the Class of 1993
from Marylu Simon and John Simon

Mom: What words can express the gratitude I feel for you and the love and respect? (This is awfully mushy) For seventeen years you have helped, encouraged, and supported me, we’ve giggled and bawled and moved three times, if I end up like you mommy, I will be truly honored. I love Spanish, Science helper, thank you for listening and caring and making me laugh all too much and just enough, get your license girl, I love you...Age: From fifth grade until twelfth, smoking, English, your car, ice cream pints, Halloween, we bitch so well, college is it baby, live it up!...Alisa: I can’t believe we’ve waited this long to be the bestest of friends, you are my one and only baby, thank you for listening to so much crap and for trusting me with your crazy life, I love Zo’é and your pink house, weightlifting and D.D. watching, legups, Fred, the mutual phony friend, divorced parents, our cars, your Abel Bagel mix (amazing), I love you Lis, CMU will be truly awesome...Christopher Andrew: There is so much love between us, smoking everywhere, hating “her”, our fake blonde hair, the face mask, amazing poetry, great phone talks, Halloween at Age’s, college hell, you are the love of my life and I can’t thank you enough for loving me for who I am, we will go far...To everyone who said I talked too much, asked too much, or just plain was myself too much: “Some people are afraid to say what they want, that’s why they don’t get what they want...”
Emmie: I’ll miss my little buddy. Never forget DBBJ! I love you. Stephen: You’ve been my brother, my best friend & one hell of a neighbor! Be good next year...But since I know you won’t, I’ll always be here to listen. I love you! Mmmmmm...Ali: 9 years is a long time!! Barry and I will see you at Mo. Beard! Love ya! Alison: I’ll never look at a chocolate cookie without seeing your face! Anytime you want to go fishing...give me a call! Love you! Grifford: You’ve made my life hell...Thanks! You’re not such a bad prom date! I’ll miss you. Lite: St. John (everytime). Think of me when you hear Cry to Me & Wipeout! Take care Hotlips! B-Bones: You’ll always have a shelf at my house! Make sure you tell your folks I’m not such a bad influence! I’ll miss you! JP: I hope you’re nipples heal! Thanks for some great arguments. John: when you learn to speak English, give me call! thaks for some memorable evenings! Be good! Jules: Let’s go next door and call Pat! You’re advice will never be forgotten. Thank you! Kaiser: So how many pairs of shoes do you have?? You made four years of math very entertaining! Annie: I know you’ll never forget my B-day! Anytime you want me to hook you up...let me know! Philip: Friends since birth...scary thought! I wonder if Kay & Marcy are still plotting our wedding? I love you (big brother)! Darce: 15 yrs. & still friends! You can eat big bird cake off my floor anytime! Walter: I’ll always be sorry you don’t like white women! Cy: My little nursery school buddy! Take care of the “love shack”!! Joe: Socho king! Thanks for the talks (and the fun)! Jenny: Am. History talks were insane! thaks for always having a shoulder & an ear for me! Jesse: We must do Vail again! Thaks for corrupting me! Chrissy & Nicki: Can I grab a but?? Have a blast at school! I love you (small brother)! Katharine: Remember me when you’re famous!! JT: the perfect gentleman! Don’t break too many hearts! Rags: Hey kermit...do you have any jumper cables I can borrow? Big Hug!! Masie: Don’t ever doubt what a great guy you are! Scott F.: Too much to (so I won’t). Take care! Matt S.: You’re the most fantastic, handsome, black man I know! Courtney: It’s been rough, but we’ve had some good times, Take Care. Will: The architecture god!! See you down south! Matty D.: You have never failed to make me laugh! Scotty M.: French sucks! You drive like a maniac!! Anupa, Skippy, Danny, Andrew: Thax for everything I’ll miss you guys! Hoovers: You’ve been my pseudo mom & dad for so long...I’m gonna miss you. Thax for all the advice, harassment & love!! Chad: Keep fighting little brother! I love you! Daddy: I don’t know where to start thanking you. you’ve put up with a lot (of course so have I — HA HA). From endless D. Stretch jokes to Redneck Mother to unconditional love & support! I miss you! all my love. The end of an era, huh?!! Through all the hell I’ve given you...we sure have managed to laugh a lot. I hope you know that I love you more than anything and I’ll always be your little girl & your best friend. I’ll miss you! Class of ‘93: Well, we’ve gotten the shaft so many times I didn’t actually think we’d graduate! but here we are (what a joke)! From rafting (every time) to “Cancun” to endless sex talks in the lounge! you guys are the best & I couldn’t thank you for all the memories you’ve given me. Anytime y’all are in St. John...look me up! Remember, stay cook, party hard & keep your pants on!! see ya!

To John,

The baby of the family, why is it we all have to look up? Congratulations, you’ve made it and you have every reason to be proud. We certainly are. It’s been a pleasure watching you grow and we look forward to sharing many more “victories” with you. Always remember how very much we all love you! Go for it!

Mom & Dad, Krista, Kim & Chris

Congratulations to the Class of 1993!
We wish you success and happiness.
To: MICHELLE
I sit on the sand as the colors burst
And dawn brings excitement to the day,
I stroll by the sea and the beaten rocks
While hermit crabs and shrimp run away.
I run with the wind to unknown worlds
And follow them where they blow
Till I land on the hill of life and light
Where the stars as a chorus can be known.

What a WONDERFUL first STEP, Michi!
Here's a 'toast' to LIFE!
All our love, a BIG hug,
Mum and Dad

Darcey: Spaz sis! Christian Slater marathons, my bedroom window. Vejo, Tostito thing, Casa Lupita-classic!, X-mas break and care packages, all the memories, I love you forever. BFF.
Jodi: Guy convos, "I just need to find one," you deserve better! Alex, Coitillion night, screwdrivers...I'll miss you! Jen B.: Winburger's, soccer — ugh! All those great hockey moments! Booting on Cy's lawn, that "testing" ordeal, "Wow, buzz," there's so much! Good luck! Wendy: The highlights? Driveway bathroom accidents, New Year's Eve, Cape May, Cruising Elmo?!! Over the miles and years you can count on me to be there for you. BFF. Mike: Tom & New Year's Eve, resolutions, Mclosh, dancing, my house, all the problems, all the memories, I'll love you forever! Matt D.: 6 years! So much to say! Peter (not), darkroom chats, advice, thanx bro. Anytime you need to talk — you know the number. I'll miss you tons! Amanda: You're gonna be famous! Emil: god, all the car convos and advice, thanx for being my shrink! Britte: "I need a magic marker." You always made me laugh — thanx! Jesse: I hope you never change because you're the sweetest person I know! What will I do without you to hug? Court: My PFC partner in crime, good luck! Dear Michi,
We've had so many good times together! Just because you're going away to Ithaca, doesn't mean we'll stop seeing each other. Right?! Remember, you'll always have an ear at home.
I love you! Tons of love,
Roby

HOW MANY, HOW MUCH

How many slams in an old screen door?
  Depends on how loud you shut it.
How many slices in a bread?
  Depends on how thin you cut it.
How much good inside a day?
  Depends on how good you live 'em
How much love inside a friend?
  Depends on how much you give 'em
Best Wishes to Mrs. Whalen from:

All right! Enough. Get to work, you.

— Deirdre

I really think this would look better...

— Greg

It is amazing how nice people are to you when they know you are going away.
