THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO:

MRS. KRAUS AND MRS. OSANDER

Each spring, juniors at PDS begin a journey that will eventually end with their acceptance into college. From this point on, Mrs. Kathy Kraus and Mrs. Pat Osander devote all of their time and energy to helping the soon-to-be seniors find a college that is a "match". They know each senior personally and have an intelligent and helpful answer for every possible question. After they have once again successfully helped that year's senior class, they begin the whole process again without respite. Despite their unbelievably hectic schedules, Mrs. Osander and Mrs. Kraus always make time for each and every student. From the smallest questions about SAT deadlines to pivotal questions about applications, they are always available and willing to help in any way that they can. Between what transpires in these meetings, and the end result, could be the most excruciating and arduous task if it were not for the dedication of two compassionate and knowledgeable individuals.

We the class of 1999, would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Kathy Kraus and Mrs. Pat Osander because of their overwhelming support and devotion. Thank you Mrs. Osander and Mrs. Kraus for all of your help! We cannot sufficiently express our gratitude for all of the work you do for us.

With much appreciation,
The Class of 1999

The word "CONTENTS" is centered at the top in a large, black, serif font. It is surrounded by several light gray paw prints of varying sizes. Below the title, there are two large, light gray swirls that frame the table of contents.

Head of School

Dear Class of 1999,

As I write this in early November, I'm getting ready to have a group of you join me at my home for dinner. I look forward to hearing about your views of your school and how you hope to find it when you return to celebrate your 5th reunion.

Two nights ago many of you thrilled us with your fabulous production of "The Matchmaker". A day later we cheered loudly as your Varsity Field Hockey team ended their season undefeated, including being crowned the Mercer County Champions.

Our beautiful autumn has been defined by your enthusiasm and energy. Your teachers applaud your intellectual interests, your leadership, your hard work and incredible ability to balance many activities and commitments.

We look forward to the rest of this year, confident that your leadership will bring us up through the darker days of winter. The days will fly and soon we will be under that beautiful blue and white tent. You will be prepared to leave us and move on. We hope you journey far and sample much. Ask much of yourselves and give generously to others. Come back often to tell us of your adventures. We will miss you and remember you fondly.

Mrs. Lohr

MR. QUIGLEY

A lot has happened over the past four years. Individually, we have gone through many changes, and collectively we have experienced much. We went from being JV players to becoming Varsity captains, from being in the chorus to having lead roles in the musicals, and from being the scared new members of the Upper School to being the presidents and heads of most clubs. Through it all, Mr. Quigley, you were there.

Perhaps some of our most memorable moments with you are the times we shared during Halloween Challenge. From The Killer Barney, to Thiller, to Where the Wild Things Are, and to Senior Swing, we could not have done it without you. Your pep talks during these times were inspirational. More important than teaching us how to put together a great show, you showed us how to work together as a team, and it was those experiences that brought us together.

In your special way, you managed to communicate with each of us almost every week with a personal note on the note rack. We would always know if the note was going to be positive or negative by the message built into your signature "Q"; A smiley face in the "Q" meant good news, and a frowning face in the "Q" meant something was not quite right. Surely, we will all miss getting those notes, Mr. Quigley.

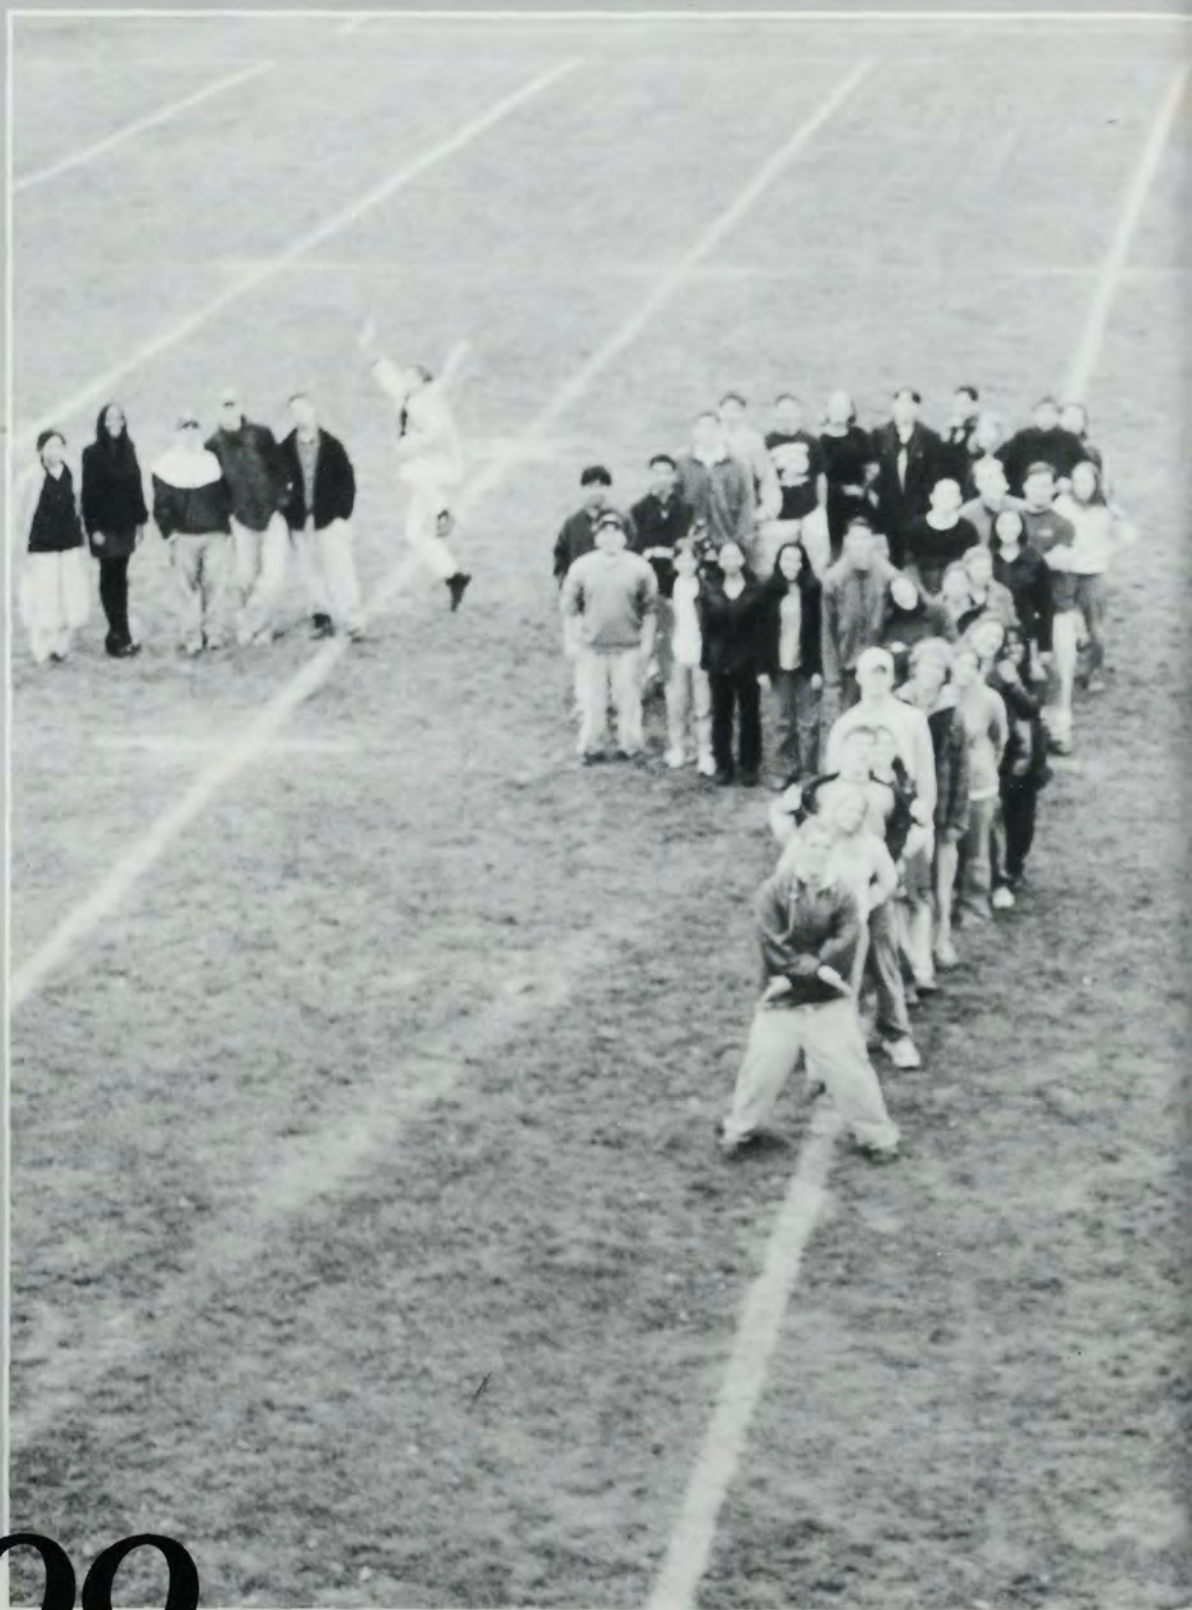

Your overwhelming dedication to our grade has been more than we could have asked for. Many of us had a chance to get to know you on a different level when you worked so hard to help us make the Junior Prom successful. But beyond your desire to help our grade be the best it could be, your concern for us as individuals was amazing. You wanted each of us to succeed both in and out of the classroom, and you seemed to understand the individual strengths that make us each so unique. Whether it was at an athletic event, the play, musical, or the school dances, you were always there supporting us.

Over the past four years, you have always played an active role in our lives, and for this we will be forever grateful. You have taught us that to journey successfully we must take risks. Whether or not we fail is irrelevant; the risks that we have the courage to take will make us better people. Well, you have seen us fail and you have seen us succeed. Thank you Mr. Quigley for joining each of us on this four year journey. We will never forget you.

With much gratitude and love,

The Class of 1999

I bleed. - BLACK FRANCIS

You know he loves you.

BLACK FRANCIS

THE UNEXAMINED LIFE IS NOT WORTH LIVING - SOCRATES

Andrew Doss

I celebrate myself, and sing myself,
And what I assume you shall assume For every atom belonging to me as good belongs to you.

The atmosphere is not a perfume,
It has not taste of the distillation,
It is odorless.
It is for my mouth forever,
I am in love with it,
I will go to the bank
by the wood and become undisguised and naked,
I am mad for it to be in contact with me.

My tongue, every atom of my blood, form'd from this soil, this air,
Born here of parents born here from parents the same, and their parents the same,
I, now [eighteen] years old in perfect health begin,
Hoping to cease not till death.

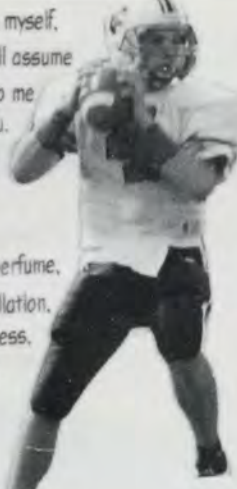

A few light kisses,
a few embraces,
a reaching around of arms,

The feeling of health,
the full-noon trill,
the song of me rising from bed
and meeting the sun.

I bequeath myself to the dirt
to grow from the grass I love,
If you want me again look for me
under your bootsoles.

Failing to fetch me at first keep encouraged,
Missing me one place search another,
I stop somewhere waiting for you.

From "Song of Myself"
Walt Whitman

I too am not a bit tamed, I too am untranslatable.
I sound my barbaric YAWP over the roofs of the world.

she paused midway to look back. standing there trembling in the water and not from cold for there was none, do not speak to her. do not call. when she reached him he held out his hand and she took it. she was so pale in the lake she seemed to be burning. like foxfire in a darkened wood that burned cold. like the moon that burned cold. her black hair floating on the water about her, falling and floating on the water. she put her other arm about his shoulder and looked toward the moon in the west. do not speak to her. do not call and then she turned her face up to him, sweeter for the larceny of time and flesh, sweeter for the betrayal. nesting cranes that stood singlefooted among the cane on the south shore had pulled their slender beaks from their wingpits to watch.
me quieres? she said. yes, he said. he said her name.

Jamie Miller: A waiter's worst nightmare. .

Ummm, okay, I'd like a bowl of the French Onion soup, but you know how you use two slices of cheese on top? Yeah, well, I'd only like one slice of cheese. I can tell the difference. Oh, and I'd like it flaming hot. I mean, I want to burn my tongue on the stuff, you know, so bad that I can't talk for the next week. If it is not hot, I will SEND IT BACK.

Okay, and then I'd like the cheese and onion omelette. . . they don't affect me. I don't like wet eggs either, so if you could make sure they are dry, yep, dry and burnt. Oh, I'd like that hot as well. Now I know you usually don't make hash browns at this time of night, but I'd really, reeeeeeeeeeeally appreciate it if someone could make some for me, because I hate french fries, yuck. And instead of the toast, I'd really like a plain bagel, toasted, and I'd like margarine and jelly on the side. Strawberry jelly. To drink, I'd just like a lot of water, hold the lemon. Maybe you should just bring a pitcher for me . . . thanks. One more thing, I'm in a bit of a rush so if you could get that to me as quickly as possible. . . .

"Thaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaank

-that it takes years to build trust and only seconds to destroy it.

-that you shouldn't compare yourself to the best others can do, but to the best you can.

-that you should always leave loved ones with loving words, it may be the last time you see them.

-that my best friend and I can do anything or nothing and have the best time.

-that sometimes the people you expect to kick you when you are down will be the ones to help you back up.

-that when you think you have nothing more to give, when a friend cries out, you will find the strength to help.

Buried deep in the heart of every human is a savage, wanton passion for life. To love and to be loved, to go beyond survival and to embrace life to the fullest--these are the primal drives of the heart that allow us to continue, even in the face of all opposition. These feelings have become suppressed in so many humans that the passion for life and the loving instinct has become almost extinct. The Ancestors called it the Force behind Divine creation. Today's pilgrims on life's road can choose to give it another name, LOVE.

The Starfish

As the old man walked the beach at dawn, he noticed a young man ahead of him picking up starfish and flinging them into the sea. Finally catching up with the youth, he asked him why he was doing this. The answer was that the stranded starfish would die if left until the morning sun. "But the beach goes on for miles and there are millions of starfish," countered the old man. "How can your effort make any difference?" The young man looked at the starfish in his hand and then threw it to safety in the waves. "It makes a difference to this one." He said. -Anonymous

Reflections on Sin, Pain, Hope,
and the True Way

<<The Ephesians ought to hang themselves-- every adultt
amongst them
-- and leave their city to adoloscents.>>

_Heraclitan Aphorisms

“Every new beginning comes from some other beginning’s end.”

--Semisonic

“Sweet illusions of the heart build palaces out of empty air, and when these palaces
fall apart, we cry for what was never there.”

--God Street Wine

“Death still scares the living s*** out of me but when I go, I will go kicking and screaming.”

--Jimmy Buffet

Mark Treilman

Dave Limm

"We are, I am, you are by cowardice or courage the one who can find our way back to this scene carrying a knife, a camera a book of myths in which our names do not appear."

--Adrienne Rich

"Homer: Wow, Someone's packing light.

Lisa: Maybe you're getting stronger.

Homer: Well, I have been eating more."

-- Chewy

Rajiv Jenveja

"The Answer to the Great Question.... Of Life, the Universe and Everything...is...Forty-two...."

--Douglas Adams

"The strong must protect the sweet."

--Homer Simpson

"You know," said Arthur, "it's at times like this, when I'm trapped in a Vogon airlock with a man from Betelgeuse, and about to die from asphyxiation in deep space that I really wish I'd listened to what my mother told me when I was young."

"I don't know, I didn't listen."

--Douglas Adams

"If we don't succeed, we run the risk of failure."

-- Dan Quayle

"You got to be very careful if you don't know where you're going, because you might not get there."

--Yogi Berra

Pam Rappaport

"Comes a time when the blind man takes your hand and says, 'Don't you see?'"

- Grateful Dead

"You see, people tell us from the time we are born that the world is such and such and so and so, and naturally we have no choice but to see the world the way people have been telling us it is."

-Don Juan to Carlos Castaneda

UPPER SCHOOL

How many slams in an old screen door?
Depends how loud you shout it.
How many slices in a bread?
Depends on how thin you cut it.
How much good inside a day?
Depends how good you live'em.
How much love inside a friend?
Depends on how much you give'em.

Four years ago,
we barely knew each other's names
As strangers we came together, for the love of the game.
Four years down the road,
we have to say goodbye to the Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors, with a tear in our eye.
Together we won,
no matter what the score said.
We won as a team
we stuck together till the end.
Out to prove ourselves to the world,
blue and white, Panther Pride.
We grew as a team,
we relied on each other
We were taught a life lesson, how to learn from one another.
And as fast as it came,
our last season now ends.
Not goodbye to our teams,
BUT GOODBYE TO OUR FRIENDS!

Girls Soccer

After a smashing first round victory in the Prep A tournament, the girls soccer team ran into a tough opponent in the Semi-finals. After the Panthers had defeated Peddie handily at homecoming 3-1, the Falcons were out to avenge this regular season loss in tournament action. Both teams collided in a match deciding which team would go on to play for the championship.

After a slow start, which saw Peddie jump out to a 2-0 lead, the Falcons took the game 2-1. Although they lost Panthers ham-mered a question-able Newark the first round. With-came out strong and victory. round match was that game was a bit over-time loss to attended game, the scorer, junior Keri injury. The next day, Brandee Adams ring knee injury. Thomas had to shuffle the lineup quite a bit, moving freshman Laura Gosnell into the back to tend the net.

Though the team came up just short of their goal to reaching the prep finals again, the young team completed an impressive season. Playing with injuries all year long, the team had a great season and is looking to next year with much enthusiasm.

Boys Football

The 1998 Boys football team, led by head coach Nick Metrokatsas, had a wonderful season. Even though they held the same record as last year, the team, as Captain Andrew Doss states: "worked very well as a unit... we just had fun."

This new attitude was evident in such games as the one against Hartridge, where although last year they were beaten 52-6, this year they lost by just two points. This was definatley a highlight of the season, as were the locker-room antics of Joey Gallo. The team is sure to be strong next year, when strong players such as John Dorazio, and Trevor Lamb return as seniors to the field.

Ice Hockey

After completing the best season on record in 1997-1998, the boys ice hockey team had high expectations for 1999. By winning the first 8 games, the Panthers proved again that they would be a dominant force in the state. Although they fell in a tough game to Lawrenceville, the team rebounded and strung together a number of wins. Led by the strong defensive play of junior Mark Schaub and JD Schaub, the Panthers met up against Seton Hall Prep, the number one team in the state, in mid-February. The win was a nice addition to the Prep A Championship that the team had already won against Pingry a week earlier. The team successfully improved on their season and made a name for themselves as the best team in the state.

Special thanks: To the many seniors that found the time to help us when we so desperately needed your help. It was wonderful to have an endless list of people to call for help, even on weekends. To Mrs. H's photojournalism class for the many pictures. To all of the people in each grade that took candid pictures for us. To Mrs. Miller for opening the Middle School Library for us on a weekend. To Matt Bockol for fixing our many computer problems. And finally to Ms. Gerlock for all of her help throughout this very long process.

DEAR MJSHJ,

You have reached the pinnacle of your thirteen-year journey at PDS.
But as E.B. White once wrote,
"There is more to a journey than the mere fact of arrival."
We are so proud of the person you have become and all you have accomplished along the way! You are a passionate, sensitive, and caring individual and we love and admire you!

CONGRATULATIONS and
ALL OUR LOVE,
MOM, DAD, AND CARLY

Congratulations to the Class of 1999

 The Class of 1999

It has been wonderful sharing your dreams and watching you grow. Your hard work, dedication and achievements have given us many proud moments.

You've worked so hard, always pushing yourself to do your best whether it was running in your first 10 Km race or shooting that three you always gave it your all and now your ready to go out there and show 'em what you got. People will ask, "Are you good enough? Are you smart enough?" But don't worry. Let your moves do the talking. Be patient. Sooner or later you'll get that shot. When you do, take a deep breath . . . aim . . . and keep your eye on your goal.

Always strive to do your best and your dreams will come true. In the game of life, it's the rebounds that make the difference. Never give up. As long as you have faith in yourself, all things are possible.

Good luck in all future endeavors. Our love will always be there for you. Remember, "We are family."

Love always,
 Dad, Mom, Stephen, and Amy

JOANNA

JOEY,

Ideal relationships grow from intense communication, out-of-control-laughter, willingness to take risks together, to trust, and to learn from each other. That defines us.

You will always be my Disney partner, my dinner-and-a-movie date, and the person who can read how someone feels better than anyone I know...because you take the time to care. Your heart is the perfect partner to your talent and insight. You will go far, and I'll be right with you, wherever you go, and whenever you need someone to listen. I love you more than you can know. Hold on to your special dreams. Love, Mom

Joanna, sometimes I still see you as a seven year old, but in reality you are the most intelligent, compassionate, and dynamic person I know. I am so lucky to have you as a sister. We are able to understand each other in a way that no one else can--and that will never change. No matter how far apart we are, I will always be there for you. Just know that nothing will ever come between us. I love you very much, Jo. Missy

Joanna, your passion for life and adventure's beauty, the caring and love you bring to your world, the intensity of your insight and knowing, the joy that you take from each moment...these define you, and through the mirror image of our spirits, bond us for all time.

Know that with each ray of the sun's warmth, upon each flake of snow, on earth wind's cool embrace, and through the promise beyond each horizon, I am there with you. Our spirits will journey together, through and beyond time. Dad

Go out and show the world what you've "got!" You'll be a winner all the way. To know you Joey, is to love you. Congratulations and good luck. We love you. Grandmom and Grandpop

Beside the rocking-horse, for which She has grown too large,
 and the shirts that hang still on the line,
 she looks down..

How well she knows these hills-- green receding unaccountably to blue-- and the low meadow in the middle distance buff colored now, with one misshapen tree... what would she say if she cared to speak a word?

A word meaning childhood is woe in solitude, and the bliss of turning circles barefoot in the dusty drive
 after the supper dishes are done...

To my eldest and beloved daughter Adrena,

It seems like time has elapsed with unbelievable speed since the days of wet diapers, training wheels, spontaneous day trips and driving lessons. But you've made it, and in great form. I am more than happy and my heart swells with pride to see the strides that you have made through your formative to teen years. All of the hard work that you have put in and the good person that you have always tried to be is showing through now. Congratulations on your graduation from high school, and for your aspirations of college and beyond. I have no doubt that the path ahead of you holds all that you need and want in life and more. May you continue to be the beautiful young woman you are. You are blessed.
