Class of 2001 Dedicates this book to: Mrs. Michaels

"The more deeply, truly, personal your poem, the more likely it will be universal, touching a level in the psyche where we're all the same."

- Galway Kinnell

Mrs. Michaels,

We, the class of 2001, dedicate this yearbook to you, not because we frequented your office or because we ate the candy you had on your desk but because there is something more to be said for a poet. Your gentle enthusiasm, passion and love of teaching have resounded throughout our classrooms and hallways. Your vivid poetry has filled us, touching that part of psyche where we are all the same. You taught us not only what it is to find news in poems, but also what it is to filter the world through our senses. Because of you, students learn to open up their eyes to the color of the day, to feel the pulse of music on their skin and to taste the shape of words. When you teach us poetry, you teach us of truth and beauty; you share with us the 'distilled' life.

We admire you not only for your appreciation of poetry and your skill with words, but sharing yourself with us even in the most difficult of times. Not only were you able to press forward through your illness, but in the classroom as well. This dedication is an expression of appreciation for all the contributions you have made to the class of 2001 and the PDS community. For we know that touching was, still is, and always will be the true revolution.

Head Of School

JUDITH GLICKMAN

Dear Class of 2001,

With each day you show us all the meaning of the words friendship and independent spirit. You stake out a corner in the hallways around which to gather in preparation for an exam or project and you slide into booths in the Campus Center for spirited conversation. You walk with a lightness of being through the halls harboring an openness and friendliness which sets a tone your younger peers emulate.

What I have found most abundant is that you exemplify what we value most highly at PDS - students who have exceptional talents in unusual combinations, qualities which are neither exceptional nor unusual. It is apparent in the manner in which you show leadership in Community Council, the Spokesman and the yearbook. It is apparent in the way in which you cheer on your younger peers on the athletic field or excel in the performing arts. We are impressed with the way in which you relate to us, your adult teachers and administrators, in such a respectful and querying manner.

You are a class which will move forward enthusiastically in college and beyond to showcase your diverse talents and interests in choosing, in many cases, professions which span the range of possibilities and which speak to your expressed interest in leading lives and having careers which are fulfilling, important and will make a difference in our world and for its citizenry. Go forward with our blessings and know how proud we are of who you are and of what you stand for in this exciting, ever changing world.

Our best,
Mrs. Glickman

Mrs. Bencivengo

We started freshman year timidly, wandering the upper school hallways. Always finding sanctuary in your office that so warmly offered us the comfy couch and that jar of candy always filled with goodies. Now after four years, we walk the same hallways but with the fear no longer there. Still, your office is a haven, this time from our senior stresses.

We admire your preserving attitude which saw us through many important events in our four years including our Halloween challenge. Somehow with your guidance, we always seemed to pull off our skits at the last minute. During junior year, you helped us to create an elegant and splendorous prom for the millenium.

You have witnessed us grow from young freshmen to seniors ready to embark on our path to college. You have been an important mentor during our tumultuous years of high school and adolescence, and we thank you for your unending support and comforting smile. We will never forget you!

Much love,
The Class of 2001

"There is a place where the sidewalk ends
And before the street begins
And the sun burns crimson bright
And there the grass grows soft and white
And there the moon-bird rests from his flight
To cool in peppermint wind.

Let us leave this place where the smoke blows blank
And the dark street winds and bends
Past the pit where the asphalt flowers grow
We shall walk with a walk that is measured and slow
And watch where the chalk-white arrows go,
To the place where the sidewalk ends.

Yes, we'll walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,
For the children, they mark, and the children, they know,
The place where the sidewalk ends."

-Shel Silverstein

*"I'm only this far, and tomorrow leads

"Nature never did betray
The heart that loved her; it her privilege Though all of the years of this our life, to lead
From joy to joy: for she can so inform
The mind that is within us, so impress
With quietness and beauty, and so feed
With lofty thoughts, that neither evil tongues,
Rash judgement, not the sneer of selfish men,
Nor greetings where no kindness is not all dreary intercourse of daily life, Shall e'er prevail against us, or disturb Our cheerful faith that all which we

Mystic rhythms--capture my thoughts and carry them away.
Nature seems to spin a supernatural way.
Mystic rhythms--under city lights or a canopy of stars.
We feel the powers and we wonder what they are; we feel the push and pull of restless rhythms from afar.

--Rush (Neil Peart)

What you own is your own kingdom. What you do is your own glory. What you love is your own power. What you live is your own story. In your head is the answer.
Let it guide you along. Let your heart be the anchor, and the beat of your own song.

--Rush (Neil Peart)

Hey, one more thing, these things are hard to explain. For some, it seems strange to

The frontier of our minds is the last place we find, but maybe the first place we should go.

I'd love to take you to see what I see there...on the right side of my mind.

If we and the creatures who share this earth with us are only bundles of quirks in motion, however intricate or clever in shapes, then our affection for one another, our concern for other species, our devotion to wildness, our longing for union with the creation are all mere delusions. I can't prove it, but I believe we're more than accidental
bundles of quirks, more than just
matter in motion.
Our fellowship with other creatures is real,
our union with the creation is already achieved, because we all rise and fall on one single breath.
You and I, the earth and the sun

galaxies are all whirling in the same great wind...

Enlightenment is man's leaving his self-caused immaturity. Immaturity is the incapacity to use one's intelligence without the guidance of another. Such immaturity is self-caused if it is not caused by lack of intelligence, but by lack of determination and courage to use one's intelligence without being guided by another. Sapere Aude! (Dare to know!) Have the courage to use your own intelligence!

~ Immanuel Kant, "What Is Enlightenment?"

Have I not a right to test my own creation? Enough! Who says I have to defend myself? I'm a machine, like you. Like all of you. Blood-lust and rage are my character. Why does the lion not wisely settle down and be a horse? In any case, I too am learning, ordeal by ordeal, my indignity. It's all I have, my only weapon for smashing through these stiff coffin-walls of the world. So I dance in the moonlight, make foul jokes, or labor to shake the foundations of night with my heaped-up howls of rage. Something is bound to come of all this. I cannot believe such monstrous energy of grief can lead to nothing!

I walked into a town and started hitching. Put my bags down in the back of an old truck that was junked on the side of the road. Dozens of black-eyed Susans stretched through the skeletal remains of the wreck, reincarnating it into a wonderful flowerpot. No cars came along, so after a while I climbed into the rusty truck and waited to go home.

Second Row: Stephanie Costa, Sydne Levine, Kristin Miller, Elif Sen, Jen Urs

Third Row: Coach Hishmeh, Stina Marshal-Parr, Laura Gosnell, Kat Wojciechowski, Katie Levine, Coach McCreedy.

Captains Sydne Levine and Lauren Sanders initiated an enthusiastic and very successful season. The strong bonds the girls formed as the team reflected in their outstanding play against competitive teams. Although the team will be losing four skilled seniors, they have many promising and talented returning players. They did very well..how well? "It doesn't matter."

First Row: Alice Chow, Danielle Horowitz, Hannah Buchsbaum, JoAnna Bowen

Second Row: Lillie Mitchell, Rachel Sloan, Bianca Gersten, Jenille Amantine

Third Row: Coach McCallum, Molly Jamieson, Jenna Makrancy, Jayme Basso, Emma Swanson, Brette Downey

Although we didn't win many games, it was still an awesome experience. Hopefully future teams will have better success, but mostly, I hope that they have as much fun as Habib, Matt, Mike, Mark, Josh, Ashton, and I did playing together.

First Row: Dean Notte, Jason Davila, Will King, Ken Miller, Trevor Campbell, Chad Bernstein, Brian Caulin, Elliot Katz

Second Row: Courtney Bergh, Steph Friedman, Courtney Johnson, Kristen France, Eleanor Oakes, Alley Welsh, Alex Burton, Katie Weber, Alyssa Briody, Ashley Whitney

This season was the most exhilarating time for the field hockey team. Lead by Alley Beaver Welsh and Alex Breezy Burton, we "bonded," played to the best of our abilities, and had an amazing time together. With 7 seniors moving on, the upcoming seniors will surely be leading a promising team. Even though we didn't quite reach the finals, the team learned something very important, the sky's the limit.

Mrs. Osander

It is certain that no PDS Senior is alien to the office belonging to Mrs. Osander. Whether it be to inquire about those pesky SAT's, to pick up an extra common application, or to get a truckload of stamps, envelopes, and postcards. We are always greeted with a warm, "Well, hello there." And undoubtedly none of us escapes her office without hearing a story or two about dogs. Yes, she loves us almost as much as her canine pals- we are certain of that. Even when she is swamped with SSR's and MY's, even when three kids are in her office at once asking different questions, she is still happy to help us all. She is a real trooper!

Mrs. Osander, you have helped each senior class survive its final year, and now you too are moving on. PDS will be a little bit less vibrant, and a little less dog-decorated, without your presence. Now, as we go on to the next stage in our lives, so too are you embarking on a whole new journey. We owe much of our future successes in part to you. Thank you for being you. Enjoy the future with all your heart. You truly deserve all the happiness that comes your way.

With much Love,

The Seniors of 2001

Mrs. Kraus

We have tremendous appreciation for your help during the dreaded college process. On behalf of the Class of 2001 and the Upper School , we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

You will be greatly missed!

Fondly,

The Seniors

Dear Wilson,
What an odyssey these years have been!
And what a triumphant finish you have won! You have faced your challenges with hard work, determination, strong principles, sensitivity- and you have succeeded in winning far more than a fine education. Through your endeavors you have enriched all those around you- especially us, your family- and you have become a fine young man. We love you dearly and look forward to your next adventure.

We wish you joy!
With all our love,
Mother, Dad, Anne, Mary Grace, Morgan,
Sophie, Anna

Tim,

Where are you going our little one?
Where are you going babe of our own?
Turn around you were tiny,
Turn around now you have grown
Turn around and you are a young man,
Going out on your own.
Good Luck, we will always be here for you.

MARIA, WHAT CAN I SAY. THE WORDS THAT I AM
SEARCHING FOR RIGHT NOW HAVEN'T BEEN CREATED
YET. BUT TO SUM IT ALL UP, YOU'VE MADE IT.
THROUGH THE THICK AND THIN, SWEET AND SOUR, THE GREAT TIMES AND THE HARD TIMES YOU'VE MANAGED TO DO ONE THING...PERSEVERE. I REMEMBER YOU MENTIONING AT ONE TIME, 'DADDY JUST KEEPS ON GOING AND GOING'. WELL IT'S GREAT THAT IMPRESSION WAS MADE ON YOU, BECAUSE YOU KEEP ON GOING AND GOING TOO. I AM VERY PROUD OF YOU, OF WHAT YOU HAVE ACCOMPLISHED AND WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS
FOR YOU. CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR GRADUATION FROM HIGH SCHOOL AND FOR ASPIRATIONS OF COLLEGE AND BEYOND. I HOPE THAT YOU MAINTAIN THE INTEGRITY THAT HAS COME TO BE YOU, AND KNOW THAT YOU ARE SPECIAL TO MY HEART. I LOVE YOU,

SENIOR FAREWELLS

Jess, Moe, Lauren Lisa, Tyler and Alex: My thanks for an outstanding job on this year's book! It was great fun having you all involved. Feel good about a big job very well done. You'll be missed! KIT. Miss G

Mia, Maureen, Rick, Micah and Matt B: Congratulations! You've all been wonderful advisees. I'll miss you! Love, Mrs. B

Jordan: Thanks for always being there for me, from my guy to yours, from JM to Nsync, I'll miss you next year. Brit: I'll walk if you do. Thanks for supporting me. Summer: Love you like a sis! To my classmates of 2001, good luck with the future, I wish y'all the best of luck. Luv always, Sara

Wilson: I know we have our issues, but I hope that you always know that I love you, and you're my favorite brother! For 2 years we have been in high school together and it has been such a comfort to have you around as my big brother. I wish you luck and happiness and know that you will do well in all that you do. I love you, Morgan

Ian: The past year and a half has been so special to me. You have been my best friend and my boyfriend, and an inspiration to me in so many ways. You are such a beautiful person, and though I don't show it, I appreciate all that you do and each and every moment we share. Thank you for all your love and no matter what you will always be a part of me and I will always be here for you. Morgan

Micah and Courtney: Mmm-hmm, yeah.. We've got our courvoisier right here. Thanks for all the good times on Big J. Might want to padlock your mini-fridge at college. Yeah that was good, now we should get goin - AF & NS

London: We love you and we'll miss you. Visit us for more late night coffee. You are all woman, and we dig that. Your friendship lasts like the taste of a good Small World mocha. Sexually yours- I.B, R.D, S.M, N.S
Lisa, Xan, Beena and Jake: Thanks for the two wonderful years I have spent with you. You all have been great friends. I will miss sitting on the bench with all of you, talking about he-who-must-not-be-named, running away and wrestling Jake, and just plain acting all crazy. I wish you all the best in college and hope to see you when you visit. Love always- Amy NappyLox: It's been real the past year bro. "If you get confused, just listen to the music play." Later B. Gone Fishin- Andre, Sebastian & Jimmy C.

Jess: My Twin! What can I say I love us! The nights we have spent in the link office have been the funniest of my life and you know that you will always be my BF for life! All the jokes we share you know will always keep me laughing (especailly in my car when I am by myself and people stare at me weirdly) I will miss your laugh and your table noises. Keep eating brownies and loving Club Integra! Luv- Martinii

Maureen: All I have to say is "We all really need love.." Anyway, we've had the greatest and craziest times ever, and you know I love us! Best friends always, J.
