Dear Class of 2005:

They say that good things come in small packages. That certainly applies to you. The Class of 2005 may be among the smallest we’ve had in recent history, but it is large in spirit and long on a sense of community and caring.

It is in the nature of yearbook timetables that I write this letter in the fall. While enough time hasn’t yet elapsed to see how your Senior year unfolds, already I know that you have accepted the mantle of school leadership, forging new traditions. For example, you exhibited an amazing degree of solidarity in your costumes and acting discipline for your revival of Night of the Living Dead in the Halloween Parade.

It was your class that made Fall Weekend and spirit week unforgettable, with a picture-perfect bonfire and thrilling athletic events capping off a week of western wear, ‘80’s garb, Kyle clones and brilliant blue. I won’t soon forget the reaction of the visiting head of a neighboring school upon seeing the theater lobby blocked off by eager shirt salespersons infecting passers-by with their excitement.

Whether working with Homefront last year or at Isles this year, your class has always made community service a priority to take seriously while having fun. I admire your zeal, your affection for the school, your spirit and your adaptability, welcoming your 11th grade interim dean with warmth and welcoming back Ms. Bencivengo with enthusiasm.

In addition to all the ways you contributed to the sense of community and culture of PDS, your class honored the school with superlative academic accomplishments, too, ranging from National Merit recognition to group and individual success in coursework and academic competitions.

With almost 25% of you “lifers,” you contributed greatly to PDS over the years. Thank you for all you do and all you are. It has been a privilege and a delight to know you. I wish you all the best in the years to come. Please keep PDS in your hearts.

Sincerely,

Judy Fox, Head of School
Dear Señora Marquez,

During our high school careers, your kind words, your warm smiles and your incredible personality have etched a piece of you into all of our hearts.

You have helped and inspired us to work harder, to be consistent, and to never give up. We’ll never forget the “educational” trips to the snack bar during Español, nor will we forget your unique costumes during Halloween. Your office door was always open and you were never too tired to offer a helping hand. Thank you for everything that you’ve done with our class. You’ve joined us on Community Service Day, you’ve chaperoned us at Prom, and above all, you’ve been an amazing teacher. Thank you for respecting us, but most of all, for being our mentor and friend. Your enthusiasm and energetic personality have only made us love you more! Thank you for everything!

Love,
The Class of 2005
Dear Mrs. Bencivengo,

Over the past four years you have lead our class to the best of any dean’s full potential. (In educational matters as well as the latest fashions.) Although you did miss out on our junior year, we have learned to forgive you! We know it took a while for you to get used to our grade’s wacky tricks and humor, but as our time together is nearing its end, we know you have learned to love us. It makes us smile knowing that this year we finally made you proud to be our dean when our entire class came together as zombies and won the first annual Halloween Parade. (We are still upset that you chose to not dress up.) Thank you for learning and growing with us as a class and for doing it in the most stylish way possible. We will miss you!

Love,
The Class of 2005
Dear Mrs. Latham,

First and foremost, thank you for filling in for Mrs. Bencivengo during our junior year. As our dean, you helped us sell wrapping paper, you assisted our prom committee in helping them plan out our Junior Prom, and you even came as a chaperone! It took a lot of courage but you never seemed intimidated by the task at hand. Although we never said it out loud, we always appreciated your help. Your warm smile and willingness to help our grade went above and beyond the job description for an interim dean. Even now that you are no longer our official dean, we still go to you for your incredible Calculus explanations and the "objective" advice on life. Your guidance will never be forgotten and we truly appreciate that you believed in us.

Love,
The Class of 2005

FIRST GRADE SONG

Alex and Andrew started to prepare
The apples for pudding
Alex and Anu stirred up the sauce
Wow, what a pudding!

Chiara cooked the cranberry sauce
Charlie cut the cornbread
Christian cooled his carrot cake
Yum! in the tummy

Kyle and Kristina rolled out a crust
While Peter prepared the pumpkin
Wells and William whipped up the cream
Sweet pumpkin pie!

Toby took the turkey to task
While Stephen made the stuffing
Robert and Ryan roasted in brown
Tom, Tom, the turkey

Mimi and Matthew mixed and mashed
Potatoes for our dinner
Yasmin made a yam souffle
Pow! What potatoes!

Kristen and Kendal creamed the corn
Gyan stirred the gravy
Win and Robert roasted nuts
Crunch! Love those chestnuts!

James and Jared came with some jam
Jon and Jade brought jelly
Jessica jigged her jam in the jar
Sweet, sticky jelly

Billy and Brendan buttered the bread
Benjamin baked some biscuits
Matthew made some muffins for me
Wow! Munch muffins!

Alastair set the table for twelve
Will and Chris lit candles
Hilary and Matt made a pretty bouquet
Great time for dinner!

"The other one, the one called Borges, is the one things happen to. I walk through the streets of Buenos Aires and stop for a moment, perhaps mechanically now, to look at the arch of an entrance hall and the grillwork on the gate; I know of Borges from the mail and see his name on a list of professors or in a biographical dictionary. I like hourglasses, maps, eighteenth-century typography, the taste of coffee and the prose of Stevenson; he shares these preferences, but in a vain way that turns them into the attributes of an actor. It would be an exaggeration to say that ours is a hostile relationship; I live, let myself go on living, so that Borges may contrive his literature, and this literature justifies me. It is no effort for me to confess that he has achieved some valid pages, but those pages cannot save me, perhaps because what is good belongs to no one, not even to him, but rather to the language and to tradition. Besides, I am destined to perish, definitively, and only some instant of myself can survive in him. Little by little, I am giving over everything to him, though I am quite aware of his perverse custom of falsifying and magnifying things.

Spinoza knew that all things long to persist in their being; the stone eternally wants to be a stone and the tiger a tiger. I shall remain in Borges, not in myself (if it is true that I am someone), but I recognize myself less in his books than in many others or in the laborious strumming of a guitar. Years ago I tried to free myself from him and went from the mythologies of the suburbs to the games with time and infinity, but those games belong to Borges now and I shall have to imagine other things. Thus my life is a flight and I lose everything and everything belongs to oblivion, or to him.

I do not know which of us has written this page."

THEY CALL ME CHILL.I
The pressure builds,
You buy a gift.
You're hoping that your dread will lift.
It glitters on her like a glass,
You shudder as,
It comes to pass.

Apologies,
To Laue and Lit,
Conversation with Ed, a drink with Jill.
You're friends confuse you in their worlds.
One by one, a string of pearls
Confused you say,
This isn't me.
You hover in their unity,
Ashamed
You slowly lose your grasp,
Release the links;

Until the slept.
The eels that slip down off the
Or wash back, sinking in your knee.
To treat your head and heart
You laugh and laughing
Fall apart.

Many people feel that they are in control of their lives, but in reality, we are all subject to forces beyond our control. This can be frustrating and disheartening, but it is important to remember that we can still make choices and take action within the constraints of our situation. By focusing on what we can control and making small steps towards our goals, we can improve our situation and achieve success in our lives.

Some strategies that can help include:

- Setting realistic goals and breaking them down into smaller, manageable steps.
- Creating a plan and sticking to it, even when progress is slow.
- Celebrating small victories along the way.
-寻求支持和鼓励，无论是来自家人、朋友还是专业人士。
-保持积极的心态，即使面对挑战也要保持乐观。
-不断学习和成长，为未来做准备。
-保持耐心和韧性，知道成功需要时间。

通过这些方法，我们可以更好地应对生活中的困难和挑战，朝着我们的目标前进。

Dad, Mom, and Andrea,

Wow, where do I start? It seems like we have been through it all these past two years, but we have stuck together and your support, guidance, and love have helped me through. I can't thank you all enough for everything you have done for me. Thank you so much for always being there for me, and I promise I will always be here for you guys. I dedicate this page to the three of you. You are the best in the world and I love you all so much. And never forget, "Enjoy Life! This Is Not A Dress Rehearsal!"

Where do we go from here? We've been through a lot together: twenty one of us are lifers, the other sixty have joined through the years, but we have blended together and formed a strong united class. Our friendships are priceless and as we go our separate ways, we'll never forget the people who were our friends, teammates, and supporters.

Middle School
Middle School is a time of transitions. No longer children, but not quite adults, middle schoolers are on the edge of two worlds. While in middle school, students begin to mature and with the help of faculty, friends, and advisors, they form into unique individuals that are ready to face the Upper School.

Faculty
At PDS, we are fortunate enough to be surrounded by a faculty that is supportive and dedicated to providing us with a superb education. Our teachers are always going to extremes to make us excel and to prepare us for our futures. Their creative tactics encourage us to work harder. With projects that range from the Physics Bridge to the Sophomore Research Paper to Poetry Readings, Shakespeare recitals and trips to the Met, our faculty is always thinking of new ways to stimulate our minds!

Events
On the edge of Tradition ...

From the Candlelight Ceremony to the all school gathering for the Thanksgiving Assembly, PDS is a place of longstanding traditions. Although one of the school's most sought after events, the Halloween Challenge, was permanently removed this year, a Halloween Parade filled the void and will serve as a new tradition in the years to come. The continuation of traditions keeps our community strongly united and ties us to the past.
The 2004 Prom was an unforgettable experience. Hosted by the class of 2005, the Prom was held at the Trenton War Memorial elaborately decorated to fit a Hollywood theme. After dancing the night away to a terrific DJ, students headed back to PDS to celebrate even more at the Candyland themed post-prom. Students left the prom with so many amazing memories that will last a lifetime.

This year started off with another successful and momentous Community Service Day. The freshmen and sophomore classes spent the day at the Hillside Food Bank, sorting and packaging food, while the junior class took part in workshops led by Homefront, a nonprofit organization fighting homelessness in New Jersey. The senior class spent the day at Isles, an organization in Trenton. They participated in various activities that ranged from gardening to packing bag lunches to voter registration. Organized by student co-heads Jess Burns (XII) and Anu Shah (XII) along with faculty members Lisa Riker and Bill Stoltzfus this year's Community Service Day was a great start to the new school year!

Spirit week was filled with 5 enthusiastic spirit days: “80’s day,” where people dressed in their favorite-retro 80’s outfits, “Cowboys and Indians day,” where people chose to dress in everything from chaps to mocassins, “Kyle Hogan day,” where people dressed in dedication to senior Kyle Hogan’s preppy attire, and finally the traditional blue and white day, where everyone expressed their PDS spirit by wearing the school colors blue and white. This year the Athletic Association created the extremely popular blue “2004 PDS Spirit Week” t-shirts which were sold throughout spirit week. In addition to Homecoming, Spirit Week was filled with excitement and anticipation for the dedication of the new turf fields, dedicated to Bill Smoyer, Class of ’60.

This year, PDS moved away from the standard Halloween Challenge and started a new tradition: the Halloween Parade. In the parade, each upper school class competed by dressing according to a particular theme and parading in front of the rest of the school. The seniors became the first champions, followed by the sophomores, the juniors, and the freshmen, in that order. Their prize was exclusive rights to the theater lobby and priority in line during lunch for a week. The Halloween Parade was a fun new way to celebrate the holiday in a way that everyone could enjoy!

After a newly started tradition by the Class of ’04, in which the Junior girls play the Senior girls in a game of Powderpuff Football, the Class of ’05 remains the undefeated Powderpuff champs for their second year in a row. While the Juniors put in a good, solid effort, they could not overcome the athleticism and sportsmanship that the Seniors possessed. With Seniors Meg Kerwin, Kristen Modzelewski, Catherine Tomasulo, Lauren Hinkel, and Kristina Costa tearing up the field, the score resulted in 24-6. Juniors Mary Peters, Cait McPhaden, and Ellen Cook played a strong game and will bring better luck for their grade next year when they play the Class of ’07. As a result of the Seniors winning, Junior Powderpuff Captain, David Blitzer, sang “I’m a Little Teapot” in front of the entire Upper School during Announcements.

Alongstanding tradition, the Thanksgiving Assembly, started off with a warm welcoming by Head of School, Dr. Fox and was followed by a Thanksgiving Proclamation by fourth grader, Cionna Rosenthal.

The PDS Choir and Madrigal Singers sang “Great Day” and “Fair Phyllis,” respectively, both amazingly performed and received by the PDS community. Upper School History and Religion teacher, David Freedholm followed with a powerful and memorable speech about his reflections on Thanksgiving.

The Jazz Ensemble capped the assembly with some lively tunes while students and faculty, alike, got ready to see family and friends and eat lots of delicious food over the long holiday weekend!

The Candlelight Concert has been a long standing tradition at Princeton Day School. This year’s concert consisted of an eclectic ensemble of music ranging from classic Christmas songs to songs written by our very own Laurie Altman. Laurie Altman started off the concert with his Jazz Ensemble performing “God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen.” The Princeton Day School Choir and Madrigal Singers, led by faculty member Bryce Hayes, performed the majority of the songs with Praveen Murphy (XI) and Margaret Curran (X) both having solos. The Overtones, led by Kyle Boatwright (XII), performed a rendition of “What Christmas Means To Me,” and was arranged by Kyle, herself. All in all, this year’s Candlelight Concert was a success and was a great and fun way to start off winter break!

Clubs
At PDS, we are fortunate enough to have the opportunity to participate in almost one hundred clubs. With the new schedule in place, there is much more time allotted for clubs to meet. As a result, many clubs have become more active in the community. Not only do clubs benefit the PDS community, but they have also taken part in many projects worldwide. With clubs ranging from AWARE to GSA to even the Role Playing Games Club, there is a place for every interest!
Amnesty International

Above: (L-R) Sabrina Basu (XI), Elizabeth Wei (XI), Madeleine Rosenberg (XI), and Rebecca Freedholm (XI).

Amnesty International is the PDS chapter of the Worldwide Human Rights Organization. PDS's chapter is made up of a group of dedicated students who care about fighting for people and humane treatment around the world.

Architecture Club

The members of the Architecture Club share a common interest in architecture, landscape architecture, and urban studies. The club provides a forum beyond the PDS Architecture Studios and sponsors speakers, films, and field trips.

Art Club

The Art Club is a newly formed group of students and faculty, dedicated to both art practice and theory. We keep "in the know" about local artists, while expanding opportunities for art forums here at PDS.

Christian Fellowship

The Christian Fellowship Club holds open discussions about Christian related topics and issues that high school students deal with every day pertaining to religion. The club meets weekly and is led by a new club member each week.

Conservative Club

The Conservative Club meets weekly to provide an open forum for the discussion of domestic, foreign, and current affairs. Members engage in debate and watch documentaries.

Dance Club

The Dance Club meets each week and learns various types of dances ranging from Salsa, Merengue, and Bachata. They performed native island dances, Latin dances, reggae, and hip hop at the Latin Heritage Assembly and at the Caribbean Dance.

Destination Imagination

New to the Upper School, Destination Imagination is a creative thinking and problem solving team. The group incorporates improvisational techniques with creative use of materials to work through performance-based challenges and hopes to attend a state-level competition in 2006.

ENACT

The Enact (Environmental Action) Club is an active and motivated group that cares deeply about the environment and its preservation. Enact works locally to improve environmental conditions within the school and the county, but also is involved on a national scale through letter writing campaigns and fundraisers.

Exchange Club

From Germany with Love...
Leonie Emde

Age: 17
Hometown: Frankfurt
Favorite Sport: Tennis
Favorite Food: Chocolate Chip Cookies
Favorite Music: Red Hot Chili Peppers

Who are you staying with? Claire Alsup (X)
Most Embarrassing Moment: "My first day here, we had dinner outside and the glass door was open, but I didn’t see the flyscreen and walked right into it!"

The Exchange Club assists visiting foreign students, helping to subsidize their school expenses through two annual, traditional fundraisers: Gnome Week and the sale of Valentine Carnations.

French Club

The French Club enjoys French food, movies, and culture. Parlez-vous francais? Nous parlons francais! Vive la France!

Gallery Club

The Gallery Club meets monthly in the Anne Reid Art Gallery to discuss upcoming exhibitions and gallery events. Events range from hanging exhibitions with artists and painting gallery walls to ordering and setting up food for opening receptions and speaking with guest artists on gallery tours. The gallery provides great community connection for the students in the club.

The Gay Straight Alliance is composed of students from all grades who support issues related to the gay community such as gay marriage and equal rights. The GSA produces assemblies for the Upper School and annually participates in the Day of Silence.

The goal of the Heritage Club is to promote awareness and appreciation of different cultures by organizing assemblies to honor and celebrate their contributions to our community.

InterAct’s goal is to reach out to the global community through service projects and to bridge the gap between our community and others around the world.
Jewish Heritage Club

The Jewish Heritage Club is a conference-based forum for people to explore each others' take on the Jewish religion and culture. We plan events for the different Jewish holidays and get together at people's houses to watch movies with Jewish themes and to celebrate the Sabbath.

Junior State

The Junior State debates domestic policy and current issues with a bipartisan approach. As part of the National Junior State Government, we attend conferences and participate in activities of the largest student-run organization in the United States.

Not pictured: Erica Hyman (X) and CJ Martino (IX).

Los Gringos

The Spanish Club "Los Gringos" is a club for anyone interested in Spanish language and culture to come together and eat, dance, sing, and discuss. We educate ourselves and PDS about Latino culture in this country and around the world and spread our passion for Spanish! Somos amantes del espanol!

Masti-Indian Club

The Masti-Indian Club (Masti is an Indian word for "fun") acknowledges Indian affairs and holidays since there is such a large Indian community at PDS. In the beginning of the year, we organized a brief Diwali assembly during which we explained the holiday and had several performers. We also had bake sales to help raise money for an Indian orphanage and for the recent Tsunami tragedy in Southern Asia.

The Moadon

The mission of the Moadon (Hebrew for "The Club") is to show support for Israel as a Jewish State and also to raise awareness of Israeli issues at PDS.

Model United Nations

This year, PDS Model UN saw its numbers soar to about 60 students for the Princeton University Model UN Conference. Many underclassmen received their first taste of the club and will keep it going in future years, while veterans were given Honored Delegate Awards for their participation.

Movie Club

The Movie Club is a group that gathers monthly to watch a movie of the Co-heads choice. Movies typically coincide with current releases by favorite directors or actors/actresses.

Science Club

The Science Club meets weekly to investigate various aspects of science, with an emphasis on physics and chemistry. The advisors do demos relating to the topics being discussed. Twice a year, the club promotes science by putting on a large-scale demo show in the theater for the entire Upper School. The activities are mostly performed by the students, with some audience participation.

Yoga Club

The Yoga Club is a newly formed club that organizes and participates in yoga classes that take place on the PDS campus.
Competition

Science Bowl

The four members of the Science Bowl represent PDS at the Regional Competition of the National Science Bowl, held each year at the Plasma Physics Lab at Princeton University.

Science League

Science Olympiad

The students of the Science Olympiad represented PDS in the 2004-2005 Regional and State New Jersey Science Olympiad Tournaments.

Approximately sixty Admission Office Tour Guides in grades IX-XII volunteer their time to help welcome families to Princeton Day School. These students give over two hundred tours a year to applicants in all three divisions, and help the Admission Office with on and off-campus events.

Community Service

The Community Service Club works on school-wide community service project. For example, this year we worked on the Thanksgiving Baskets for Family and Children's Services, the winter coat drive, the blood drive, and March of Dimes.

Cricket

Cricket got off to a slow start after last year's inaugural season - as the new schedule prevented open gym times. But once play started, the club held short weekly matches and hope to hold its second annual faculty-student match at Band BBQ this spring.
Culinary Society

The PDS Culinary Society is a group of students dedicated to the art of cooking, eating, and having fun. We meet to concoct diverse and delicious meals and share them with each other, while learning about cuisine and culture.

Exquisite Corpse

The Exquisite Corpse Club follows in the footsteps of famous surrealist Andre Breton in gathering together to write collaborative surrealist poetry.

Latino World Order

The Latino World Order is a group of student-activists that lead serious discussions about the issues concerning their fellow Latinos in the world today, and possible solutions to help them rise up.

Leftist Conference

The Leftist Conference, an online forum for political discussion, has been dedicated to liberal values since 2002. The conference has swept through the PDS community like a gate on a post, becoming one of the largest on PDSnet.
Mock Trial

Mock Trial is an activity that teaches students about the law, court procedures, and the legal system through active participation in court cases. This year, the PDS team competed against other area schools in an event that took place in the courtrooms of Mercer County Courthouse and won both preliminary rounds.

Peer Leaders

Peer Group is both a two-thirds credit leadership course for seniors and a mandatory year-long orientation program for all freshmen making the transition to the Upper School. Eighteen seniors are selected as peer group leaders and are trained by faculty supervisors in group dynamics and leadership techniques.

RPG Club

The members of the Role Playing Games Club meet for an activity in which players assume the roles of invented characters that undergo unreal and imaginative lives, the outcomes of which are partially determined by chance and partially determined by the creativity and ingenuity of the players.

SAC

Compromised of two elected representatives from each grade, the Student Activities Committee takes responsibility for such annual activities as the Fall Homecoming Dance and Band BBQ in the spring. In addition, SAC hosts various winter activities ranging from a Volleyball tournament last February to a Caribbean Carnival this year.
The Student Committee for Admission serves as a liaison between the Admission Office and the student body. After completing an application process, a small group of junior and senior tour guides were selected to attend on and off-campus admission events, recruit and train new student guides, and assist the Admission Office with enrolling newly accepted applicants.

The primary goal of the Under Graduate Alumni Board is to strengthen the relationship between students and alumni by informing students about what it means to be a PDS alum and by increasing alumni awareness of PDS activities and events.

The PDSnet Sysops (system operators) are juniors and seniors who help to administer the school’s email and messaging system, PDSnet.

The PDS Writing Center is a safe, quiet place where students can bring their written work to receive feedback from trained student mentors (11th and 12th graders). The primary goal of a Writing Center conference is not to improve the paper but to empower the writer—that is, to help students gain confidence in their own writing and revising skills.
The PDS Choir is a 55-voice auditioned ensemble of ninth through twelfth graders. The group sings mostly eight-part a cappella music from all time periods. This group performs throughout the Princeton area and tours internationally. Highlights of the '04-'05 season include a recording project and an international trip to Germany, France, and Austria.

The 19-voice Madrigal Singers consist of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. This ensemble sings mostly Renaissance and Baroque repertoire at a very high level. The Madrigal Singers produced a recording this past year and participated in a tour to Germany, France, and Austria.

The Overtones is the Upper School’s all-female A Cappella group and is composed of girls from all four grades. They meet weekly and perform at all of the school’s concerts, as well as various occasions that call for small groups.
This year, the Community Council, the Student Government for the Upper School, under the leadership of seniors Kyle Hogan and Jay Bavishi, reviewed the Honor Code, implemented the new schedule, and assisted in the selection of the new food service provider.

Cymbals is the annual creative writing and arts magazine of the Princeton Day Schools' Upper schoolers. This year a volunteer staff of more than twenty students met numerous nights to review the myriad of artistic excellence submitted by their peers. All submissions were kept anonymous. The defining criteria for inclusion involved artistic vision, sustained and individualized voice, and well-crafted form.

The Spokesman

The Spokesman is a student forum for news, features, arts, opinions, and sports, by and for members of the greater PDS community. All final editorial decisions are made by the student editors. Each editor has a vote and represents an opinion of the editorial board. The Spokesman is published eight times a year, as well as online.

Sports
DS Athletes focus on more than the outcome of the game, they focus on their camaraderie and their love for the sport. Each team goes out to win, but most importantly, they go out for the love of the game and the new experiences that the game provides. The installation of the new turf field provided the soccer, field hockey, and lacrosse teams an amazing field to practice and compete on. Students who did not participate in a sport, enthusiastically attended football games and hockey matches, as well as showed their spirit by wearing cowboy hats on Western Day and spandex on '80s day during Spirit Week at the beginning of the year. The Super Fans were in full surge this year, especially during the Football team’s Homecoming game, despite the pouring rain and thunder. The commitment, sportsmanship, and incredible coaches not only enhance the sense of community, but also push our athletes closer and closer towards victory.
This year, the varsity cross country team was led by captains Cecily Moyer (XII), Jeff Moll (XI), and Charlie Hamlin (XI). A relatively young team with only three graduating seniors — Jay Thornton, Sunny Anuzis, and Cecily Moyer — the boys' side was comprised of a large group of sophomores and juniors, while the girls team found a great addition in freshman Julia Salem.

Plagued with injuries, the girls squad was led by a motivated Salem, the Mercer County Champion in the girls freshman race. The boys team, led by Jeff Moll and sophomore Kevin Suyo, ran many competitive races. The best race of the season, however, was against perennial rival The Pennington School on PDS's new home course, falling to the Red Raiders by only one point, 28-29. The boys were also the runner-up in the Patriot Conference Meet behind Pennington, and they established a running base they plan to further exploit next year. Salem and Moll hold the current school course records for girls and boys, respectively.

Wins and records aside, however, no one will forget the sophomore boy contingent of the team arriving 20 minutes late for practice every day after being busy with computer games, the girls' friendly team mascot/mailbox ornament named Douglas Treebank, drinking root beer floats after our annual trip to Hot Dog Johnny's, or stopping for fast food and a quick game of "McDonald's Monopoly." The runners would like to thank coaches Eamon Downey and Dave Freedholm for their support, teaching us that, contrary to popular belief, "team" is essential in cross-country.

FIELD HOCKEY

"It's OUR turf!"

Though it took time to recover from the last year's graduation of five awesome senior players, a few broken noses, some facial stitches, and pulled muscles, our team finally pulled out a season we were proud of.

We will never forget how hard we worked at our Rider University team camp, those early morning hours at pre-season before the sun was even up, our spandex practices, and fun psychs before every game. However, the long anticipated first game on our new turf field disappointingly did not happen until midseason, it was then that we began to live up to our motto: it's our turf.

As soon as we began to play on our turf field we could feel the fire and we knew that we were becoming a better team. From that time on, we began to play with more determination and strength. Our team got better and better each time we stepped onto the field. Coach Thomas knew from the start that we had the skills and just needed to use them. With her assistance, we went on to win against Notre Dame, Moorestown Friends, Princeton High, and state Prep A runner-up Hun.

We fought hard against Newark Academy only to lose 2-3 in a sudden death over-time in the Prep A quarterfinals. Coach Thomas always told us, "It's OK to talk the talk but you have to walk the walk." No matter what the scoreboard said, by the end of the season, we not only said it but we believed that it was our turf.

The 2004 Panther Football Team made great strides this year, achieving a 4-4 record for the first time in over 11 years. Under Coach Bruce Devlin for the second year, the team found a groove not previously established, carrying the team to new heights.

The team started out the season losing two close games, a 28-21 loss against Morrisville and a 9-7 loss to Dwight Englewood. But with a renewed fire, PDS took the field the next four games and proceeded to win four straight shutout victories, winning by a combined score of 117-0 in those games. Bound Brook, Marvile, New York Military Academy, and St. Joseph's of the Palisades all fell victim to the Panthers' hot streak. Although the team finished 0-2, the team led Pennington in their final game 15-6 going midway through the second quarter, a feat not achieved by the team in a long time.

The punishing offense, led by senior captains Andrew Hendrickson, Jared Makrancy, and Avery Fox on the offensive line, ground out yard upon yard on the legs of freshman Mike Shimkin and juniors Alex Kowalski and David Blitzer, accompanied by the savvy play of freshman Quarterback Clint O'Brien. The stingy defense was anchored by juniors Craig Knowlton, Blitzer, Kowalski and seniors Makrancy and Hendrickson and put together 19 straight shutout quarters at one point during the season, denying teams any chance to get to the endzone.

The progress the team made this year was best exemplified by their performance against St. Joseph's as the team played on homecoming day, at night, under the lights, and in front of a packed crowd on Baker Field. Although initially the game looked to be in doubt as thunder delayed the game for an hour, the team stormed the field when the thunder stopped and created their own storm, winning the game 27-0.

The team will have to regroup next year, with the loss of all but one captain and 9 seniors total, but due to the stellar play of All-Prep freshman O'Brien, Shimkin, and Andrew Ojeda, as well as returning All-Prep juniors Knowlton, Kowalski, and Blitzer, the 2005 Football Team could go to even greater heights as they join the Hudson Valley Athletic League.

The Girl's Varsity Soccer season started off strong with a five-game winning streak. After losing only two games of the season to Peddie and Pennington in overtime, we won the remainder of our regular season games, earning us the best record of all the fall teams.

Led by seniors - Co-Captains Lauren Hinkel and Kristen Modzelewski, Catherine Tomasulo, Kristina Costa, and Meg Kerwin who played on the varsity squad since freshman year, the girls quickly became one of the most well-bonded teams in a long time. Juniors Mary Peters and Jess Cellars played on a defense anchored by Co-Captain Kristen Modzelewski who collectively allowed only ten goals on sophomore goalie, Maddie Ferguson. Junior Ellen Cook, Sophomore Keely Langdon, and Freshman Alex Maher joined Seniors Kristina Costa and Meg Kerwin in the midfield, while Sophomore Ashley Chappo agreed with Seniors Catherine Tomasulo and Co-Captain Lauren Hinkel to only score goals at the absolute last possible moment to make for a more dramatic win.

We were honored to play and win the first game on the new Smoyer Turf field against Metuchen. We’d like to thank the entire Smoyer family for making it possible to play on such a beautiful field and all of the parents and fans who came to support us. We’d also like to thank Mr. Levandowski, the entire Athletics department, and especially our two coaches, Ted Harrington and Matt Levinson.

The Boys' Varsity soccer had a great season. Coming off of a year with only 2 wins, our team showed up at pre-season, excited and ready to improve. From the start our team had a great chemistry and we continued to work hard everyday in practice. Our efforts paid off: we posted a winning record with more than three times last season’s wins.

We had many memorable games, including our 0-0 tie with Hopewell at their Homecoming and our 1-0 win over Trenton High at our Homecoming following the Smoyer Turf field induction, something we were all proud to be a part of.

The senior line up of Tri-Captains Ryan Palsho, Pierre Hoppenot, and Andrew Sieglen, along with help from fellow seniors Steve Pezzi, Vikram Gupta, Will Denise, and Charlie Anderson played key roles in the team’s numerous wins and several hard-fought ties. Juniors Patrick Brody, Asante Brooks, Jon Siani, Kunle Onitri, Logan Laughlin, John Maher, and Jon Zindman each gave a “helping hand” in the team’s victories and look forward to leading the team next year. Sophomores Derek Mayer, Mike Hartnack, and Mark Millner along with freshmen Antoine Hoppenot and Jeff Landy are all excited to improve and lead the team in future years. The seniors will all miss Coaches Laughlin and Malcolm very much. Thank you for all of your help!

Girls' Tennis

"Who do you play for? PDS!"

Starting off the 2004 season with an almost entirely new team, we had high hopes for a fun and exciting season. We had many bonding experiences such as our trip to Hot Dog Johnny’s after our Blair game, watching Miracle, playing rotating approach, and doing our volley dance. Varsity and JV were enthusiastic and supportive of their teammates throughout the season.

We welcomed five new players to Varsity, including Emma Mason at third singles, Leonie Emde and Melissa Wong at first doubles, and Nicole Auerbach and Sabrina Basu at second doubles. Co-captains and former varsity players Andrea Spector and Kaitlyn Langdon moved up the ranks to first and second singles. And of course we welcomed back the cutest coach at PDS, Coach Headley.

Both Varsity and JV were able to win important matches, such as Varsity’s close 3-2 win over WWPS.

The entire team will miss its senior Varsity players, Kaitlyn Langdon and Emma Mason, who always brought a cheerful attitude and a huge smile. It will be hard to match the 2004 season because this is the closest that the PDS tennis team has been in many years. Each player on Varsity and JV looked forward to each practice because it promised to be both fun and helpful. Everyone took away new skills, new friends, and a brand new love of the game.

We would like to thank both Coach Headley and Coach Crum for making this year so memorable. If it wasn’t for your creative drills and positive attitude, this season would not have been half as fun.

We’ll always remember: “Who do you play for? PDS!”

GIRLS’ BASKETBALL
“Undefeated in Spirit”

The Girls’ Basketball team started off strong with a young squad with no seniors. Freshman Hannah Epstein, started at point guard and went through trial-by-fire, faced bigger guards and learned how to pass and carry the ball through all sorts of pressure. Sophomore Ashley Chappo had two double-digit games and was a defensive and rebounding dynamo. Keely Langdon at forward, sophomore Meghan Francfort at center and junior Ellen Cook at guard rounded out our starting five. Freshmen Erin Burns, Tova Ferstenberg, and Emma Morehouse, Sophomore Claire Alsup, and Juniors Cait McPhaden and Lexi Shechtel rounded out the team and all had their moments and made important contributions whether in practice or a game.

After the first few games, it was clear that the team’s youth and inexperience in carrying the offensive load were going to hold us back. We were going to learn from our mistakes, try to come together as a team, and work hard as individuals to “up” our games. And then we started to see the results: our starters began scoring in double figures more consistently, we had mid-season wins against Timothy Christian and Moorestown Friends, we took Hightstown to a tie at the end of the first half, and gave Stuart and Friends Central each a tremendous fight. By the end of the season, we scored twenty points in one quarter against Timothy Christian, something that would not have happened earlier in the year. We lost four games by less than eight points. Next year those are the ones we’ll win.

The Girls’ team would like to thank their awesome coaches, Ms. Repko and Mr. Tuckman, for all of their help, support, and advice. Thank you for everything!

The Boys’ Basketball team had a great, successful season. Although the team started with a roster full of people lacking previous Varsity experience, the team quickly transformed from a group of boys to a team of young men. The effort level picked up in practice, the commitment to the team became greater, and what we were left with at the end of the season was a group of guys with all the talent in the world, discovering for themselves what it took to play and to win at the Varsity level.

Junior Co-Captain Drew Godwin received a standing ovation from his teammates, opponents, and spectators after he scored his 1,000th point at the Mercer County Tournament Semifinals versus Ewing High School. The only other player who previously scored 1,000 points by his junior year is currently playing in the NBA.

Returning seniors, Colin Johnson, Pierre Hoppenot, Co-Captain Jim Butler, and Vikram Gupta, each had a significant impact on the team’s final record. With the additional backup from juniors Co-Captain Drew Godwin, Andrew Davidson, and freshman Clint O’Brien, the team is poised to have a terrific season next year.

The team was very fortunate to have three amazing coaches, who with support and determination helped the young team overcome several injuries and setbacks and helped them see that even though young, the team could still do some serious damage on the basketball court.

FENCING
"1...2...3....Goooooo PDS!"

The fencing team anticipated a great season. With last year’s coach, Paul Epply-Schmidt on sabbatical, the team looked to new coaches: Duncan McLeod, Michael Bodel’99, and Sarah Maloney’02 for leadership and expertise.

The Boys’ side, led by senior Stephen Adams, had a great addition in freshman Trevor Hummel (foil), but also counted on Sophomores Nick Krywoypasski (foil), Kevin Suyo (saber), and Oliver Elbert (saber) and Juniors Arvind Thambidurai (epee) and Ian McCue (foil) to win key bouts. The Sabre squad, led by senior Efren Bernacet, was recovering from the loss of last year’s seniors, but remained determined to improve. The Foil squad, led by Ben Turndorf, finished #1 at the Santelli Qualifiers and at the Prep Finals held at PDS. The Epee team, led by Stephen Adams, pulled out convincing victories against crosstown rivals Hun and Lawrenceville. Adams also placed a #1 finish in the Individual Boys’ Epee at Prep Finals.

The Girls’ side, led by senior Stacy Dubov, looked to their four veteran seniors: Stacy Dubov (saber), Hillary Widlitz (foil), Catherine Tomasulo (saber), and Karlin Mischner (epee) to pull out wins. Junior Becca Fein (epee), Misha Hill (epee), and Jess Rich (saber) also aided the team and brought in several key wins that earned the girls a 2-8 record, with four losses being lost at either 12-15 or 13-14, all in 4-5 bouts. The Saber squad, led by Stacy Dubov, was constantly plagued by injuries but pulled out a #3 placement at Santelli Qualifiers, the highest placement of all the girls’ teams and the second to Boys’ Foil. Girls’ Epee, led by senior Karlin Mischner, looked strong and ready from the start of the season and brought that ferocity to the strip. They pulled out tough wins against #1 ranked Oak Knoll at Prep Finals, getting an 8-1 record, something that they were not capable of doing in past seasons. Karlin Mischner also pulled out a #1 Individual Girls’ Epee placement at Prep. The Girls’ Foil squad, led by Hillary Widlitz, was consistent throughout the season, with Widlitz posting several key wins during matches.

Records and rankings aside, we will never forget the infamous bus trip napping/bonding times, Ben’s big ‘Fro, the Hannahs’ singing, and the late night stops to Boston Market and Wendy’s. We would like to thank our team parent, Elaine Torres-Melendez and manager Allison Brill for all of their help. We would also like to thank our three amazing coaches, Mike, Sarah, and Duncan – without you we would have never gotten to where we are as fencers. Thank you!

ed by Coach Cook and Coach Shea, the Girls' Ice Hockey team had an especially great and memorable season. Seniors Kristen Modzelewski, Kristina Costa, and Meg Kerwin brought a lot of enthusiasm and spirit to every practice and game. The team was grateful to have several talented freshmen join this year, including Leah Lefebvre, Noni Ammidon, Emily Cook, and Tess Glancey. There were also many great returning players, including Jess Cellars (XI), who was the first winner of the Christopher Reeve Sportsmanship Award.

The team played well against both local and out-of-state schools. After losing twice to the Hill School, a big rival of PDS in hockey, the girls finally beat the opposing team at the PDS Invitational. They also participated in several games in Connecticut, including the Canterbury Tournament, in which they came in 7th place. Co-Captain Meg Kerwin (XII) scored three goals, including a tie-breaker during overtime, to give PDS a 4-3 victory over Simsbury. During a game against Wyoming Seminary, goalie Kristina Costa (XII) made 16 saves, allowing PDS to shut out their opponent, 8-0.

All players, freshmen to seniors, became increasingly close and well-bonded as the season went on. They especially loved wearing their scarves, celebrating Coach Cook's birthday at the Outback Steakhouse together, and playing ice hockey football.

The Varsity Boy's Ice Hockey team had an amazing season, despite losing every defensive player and both goalies when the Class of 2004 graduated. The Seniors, led by Captain Will Denise who played center in the first line, stepped up to make their team the runner-up in the Prep State and PDS tournaments. New addition, Jared Tepper (XI), filled in the empty goalie cage and quickly proved his worth. Due to the team’s success, Varsity players, Captain Will Denise (XII), Jared Tepper (XI), and Brett DePace (X) were chosen for three of the six available spots in the Trenton Times' All Area Team. In addition, Rajiv Mallipudi (XII) was the first player to receive the brand new Christopher Reeve Sportsmanship Award at the PDS tournament.

It was not only individuals who were impressive, but the team as a whole. This season’s greatest test was in the game against Lawrenceville Prep. After playing three periods that were longer than the PDS team was accustomed to, the game was caught in a tie, 5-5. It immediately went into sudden death overtime, but at the end of the five minutes, neither team scored, so the game ended in a tie. Although upset about not beating its rival, the team then went on to win against Seton Hall (the #2 team in New Jersey), Dematha (the #1 team in Maryland), and several other schools. The team credits its success to its incredible coaches, one of which, Chris Barcless, was named Coach of the Year.

Next year, the team will have a lot of rebuilding to do after the graduation of Captain Will Denise (XII), Jared Makrancy, Oliver Burton, Charlie Bird, and Rajiv Mallipudi. Luckily, they have talented juniors, Jared Tepper, Pat McDonald, Fred Mittnacht, and Jon Siani to lead the team to more victories next year - possibly even against rival school, Lawrenceville.

Duct tape on the bus, listening to crazy music, stealing other teams’ snacks, and a set of secret traditions that have been passed down from year to year. Welcome to the CULTure that is PDS Squash.

The ten-player group considers itself to be one of the most close-knit teams at PDS, and not just because of its small size. They are unified and encourage and push each other to play their best, but they also joke and love playing tricks on each other. Having fun is as much a part of their daily practices as stretching.

The team’s hard work does not justify their record. Their biggest match was against rival Blair. PDS came out victorious with a 9-0 shutout, a task not achieved in recent years.

The team attributes its success to its coach, Dede. Her enthusiasm, attitude, and energy created an atmosphere on the team that can be found nowhere else at PDS - as was proven when she gave each player a squash, as in the vegetable, at the Sports Awards break-out session. Without her, half of the team would not have known what squash was, nor would any of them be as excited to play for the team.

Next year, the team will miss its only senior, Toby Fox, who was a valuable asset for the past three seasons. The young team had a great time and improved a lot. With the help of Daniel Gentile (X) and Co-Captains Clark Bristol (XI) and Jon Zindman (XI), the team is looking forward to an even better season next year.

GIRLS’ VOLLEYBALL

Under the guidance of Coach Seshadri, Coach Lano, and Coach McLane, Girls’ Volleyball developed a fun, close-knit team that showed enthusiasm during every moment of every game, whether or not they were winning. Their record at the end of the season does not do justice to the girls’ improvement and sportsmanship.

Since they only had one senior, Tri-Captain Lauren Hinkel, the young team knew that they had a tough season ahead of them. However, Lauren and her fellow captains, Beth Wei (XI) and Becky Gallagher (XI), were able to energize their teammates. Their spirit showed and, as a result, attendance at games increased significantly this year. Before a home game against Springside, the team publicized their game and received even more fans than they had expected. With all the support, the PDS girls volleyball team beat Springside, their first win of the season.

The Volleyball team not only learned to play together well, but also became a close-knit group of friends. They enjoyed long and crazy bus rides to faraway schools, would try to rap, and always laughed at Coach Lano “google-ing.” Despite injuries and defeats, the team always managed to pull together and remember that trying to improve and having fun are always the most important parts of the game.

The greatest benefit to having a team dominated by members of the Junior class is that those younger members of the team will step up to leaders the following year. Next season promises to be the best in a long time for the Volleyball team as current Varsity players, Elizabeth Kassler-Taub, Beth Wei, Sarah Mischner, Becca Freedholm, Becky Gallagher, Leslie Shapiro, Madeleine Rosenberg, and Melissa Marks, return as Seniors.

Although the baseball team lost a lot of its core members this year, the team, led by seniors Danny O'Brien, Charlie Bird, and Colin Johnson, were able to create a hardworking and successful group. With crucial guidance from Coach Devlin, Coach Ficci, and Coach Wylie the team had another amazing season. Joining the team this year were a group of enthusiastic and talented players including freshmen Clint O'Brien, Jordan Mickens, Sam Hamlin, and Mike Shimkin.

The season started out strong for the Boys' Baseball team as they traveled to Florida for Spring Training. While there, the boys practiced intensely and their hard work showed when they returned to PDS. They played several games in Florida, and despite getting off to a slow start, they impressed everyone when they made a comeback at the end by winning two games in a row.

The entire Baseball field was full of talented players. Sam Hamlin (IX) and Logan Laughlin (XI) alternated as catcher while both Andrew Davidson (XI) and Brett DePace (X) played at first base. Second base was played by either David Gordon (XI) or Mike Shimkin (IX). At short-stop were Clint O'Brien (IX) and Adam Savitzsky (XI) with Jorden Mickens (IX) filling in at third base. Eight different members of the team rotated the position of pitcher. This created a winning team that will carry on its skill and enthusiasm into next year's Baseball season.

The PDS Figure Skating team is lucky to be the only team that competes all year. In October, they competed at Igloo Skating Arena in Vineland, NJ. They also had a competition in early March and another competition on April 9th at the Princeton Athletics Center. PDS also hosts a Figure Skating State Championship, in which fourteen schools compete. Last year, PDS placed second and looks forward to a strong showing this year. On April 23rd, PDS competed at the New England Massachusetts Figure Skating Open, placing in the freestyle, compulsory moves, dance, and team maneuver categories.

The skating team, led by returning seniors, Victoriya Kovalchuk and Jackie Pisaturo, was well bonded. They loved practicing their moves and jumps while listening to music that ranged from The Little Mermaid Soundtrack to the Spice Girls to Indian rap. Over spring break, they hit the ice two hours each day in order to maintain their physical stamina and overall skill. The team had a great addition in freshman Tess Glancey. She was new to the team, but definitely not new to the ice - bringing in several wins and medals throughout the season.

With the loss of two seniors the team will have some rebuilding to do. Since there are no juniors on the team, the role of team leaders will fall onto the shoulders of Sophomores Liz Paul, Kristina Budelis, and Jenny LaMotte who are ready to take on the challenge. With the majority of the team returning, Coach Fetter hopes to have a promising and victorious season next year.

After losing several important members, the PDS Golf team came into the season with the theory that this would be a "rebuilding year." They were right. This past season, they rebuilt their team to form an incredible and close-knit group. The returning players trained and helped newcomers, while Coaches Reeve and Walker advised the returning players on how to play their best.

Seniors Chris Haldane, Alex Realmuto, Harrison Epstein, and Nick Maloney were great leaders that the team looked up to and asked for help. Also, Chris Ellinghausen (X) proved himself to be an essential player. In this male-dominated team a great edition was freshman Jasmine Hughes. Although she was the only female player this year, she was never daunted by her male teammates and always gave her all to the team.

Although the season started out slowly, with a loss to rival school Hun, the PDS Golf team steadily improved during its practices at Bedens Brook. Regardless of its record, the team had an amazing season, full of improvements and warm memories. Next season, the team will not only be mourning the loss of this year's seniors, but also one of its greatest assets: Coach Reeve. The team wants to thank him for all of his help and wishes him the best of luck in the future.

T he Girl's Lacrosse team started off their season strong with a trip to sunny Florida to train during spring break. Almost all of the members of the Varsity team attended and immediately formed great bonds and connections, both during and after practices. This also gave them a chance to spend more time off the field with their incredible coaches - Coach Thomas, Coach Cook, Coach Schwab, and Coach Shea.

Upon returning to PDS, the girls were not hindered by the icy fields, rather, they proved their skill and devotion during their after school practices and as the weather became warmer, their improvements also began to show.

Senior and veteran lacrosse players, Tri-Captains: Carly Crouse, Meg Kerwin, Kristen Modzelewski, as well as Kristina Costa, and Jessica Parton, were always ready and willing to help the new players. This year there were many great new editions to the team, especially Hannah Epstein (IX) and Leah Lefebvre (IX). As the only freshmen on the Varsity team, these girls had to work twice as hard to prove their worth, and always succeeded in doing so.

Next year's team will be lead by current juniors Jess Cellars, Mary Peters, and Katy Cara. The team's sophomore goalie, Maddie Ferguson, also looks forward to helping the team achieve consistent wins throughout the next few years.

Although the Boys' Lacrosse team lost many of their core players last year, they were able to comeback and have an amazing season. The team was filled with experienced and talented seniors including Jared Makrancy, Jon Haddad, Ryan Palsho, Jim Butler, Peter Martin, Travis Helm, Stephen Adams, Bryce Lively, Oliver Burton, and Andrew Hendrickson (who unfortunately had to leave the team due to an injury). There were also several great additions to the lacrosse team this year because many freshmen joined. Although none are currently on varsity, their coaches have high hopes for them and after one season have already seen substantial improvement. The underclassmen are represented on the Varsity team through sophomores Mark Millner, Derek Mayer, Justin Mimmo, and Joey Horowitz.

To start off the 2005 season, the entire team ventured down to Florida, where they spent several hours each day training hard and bonding as a team. Through these extensive practices, the boys learned each others' strengths and weaknesses and how to work well with each other. The trip to Florida was not only memorable because of the impressive skills they developed, but also thanks to a day at Disneyworld, which everyone loved. The lacrosse coaches, Coach Tuckman, Coach Higgins, Coach Marrapodi, and Coach Gallo worked hard with the team this season and helped the boys develop their lacrosse skills tremendously. The lacrosse team will miss the current seniors, but look forward to another amazing season next spring.

Although almost everyone on the 2005 Varsity Softball team was a returning player, the team, as a whole, was very young. There were no returning seniors, but the four returning juniors led the team with skill and knowledge. Juniors Melissa Marks played second base, Cait McPhaden played short stop, Leslie Shapiro played first base, and Hannah Tamminen was catcher. Also returning this year were sophomores Nicole Auerbach as the pitcher, Jacqui Bowen in left field, Meg Francfort at first base, Krissy Garber in out field, and Katie Hartnack (X) at third base. New to the team this year were Julie Worthington (X) in out field, Elisa Cichonski (IX) in out field, and Emma Morehouse (IX) in out field.

An early highlight of the season came in the game against Newark Academy. It was the top of the seventh inning and the game was tied at 1-1. The team had two outs with Jacqui Bowen (X) on first, and Emma Morehouse (IX) was up at bat. She had two strikes on her, when she smacked the ball over the left fielder. She got a double and Jacqui came home, scoring the winning run.

One of the things the team worked on this year was the idea of the team and using team work. Our coaches, Coach Lang, Coach "Mama" Fewkes, and Coach KB brought this idea together by decorating popsicle sticks that alone could be broken, but with the whole team together could not. And using a Chinese Proverb, "A stone can not be moved with one finger."

The team grew a lot this season, working on the little things and then using them to win games. They had a fun, enjoyable season, and can't wait to come back next year!

With the guidance of Coach Campbell and Coach Asch, the Boys' Varsity Tennis team had yet another season to be proud of. Although the team lost some of its skilled players when the Class of 2004 graduated, this year's members still managed to form an incredible group. They worked hard during spring break, running sprints and concentrating on their footwork when the courts were icy and worked on their offensive and defensive game plans when the courts were dry. Whether they were traveling on long bus rides, discouraged from previous loses, or tired and weary after tough matches, the boys were extremely well-bonded and, win or lose, always had fun.

The varsity team was anchored by returning senior, Vikram Gupta, and returning junior, Seth Stein. These boys possessed strong leadership qualities that brought their team several well deserved victories.

In addition, playing first singles on the varsity team is always an accomplishment, especially for a freshman. Filling in this position was newcomer, David Holland, who was never intimidated or caught off-guard during his game, even when he had to face the top players from rival schools. Vikram Gupta (XII) and Seth Stein (XI) played second and third singles, respectively.

On the edge of Breaking Through

When it comes to the arts at PDS, students portray a variety of talents and abilities. Artists can develop creations and express themselves on paper, canvas, or clay, and photographers are able to create their own images in our very own darkroom. Student art is often displayed in the Anne Reid Gallery as well as in different areas of the school.

Mom, Dad, and Molly

Dearest Alex,

We are so very proud of the man that you have become.
Stay true to yourself and follow your kind heart.
Set your aspirations high as you reach for the stars,
And always be clear in your mind as to what could be.
As we pass the baton of life from us to you,
Remember the values we have shared.
As life’s decisions and future are in your hands,
We believe in you and hope that you find happiness and success
As you deserve the best of what life has to offer.

We love you so very much.
Congratulations!

Always with love,
Mom, Dad, and Julia
Robert-

You are a wonderful son and brother as well as an all-around great person. Congratulations on your many accomplishments at PDS. Your whole family is proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Paul

Class of 2005 is the Best

Amanda,

Sometimes when you're laughing and smiling and just being you, we catch a glimpse of the person you're growing up to be.

And know what? We like what we see! Congratulations! Love Mom and Dad

Good luck to the class of 2005

Dear Jessica,

Life is full of new adventures, each one more exciting than the last. Be yourself - there is nothing better.

Congratulations
All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Justin
Oliver,
Congratulations!
We are so proud of you.
You are our

Love Mum, Dad and AB

Congratulations to the graduates of 2005.

We will miss the PDS community.

We love you Chelsea!

Mom, Dad, and Peter
Kristen,

Over the years, you’ve annoyed us, frustrated us, challenged us, ignored us, even insulted us. We had our first peek into your personality the first time Mom let you walk across a street instead of carrying you. You were only one year old, but you refused and when Mom insisted, you just lay down in the middle of the road. (Okay, we got the point. You can get up now.)

But sometimes what looks like disobedience and rebellion in a child is just the smoldering fire of a strong-willed, independent young adult, one who insists on learning for herself, one who isn’t afraid to take a stand. Gradually and with great hopes, we now see you becoming that young adult … and wish all the future authority figures in your life “good luck!”

You have not been an easy child to parent but you’ve been an easy child to love, and our unconditional love for you remains constant. Our hope for you is that you find a passion that stokes that fire inside you, that inspires you to achieve something meaningful to you.

What is that great line Mr. Jacoby uses?

“The best is yet to come.”

Congratulations to you & the entire Class of 2005 (and their parents) … you made it!!

Oh what a celebration we have today.
Let's celebrate Kaitlyn on this graduation day.
We couldn't be happier
And we are happy to share
This happy ending with you.
Because happy is what happens
When all your dreams come true.
And may all your future dreams
Bring happiness to you.

Dear Vik:

Congratulations on successful graduation from high school.

You know hard work and good health is key to success and happiness. We admire your endurance, will power, and determination.

As you grow and move away to college to experience independence and become an adult we wish you all the success in life. Sky is the limit of success and we are confident that there is no boundary or barrier you cannot overcome.

Keep playing tennis, basketball, and soccer and keep your sense of humor and creativity.

Go out dear Vik and conquer the world. Success comes to the people who challenge themselves.

We all love you,

What a wonderful journey your 6 years at PDS have been. Your journey to college acceptance is behind you. Your high school graduation and life as a college freshman approaches rapidly. You have worked hard, played hard and have been so successful. As you venture toward the next stage of your life, we offer the following suggestions and reminders:

Be the first to say “Hello.”
Treat everyone you meet like you want to be treated.
Make new friends but cherish the old ones.
Learn to Listen. Opportunity sometimes knocks very softly.
Never deprive someone of hope: it might be all they have.
Strive for excellence, not perfection.
Be a good loser, and be a good winner.
Don’t major in minor things.
When someone hugs you, let them be the first to let go.
Fill your gas tank when it falls below one-quarter full, especially in the winter.
Don’t burn bridges. You’ll be surprised how many times you have to cross the same river.
Remember you brother loves you no matter how many times he pushes your buttons.
Always carry your cell phone...and turn it on!!! Now call home.

We are very proud of you.
Love Always,
Mom, Dad, and Drew
Dear Nicki,
How you've changed from that funny little girl who loved to fingerpaint her "whole self.”
Look at you now; you’re a warm and kind friend
a smart, very intelligent young woman
a capable and responsible young adult a caring sister and daughter a funny person who can always make us smile and laugh
a keeper of family traditions
an involved member of our community;
an EMT
tough enough to deal with difficult stuff
so much fun to be around someone we want to grow old with.

Nicki, you are an admirable young woman who has so much to give us, yourself, and the rest of the world. Congratulations on all of your hard work and successes at PDS. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jane

Dear Class of 2005,

We hope that you love
this book as much as we loved making it for you.

Congratulations on finally graduating! Yay!

Love,
Stacy and Ilana

We are prowling on the edge of a finished book,
The final pages have been submitted with a great new look.

We have survived the year with many late nights,
After managing jobs, sports, college, and office space fights.

You developed your design and layout skill,
But the litter of puppies was really the thrill.
Many thanks to you both for the effort you put in,
Best of luck and never forget us – David and Cin.

Our students are highlighted,
Our employees are honored,
Our clubs are defined,
Our sports are applauded,
Our activities are pictured,
Our proofs are approved,
Our Link is Completed!

Congratulations Stacy & Ilana -
Thank you for your awesome leadership!
