Chapman occupies a of Hudson county, has willider we from the column in what he calls my defence, but field should more properly call it his defence for the scurilous and unwarrantable attack upon twelve respectable, reputable men of the city of Rahway. He gives certificates to show that he had a case in order to make the people believe that the jury disregarded the law and evidence in his case, but unfortunate ly for him he knows more about trying his case out of court than he did in court. Bu with all of his certificates he does not disprove my position, nor that of my fellow urors. That it was not just for Gibson to pay for what his own drunken domesics had a hand in doing. I suppose he thinks that because I had in opportunity of once knowing in my court just how near he could tell truth in any matter in which he was an interested party that he has no confidence in my Justice.
