Dr. Emmons, a New England divine, met a pantheistical physician at the house of a sick parishipner. It was no place for a quarrel, but the abrupt question of the pan-theist was, "Mr. Emmons, how old are you?" "Sixty, sir; how old are you?" "As old as creation," was the triumphant response. "Then you are the same age as Adam and Eve?" Certainly, I was in the garden when they were." I always heard that there was a third party in the garden with them, but never knew before that it was you," rejoined the divine.

A BOY AGAIN, Pain and sickness bring on old age with fearful rapidity. They make an incessant drain on the vital forces, and the weary drain on life vital forces, and the weary steps and faded checks of age often come when the enjoyment of life should be at its highest. Die David Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' tuting this kind of old age into youth again.
