representatives of the Clark Senior Citizens, the Temple Beth O'r Senior Citizens Club of Clark and the St. Tentative plans discussed in March to provide a chartered bus service to Menlo Park and/or Woodbridge Malls for senior citizens in the township have apparently gone by the wayside for lack of interest.

The idea had come up as the result of a "rap session" with residents of the Fourth John the Apostle Senior Citizens Club of Clark-Linden. Although no definite plans or arrangements had been made at the meeting, the Carteret Bus Service Co. of Carteret had offered to supply a school bus. It would make pickups at about 9 a.m. in the township and would MayorBernard G. Yarusavage and the three councilmen-at-large, Manuel S. Dios, Joseph F. Farrell. Jr. and Joseph B. Pozniak. for the return trip. A representative of the Clark Senior Citizens, Mrs. Helen Rokosny, had said the cost for the round trip would have been about $1.50 per passenger.

The owner of the Carteret firm, Nat Platt, had said be would need at least 40 passengers on each run to make the program a success. However, contacted re-cently by The Clark Patriot, Mrs. Rokosny said the senior citizens she had spoken with did not like having to spend all day in a shopping area waiting for the bus to make its return trip to Clark. Mr. Platt added he has not been contacted about the plan recently. In any event, he noted; the senior citizen service would only be feasible if it was scheduled around the same time as his company's normal school runs in the township.

A free transportation pro gram had been offered early last year to take senior
