TOUCH OF ITALY - On June 13 the Clark Folk Festival was held in the gymnasium of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark. To the left, the Clark Unico Club members served coffee and home-made Italian pastries, and the men made Pizza Fretta, and sold soda. Serving the pastry is Vera Abruzzo, the secretary of the Auxiliary. Helping serve with their aprons are Barbara Pisano, left, and Linda Pellisser, both members of the Auxiliary. (Please see another picture inside.)

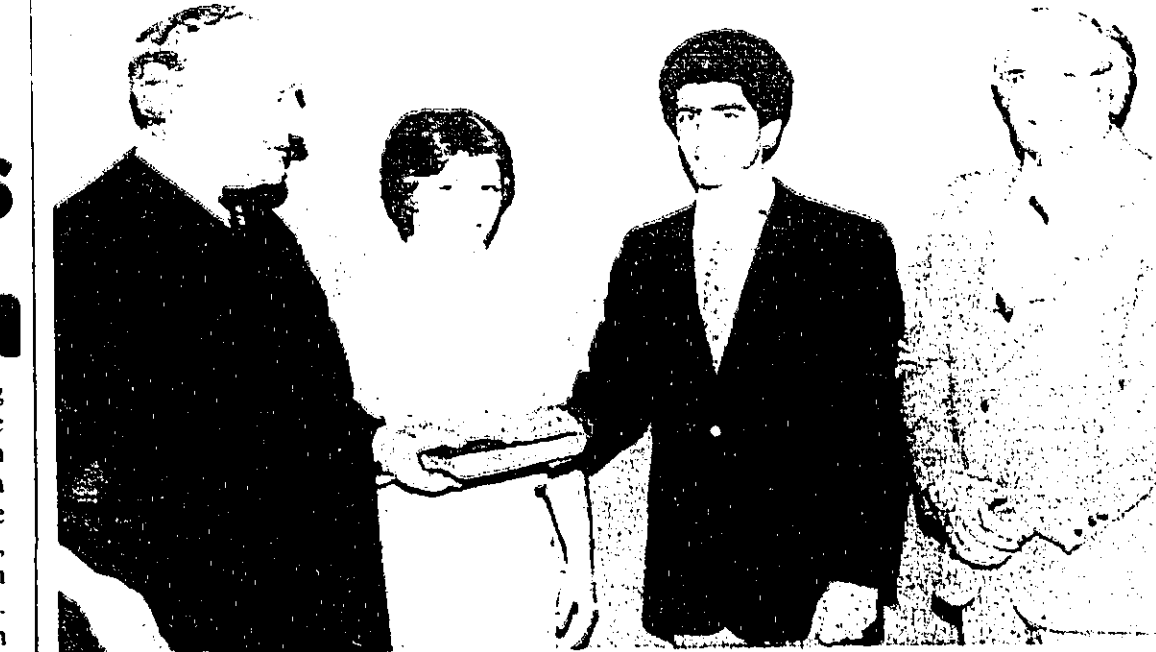

FUTURE CRONKITE? - Bonnie Kartzman, a freshman at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark, was awarded the outstanding-essay prize from the school for her entry in the Bell Laboratories "Outlook for Water in the 90's" contest. Sponsored by Bell Laboratories, Murray Hill Council of the Telephone Pioneers of America, the environmental essay contest was open to all students attending high schools in Union County. In addition to her award Miss Kartzman and seven other selected students attended the awards luncheon at Bell Laboratories, and had a tour of the Laboratories.

SPANISH SUPERSTARS - The Spanish Honor Society recently held a candlelight induction ceremony held at the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark. The honor society consists of students who have maintained a 3.5-or-better average in Spanish. The parents of the students were present to share in this honor. Certificates of Award were presented by Aldo Collura, the co-ordinator of foreign languages for the Union County Regional High School District No. 1, which includes Clark, and Mrs. Gloria Menendez, the society advisor. Following the ceremony, a buffet consisting of

City banks shut drive-ins for dedication

Due to the dedication parade and ceremonies for Rahway's new City Hall and Police Headquarters, drive-up windows for all banks located in downtown Rahway will be closed on Saturday, June 26. In addition, although bank lobbies will be open for normal business, parking in the downtown area will be restricted. All customers of banks located in downtown Rahway are advised to con-

PEER POWER - Vito Gagliardi and Carole Tredeau, students at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark, were sworn in at the Union County Court House by Judge Steven Berck to serve on the Juvenile Conference Committee in Clark. The committee consists of adult community residents, and deals with minor juvenile infractions before they go to court. This is the first year students will be serving on this committee. Looking on is Louis DeRosa, the principal of the school.
