RAILWAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1886.
Sun, Fair and Breeze.

New York. A thorn in the bush is worth one in the hand.
Pumpkin is a thorough foodstuff. It is not only good for the stomach, but it is also good for the blood. It is a good food for the poor, and it is a good food for the rich. It is a good food for the old, and it is a good food for the young. It is a good food for the sick, and it is a good food for the healthy. It is a good food for the whole world.

You have heard of the thorn in the bush. You have heard of the thorn in the side. You have heard of the thorn in the eye. You have heard of the thorn in the heart. You have heard of the thorn in the soul. You have heard of the thorn in the world. You have heard of the thorn in the flesh. You have heard of the thorn in the bone. You have heard of the thorn in the marrow. You have heard of the thorn in the blood. You have heard of the thorn in the life.

A thorn in the bush is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the side is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the eye is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the heart is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the soul is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the world is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the flesh is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the bone is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the marrow is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the blood is worth one in the hand. A thorn in the life is worth one in the hand.
