THESE PILLS, so celebrated many years in Paris, for the relief of female irregularities, and afterward so notorious for their extensive employment in the practice of quacks, are now offered for sale for the first time in America, at a price which places them comparatively cheaply within the fact that the reputation of Velpeau, in a physician in France of great wealth and most extraordinary professional skill, would shield them from presentation here, but they should be employed for enhanced profits by the ignorant pretenders to female practice.
Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharges, they must not be taken by females interested in the preservation of their offspring, as they produce a flood-gushes from whatever cause may have occasioned them; but they are offered to the public for legitimate uses, and all agents are prohibited by

RAHWAY, THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1866.

Fun, Fact and Fancy.

What article of dress is of a cannon?—Cannon's mouth, cannon's eye, and cannon's sleeve.

What is that which always goes to bed with its shoes on?—A horse.

What is the price per lb. that we must pay for oil?—A whole pound.

What work must never cease to be done?—A will.

What is that?

We are often asked in the "how we get it?" Because they have no visible means of support.

What rod was never used by Hebrew children?—The Israelite.

What is the difference between a lawyer and a speculator?—One is a shyster, the other a shyster.

A waste of labor—sweeping a chimney in good faith that a New Year's Reception is to follow, and before the evening arrives.

Why is a dressmaker like a whale?—Because she makes a bone of contention.

Gen. STONEMAN'S MEMPHIS SPEECH.

The following is a full report of the speech made by General Stoneman at the Memphis meeting to ratify the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention, over which, it will be remembered, General Forrest presided:—

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS:—You have called before you not a partisan nor a politician, but a simple citizen of the government of the United States, knowing no North, no South, no East, no West. The war in which the people of this greatest of all great countries has been engaged during the past eventful years is ended; the issues upon which that war was based are settled. If there is anything to forgive; if there is anything to be forgot, let it be forgotten. Let us all recollect that we have but one country and one flag. The object for which appeals all assembled here to-day is, as I understand it, reconstruction and reunion. You may force a separated man and wife to live in the same house, lodge in the same room, but they will never be reunited as man and wife until they have met at the same mutual altar and there again vowed. As we are coming out of war, let us be again friend, and in this sentiment I know that none will join me more heartily than the gallant and distinguished President of this assemblage. The bravery that was displayed during the past by each one engaged in the war, let it be the common property of all. Soldiers who did the fighting are reconciled and want peace and harmony, and we call upon you citizens and orators of the land to aid us with your pens and tongues. Preachers of the Gospel whose solemn obligation is to preach peace and good will, we ask your prayers and invocations, and from you, politicians, we demand that you eschew all your wrangling and allow the good work to go on until our object is attained. And you, fair maidens and noble widows, who during the fighting cheered us with your smiles and bright eyes as well as forbore to lend us the potency of your power in the accomplishment of a work so laudable and so noble. As I am not a candidate for your suffrage nor have I ever been, and never can a vote for President in my life, so you will understand me as above my question; but this much I will say—I have been member of a club for nearly a quarter of a century, and which was composed three-quarters of a century ago. By the constitution of that club it is to meet in council or elected every four years. Its first President was George Washington. Its present President is Andrew Johnson, whom the people call "Old Andy."

FRAUDULENT CIRCULAR.

From the National Intelligencer, August 27.

National Union Executive Committee,
Room No. 7, 430 Seventh street.

Dear Sir:—As you are aware of the P. M. holding your appointment under the present administration, it is hoped for good of the country a good and true Johnson man, and that could hence can be place them in for the purpose of rendering said position more efficient. Therefore we request you to forward to me by next mail such letters for which I will send you a duplicate of the same.

1st. This circular is to be kept private; no person is to have access to it but yourself.

2d. If you are found to be false to the above request.

3d. If you are not a Johnson man, you will in confidence send the names, as our enemies would rejoice to get hold of this circular.

4th. If you are true to the Administration you are to be made deputy of your district.

5th. If you keep these matters and act on the all you unite the party, and become equitably prominent and efficient, you will be informed of this, forward to me by next mail duplicate for which I will send you a duplicate of the same.

Yours truly,

E. G. CLERK & CO.,
Gen. Ag'ts for U. S. & Canadas.
