CONVENTION REPORTS.

RAHWAY, N. J., SEPTEMBER 3, 1890.

DELEGATE MEETINGS.

At the Union County Democratic Convention a resolution was adopted calling upon the President of the United States to open a few days thereafter a meeting at Englewood to invite Gen. Grant to speak. A man and a lawn in charge of the member of Congress who introduced the resolution was a testimonial of the deep interest of the citizens for his uncle. A few days ago, Everytown, a town of about 1,000 inhabitants, held a meeting at which it was decided to send a delegation to the meeting at Englewood. This was done, and the delegation, as a whole, is to be congratulated, as it is the first time that the people of a town have sent a delegation to the national convention.

The following is the text of the resolution:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Union County Democratic Convention,

do hereby call upon the President of the United States,

to open a few days thereafter,

a meeting at Englewood,

to invite Gen. Grant to speak.

That the Union County Dele-

gate Convention,

do hereby call upon the President of the United States,

to open a few days thereafter,

a meeting at Englewood,

to invite Gen. Grant to speak.

That the Union County Dele-

gate Convention,

do hereby call upon the President of the United States,

to open a few days thereafter,

a meeting at Englewood,

to invite Gen. Grant to speak.

That the Union County Dele-

The National Democrat.

RAHWAY, N. J., SEPTEMBER 2, 1869.

A DOG AND A LADDER.—An incident occurred some time ago at Cincinnati, on board the steamer Buckeye, just as she was about to depart for New Orleans.

A tall countryman carrying a pair of saddle bags on his arm and covered with perspiration and who looked as though he could not tell his name or where he came from, went up to the cabin, and sat at the top of his voice:

"What is Captain McInnis? Is Captain McInnis on the boat?"

No one answered.

"Well, then, what is the captain? I must see Captain McInnis."

On being informed that the captain was not there, he became impudent, and passed the night on board that vessel.

"I have the planks and shovels for you," said one of his ears just as he got ashore.

"I am a sailor, captain," replied Jim, "going to New Orleans." "Bring out the plank," said the captain.

"I am a sailor, captain," said the boy.
