THE LEGISLATURE

The Ninety-fourth session of the New Jersey Legislature convened at Trenton on Tuesday afternoon, July 10, 1934.

Present were Governor Moore, Speaker of the Assembly, and the members of the Senate and Assembly.

The first business of the session was the reading of the Governor's message to the Legislature.

The Governor's message dealt with the state of the state and the progress of the administration.

The message also dealt with the state's financial condition and the need for reform.

The Governor's message was received with interest and approval by the Legislature.

The Legislature then proceeded to the consideration of the Governor's message.

The Legislature will continue its session tomorrow.
