The National Democrat.

RAHWAY, N. J., MARCH 3, 1859.

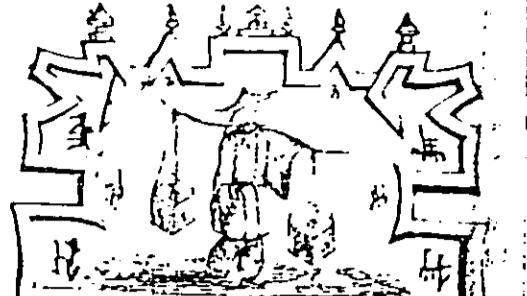

A COURT NOT MUCH ACCOUNT made between and gossip was commenced in the country as well as other societies by the recent marriage at Elizabeth, of an individual giving his name as Count Otto von Below to Miss Mary E. Conkey, a well known and wealthy family in that city. The Count appeared in Elizabeth yesterday and was accompanied with Miss Conkey who had been married to him. He has been interviewed by the different reporters and it appears that the Count is a native of Austria-Hungary, being born there in 1825. He is a man of great wealth, being a member of the upper classes, and is a graduate of the University of Vienna. He is a man of great tact and diplomacy, and is well known throughout Europe. He is a man of great personal魅力, and is a favorite with the ladies. He is a man of great political influence, and is a member of the Austrian Parliament. He is a man of great personal魅力, and is a favorite with the ladies. He is a man of great political influence, and is a member of the Austrian Parliament.
