POETRY

THE RECONSTITUTION

The following is a poem by [Name] published in this issue.

The Reconstitution

When the great Nation's fabric was first woven,
 When the people's voices were first given,
 When the stars and stripes were first unfurled,
 When the eagle's wings were first unfurled,
 When the first step was taken in the path
 Of the Republic's glory and its faith,
 When the first law was made and first enforced,
 When the first word of truth was first conveyed,
 When the first light of freedom first appeared,
 When the first spark of liberty was kindled,
 When the first seed of justice first was sown,
 When the first ray of hope first was shown,
 When the first breath of life first was blown,
 When the first pulse of life first was known,
 When the first step was taken in the path
 Of the Republic's glory and its faith,
 When the first law was made and first enforced,
 When the first word of truth was first conveyed,
 When the first light of freedom first appeared,
 When the first spark of liberty was kindled,
 When the first seed of justice first was sown,
 When the first ray of hope first was shown,
 When the first breath of life first was blown,
 When the first pulse of life first was known,
