PAHWAY, N.J., OCTOBER 18th, 1870

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.
FOR CONGRESS
1st DIST.—BENJAMIN F. LEE.

FOR ASSEMBLY—2d DISTRICT,
JOSEPH W. YATES.
FOR GOVERNOR,
WM. H. LISTER, Elizabeth,
EDWARD B. THORNE, Plainfield,
BRUNN S. DEAN, Summit.

SURVEY.—Owing to a crowd of advertisements, local and other matters, we are compelled to fatten a supplement this week, in order to give our readers a good supply of reading matter.

TO WORK!

The political campaign in this county is now fully inaugurated, all the Democratic nominations having been made, and the Republican nominations, if not made, are pretty well summed up. Now let the Democracy go earnestly to work and secure such a victory as will give power to do, if all unite with the proper spirit. Especially will this be required in this Assembly district, considering that we have great disadvantages to contend with. The candidate we have placed in nomination is a man of ability, and one in whom the Democracy can place implicit confidence, as to his sound principles. Let all minor local bickerings and differences among Democrats sink into insignificance, when we remember the important party questions that are to be decided by the next Legislature. Do not let one member of the party proscribe another because the one may say "it is a ruse," while the other may insist that "it is a rat," or some other difference of opinion of similar unimportant bearing upon the general election. A party cannot gain or maintain power by driving members from it, but it can be done by keeping all they have and encouraging others to unite with them.

JOSEPH W. YATES.

Since the nomination of Joseph W. Yates by the Democrats of the Second Assembly District, last week, the question has been asked by some "Who is Yates?" It is, however, becoming very generally understood who he is, and all are finding him to be a gentleman of ability, honor and correct principles, universally respected in his neighborhood by both Democrats and Republicans. He is a member of the Common Council of Plainfield, in which position he has become popular, being the originator of most of the public ordinances that tend to the advantage of that young city, and opposing, from his correct judgment, all that is not for the benefit of the people generally. He is a successful merchant, having gained a competency by his business tact, and can be relied upon as supporting those measures that will tend to the interests of his constituents, elected to the Legislature. He is capable of maintaining his positions by argument, if necessary, but will not remain silent when necessary to advance his sentiments on any question of debate. As an evidence of his popularity, he last year received the largest vote, we believe, of any person running for office in strong Republican Plainfield. Vote for Yates if you want a representative that will be an honor to the district.

Reports frequently come to us, from different sources, that certain individuals are endeavoring to injure us in the opinions of Democrats, by questioning our Democracy. We are not as advanced in years as many others, yet we can say for the benefit of all such, that we have voted quite a number of times, and have been depended upon every time as casting a solid ballot for the straight Democratic candidate, and have never betrayed the trust—in fact, we inherit Democracy from our ancestors. Can our accusers say as much? Because we do not choose to endorse editorially the whims of individuals about affairs outside of general politics, it is no reason that our Democracy should be questioned. "Let him that is without sin cast the first stone!" As we have repeatedly stated, however, our columns are always open for the discussion of proper questions, whether we coincide with the views of the writers or not, but we will, editorially, assist to defeat the interests of the party of our choice by encouraging local dimensions.

The Democrats of Middlesex county did a wise thing in nominating their stanch and popular Democrat, Sheriff James Applegate, for State Senator. He is well and favorably known from one end of the county to the other, commands the respect of all, and is fully competent to fill the honorable and responsible office for which he has been nominated. His opponent, Levi D. Jarrard, is a wire-pulling politician, and is always up for some office, and who knows that he carries Middlesex county in his pocket, meaning that he can be elected by means of his money and business influences. Let the voters of that county rebuke him by giving a large majority for the people's friend, James Applegate.

DELAWARE IS DEMOCRATIC!—At the election for inspectors held on Tuesday, of last week, the Democrats carried the State by 2,000 majority. This is one of the states which the Radicals thought to revolutionize by the aid of negro voters.

The Advocate of this city is a very good mirror of the feelings of the little Major Pangborn, of the Jersey City Journal, though the Newark Advertiser often furnishes considerably copy.

We learn that the Monmouth County Democratic Convention, held on Tuesday, took a step in advance of other conventions that have been held, by adopting a resolution urging the repeal of the notorious fifteenth radical amendment. Although it seems preposterous to recommend the repeal of an act that has never been legally adopted, yet when it is remembered that the radical destructionists can control the judiciary as well as executive branches of the U.S. government, it is proper that the issue, which must come sooner or later, be at once made. They also, among other oppressive revenue laws, denounce the oppressive revenue laws, whereby a great portion of the amount collected goes into the pockets of radical officials—and favor the correct principle of having the collection made by states, each state assuming its proportion and becoming responsible for the amount, thus doing away with the thousands of revenue collectors, and assessors, as the collections can then be made by local officers at a very small expense. This is an important issue, and one that should be decided by all. The idea of the Republicans is to keep these officers in at large salaries in order to use them for perpetuating their power by the money drawn from the tax-payers, who are chiefly the mechanics and workingmen of the country.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Union County Democratic convention was held yesterday at the Court House, Elizabeth. Owing to the importance of the convention, there were no candidates to nominate but Corcoran, the attorney was not large. Andrew Durher was elected chairman and J. S. Hyer secretary. A motion that no candidate for Sheriff be nominated was carried. The convention adjourned until Friday, when the previous resolutions were unanimously agreed by their Lodge, to present a suitable testimonial to La Fayette Lodge as an evidence of appreciation of the kind services of its members. A large hand-and-mouth-meeting, containing a handily expressed act of resolutions was then brought forward which was proceeded to formally present and which were appropriately responded to by W. M. The resolutions are as follows:
