Edward Norton, the fugitive now confined in Raymond Jail, Brooklyn, was identified by Superintendent Rice of Paterson, N. J., Thursday, and 14 persons have been arrested as owners of the various property found in his former abode. Superintendent Rice states that Norton's whole life has been criminal, his first great offence having been an outrage on a woman whose house he subsequently robbed and burned. He thus far has not been sentenced to any years imprisonment. He then walked out of the jail unescorted with his negro slave, Curtis, leaving a record of the crimes which had instigated the keeper shut him in the walls, and put him to work. As Assistant Prosecutor, obtained an order that he should be treated as other prisoners, and Norton became religious. After 10 years imprisonment he was released, only to resume his old habits. The next act was to rob the house of Mr. Pease, who had obtained his parole, and had given him money with which to begin life over. After 12 years freedom.	JOB PRINTING! Judge Delaney, of the Mercer county court, has issued the appropriate order for the trial of James Langford, the Indian who murdered his wife, Mrs. and sentenced her to be hanged on Thursday May 1. As he was leaving in charge of the Sheriff, he received a blow from a stone, striking him on the head, which he believed to be from John Hall, of the Union, who had just left the court. As he passed down the aisle, another man, who had remained in the courtroom, struck him on the back and snatched his robes at the Judge's box, shouting "Good God! I've found evidence, come poor man, hang."	NATIONAL DEMOCRAT	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	MARS & RYNO.	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. The arrangement for the trial of the negro, Mr. Norton, which was over-ruled by the court, gave the Indians power to question and decide the accused. Many poor persons were taken to the trial, and the negroes were compelled to pay their expenses.	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	RAHWAY WOOD WORKS	MARS & RYNO.
