TO CONTRACTORS.
The undersigned has been appointed by the Board of Public Works, to receive and examine all proposals for the construction of a new bridge over the Rahway River, at the place where the old bridge was destroyed by fire. The plans and specifications for the same are on file in the office of the undersigned, and will be furnished to any person who may desire to see them, on application to the undersigned, and on payment of the fee of one dollar. The proposals must be submitted in writing, and must be accompanied by a cash deposit of one thousand dollars, which will be returned to the proposer if the same is not accepted. The proposals must be submitted to the undersigned on or before the 1st day of October next. The undersigned is not responsible for the accuracy of the plans and specifications, and will not be bound to accept any proposal.

POETRY.
A TALK AMONG THE TOMBS.
By R. A. TALBOT.
The shadows of the night were deep,
And the moonlight shone on the tomb-stones,
As I walked alone through the silent street,
And the wind whistled through the tomb-stones.
I saw the faces of the dead,
And the names of the departed,
And the hearts of the living,
And the souls of the departed.

DISPENSARY INCIDENT.
The passage on the western line, from New York to Philadelphia, is a most interesting one, and is well worth a visit. The route is a most beautiful one, and is well worth a visit.
