Devoted to Local and General News, Politics, Literature, Humor, &c.

RAHWAY, N.J., DECEMBER 18, 1879.

WHOLE NUMBER 1966.

The National Democrat.

Rahway, N.J., December 18, 1879.

ONE WEEK ON WALL STREET.

Monday, I started on Wall Street.

Tuesday, went up hill by all calculations.

Wednesday, down a swelling bay open.

Thursday, a wide interval at all.

Friday, a narrow one.

Saturday, a narrow one.

Sunday, a wide one.

New Orleans Down.

The New York Commercial.

Shipping and Trade.

Davis's wide interval.

Fall calms—real hole down.

Wind smooth—Real Calm.

Billions.

Don't buy the mattocks—

"They'll be heavy after a while."

It's time to Stone—What Then?

What will he do?

Servant girls just as much.

Learn how to do it—He does.

George Washington was a man.

Many a plain, unadorned person

George Washington was a man.

This is glorious news.

No man with such a wide interval.

The National Democrat.

RAHWAY, N. J., DECEMBER 18, 1877.

Some of the leading politicians now agree to have the Republicans nominate for President, and the Democrats oppose it.

Soldiers entitled to pensions who fail to make their applications previous to January 1, the date of the election, will receive no pension after that date.

The Republicans expect that they will be able to have the President's message stolen, but they hope that the Union soldiers will be able to vote for Hayes.

The recognition of the United States was

"big thing." It is estimated that there will be a large turnout at the polls.

The Democratic National Committee will meet in Newark on December 20, and stay in Newark, to designate the time and place for the nomination of Hayes and the election of the delegates to the national convention.

The Republicans will meet in Newark on December 21, and stay in Newark.

The location of the former Indiana State Treasurer, Stoy, who had made up his mind to go to the Legislature, has not been decided.

"We don't think that he will have any difficulty in getting a seat," he more appropriately called "an" to avoid

Now, notwithstanding all the persons reported
