

THE END.

George Barnes, who was editor of The Call, told him the next day, and gave him business office for money himself look respectable. The look possession of his chair months Barnes tried to

of him.

the end of that time, in 1891, y, he tried to let Mark y and politely, by saying don't you think you are w talents in doing local wa with your style and talent more money writing for than in such work as

[illegible]

A Rise in the Mark
Moley sent a recently employed postoffice clerk for fifty cents stamps. When the clerk returned, "you have thirty cents' worth of stamps," he said.

"Tut him fifty cents fur 'em you didn't. You have Stamps are two cents a only brought me 'fifteen five."
"Ok heah, boss, I'se power yer doan keep up wid de
' stamps hab dun riz."
"Tut!"
"In riz, I tells yer."
"I've me twenty cents, Simo we ken I gin yer de erms ed so much fur de stam
... ..

an' dat an' yeh an' sta up, an' heah yer comes a t' twenty cents. Neber life. Er pusson kaunt li yer widout gettin' inter t fault dat de market ch I went out ter buy some
 'cuzed o' stealin'. Neber ze er white man no hov eler.

The Young Art

PAINT, THE BRUSH, THE

THE WORK OF

THE CRITIC W

Sunbeams
A CLOSE STUDY

"Is your son studying the alred the visitor of Mrs.
George is at college.
"Oh, yes," Mrs. Bently re-esterday that he writ ay a German student lock."

CONTAINED BY THE

Magistrate (to prisoner)—Prisoner—Patrick McGo Magistrate—Is it an Iris Prisoner—Yes, yer hono
Magistrate—That's wat
ccint is frightful.

PATRIOTISM VERSUS
"This prize fighting busi remarked a citizen. "Th ing each other to pulp. It country, and the laws oug
"But the coming fight is representatives of England another citizen. "It will affair."

"Is that so? Then I'll win."—New York Sun.

Work of the Med
A Philadelphia editor s confidence" in stating marched past the offices o legation in London on playing "Yankee Doodl American minister, Aske pened to be standing on tune it was.—New York

We do not say it on our a subscriber has just dropped the sun was so hot on S that a cake of ice which ing into a store caught fire ing the sidewalk.—New bay?—Tid-Bits.

A Sunday school teacher asked his infants to ask any of their minds, and a little the circus coming?—C.

When a fellow school

