In Stacy's show case there are four, (3x10) views taken on the premises of L. M. Stacy, who lives near this city, which are very fine and well kept for him until this week.

The average weight was 240 pounds at 8 cents per pound.

The show was held on Tuesday afternoon, and was driven through the streets decorated with ribbons. They have all been made "mut-four of this.

A horse belonging to a man named

Pierce, who resides on the Shunkle in Linden township, created some excitement on Wednesday afternoon by falling down in front of Schneider's bakery. The accident was due to smooth shoes, and horses are liable to be arrested and fined, not the cruelty to animals act, for not keeping their horses properly shod during slippery seasons.
