A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'lvory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.

ADULTERATION.

Things are not what they seem. Ve should say What with sand in our sugar, water in ou rmilk, or to be more correct, milk in our water, and in our butter and beans in our coffee, things are not what they seem. About the only article they cant adulterate is an egg or a potato, and we even read recently, that a woman n the South they have got the introduction of cotton down so fine as to almost deceive the very elect—or tailors.

Hence many a suit which looks nice in a window, yes, and even feels soft to the touch, don't wear as the man expects. As far as we can, not alone by our eyesight, but by other tests, we protect our patrons' interests in this respect and we only confidently recommend an article when we can do so with safety to our reputation.

We have a number of different makes of cloth, the wearing qualities of which we can vouch for, but none which we sell with greater pleasure than the celebrated Sawyer Cheviots. LOCAL NEWS,

A RT needle-work and valuable embroideries are frequently ruined, Hor their beauty much impaired by washing them with ordinary soap, which is too rank for such delicate articles. A simple, and the proper method is to make suds of hot water and Ivory SOAP, and allow to cool till lukewarm. This solution, while very effective, is perfectly harmless.

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the livery';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Proctor & Gamble.

Driving through the village with Dick two nights afterward, he paused before the inn, and requested Dick to hold the reins a moment. Richard, now having learned to acquiesce, did as ke was told, and asked no questions. Jean, the watchday, was inclined to bark, but recognizing Fairfax's voice, approached the latter, wagging his tail propitiously. From a capacious cost pocket Fairfax produced a little basket, and, unlocking the door of the dove-cote dulckly seized the first inmate upon which he could lay hands, and thrust it into the basket. Jean looked on with interest, imperiods it might prove a meal for Who were so difficult to manage with the old process. Exchange Building, SCIENT HANDSOME CUTTIN Being selected by the RAHWAY, N.
