As it seems to be the general impression that am interested in the Wood Yard over the river formerly run by Mr. John Bennett, this is to notify all those that wish to buy their Wood of me, that I have no interest in that yard in any particular. It is run exclusively in my Brother's interest. I am at the old stand on Hazelwood average near the Columbian school house, where I keep on hand a full supply of Wood, Locust, Cedar and Chestnut Posts. Bean Poles in their season. The "Old Gray Mare" will be a full guarantee that you are getting your Wood from me.

After all, his real hold on life for a good many years had been through that page; as it began to crisp, he glanced up quickly at the goblet, then out of the square dormer window. Lights were beginning to gleam in the houses beyond the Schuylkill, the sky warmed red as cinnabar in the frosty sunset, while wisps of feathery smoke from some passing steamer wavered across it. The world gave him a friendly look—for the last. He threw the paper in the fire, put out his hand for the goblet—when there was a sud den soft flurry behind him, and two nervous little hands were clapped over his eyes. The next thing was a hearty kiss right on his "Why, Madeline! child! is it you?" However false and disreputable his course had been since he was a man, he at least was right, he thought, in this act of its "Nothing in his life so became him as the ending of it," he quoted to himself. "But McMurray would call it a theatrical trick." Jack was at the street door; in a few minutes it would be too late. He thrust his fingers into his pocket and secreted the little vial in his palm. He went to the door as if to close it. At that moment Maddy caught sight of a yellow bit of writing on the hearth, stooped, picked it up. She nodded as she read it without surprise. "His son! And Jack wants the old man now to deny it! Not to stand in his way?" The first hint about that poor white rabbit

The Law of Growth.

The law of growth is health and favorable conditions. all healthy things grow. For confirmation of this fact bok at your little boy in his last year's suit. This may of growth is as true of a business as it is of a tree. Our wind business is a striking illustration of this; if we nay judge by the manner in which it continues to exgard it is in a most healthy condition. In casting about o find reasons for this, we sometimes attribute it to one thing and sometimes to another. It is not the amount figuring in the newspaper. It is not to be found in helalleged extraordinary inducements offered by our onipetitors. Still there is a reason why public patrongelcontinues to increase. What, then? Why our pries or rather the real value, we give in return for money

It's a mere waste of time to go hunting round for sargains when you can pick out of our (this season tresh, Stylish Stock a brand new suit for $10 or she which only a little while ago was worth $20. It looks as though Flannels, Serges and Light Weight Theviots would have the likeliest kind of a sale in the gear future. At any rate, we are prepared for a rush h this class of goods, and, like the entire stock, they are of marvellous value. What is true of our Men's Department is equally true of our Boys' and Children's. Bring in your growing boys and have them fitted out for Spring and Summer or whatever you choose to call the present season.

by purchasing the best Piano. Do not decide what make to get until you have investigated the claims that are made for the Estey Piano. The patent repeating action used in these pianos makes them superior to all others, but besides this there are many other improvements that are not found in other makes. The immense business now being done in these pianos all over the world, and the surprising increase in the demand for them proves that there is something in their near
