resident Cleveland's Letter Acceptance

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3, 1983. The Hon Patrick A. Collins and Othera Committee, etc. GENTLEMER-In addressing formal acceptance of the nomination to the presidency of the United States, my thoughts persistently dwell upon the impressive relation of such action to the American people ing upon a contest for continued supremier. The world does not afford a speciacle more sublime than is furnished when millions of free and intelligent American citizens select the full measure of public duty in ready submission to their will.

It follows that a candidate for this high and the strife which attend the selection of its incumbent shall be heard no more, there must be in the quiet calm which follows a complete chosen president of every faculty and endeavor to the service of a confiding and generous nation of freemen.
