Bridgeport's public schools cost that city $137,817 last year, and Council has appropriated $138,350 for the same purpose for the ensuing year. Bridgeport had about 3,000 more inhabitants than Rahway at the time, and our appropriation is about $100,000.

Rev. Wm. H. VanAntwerp, for a number of years Rector of St. Paul's church, this city, and recently of Des Moines, Iowa, will spend Sunday in Rahway, and will officiate at both morning and evening service at St. Paul's. His many friends will gladly welcome him.

Bob Hunting's shows which exhibited in this Wednesday and Thursday of this week were pronounced by those who attended as the best that have been here for a long time, though the price of admission was but ten cents. The clowns got off some good local hits which excited much applause by the large audience.

Those who went to Ocean Grove on the excursion Wednesday had the opportunity of seeing more people, probably than were there at any time before. There were twelve large excursions, besides the usual extra number that attend the camp meeting. Franklin street M. E. church, of Newark (Rev. Mr. Hutz) was there with 1,000 people.

The 2d M. E. excursion train was formed in passing South Amboy Wednesday night, just before the wreck of a freight train occurred at that point. The wreck caused several hours delay for other trains. We have had the pleasure of viewing the handsome portraits of Judge Savage and wife, which we referred to as having been painted and presented to them before they left Rahway. The pictures are very life-like and handsomely finished and framed. Mr. and Mrs. Savage have had numerous callers at their Milton avenue residence, since their return.

Never in the history of Rahway has any other article gained such popularity as the game of baseball. It is now the favorite game of all classes as fully seen.

G. Morris Cole, aged about twenty, who is learning the trade of machinist at the Signal Works, jumped on a freight train Wednesday morning to "catch a ride" to his work, and in getting off while the train was in motion slipped and fell, cutting and bruising himself considerably, but not seriously. He thinks, however, he will prefer walking to catching rides.

Police Justice Quinlan is becoming the dread of old doers by reason of his quite severe sentences, as he puts a pretty heavy fine upon all guilty parties that come before him—or sends them down if the fine is not forthcoming. The people seem to commend him for this action, which will tend to make parties very careful of violating the city laws.

The Mayor received a few days ago, from a city in Germany, a request to send evidence of the death of Casper (Kaiser), which occurred in this city in 1861, there being some property to divide among his brothers, which could not be done until legal evidence of his death was produced. The record of the death was found in the Clerk's office, and a certificate duly forwarded.

Charles McBirney was arrested and taken before Police Justice Truesler, Saturday afternoon, on a charge of disorderly conduct, for using insulting language to himself and daughter. He said he supposed he was guilty, but pleaded drunkenness as an excuse. The language was very offensive, and the justice gave the young man a fine of $10 and costs, pending his trial.

The 2d M. E. Sunday School and congregation had good weather for their excursion to Ocean Grove on Wednesday. All had a splendid time. Though the number was not so great as the other two excursions that have gone to the shore this season, the financial returns were better, as there was but a single school to transport, while the others had three and four.

If the Index of Rahway should take a vote on the subject of sport, we think the verdict would be 100 to 1 in favor of Tulip water. Water power is getting to be one of the things of the past. Water is principally used in factories now for making steam, and for other purposes.

Chief Tucker and officer Connor and several other men, who were kept at Coney Island for their health, and will stay there for an hour, or if he agrees with him he may stay two hours. His particularly requests that we will not mention it, as he does not wish to "get in the papers."
