There was no reply. "I wish you good night," said Perry, but his eyes wandered in a way that told the story of his thoughts. "Why, here he comes back in a way that tells me of a very different face and form—and still there was no answer.

The manager came back upon the piazza and stepped rapidly towards them. Perry quickly dismounted and bent down over the crumpling figure.

"Your employer is faint, or something is going wrong."

"Hush!" was the low spoken, hurried answer. "The Englishman!" "Just behind a hand, will you and help me to lift him to my horse."

Quickly they turned. Here he was the man in the light of the man in the dark. He had a look that told of a man who had seen something that he did not want to tell.

RAILWAY, N. J., NOV. 14, 1889.

FOR GOVERNOR, LEON ABBETT, OF HUDSON.

FOR MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY, DR. JAMES C. WELLS, OF JERSEY CITY; FREDERICK C. MARSH, OF MORRISTOWN; WILLIAM A. CODDINGTON, OF PLAINFIELD.

POSTSCRIPT.

By telephone communication we learn that we are getting very few votes for Leon A. Coddington of Plainfield, was unanimously nominated at the 85th Annual Democratic Convention...

The Lowell Times think it is Abbotte or Grebb, in either case, of course, the former is bound to win.

Supplement.—Whereas with this issue we supplement our former issue with political information, which it would have been impossible to give in our usual space...

The Newark News, an independent paper, very justly says that "the business of trying to deprive Leon Abbotte of the honor of being the father of the equalization law is hardly creditable."

Mr. Gregg presented a bill having for its object the setting of a large right of the tax upon corporations, but the record shows that no effort was made to push the bill to a passage.

The Cleveland Thinker referring to the New Jersey political contest remarks: "The New Jersey Republicans have given up the hope of wheedling the Prohibitionists into supporting the Republican ticket."

The Assembliesman Throckmorton is betting that Leon Abbotte will receive 1,600 majority in Monmouth county, which was carried by the Republican candidate for Governor three years ago.

It was true—on Saturday City Clerk Lambert opened the ballot boxes used in the regular election last spring, and so many have had a curiosity to ascertain whether a careful count would have changed the result as returned by the Mayor...

Hon. Fred O. Demarest, was unanimously renominated for Assemblyman in the 34th district of this county on Friday afternoon last, and it was very proper he should be.

MORE JUGGLING.

Councillman Farrell, as referred to last week came to the front again at the meeting of Council with the following lengthy and meaningless preamble, and an impracticable resolution in relation to the water bond adjustment question...

Councilman Farrell, as referred to last week came to the front again at the meeting of Council with the following lengthy and meaningless preamble, and an impracticable resolution in relation to the water bond adjustment question...

He and his amanuenses, appear to have now, as never, but little conception of the importance of the existing compromise.

Believing as we do that the veterans of the late war for the preservation of the Union is not only the greatest honor but also the greatest duty of every citizen...

John J. VanBuskirk, Bayonne; E. P. Richards, H. H. Brooker, Jersey City; J. J. Johnson, H. B. O. Stahl, Trenton; Richard Garrett, Jersey City; W. J. Livingston, Hoboken; James Van Buskirk, J. M. Homiller, R. Grasper, J. A. Oudum, Bayonne; Walter A. Barrow, Newark; Porter W. O'Neil, Trenton; John Gimes, J. B. Ellinghaus, N. J. Dennis, Jersey City; Henry G. O'Connell, Union Hill; P. O'Connell, Woodbury; Doyle, Jersey City; Richard A. Donnell, Newark; Hawkey, Trenton; E. H. Kelly, Trenton; J. J. Johnson, Trenton; Adam Jess, W. Ramon, Sussex; J. H. O'Brien, New York; J. White, Penna; Grove McCall, Trenton; J. W. Landon, Trenton; J. M. Wagoner, Trenton; W. G. Mason, W. H. Swaps, Camden; W. G. Danaberry, Roderick Ryan, and many others.

A Great Tax Reform.—The Republican are endeavoring in every way to deprive ex-Governor Abbotte of the credit due him for inaugurating a system of taxation worth millions of dollars to the state, and which saves the poor taxpayers from a direct state tax, by taxing the rich...

The Ballot Reform Bill which passed the New Jersey State last winter was almost identical with the Connecticut law which operated so satisfactorily in that state at the recent election.

The Third Assembly District—As briefly announced last week, Hon. John Ulrich, of Plainfield, was nominated for the third time for Assemblyman in this district on Thursday afternoon last, by the Republicans.

The Republicans of this city who were grubby and boddy undertook to have a big meeting in Washington Hall last Thursday night.

THE G. A. R. IN POLITICS.

We hear a great deal about their being so politic as to have no political friends, public—which is probably so, as far as the Democratic members are concerned, but the Republicans always try to work it whenever an opportunity occurs, and the present State campaign is no exception.

On Monday evening, October 13, 1889, the G. A. R. of Jersey City met at the residence of Dr. J. J. Johnson, of Jersey City, to consider the proposed plan for the reconstruction of the bridge over the Passaic river, and the location of the water works.

ANOTHER SHAM UP!

Two weeks ago we recorded a phenomenal accident on the Passaic river, which resulted in the death of a young man, and the destruction of a boat.

The Passaic river is a beautiful stream, and is well adapted for navigation. It is the property of the State, and is managed by the State Engineer.
