I ought to know how to make, buy and sell furniture, for I have been in the business on the same spot, 56 Montgomery Street, Jersey City, for twenty years, and I t know as I would transfer my business to New York if I could. should have to do twice or three times the business over there to make the same profit as I do where I am and then have to charge more for my goods than I do now. Expenses in New York are so much greater. But perhaps you think I do not grade of goods, and if I said say, "Oh, well, he lies like all the rest of them."

The best thing for you to do then is to come and see just what there is to be seen. And here's a bait to draw you. A solid oak, finely finished, bedroom suit for $25. 56 Montgomery Street, Jersey City, Peter M. Hall.
