

NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, N. J., NOV. 28th, 1890.

And now the Republicans of the State, with one accord, are blaming General Sewell for their defeat.

Democrats will enjoy their turkey this year, while the Republicans have to go content with "cattin' round."

The Republicans try to console themselves by saying that this is an "off" year. That may be, but not for the cause, as that will "more or less" one for them.

The Seymour (C) record says, "Here, yesterday, the Republican Party lost its only man in the State." The bird the Republicans cannot catch, nor will they sell on the beach.

The Kansas City Times says: "The tariff is a tax. Governor Cleveland said it and the people know it." (Cleveland said that the tariff is a tax, and the people know it.)

Atlantic City has fixed the license fee for saloons at $100. There are 125 saloons in the city. About one-half will be wiped out by the high license.

The Board of Freeholders at their meeting last week decided to enforce the penalty of $50 a day for non-compliance with the law for having the house completed.

It has been decided by the Board of Freeholders that the election officers by the law, allowing the house to be used for a day or two, and not allowing a day or two, a whole day as was done under the old law.

In 1891, six candidates will elect State Senators, viz: Haines, Sussex, Hunter, and Middlesex, now represented by Democrats, and Burlington and Cape May, now represented by Republicans.

To elect a majority in the Senate the Republicans will have to elect Senators in all six of the counties. The Democrats will have to elect only one Senator to retain control of the Senate.

The man who lives his life is destined to have a hard time in this world, if he is not the first to rise and say, "I will do it." In Missouri he jumps and up to drink, while in Massachusetts he must sit still.

In Kansas he must swear that he is afflicted with glanders or pluck eye, and in England he must commit perjury and endanger his soul, and in New York he is a penitentiary officer to treat one's neighbor.

We have been asked in regard to getting up a Christmas advertising number, what to do. We will say that we do not propose to do anything of the kind this year, being convinced that it neither pays for the trouble and the expense, nor the advertiser for the additional output.

The best way to advertise in our regular sheet and in the regular way—and thus proposing to give advertising will please send in their orders early.

Major E. J. Blaine, State Comptroller since 1870, will be relieved from further duties at the expiration of his term in March next. He has been credited with being the brain of the Republican party in this State. His salary is $8,000 per year. He is a man of high character and high ability.

Treasurer will follow Major Anderson and turn the keys of the State exchequer over to a Democratic successor. Today is from Jersey City and served a term as Sheriff of Hudson County. He is a man of high character and high ability.

His salary has helped to elect many a Republican Assemblyman during the past six years.

BLAINE'S OPINION.
On the eve of the recent election Secretary James O. Blaine made the following declaration:

"I have come here not for the purpose of influencing the administration, but to bear my testimony and to give you a warning that as Pennsylvania votes next Tuesday the nation will be in a perilous position."

As Pennsylvania elects a Democratic Governor by about 17,000 plurality, according to Mr. Blaine, who has always been considered good authority in Republican circles, the next President will be a Democrat, "by a large majority."

GUESS SHE IS!
The Press Telegram (under the Editor's) in 1893 Robert E. Blaine, the late Governor of Pennsylvania. The State was won by the Democrats. What was the result?

In 1894 James O. Blaine was defeated by Grover Cleveland. In 1895 Blaine was again candidate for Governor. He succeeded, and what was the result?

In Pennsylvania elects a Democratic Governor by about 17,000 plurality, according to Mr. Blaine, who has always been considered good authority in Republican circles, the next President will be a Democrat, "by a large majority."

OFF IN HIS HYMNODY.
Bro. McBride, of the Elizabeth Journal, is a link of old hymnody. He is the only one of the kind in the State. He is a man of high character and high ability.

The old hymn, "November as pleasant as May," must have been such a comforter to the old folks in the winter, when it was cold and bright and the sun was shining. It was a hymn of hope and cheer.

December 1st, the winter, when it was cold and bright and the sun was shining. It was a hymn of hope and cheer. It was a hymn of hope and cheer.

Some of our publishers are publishing a notice calling for fair managers to bear in mind the fact that newspapers cannot violate the federal statute and incur penalties and penalties by publishing notices of interest, grab bag intercepts, votes for popular opinion, etc., etc.

The postal authorities have excluded from the mails a newspaper because it contained the names of the candidates for election, which was a violation of the law.

Governor Abbott's boom for the Presidential nomination is gathering strength day by day. He is the choice of the party, and that fact does not prevent the swelling of his boom for the Presidency.

At the time the following from the Jersey City Ledger: "The only man who can stop Governor Abbott from being a Senator in 1898 is the possibility that he may be elected President in 1896."

Things that have come about in New York, while the Jersey City Ledger and Cleveland, are so extremely probable, in the light of Tuesday's result, no better solution of the difficulty can be offered than the nomination of Governor Abbott.

THE WATER BONDS.

SETTLEMENT AT LAST.

Special Meeting of the Common Council.

A FAIR PROPOSITION.

The great question we have so long labored for has at last been practically accomplished. We have spent many hours and days in preparing matter for this column, in this direction. We have borne adverse criticism, stood a lawsuit for $100,000 damages, costing us considerable outlay of money, besides the time and labor spent in the matter. We have been the subject of much ill-will and the annoyance of litigation. We have been denounced for not favoring the unjust demands made, and party opponents have tried to make capital against us because of what they have been pleased to call our stubbornness, or vindictiveness. But knowing our position to be just, and adhering to our oft-repeated motto "Right is right," we have persisted until we can now behold the end and our labors rewarded by a fair and honorable adjustment of the water bonds.

To those who have been interested in this subject (and who our local readers, especially, has not?) our statements are no new or remembered, and have been recently repeated frequently, and as will be seen by the proposition adopted by Common Council, and to which the representatives of the Savings Bank, and the Chancellor had already practically assented, our position has been fully sustained.

As to how the renewed effort to make this adjustment originated and was carried out at this time we will have more to say when the matter is fully settled, but it is now to say that it was started and put on a substantial basis in a few hours, after the last regular meeting of Common Council, and the Mayor called a special meeting of that body for Tuesday evening of this week, to consider the matter.

At this special meeting, and at a subsequent session, a large number of the members of the Council, and the Mayor called a special meeting of that body for Tuesday evening of this week, to consider the matter.

AN OLD HUNTING BOSS.

Under the heading the New York World of Monday has the following interesting article referring to the late Denzel, a famous hunter and sportsman, and a native of Rahway.

New Jersey and New York sportsmen, who were for years associated with him in the business, died three years ago. John was very popular and his funeral was the largest ever held in Linden Township. There were nearly one hundred coaches in the cortege. Prominent sportsmen for miles around came to pay the last tribute to the hunter.

After his death the other Denzels gradually faded in health. He was married, but his wife died. He had two children, a son and a daughter. His son, John, was a sportsman like his father, but he died young. His daughter, Mary, was a sportsman like her father, but she died young.

A chancery notice was filed Saturday morning at the New York City Court, in which Judge McCormick, stating that a portion of the estate is pending in the Court of Chancery, and that the same is to be sold at public auction in four months, and the receipts will be divided among the creditors of the estate.

As to how the renewed effort to make this adjustment originated and was carried out at this time we will have more to say when the matter is fully settled, but it is now to say that it was started and put on a substantial basis in a few hours, after the last regular meeting of Common Council, and the Mayor called a special meeting of that body for Tuesday evening of this week, to consider the matter.
