There has been a Baptists, has recently been converted to the Faith. Curtis beller, and has declared his intention to erect a mission church at Westville for a trade with the city, having paid, it is said, $25,000 for the site alone, on Westminster avenue, opposite the city hall. He has also recently disposed of $100,000 of stock of the Elizabeth Water Company for the purpose of obtaining a franchise for a water supply. His friends have tried to dissuade him from this purpose, but he is determined, and they fear his mind has become affected.

Counsellman Perkins.

We find the following news in the Baxter Spring (Kansas) News, of the 23d ult.

"The city council was in adjourned session Monday forenoon and canvassed the vote of the recent election for councillor to fill vacancy in the first ward and the result was as follows:—Counsellor Perkins received 21 votes and was elected to fill the position."

It is C. Perkins' nomination modestly the result of the efforts of the Halloway domicile last Monday morning.

We congratulate the former Hallowayans. We also notice by advertisement in the same paper that Mr. Perkins has become a dealer in fruit, trees, vines, and other nursery stock.
