Matthew Schuler, an old veteran, has just been called a U. S. pension. He is a native of New York and has served in the army for many years. He is now residing in New York City.

John R. Ross, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died on Wednesday morning, Feb. 14, at his home, 100 West 10th St. He was 82 years of age and had been suffering from a long illness. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was a devoted member of the community.

John R. Ross was born in New York City and spent his early years in the city. He was educated in the common schools and attended the University of the City of New York. He was a successful business man and was active in many of the city's affairs.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ross, and several children. The funeral will be held on Friday, Feb. 16, at 10 o'clock A. M. from the residence.

According to previous notice the Y. M. C. A. rooms were formally opened on Tuesday evening, Feb. 13, at 8 o'clock. The building and its appointments were inspected by the board of directors and the opening was a success. The rooms are now open to the public and are being used for many of the city's needs.

The Y. M. C. A. is a great benefit to the community and is doing much to improve the lives of the young men of the city. It provides a place where they can go to get advice, to receive instruction, and to engage in sports and other healthy activities.

The building is a fine example of modern architecture and is well equipped with all the necessary facilities. It is a place where the young men of the city can find a home and a place where they can grow and develop.
