NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, N. J., FEBRUARY 20, 1861.

The new State Treasurer and Comptroller, Messrs. Gray and Heppenheimer, will assume their respective offices on March 1st.

Lack of time and space prevents us from giving a synopsis of the proceedings of the state legislature this week—though nothing of a very important local or general nature has transpired.

Two more enlisted veterans of the civil war have finished the battle of life. Admiral David D. Porter, died on Friday, in the 78th year of his age, and, as before, shrouded in our last issue. Gen. Wm. T. Sherman died on Saturday at the age of 71 years.

GUESS YOU'RE RIGHT!

The Gambier Courier (Republican) opens an editorial article with the following very suggestive, as well as truthful lamentation:

The Republican party of to-day is in a greater state of demoralization than it has ever been since the date of its foundation.

Under the old Jersey law of 1840, prohibiting Sabbath desecration, Judge Lippscott, of Hunterdon county, has decided that a man must not loan his horse on Sunday. John Dilworth, of Jersey City, borrowed John Van Doren's horse on Sunday last year. The animal became frantic and bit the carriage, and Van Doren sued him for damages. It is said the horse was leased on Sunday and the owner cannot recover damages.

The charter election of this city will occur this year, at least a date as it possibly can—the 16th of April, which is the second Tuesday of that month, the provided by the charter for such election, if no bill is passed on Wednesday. The bill, however, will be introduced in all legislatures, and will be voted on at least fifteen days before the election, hence it will be necessary to hold the nominating conventions not later than Saturday, March 23d, so the filing may take place not later than Monday, the 25th.

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL.
We are highly gratified to find our old friend and fellow citizen, Thos. P. Fitzgerald, for a copy of his Legislative Manual for 1861. This official state book is proven year by year, and is indispensable for those who desire to be posted upon general state and national matters. It contains a history of the State, the Declaration of Independence, United States Constitution and State Constitution, the rules by which the New Jersey Legislature is governed, the names and biographies of its members, a list of the past and present officers, the personnel of the executive and military government and judiciary, election laws, the state budget, the state statistics, reports of all the various state departments and institutions, newspaper information, some fine portraits of officers of New Jersey, and a map of the State, which is supplemented with an index, which anything can be readily found and turned to. It cost only $1.

MUNICIPAL FINANCIAL REPORT.

By the 1st of Feb., 1861, it is made known that the board of chosen freeholders of each county, the committee men of each township, the mayor and common council of each city, and the representative authority of each town and borough, in this state, to transmit to the comptroller of the treasury, or before the first day of October, in each year, a statement of the financial condition of their respective counties, townships, cities, towns or boroughs, at the close of their respective fiscal year preceding the time of making the same, to the Comptroller, it is required to furnish the necessary blank forms for the purpose. This law has now been in force for three years, yet strange to say, nearly one-third of the officials yearly neglect to obey the law, notwithstanding the fact that such omission is a crime for which they are liable to be indicted. By the Comptroller's report for this year, it is shown that officials of four counties, nine cities and over one hundred towns or boroughs have failed to comply with the law, and included in these delinquencies are the officials of the cities of Hoboken, Newark, Paterson, and Jersey City, and some mean clerks to remedy such serious omissions. These statisticians, to be of value for comparison and conclusion, should be complete, and when not so accurate, better than a mongrel mass of useless figures.

ANOTHER BIG STRIKE.

The city authorities, after much labor, have succeeded during the past week, in ransacking about $60,000 worth of the old indebtedness, that being the amount of the municipal bonds, judgments, etc., in the hands of large contractors. It is well known, as the Bedman, Brown and White judgment, Mr. Wilson has given the city much trouble and expense in these matters, and we think all are to be congratulated at the removal of this, which, since the arranging of the settlement with the Savings Bank, has been looked upon as about the only remaining obstacle of any importance to a complete settlement of the old indebtedness. The finance department of the city spent all the afternoon Tuesday in going over the old bonds and contracts, and while Mr. Wilson, and company, were at work, the commissioners obtained, canceling them, etc., and seeing that everything was correct and regular.

And yet, we hear that there are some of our people who are not happy! They probably think that instead of having the finance authorities treat with Mr. Wilson, and settle amicably, expensive judgments, Mr. Wilson has given the city much trouble and expense in these matters, and we think all are to be congratulated at the removal of this, which, since the arranging of the settlement with the Savings Bank, has been looked upon as about the only remaining obstacle of any importance to a complete settlement of the old indebtedness. The finance department of the city spent all the afternoon Tuesday in going over the old bonds and contracts, and while Mr. Wilson, and company, were at work, the commissioners obtained, canceling them, etc., and seeing that everything was correct and regular.

THE WATER BILL.

The act to renew our city water bonds, and put them in condition for settlement, made no progress in the Senate this week. If there had not been so much dist. kicked up about it, it would have been a law by this time, and the city in a condition to issue them now. Notwithstanding the bill was approved by the representatives of all parties concerned at the outset, technical objections were afterwards raised so that it appears the Senators, the Chancery and Assembly became "pasted" to have a bill, but the Chancellor approved of, and urged the passage of the bill, for the sake of appeasing the punctilious objectors proposed to Senator Marsh some slight changes; upon comparison, we are unable to discover any reason why the original draft would not have been as effective for all our purposes.

We two more enlisted veterans of the civil war have finished the battle of life. Admiral David D. Porter, died on Friday, in the 78th year of his age, and, as before, shrouded in our last issue. Gen. Wm. T. Sherman died on Saturday at the age of 71 years.

A Memento.

Under date of Feb. 13th, Capt. Jas. L. Bodwell of the Veteran Zouaves sends us the following note: the articles referred to arrived safe.

Moist Hymn.—I send a rose and some dried flowers, which I hope you will like. The Zouaves opposite the live oak grove, where Packenham was killed. Please give them to the association of Rahway.

We are on the way home and are having a very warm time. Yours truly,

Jas. L. Bodwell.

A Pension for Mrs. Trux.

The old veterans of the 14th, N. J. V. Cavalry, now deceased, I have to know that a bill has been passed by Congress and approved at once by the President, granting the widow Mrs. Ellen E. Trux, a pension of $100 per month, for her services only $8 for her husband's part in the Mexican war, and as we understand, this pension is additional, and this pension will be approved by everybody in New Jersey.

Mr. Wm. T. Clarkes broke ground Thursday of this week for a new dwelling on his lot corner of Elm Avenue and Campbell street.

Mr. Geo. C. Cowles, U. S. Senator from Iowa, and father of Capt. Geo. Cowles, Jr., U. S. N. S. of this city, died at his residence Washington, D. C., on Friday the 10th instant.
