A CHARACTER STUDY IN THREE PARTS.

"Four Years in Rebel Capitals," "Juny," "Cross Purposes." DEDICATED TO THE HON HENRY

This time the crowd needed n the stilling voices rising into a roar louder if possible than before and sustained until the brief strain died out. Again the cries (welled out, aided by hands and feet and shout of "Bis!" 'Encore!" and the rival battle pieces had to be always again.

Through the dusk many hope thmes filled the eye with color; the high, squeaking treble of maskers hisghise piped above music, laughter and the ompipresent tin horn; old time scenes of "Nonsense! The war is over," Everett home. Not as my friend, out as my late foe, I offer you unconditional parole."

You cannot understandmy feelings, the other said sadly, turning his face aside. "As rictor you can afford to be generous. But Dale, I fled to Mexico because I would not take the oath to the of warlike occupation, and the evening air was glad with passing maskers songs.

And still the most interested and most wistful of all observers were the Federals—men and officers off duty. Every erals—men and officers officity. Everywhere they mingled in the throug, giving and taking chaff with high good hunor and equal reset that their general's order forbade participation. For in all that revived fevel not one untoward incident, not one ride act even, had been reported; and the fears of the tind were wholly set at rest by the inborn courtesy and tact of the creole. And now the throngs began to form spontaneously in order, liming the sides of Canal street in dense masses, added to each instant from the emptying houses and by fresh crowds pouring down the side streets.

The Krewewas coming government that had besten me. We made the election of ordeal by combat and I accept the verdict in honor and in candor. But I cannot take the oath." No argument need ever come between you and me," Everett answered frankly. "I think a understand your feelings; I certainly respect them. You need take no cath. Your simple parole is all that shall be saked."

The Creole again shook his head sadly. "I cannot ask protection of the govern-ment I tried to overturn," he replied. To morrow at dawn a smuggler slips nt for Cuba. While the bells call you to church I shall be on my way to volun-tary exile."

"But, Adrien, this is folly."

"Very like," Latour answered, with something of his old smile. "Lalways The Krewe was coming! Ushered in by rosy glow of distant, pulsing light and softened blare of prazen, march advanced that strange procession so dear to precie tradition, so did talk wisdom and act folly. But, dear old boy, I cannot do it. Better en-Deep silence fell upon the massed housands; every eye strained to catch ter some foreign service, where my sword the first hint of the cumpingly hidden theme of the night's display. Then gradually through the resyclond were seen the rich and stately forms, in ancan buy me place."

"This is mawkish sentiment," Everett replied seriously. It is neither reasonable nor manly. Besides, remember your words to me before you resigned—that our old school did not educate Hessians!

The Past was typified by imposing figures of war, destruction, confingration, want, grief and terror each a chapter of the moving epo varying in suggestive slape, and each made clearer by congenial forms attendant. All were in classic pose and richly draped, with strict adherence to best models of antique art. And slow they passed between the silent masses, all delighted with the glitter and the glory of the show, all stilled by memory of the recent past from which it dray its being. Then came The Present, more modern in conception, but allegoric still personlified by industry, commerce, agriculture, science, art and history. Plaining alloud of rosy light, each greeted by appreciative plaudits for its beauty and sympathy for its suggestion.

And last folled by the last division of the mystic trilogy, The Haure Radiant and fair of promise showed her beautiful figure, the calin face grand and noble. of battle. God knows there is no bitterness in my heart for those what for what they believed the right! I honor them all—love as well as ever those I loved before."

"And can you imagine we respect you less who took up arms believing you were right?"

"I do not," Latour answered frankly,
"You could not. Had I dress, however I had yearned to take your hand before I sailed? No, not Politicians can break prothet or missionary ever sent to the Genomic Junah the word of the Lord came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying."

He propieded about 800 years before Christ, and is one of the earliest, perhaps the very first of the so called prophets whose writings exist.

2. 'Arise ird to Nineveh, that great city, and ry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me."

Nineveh was on the Tigris, nearly 400 miles from Canaan. Its walls were about 00 miles in length and 100 fest high, with 1,500 kowers each 200 (see high. According to chapter iv, 11 there were 120,000 little children in the city at that time, which would give a population of not less than 600,000.

3. 'But Johan rose into fice unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord and went down to Joppa."

Jonah could not in one sense get away from the presence of the Lord and went down to Joppa."

Jonah could not in one sense get away from the presence of the Lord and went down to Joppa."

Jonah could not in one sense get away from the presence of the Lord and went down to Joppa."

Jonah could not less Lord anywherein the wide world (Fx cxxxix, 7-10), but he could go away from the Lord's land and city and temple, just as Cain went systems from that part of Eden where God dwelt.

4. "But the Lord sent out a great wind. into the sea."

right there can be no health, strength, or comfort in any part of the system. Mercury, impone form, is a common specific for a singgin live; but a far safer and more effective medicine in 4. "But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea."

Sometimes when people are doing wrong events seem to favor them; so Jonah may have thought it a favorable omen to find a ship at Joppa about to sail to Tarahish. But however we may seem to succeed in our dhobedience; God is watching and controlling, and we may be, sure that sooner or later our sid will find us out.

5. "Then the mariners were atraid, and eried every man unto his god."

Here is a servant of God fischedient to his Mester, and oringing trouble on those who knew mat God, as when Peter, a disciple of Christ, caused Malchus to suffer. If, as Christians, we do wrong, we are not the only ones who will suffer by the ensatement lovingly sent upon us. Pills are unsurpassed.

"For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, livef, and kidney troubles, experiencing much difficulty in digestion, with severe exims in the lumbar region and other parts of the body. Having tried a variety of remedies, including warm baths, with only temporary relief, about three months ago I began the use of Ayer's Pills, and my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this medicine."

Mancel Jorge Pereirs, Porto, Portugal.

"For the cure of headache, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most effective medicine I ever used."—R. K. James, Dorchester, Mass. "When I feel the need of a cathartic, I take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more effective than any other pill I ever took."—Mrs. B. C. Grubb, Burwellville, Vs.

I have found in Ayer's Pills, an invaluathe chastisement lovingly sent upon us.

"And he isy and was fast asleep."

While these heathen saliors are doing all in their power for the safety of the ship and all on board, and calling on their gods, which were no gods, the only one on board who knew the only living and true God is test asleep. Is it not a picture of the majority of Christians now?

"What meanest then, O sleepe?!"

This was a well merited rebuke. It would do godd if the people of the world would rebuke professing Christians more often.

They cast lote, and the lot fell upon on me nyer, restoring its fishiral powers, and aiding it in throwing off malarial poisons."

—d. F. Alston, Quitman, Texas.

"Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pilis set mo right again."—A. J. Kiser. Jr. Jonah."

In the same way it would seem that Joshus discovered Achan (Josh vii, 14), and Sani found out Jonathan (I Sam. xiv, who was instead to the way to heave instead. Hook House, Va.

Nook House, Va.

In 1868, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for billousness, constipation; high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."—H. W. Harsh Undenwin Ark.

Jonal is now swake, and in the hands of those upon whom he has brought trouble. They have found in im our, and now question him as to his occupation and people and country. It is humiliating to see this servant of God compelled to give an account of himself, to this heathen shipmaster, and his sailors, but it is good for him.

Lam an Hebrew; and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land." Ayer's Pills, DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land."

He does better than Peter when he ran away from his. Master, and warmed himself at the servants fire; but perhaps Peter might have done better, too, if he had found himself in the midst of a raging atorm at sea with death staring him in the face. tarm at leas with the same this?"

10. "Why hast thou done this?"

A scarding question, to which his answer is not given. And it in any measure a Christian is turning away from duty the question ought to come to them with Kochester swer is not given. And if in any measure a Christian is turning away from duty the question longist to come to them with power.

11. "What shall we do unto thee that the sea may be calm unto us?"

Sin must be punished. All nations recognize that the transgressor mise suffer; and, yet there are those in this enlightened. (?) Sincetenth century, dwelling to our cities, in the very centers of light and intelligence, who say and teach that sin is a phanton, a nonentity, and that punishment for ain is not to be thought of.

12. "Take me ut and cast me forth into the sea, so shall the sea be calm unto you; for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you."

It is copyinced of his sin and ready to accept the consequences.

12. "Nevertheless the more rowed hard to bring it to the land, but they could not."

This labor was well meant. They were sorry for Jonah must suffe for his sin.

14. "Wherefore they cried upto the lond."

It is not now fevery man unto his god." as in verse is, but initedly they cry to Uo hovah, the God of heaven, earth and sea, the Lord God of the Hebrews.

"We be seech the C. Lord, we beseech thee, iet us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us linecent blood."

This is a heartfelt cry to the needy, and undoubtedly it was heard.

"For thou, O Lord hath done as it pleased thee." Artistic in Design.
