A Great Cyclopedia.

The twenty-second volume of the Columbian Cyclopedia is amounced as just ready; the entite set is to be completed the prescut/year, in 82 volumes, aggretigating about 20,000 pages. Its price is remarkably cheap, dnly $25.00 for the entite set, with easy justallment terms to those who want them. The litigh character of the work is vouched for by innumerable witnesses, among others by Prof. James Strobg [S. T. D., Editor of McClintock & Skrony's Cyclopedia seems to me to strike a happy medium between the loose, superficial works, and the coelaborate and profound ones, which few are competent of desirous of using. Most of the larger general cyclopedias are overloaded with a mass of technical science and official detail that is embarrassing and taseless to willhary readers. The Columbian is eminently practical, sufficiently full, and carefolity compiled well got up, convenient in form and extent, remarkably cheap and, as I should judge, admirably cheap and the cheap and general consultation. there is no blood-purifier equal to it."

"For many years I was afflicted with scrofulous running sores, which, at last became so bad the doctors advised amputating one of my legs to save my life. I began taking Ayer's Barsaparilla and soon saw an improvement. After using about two dozen bottles the sores were healed. I continue to take a few bottles of this medicine each year, for my blood, and am no longer troubled with sores. I have tried other reputed blood-purifiers, but none does so much good as Ayer's Barsaparilla"—D. A. Robinson, Neal, Kanbas.
