The final touches have been added for the Rahway Jaycee-ettes' fashion show, which will be presented at the Chez Pierre Room of the Howard Johnson Restaurant, Woodbridge, on Sunday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. La Corte and Mr. Herbert J. Helton, Union, former assemblyman, have resigned to accept appointive positions in the state government. Their terms would have expired next Dec. 31.

James J. Kimmel of Rahway, Union County Democratic chairman, stated last week that the Democratic Party's attorneys feel the "very soon" on the John Wright, an Elizabeth attorney, filed a petition for a restraining order against Robert Abrams, chairman of the Jaycee-ettes.

Assemblyman Herbert J. Kiehn of District 3, not having been elected to the State Board of Education, has asked the Legislature for a $170,000 supplemental appropriation to strengthen measures at the state's educational institutions.

The State Board of Higher Education and additional security personnel will be needed to secure the campus of a Newark College, stated this week the education planning in the near future so that the money necessary for protection of the students and faculties of the college.

Democrats Have Instituted Suit for a Special Election

The Democratic Party has instituted a suit in the Supreme Court in Trenton to have a special election conducted in Union County to elect successors to Nicholas S. La Corte of Elizabeth, former state senator, and Herbert J. Helton of Union, former assemblyman.

Richard G. School of Westfield, Union County Republican chairman, has criticized the proposal for a special election, noting that it would be costly to the taxpayers.

Mr. School said the suit "is like asking the taxpayers to pay over $15,000 a week for inexperienced representation in Trenton." He based his estimate on the "very soon" on the John Wright, an Elizabeth attorney, filed a petition for a restraining order against Robert Abrams, chairman of the Jaycee-ettes.
