Through the efforts of Donald E. Lloyd, a history teacher at the Arthur L. Johnson. Regional High School, a group of students at the high school are involved in the Jerseyman program, the student affiliate unit of the New Jersey Historical Society.

The bus trip to Pennsylvania Dutch country proved very successful, and Mrs. Nabb is making plans for another bus trip. The destination will be announced in the fall.

Members are encouraged.

Miss V.T. asks me, "I have a friend who is allergic to fish. Can she go on the Weight Watchers program?"

She certainly can. She can go on it whether hers is a fish or any other common food allergy. Few people realize how flexible the program is. Inasmuch as "Weight Watchers" encourages all members to consult their physicians, her doctor will offer recommendation and the program will be ad-

They had little reason to believe while pursuing this thief that one of them would be dead a half hour later on the operating table at Rahway Hospital, but the frequency with which major crime occurs is making "happenings" like this more commonplace across America than ever Crime rises for practical reasons, Felons rest comfortable in the knowledge that even if apprehended, the American legal system has been so perverted in favor of the accused that they stand excellent chances of lighty reduced sentences and glossy treatment in penal institutions for the most part. Crime like all activities will be engaged in by more people if they know the odds favor their success and the consequences are not dire. Criminals grow bold in that knowledge. To the Watersons, of course, the loss is intimate, lose their meaning for the moment, but reassert themselves later. Patrolman Waterson was not seeking glory; he was doing his appointed task, and we could only wish that coddling willfull criminals will assert itself and do its appointed task and diminish the likelihood of murder

Even a motorist who uses St. George Avenue, Rahway, also known as the Lincoln Highway or Route 27, occasionally realizes there is a speeding problem on Speeding by the unthinking presents a hazard to the average motorist and a very real danger to the pedesrrian who must risk his life to cross the busy street. While speeding is perhaps kept to a minimum during the busy dayrime hours, it becomes an "anything goes" situation late at night and in the early hours of the Souped-up motors are used to propel cars from starts at speeds a racetrack driver might well envy. The motors can be heard for blocks as the speeding cars (apparently minus mufflers) are raced along St. George Avenue, Motorcycles join in the general uproar. Tires screech as drivers, lined up at a traffic light, start their races along the street. Any description of the dangerous situation existing along the highway would not be exaggerated. The hazards are compounded when some drivers, with more nerve than brains, race through intersections to avoic being halted by a traffic signal. Surely there are traffic experts in the Police Department who could arrive at some solution to the problem. One solution might well be greater and more efficient use of radar units. Unmarked police cars might be Then, of course, the court could could be used to help solve the problem. The "word" soon gets around
