Seven Arrested By Clark Police For Fireworks agers were arrested by Clark police on the Fourth of July for possessing or discharging fireworks.

Police said five Clark boys were arrested at different times in various parts of the township. The youths, who face charges of juvenile delinquency, were released in custody of their parents. Police identified the men as Joseph Latawiec, 28, of the 100 block of John Street, Clark, and Louis Bickel 3rd, Lenape Circle, Linden. They are accused of setting off firecrackers behind Temple Beth 'Or on John Street. Each was released on $25 Police Sgt. Henry Mat-thews and Patrolman Anthony Della Serra made the ar-Police Chief Anthony T.

an on Smoking Affirms oard's Duty to Promote tudent Physical Health

The decision of the board of education of the Union ounty Regional High School District No. 1 to ban noking in school buildings and on school premises eserves the support of all Clark parents. The board winely rejected the idea voiced by one pard member from Springfield that since smoking annot be stopped, therefore, it would be wise to reate smoking areas. There are many things which cannot be stopped in ils world but which are clearly to the detriment of lany. Just because something cannot be eradicated oes not mean it should be supported. When students leave school premises, it becomes neir decision to smoke or not to smoke. Hopefully, Students have a great advantage today: They know brough scientific studies that smoking is dangerous health and leads to respiratory and circulatory ailnents. Their parents knew this, too, not through science er se, but by observing during their lives the fate of Students in high school are literally the charges of he members of the school board. As the chairman of he health and safety committee of the regional school poard, Charles E. Vitale, Jr., said, the school system s responsible for the physical mental and moral wellbeing of the students. If more parents were concerned with the total picture of a child's development, then, perhaps, their would be less drug abuse, estrangement, lack of religion. primitiveness-seeking, and the rest of the malaise that characterizes too many of today's vouths. We also think the possible implementation of a ban on smoking for the teaching staff would make the prac-There was a day in this nation when smoking on the job was banned in most places. While the board is considering this policy, it must also be tempered with the realization that, unfortunately, many teachers have been smoking for a long time and are basically addicted to the practice. While smoking in front of students should never be permitted, it might be necessary to compromise and ler reacher smoking areas remain. It is unfortunate however, that teachers, since they are so intimately involved with youth, would have to be addicted to a habit that is in direct conflict with maintaining good health.
