

DISCUSS MILTON AVENUE PAVING

Common Council Has Trans-Action Session, But Trans-acts No Business.

Although called together for general business the Common Council at a special session on Tuesday evening proceeded to discuss with every thing else and take up the paving of West Milton avenue which has been the subject of the previous meeting. After discussing the matter for fully half an hour and listening to a report from the Water Commissioner, W. Langstroth, who was in attendance at the West Milton avenue, the council adjourned without taking action of any kind.

As soon as opportunity was given, Mr. Langstroth presented his objection to the paving of West Milton avenue, which is a street of the city. He said that the paving of West Milton avenue would cost the city $12,000, whereas the new street would cost the city $15,000. He said that the paving of West Milton avenue would cost the city $12,000, whereas the new street would cost the city $15,000. He said that the paving of West Milton avenue would cost the city $12,000, whereas the new street would cost the city $15,000.

Some of the members of the council who are in favor of the paving of West Milton avenue, are Mr. Langstroth, Mr. G. W. Clatsop, and Mr. J. I. Driscoll. Mr. G. W. Clatsop, who is the Water Commissioner, said that the paving of West Milton avenue would cost the city $12,000, whereas the new street would cost the city $15,000.

Definite Plan Needed

That a definite plan for the

the city should be adopted, is more evident than when the Board of School Estimates meets to decide upon the school budget for the current year which must be done every year on or before June 1. The Board of Education comprises the Mayor, two members of the Common Council, and two school commissioners. The latter submit a list of estimates of the money needed for the various lines of school work, which are then considered by the Board of Education. The Board of
