Herstofrey players abused the officials innocessarily because they were permitted to do so. This was enjoyed by some fans, but not by others. Today the majority of fans do not eare who is officiating behind the plate or on the bases and care little what the decisions are, although they may go against the home club. At the time the verticit is given they protest, but after the game few remarks are ever heard concerning the decisions.

Evers has taimed down considerably, although he says it has affected his playing. Heinle Zimmerman is not the trouble maker he was before. Miller, Huggins, Jdhn McGraw, Larry Doyle, Buck Herzog and many others have been forced to realize that flighting the implicits is only a weste of time. Microw afternoon.
