Lippincott Man Says He Feels Like New Man Since Taniac Came

"When a man gets so sick and tired that he doesn't want to talk with his friends, it's time for him to look for the cause of his trouble," says Frank M. Lippincott, well known hairdresser and plumber of Milford, N. J.

Mr. Lippincott then went on to say that he was born and raised in Milford

but that his kinfolk live in Trenton.

He then continued:

"For about six months, I don't believe there was a more miserable man in the state. I had nervous indigestion and was so badly rundown from its effects that I couldn't eat or sleep. My bed didn't look good to me at night, for I couldn't even rest and the arrangement I took was confined to eggs, milk and toast."

"I was so nervous and played out I became badly disengaged. I had absolutely no ambition and felt off 18 pounds in weight."

"Many of my friends recommended Taniac to me, and at last I started using the medicine. It didn't take long for Taniac to go after my trouble."

"Tanic has made me feel like a new man. It certainly is a wonderful preparation."

Tanic is distributed exclusively in Rahway by Kretschmer's Pharmacy. Adv.

CONGRATULATES CAPSTICK

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., Oct. 31, 1916.

Honorable John H. Capstick.

Montville, N. J.

My dear Mr. Capstick:

I wish to congratulate you on your success at the primary. I was deeply interested in the contest and felt that

that you will win.

If would be a misfortune if you were not chosen by the voters to represent our district in Congress. I am indeed glad to know that you are the choice for the Republican party at the election next week and sincerely hope that you will win.

We cordially hope before us many problems for Congress to consider and we need representatives there with good experience and sound judgment to direct the affairs of the nation and I believe you are of the type who will do your duty in an intelligent manner

it is for this reason that I am so hopeful for your success on election day

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE P. MELLICK

the straight line style, which, just as much as the rope leg shape, presents an artistic quaintness of lines not found in any other furniture. Yet Stickley Bros. furniture is not more famous for its distinctively pleasing appearance than for its exceptionally sturdy construction. You can hardly wear it out. Old-time methods of joining, the master of which are now successfully established in the permanence of American furniture, are found in the Stickley make. Any of the hidden parts will bear inspection. We are distributors of Stickley furniture in Newark.

In addition to Sitting Room Suites, we show Stickley Bros. furniture also in Dining and Library suites, also in novelties suitable for the Parlor. See the new production in Persian Blue—the latest development in furniture beauty.

Inspection will show the prices to be extremely reasonable for this grade of goods.

Why Buy Costly Imported Rugs?

The art of Wilton Rug making in this country has advanced so closely to perfection that the scarcity of imported specimens, and the prohibitive prices at which they now have to be marked, may be viewed with complacency. There are Wiltons made in America which, whether regarded from the material or the artistic standpoint, are indistinguishable from the costliest Orientals. They are woven of the same sturdy wools, they are in the same symbolic designs, and they reproduce with amazing fidelity the same "atmosphere," the same subtle silky softness and the same exquisite color-blend in rare rich tones. Such rugs are now on display in our rug and carpet section on the second floor, where colors may be judged in their natural values. The 8 ft. x 12 ft. size we sell at $75. To buy an Oriental in these days implies either extravagance or ignorance. Other good Wilton Rugs, 8 ft. x 10 ft. size, as low as $4.00. Also reliable Armister Rugs at very moderate prices.

Why Should The Voters of New Jersey Give Senator James E.
Martine Another Term In The United States Senate?

WHY?

Because he is one of the most faithful representatives New Jersey has had in the upper house of Congress.

Because the Congressional Record shows that Senator Martine never missed a roll call.

Because while Congress is in session, Senator Martine may always be found at his post of duty, ever ready to receive a delegation from his home State, large or small, rich or poor, all look alike to him.

Because his Republican opponent, Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, according to the regular Republican organization, which supported former Governor Franklin Murphy at the primaries, declared without contradiction, that Candidate Frelinghuysen was a resident of New York and not of New Jersey.

Because that organization said to Candidate Frelinghuysen, in a paid advertisement:

"Do you think that because you, like other millionaire New Yorkers, can maintain a summer home in this State you have greater privilege than a poor man whose work caused him temporarily to live in New York, and who would lose his vote in New Jersey?"

Because the New York Social Register, the official directory of New York's social set, contains the name of Joseph S. Frelinghuysen as a resident of New York City.

Because the New York City telephone directory gives his residence as 45 E. 68th Street, New York City.

The Plainfield Press Says:

The eloquent nomination of William E. Tuttle, Jr., of Westfield, as the Democratic candidate for Congress is an unprecedented but unusual enough to attract public attention. It is but a natural and logical tribute to a man who stands high and deservedly so in the public business and social life of the State. Considered in this light, it is not surprising that the nomination results in the support of the Plainfield Press.

HOUSE PURCHASE CAUSES FRICITION

House Society for the elderly made up the part of the entire street department in leaving the streets of our city to such不堪的 conditions for the construction of the Hughes' home. God bless you for your courtesy to the master and mistress. You are our representative for your neighborhood, in making the affair such a success."

State Comptroller George Gould presented the following report: Collection of current titles; amounting about $18,635; filing costs, $100; storage, state bonds, $17.00; charter pattern, $35.00; cutting grass, 10 hours and parks, $2.70; repairing roads, $4; buying 120 loads of charcoal, $14; total, $48.12.

Other resolution offered by Comptroller Gage is was voted to transfer $600 from the campaign fund to the Board of Health for the additional expenses incurred by the master in building the house, particularly in this city. Comptroller of Accounts H. C. Hartman reported five transfers, including one from the state treasury, were made to the state and various districts up to 1912.

The Transient Tax received last month in the various funds are follows:

Contingent Fund, $2,473.46; fire, $14,611.57; wages, $1,413.50; roads, $1,177.57; poor, $1,044.59; police, $2,384.37. Total, $30,604.83.

I NEED PROTECTIVE TARIFF

To the Chair of the Republicans for Protective Duty.

During the closing days of the campaign special attention has been paid by the Republican candidates to the Underwood tariff and its early effect on all kinds of industries. This measure becomes operative in October, 1913. The Republicans claim that by the time of the new law thousands of idle men were walking the streets. In order to relieve the suffering and want that resulted because of the continued hard times, the severe winter months saw public employment bureaus open under the direction of commissioners appointed by the mayors and other executive officers of the various municipalities. In many instances the governing bodies passed appropriations to assist in carrying on this work of charity.

"When the European war started, all kinds of industry was interrupted along with the result that American trade suffered great damage. This caused a reworking of almost every article in this country and the product of most of them have been diverted and converted into munitions. When the war is over this temporary prosperity will cease," the Republicans assert, "unless something is done to keep our mechanics employed. This can only be done by the adoption of protective tariff methods," the candidates say.

The Republicans candidate for Congress John H. Capell, says that he is strong for a protective tariff for American labor and industries. He is a retired manufacturer and knows something of the competition foreign goods create under a free trade policy. "When the market is open to them, American made goods are not in demand as the price between foreign and home production makes the foreign made articles much cheaper than the difference between foreign and domestic wages is removed by a protective tariff." Mr. Capell promises to work for a protective tariff if reelected.

DANCE A BIG SUCCESS

One of the largest dances of the season was held in Koenig's hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Eastern Grove, No. 1, Woodbine Circle, in the form of a Holloween masquerade. The hall was sumptuously decorated for the time. Many prominent persons were present from North Ambly, Woodbridge, Carteret, Garwood, Union, Westfield and Rahway. Music was furnished by Robert's Band of Carteret. The price for dancing was $1.50. Numerous new and old costumes were to be seen. Miss Murray of Woodbridge won the prize for the most unique. Miss Miller was awarded a silver bracelet and Miss Murray a silk umbrella. The success of the affair was largely due to the efforts of the committee in charge, especially Mrs. L. M. Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Walter V. Spangler, treasurer, Mrs. M. C. Morris, assistant door committee, Mrs. Robert Koenig, Mrs. Alice Morris, Mrs. Louise Wolf and Mrs. John Miller.

What do you Think?

We asked several Independent Democrats why they favor Mr. Hughes

THE FIRST SAID:—

"Because the character of the man assures action, not words."

THE SECOND SAID:—

"Because I fear the next four years. I want strength in Washington, not vacillation."

THE THIRD SAID:—

"Because Hughes will fight in the open for civil service reform instead of quietly seeking places for 'deserving' politicians."

THE FOURTH SAID:—

"Because of Wilson's fake issue about war. Have you seen those big posters with a picture of Wilson in a cloud, and a woman with a baby in her arms, and underneath it says, 'He has protected me, and mine?' I wonder if that's intended to be an American woman and her baby, dead and forgotten at the bottom of the sea in the Lusitania! Or an American woman and her baby, dead and forgotten in an unmarked grave in the hot sands of Mexico. It makes my blood boil!"

THE FIFTH SAID:—

"Because Wilson's so-called eight-hour law is a blow to collective bargaining and to the principle of arbitration."

THE SIXTH SAID:—

"Because I don't consider that Wilson has kept us out of war. Europe is simply too busy to attend to us now. In Mexico, neither Wilson nor I know what a day will bring forth."

THE SEVENTH SAID:—

"Because Wilson got rid of Garrison. I don't like it. The World War ran for two years before Wilson got around to buy increase whatever in our Navy or Army. What a contrast to his hurry-up work to coerce Congress against arbitration!"

THE EIGHTH SAID:—

"Because the talk about war, if Hughes is elected, is absolute rot. A strong man, like Hughes, would keep us out of war, but he would do it to the honor of the country and with the respect of the world, just as Cleveland and Roosevelt did in their day. They kept us out of war, but we were not ashamed and humiliated."

THE NINTH SAID:—

"Because Hughes will surround himself with abler men than Daniels, Bryan, Baker and McAdoo."

THE TENTH SAID:—

"Because Wilson forced 'Jimmy' Martine upon the State of New Jersey as United States Senator, and made us the laughing stock of the country."

THE ELEVENTH SAID:—

"Because Hughes signed more wholesome bills for the benefit and protection of labor while Governor of New York than had been passed in the entire period since 1777. I am going to vote for a man who has ALWAYS been a friend of labor, not a man like Wilson, who becomes a sudden convert when he wants support."

THE TWELFTH SAID:—

"Because Wilson and the Democratic Party are trying to fool us. They promised to reduce the cost of living, when they knew they couldn't. They promised that Wilson wouldn't run again, when they knew he would. They closed our factories and killed our business in 1913 and 1914 with their tariff folly, and now, because the European war has developed an abnormal temporary change, they have the nerve to claim credit for it. We've got to have a REAL change."

LINDEN

The members of the congregation of the Linden church are returning the services. The pastor, Mr.

Charles Jacob, Ernest Bowditch

and James A. Howell, the two pastors, have returned to their churches.

The lecture given Friday night by Dr. F. W. Johnson, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Rahway, in a high school on the "Wonderful Church," was well-attended and greatly enjoyed by all.

A Republican rally was held in the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening. Dr. J. H. Dickey, director of Communications, R. H. Decker and W.

H. H. Hafford

Plans are going on for the musical entertainment to be held at the High school gymnasium Nov. 14, to celebrate the anniversary of the Ladie's Aid Society.

Mrs. Walter H. Ross has charge of the theatrical part and Mrs. O. H. Goodwin

the musical part.

The musical part of the program is to be conducted by Mr. Edwin

Marker, of 3 Charles street, Roselle

Park, Friday night.

Linden Council, No. 81, Jr. O. U.

A. C. A. held its regular meeting

Thursday night in Borough hall with a banquet and reception to Al-

Grove Moore, Jr., who recently returned from a trip to Mexico.

have returned from Montclair after a trip to the West.

A rally of the North Amboy Knights

League group will be held to the M.

H. church tonight.

Every Friday evening, when there is no communion service, the Methodist church, located on the corner of M. E. church will open for a community center, not only for their own immediate members but for the public generally. There are many people who are not interested in the church for the reading.

The "Wheatena" Halloween party given by the high school girls in the auditorium was a great success.

No refreshments were served. Music was provided by John Malone, The Misses

Tuttle and Elbet charmed the party.
