Mr. Little said that he had been studying the subject of the "Great Highway" for some time, and that he was now in the process of making a map of the proposed route. He said that the route would be a straight line from New York to Los Angeles, and that it would be a very important one for the country. 1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the team.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete each task.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals and identifying any areas for improvement.

Public Service

extends to its many Friends and patrons its best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Department for Rahway submitted three separate reports as the members were unable to come to any agreement. In March the Council there was much discussion as to an agreement. Following the Board's recommendation the Council passed an ordinance requiring the funds of the Water Board to be handled by the city treasurer. In March the Council voted to purchase a motor fire engine and after much argument named the city treasurer as purchasing agent. In April the Council learned of the proposed pollution of the Rahway River by the emptying of the South Orange effluent therein. From that time until the close of the year the question of sewage disposal was much in evidence, engaging the attention of the Mayor, Council, City Attorney, Board of Health, Water Board and Sanitary Commission. It was finally decided to put through, if possible, a joint sewer and disposal plant for the various municipalities in the valley of the Rahway River and after many appearances before the State Board of Health and conferences with the municipalities affected plans for such were prepared and are now under consideration.

In May the Linden Water Company engaged the attention of Council and its proposal to take water from the Rahway River was vigorously opposed, but in November the State Board of Conservation and Development granted that company its request.

In July after a hot discussion the Council by a vote of six to four defeated an ordinance requiring the muffling of motor boats.

In December the building code of the city was declared void by Justice Byrnes in the Vanderhoven case, which had been pending four years.

In one of the last meetings of council the salary of the Street Commissioner was increased from $1,000 to $1,300. Police Desk Sergeant Gale was pensioned and Officer Smith promoted to the vacancy.

Water Board The Board of Water Commissioners organized in January with Mr. F. W. Langstroth as president. During the year the wages of certain employees were raised, certain improvements made in the mains and new boilers installed at the plant. At different times during the summer and early winter a bad taste developed in the water and after investigation by the Water Board officials and the State Department of Health the pollution was traced to chemicals which had been allowed to flow into the river miles above this city. Vigorous action was taken to try to check this contamination. Emergent measures were taken to oppose the application of the newly organized Linden Water Company to take water from the Rahway River. In December the Water Board entered into an agreement with the Elizabethtown Water Company whereby at the option of the former the latter could be supplied with water at $50 a million gallons.

Health Board The Board of Health had a busy year. In addition to active measures taken to exempt physicians to file birth certificates, and to compel sewer connections, where necessary, the Board took prompt and efficient action by quarantine and otherwise to prevent the spread of measles and infantile paralysis.

In accordance with its suggestion the Sunday schools and library were closed for a period and though several cases developed with some deaths the city was fortunate in not having to pay a heavier toll. In the summer time the Board ordered a house-to-house inspection by Special Officer Fred M. Williams to discover and remove unsanitary conditions.

School Affairs In the schools numerous changes occurred. William J. Bickett, superintendent for many years, resigned to accept a similar position at Bernardsville, and Solomon C. Strong left to accept a principalship at West Orange. To succeed Mr. Bickett, Mr. William F. Little of Batin High School, was chosen and Mr. F. J. Myers was promoted to the principalship vacated by Mr. Strong. Mr. Henry H. Jardine was re-elected president of the Board of Education in February.

The budget for the school year was

In December, Superintendent Little was formally introduced to the public as Superintendent of Schools. All dresses were made by State Commissioner of Education Calvin N. Kendall and others.

Fire Department

The Fire Department under Chief P. T. Malley had a busy year. In January three houses on New Brunswick avenue were destroyed. In June a fire threatened to damage seriously the plant of the Hydrax Company, but the flames were checked by the efficient work of the firemen. In July Walter Daly was burned at his home in Main street, as that he died later at the hospital. In August, the barn of August Schneider was struck by lightning and totally destroyed at an estimated loss of $10,000. In September a serious fire occurred in Main street, gutting the building of the Railway Cleaning Company.

In October, there were the most disastrous fires in years, the stores of James McCollum's and Gies Brothers being entirely wiped out and damage amounting to thousands of dollars being done the plant of the Egyptian Lumber Co. During the same month Zullo's bottling works on Bond street were destroyed by fire. In November a fire threatened to destroy the tenement house, familiarly known as Shotwell's folly, and in December a serious fire caused heavy loss to the property at Moore and Essex streets.

In October, for the first time, in fifteen years, the uptown firemen won the election for chief and assistant chiefs.

Busy Year for Police

The Police Department also had a busy year. Many burglaries were reported and a number of the thieves were caught. Early in the year Chief Ramsey took measures to enforce the ordinance regarding the removal of snow from sidewalks. Many prominent citizens were obliged to appear in police court and despite strong opposition were obliged to pay fines. After this campaign sidewalks were promptly cleaned after every snow storm. Twice during the year by clever work on the part of the police and local garage men a thief with stolen automobile was apprehended.

Shade Tree Commission

The Shade Tree Commission was confronted with a serious situation after the terrific storm in July, when many trees were uprooted, but they took prompt measures to remove them. In the fall a number of shade trees were set out.

Board of Trade

The Board of Trade under the able leadership of Mr. M. F. Quinn took up many matters. Perhaps the most important was the dredging of the Rahway River and, at this writing the Board has had one conference with representatives from other municipalities and is arranging for others. In February, an Americanization course was held with large attendance.

Civic Club Active

The Civic Club continued its Visiting Nurse for the third consecutive year. In March the Club gave an exhibition in the Rahway village of handicrafts, including, among others, which was due to the Rahway fair ever produced in Rahway. In the same month the club arranged for a collection of old newspapers, waste paper, etc., the proceeds to be devoted to the Riverside playground. A total of about $200 was raised thereby. Various card parties and meetings of dressed by prominent speakers were held during the year. In May, Mr. George E. Gallaway was elected president.

Matters of General Interest

The S. P. C. A. continued active and commendable work under the leadership of Miss Marie Richter its president.

In February, the Western Union Telegraph Company announced that it proposed to improve its service in Rahway so that it would be satisfactory in every respect.

Perhaps the movement of greatest civic importance that has taken place in Rahway during the past year has been that of arranging for the erection of a new Y. M. C. A. building. To construct the proper edifice will cost it $20,000. To the Rahway of a year or more ago such a sum would have seemed unthinkable and it would have been thought impossible to get all men to work together for such a purpose. The proposition, however, seems on the way to fulfillment—being practically assured by the magnificent gift of $10,000 by Mack & Company and the capable committee of representative citizens under the leadership of Mr. Edward K. Cose, chairman of the campaign for a new Y. M. C. A. building.

The post office shows large gains in receipts and is apparently rapidly approaching an office of the first class. In April a branch post office station was opened at Stuttsen's drug store Grand and Irving streets thus greatly benefitting upper Rahway.

In April two pastors left Rahway, Rev. J. E. Washburn going to Cranford and Rev. C. S. Kemble to Hetherford. To succeed them the Rev. J. W. Ryder and Rev. E. S. Crockett came to Rahway and were given a cordial reception by members of the First and Trinity Methodist churches. A reunion of the Fourth of July celebration was carried out by the Board of Trade. It was an elaborate but safe and sane celebration delightful to all.

In June the physicians of Rahway opened their private hospital by inviting the public to inspect the building with its twelve beds and modern equipment. Nearly 1,000 visitors attended.

In the fall the memorial fountain in Dr. Chas. B. Holmes at Central Square was dedicated.

During the year there were many accidents, so many that it is impossible to enumerate them in this space. The saddest was that in which Scoutmaster H. G. McKelvie and Boy Scout Thompson lost their lives by drowning in the Delaware River. By their deaths the whole city was plunged in grief.

Bright Outlook

It really seems as if new industries were coming to Rahway and vicinity and that the city was on the verge of the long-expected prosperity. The news that the steel works were to be reopened, that various new industries such as the manufacture of toys, willow furniture, steel office equipment were already in operation, or soon would be, gives ground for optimism and a feeling of satisfaction that the work of the Board of Trade is at last showing results.

In November the First Presbyterian church celebrated its 115th anniversary with impressive ceremony and through the upthrust efforts of its pastor L. V. Graham, Jr., succeeded in securing subscriptions from its parishioners and friends sufficient to pay off its entire outstanding debt of $4,000.

During the same month announcements were made that a new Trust Company had been organized with local business men as its chief stockholders, and that under the leadership of Mr. D. S. Joseph, of the Royal Manufacturing Company, as president, would be open for business early in 1917 at the corner of Irving and Cherry streets.

In November the Second Presbyterian church extended a unanimous call to the Rev. George E. Mott, D.D., of New York, N. Y., to succeed the Rev. Dr. W. W. Johnson whose pastorate expired January 2, 1917.

The year 1916 has passed into history. Rahway this city is an opportunity to advance and by making the effort on the part of the city to come into its own in 1917. The Y. M. C. A. committee will start its campaign in early 1917. The result of that campaign will show pretty conclusively whether Rahway will be a city of the future or a city of the past. It is the hope of the city that it will be a city of the future and that it will be a city of the future.

The Board of Trade has had one conference with representatives from other municipalities and is arranging for others. In February, an Americanization course was held with large attendance.

Rahway Review for 1916 Important City Events

happenings of General Interest in All Lines Condensed for Quick Perusal By Record Readers

Another year has passed. To the beneficial observer it may seem that Rahway has made little progress during the past twelve months, but to one who investigates carefully and thoroughly the impression will certainly come that the Rahway of the past, the bett and gibe of the jokster and rhymer—is beginning to awake and throw off its lethargy and is really beginning to move toward the position which its geographical location and natural advantages demand.

In order that our readers may better understand the happenings of the past year The Record submits a brief summary of some of the more important events of that period.

The council adopted a budget for 1916 appropriations amounting to $93, 701.13—about $1,100 less than in 1915, and included items for the City Nurse and July 4th celebration.

Early in January the committee of three appointed by Common Council to report as to the best form of Fire Department for Rahway submitted three separate reports as the members were unable to come to any agreement.

In Council there was much discussion as to no agreement. Following The Record's recommendation the Council passed an ordinance requiring the funds of the Water Board to be handled by the city treasurer.

In March the Council voted to purchase a motor fire engine and after much argument named the city treasurer as purchasing agent. In April the Council learned of the proposed pollution of the Rahway River by the emptying of the South Orange effluent therein. From that time until the close of the year the question of sewerage disposal was much in evidence, engaging the attention of the Mayor, Council, City Attorney, Board of Health, Water Board and Sanitary Commission. It was finally decided to put through, if possible, a joint sewer and disposal plant for the various municipalities in the valley of the Rahway River and after many appearances before the State Board of Health and conferences with the municipalities affected plans for such were prepared and are now under consideration.

In May the Linden Water Company engaged the attention of Council and its proposal to take water from the Rahway River was vigorously opposed, but in November the State Board of Conservation and Development granted that company its request.

In July after a hot discussion the Council by a vote of six to four defeated an ordinance requiring the muffling of motor boats.

In December the building code of the city was declared void by Justice Bergen in the Vanderhoven case, which had been pending four years.
In one of the last meetings of council the salary of the Street Commissioner was increased from $1,000 to $1,300, Police Desk Sergeant Gelas was pensioned and Officer Smith promoted to the vacancy.

Water Board
The Board of Water Commissioners organized in January with Mr. F. W.
Langstroth as president. During the year the wages of certain employees were raised, certain improvements made in the mains and new boilers installed at the plant. At different times during the summer and early winter a bad taste developed in the water and after investigation by the Water Board officials and the State Department of Health the pollution was traced to chemicals which had been allowed to flow into the river miles above this city. Vigorous action was taken to try to check this contamination. Energetic measures were taken to oppose the application of the newly organized Linden Water Company to take water from the Rahway River. In December the Water Board entered into an agreement with the Elizabethtown Water Company whereby at the option of the former the latter could be supplied with water at $50 a million gallons.

Health Board
The Board of Health had a busy year. In addition to active measures taken to compel physicians to file birth certificates, and to compel sewer connections where necessary, the Board took prompt and efficient action by quarantine and otherwise to prevent the spread of measles and infantile paralysis.

In accordance with its suggestion the Sunday schools and library were closed for a period and through several cases developed with some deaths the city was fortunate in not having to pay a heavier toll. In the summer time the Board ordered a house-to-house inspection by Special Officer Fred M. Williams to discover and remove unsanitary conditions.

School Affairs
In the schools numerous changes occurred. William J. Bickett, superintendent for many years, resigned to accept a similar position at Bernardsville, and Solomon C. Strong left to accept a principalship at West Orange.
To succeed Mr. Bickett, Mr. William F. Little of Baitin High School, was chosen and Mr. P. J. Myers was promoted to the principalship vacated by Mr. Strong. Mr. Henry H. Jardine was re-elected president of the Board of Education in February.

EMPLOYMENT OF PRISONERS

Right in line with the agitation now going on relative to the employment of prisoners in Union county in ways similar to those found successful in other counties in various states all over the Union are figures showing the success attained in Newcastle county, Delaware, obtained from H. C. and P. Cross, of Wilmington, formerly of this city, who he was here last week. Mr. Cross is superintendent of the Newcastle County Workhouse, which also embraces the State prison.

There are 105 inmates, including twenty-four life prisoners under his supervision. There is a farm of 150 acres at the institution and 335 acres two miles from the institution. Garden produce is raised on one of the farms while the other has just been devoted to the raising of stock and for dairy purposes.

Besides the employment of the prisoners on the farms a goodly number have been used by the Wilmington Gas Company in laying pipe, others have been used in laying trolley tracks and building bridges and fifteen to twenty-five men were sent twenty miles from the institution under a foreman to do road work. The earnings of the prisoners during the past year amounted to about $19,000. From the garden produce a profit of $5,000 was realized the past year and despite the fact that the stock and dairy farm was only put in operation in March $1,300 was cleared from this project and this amount should steadily increase as this branch of the work develops.

During the year $3,500 was distributed in bonuses among the prisoners to go to those at home dependent upon them or if they had no such dependents the money is held until their term of imprisonment is completed. To many of those who are held on non-support charges $50 went to their children at Christmas time as a result of their earnings. Prisoners have also been employed very profitably in quarry work and on various road construction.

An speaking of the employment of prisoners in a general way Mr. Cross emphatically declared that it is criminal to allow prisoners to remain in idleness during their term of imprisonment. Besides the economic value to the county he said the steady employment had a good moral effect and that it was invariably noticeable in all of the prisoners that they had improved in many ways while under intelligent supervision as inmates.

The jail committee of the Board of Prisoners has gone on record as favoring the project of employment of prisoners and the matter should not be allowed to rest at this point for any extended length of time. The most feasible plan for obtaining a farm, quarry, etc., which was so well covered by the report of the committee appointed by Judge Connolly, should be adopted by the County Board while there is good opportunity to secure placed with steadily light assessments in past years should be no reason for complaint now for they should be glad and willing to do their share toward advancing the interests of the city. Various vital matters in the different departments of municipal government were briefly touched upon by the Mayor in his message and his recommendations for attempting big things were comparatively few.

The reason for this undoubtedly appears in the early part of his message where he says: "The initial step toward a city's advancement is the making of improvements. Improvements cannot be made without money. Money is to be acquired only through taxation. Improvements born of taxation to be attractive must contain within themselves a form of taxation which prospective residents will find burdensome. The question is a most delicate one." Railway has suffered for a number of years from the mismanagement of certain officials years ago which burdened the city with considerable unnecessary expense and little or no provision for meeting it in later years. This tremendous task has been faced by each succeeding administration for a number of years. That they have used good judgment in most cases and that the indebtedness is steadily decreasing is to the credit of the officials who have served during the last few years.

The intention of Mayor Simmons evidently is to keep the machinery of municipal affairs running smoothly until such time as the city is able to take big steps in advance without overburdening the taxpayers. This idea is commendable.

To use the words of President of Council George M. Gage: "We have a few more strenuous years before us in which care and judgment must be exercised, but we can see a ray of light and in the near future the dawn of a new and brighter day for Railway will break upon us in all its glory and we can take more of the revenue which is derived from the people to improve and adorn and beautify our city and less of it to put in sinking funds to pay interest on bonds and retire them when due."

Whether or not we would have made any definite recommendations for actual steps to be taken in regard to other vital matters now before the city we would like to have heard Mayor Simmons express his opinion and ideas regarding some important problems now before the city, such as a definite street building and improvement program, the making navigable of the Rahway river, the establishment of different sewage disposal facilities in accordance with the aims of the State Board of Health, the adoption of a valid and adequate building code, the matter of school buildings, bearing in mind the statement of Superintendent Little that there are only twelve vacant seats in the schools of the city to take care of any increase in attendance, better city planning, etc.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Harmory and cooperation formed the basis of the annual document presented to the Common Council on New Year's Day by Mayor Harry Simmons, which appeared in full in The Record and was typical of his personality. It pulsed with exhortation to officials and citizens to work toward the welfare of the city.

It is typical of the Mayor who is a hard and enthusiastic worker for the good of the city and no one realizes the advantage of team work better than he and his ability to keep various visions pulling together and not in opposite directions during the past year was greatly to his credit. May he be even greater during the coming year.

The suggestion that state legislature be needed in order to fairly and equitably handle the matter of personal taxes is most timely and his comment on the subject of handling the matter of the state tax is most timely

PLAN MUCH ACTIVITY

Washington School Parent-Teacher Association a Busy Organization
A brisk session of the Parent-Teacher Association of Washington School was held last night at which plans were made for future activity. The resignation of Mrs. Howard D. Little as president of the organization was accepted with regret and Mrs. Robert Leonard was elected as her successor. Mrs. Clarence J. Cook was named chairman of an entertainment committee to make plans for an entertainment in the spring.
It was expected that the Rev. F. G. Merrill, pastor of the First Baptist church, would be present to make an address, but owing to illness he was unable to attend. Clarence J. He pointed out a number of good things that could be accomplished in this way. His idea was adopted and a committee to canvass the eastern section of the city was named, consisting of Mrs. Charles Klasek, Mrs. J. Friedman and Mrs. P. J. McCartney.
Mrs. William Tompkins was named chairman of the program committee, and Mrs. Frank Assman, Mrs. Joseph Polin and Mrs. Charles Ramona to look after refreshments.
