At last when they were alone in a corner of a room, she stood long and insistently under the mistletoe hanging from a curtain pole of the bay window.

Then, very nervously, he pecked her face. She, of course, protested mildly: but as they seated themselves once more, most respectably on a couple of chairs, she kept the conversation on mistletne

At length he ventured: "It is-era nice Christmas custom, hanging up mistletoe, but I wonder why they always hang it over doors, windows or chaudellers?" "Because it's not necessary to have

Ecuador. It was one hundred years ago that Ecuador liberated itself from Spanish rule. To commemorate the anniversary. Ecuador has issued a series with nineteen denominations-one centavo to one sucre-each bearing a portrait • of some man who won renown in Ecuador's history. The dates 1820 and 1920 are a part of the design. Greatly to the surprise of collectors, no 20centavo denomination appeared as part of the set, for Ecuador's sets for forty years have included one of that value. Inquiry brought the disclosure that 62,000 copies of a 20-centavo were printed, but the value description, veinte, meaning "twenty," was through an error spelled viente instead. The postal authorities destroyed the entire lot, and a 20-centavo will appear as soon as a new plate has been made.--Youth's Companion. Comment "Sarkastic.

F AMERICANS did not like selfmade men they would be in a coustant state of rebellion against the commandment which tells you to love your neighbor. One of the glories of this country is that it is the land of equal opportunities. Self-made men are the product of the equality of opportunity. America is full of such men.

If it were not for the possibilities which lie in the field of American opportunity few immigrants would care to come here and few American-born they add zest and variety to a meal.
