The Key to Better Business

Unlock the Door to Home Prosperity

Home Trade is the one Key that will fit the lock that holds fast the door opening into vaults guarding the treasure in which we may all share—Greater Home Prosperity.

Each man, woman and child in this vicinity is part guardian of this key—each holds within his own grasp a portion of a powerful tool, to do with it as he chooses.

By buying in Rahway to supply his needs, no matter how little or how big, he brings with him his share of this key, adding it to the portions which his neighbors have already brought, until, lo-the key is complete and we can unlock the vault door and let loose the golden stream of home prosperity in which all may share.

Start Suit in Court for Five

Charlotta, N. G. Claims to recover account of east Tennessee, and including the city of Chartanooga, has been filed by John M. Taylor, an attorney, who is a fullblood Cherokee Indian, before the Department of the Interior, for the Eastern immigrant Cherokees of Oklahoms and North Carolina, basing his claims upon ancient treaties and the code of North Carolina, relating to the Indiana, several thousand of whom are still domiciled in this state. The sulfs have been filed at Murphy, in Cherokee county, and in Tennessee.

In support of his claim the attorney has filed certified copies of various treaties negotiated with the Indians by the sinte of North Carolina. The claims are filed in behalf of Taylor and over 400 other "redskins." He
